

New South Wales

Combat Sports Amendment Bill 2024

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The object of this Bill is to amend the Combat Sports Act 2013 (the Act) and the Combat Sports Regulation 2014 for the purposes of implementing particular recommendations arising from the Combat Sports Authority of NSW's review of the Act, including to—

- (a) prescribe the circumstances in which a contest should be stopped or suspended for combatant health and safety, and
- (b) provide for mandatory training relating to the management of concussion and head injuries for industry participants, promoters, referees, combat sports inspectors and combatants, and
- (c) provide for the accreditation of attending medical practitioners to ensure attending medical practitioners have relevant qualifications, skills and experience including mandatory training relating to the management of concussion and head injuries, and
- (d) provide for the rules to mandate the medical equipment required to be available at combat sport contests, and
- (e) provide for improved management of pre-contest and post-contest medical examinations and medical suspensions, and
- (f) strengthen incentives for industry participants and combatants to self-report failed medical examinations and medical suspensions imposed in other jurisdictions, and
- (g) clarify the period for which serological certificates remain current, and
- (h) improve match-making requirements and processes and fight card provisions, and

- (i) update and simplify provisions relating to registration, including initial eligibility for registration and renewals, and enable the Combat Sports Authority to prescribe prerequisite skills and training, and
- (j) provide for the registration of amateur referees, judges and timekeepers, and
- (k) make particular information included on the registers of registered combatants, industry participants and promoters publicly available, and
- (l) strengthen penalties and offences, and
- (m) increase the maximum term for which Combat Sports Authority members may be appointed from 6 to 9 years, and
- (n) introduce other minor legislative changes to clarify requirements and obligations and reduce red tape and administrative burden relating to the regulation of combat sports in New South Wales.

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 sets out the name, also called the short title, of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

Schedule 1 Amendment of Combat Sports Act 2013 No 96

Schedule 1[1]–[3] amend section 4 to insert new definitions and omit definitions consequent on other amendments in Schedule 1. Schedule 1[97] relocates the definitions to a dictionary in the Act, Schedule 3.

Schedule 1[4] replaces section 5 to define amateur combat sport contest and professional combat sport contest.

Schedule 1[5] amends the definition of a manager consequent on amendments enabling corporations to be registered as managers under the Act.

Schedule 1[6] amalgamates the existing registration classes of trainer and second into a single class of trainer.

Schedule 1[7] inserts a new definition of close associate of applicants for registration as promoters or managers and for registered promoters or managers.

Schedule 1[8] replaces the definition of serological clearance, and provides that the regulations may prescribe the periods for which serological clearances are current and may be relied on for the purposes of the Act.

Schedule 1[9] inserts a new definition of certificate of fitness, and provides that the regulations may prescribe conditions that disqualify persons from being registered as combatants under the Act. The amendment also provides that a certificate of fitness is a current certificate of fitness and may be relied on for the purposes of the Act only for the period of 28 days after it is signed by the relevant medical practitioner.

Schedule 1[10], [16], [36] and [50] insert new offences for an approved amateur body to contravene a condition of the body's approval, for a combatant, industry participant or promoter to contravene a condition of their registration and for the holder of a permit to hold a combat sports contest to contravene a condition of the permit.

Schedule 1[11] and [25] replace sections 10 and 22 to introduce a new requirement for ministerial approval for determinations, by the Combat Sports Authority, of registration classes of combatants, industry participants and promoters.

Schedule 1[12] amends section 11 to require an application for registration as a combatant to be accompanied by the prescribed fee, if any. Schedule 1[13] makes a consequential amendment.

Schedule 1[14] amends section 13 to require the Combat Sports Authority to refuse the registration of a combatant in a class where an applicant's registration in another class has been suspended or where the Authority is of the opinion that it would be contrary to public interest to register the combatant.

Schedule 1[15], [35] and [49] amend sections 14, 27 and 42 to update terminology to refer to "standard conditions" that may be imposed by the regulations on the registration of all combatants, industry participants or promoters, a class of combatants, industry participants or promoters or on permits to hold a combat sports contest.

Schedule 1[18] inserts proposed section 15A, which enables the variation of a registration of a combatant to add a registration class. Schedule 1[17] makes a consequential amendment.

Schedule 1[19] replaces section 16 to enable the Combat Sports Authority to register former professional combatants in amateur classes where appropriate and enable the Authority to determine and publish guidelines concerning the circumstances in which that is appropriate.

Schedule 1[20] inserts proposed sections 16A–16G. The proposed sections provide for automatic suspensions of a combatant's registration in certain circumstances and requirements relating to the duration and notification of those suspensions.

Schedule 1[21] and [39] amend sections 17 and 29 to enable the regulations to make provision for the circumstances in which information on the register of combatants or the register of industry participants and promoters must be made publicly available or to particular persons.

Schedule 1[22] amends section 18 to enable the Combat Sports Authority to issue medical record books in electronic form.

Schedule 1[23] and [26]–[34] amend Part 2, Division 3 to enable the registration of corporations as industry participants and promoters. The amendments provide for an application to include details of any close associates of the applicant. The amendments also require the Combat Sports Authority, in determining the application, and the Commissioner of Police, in making a security determination, to consider both the applicant and any close associates.

Schedule 1[24] amends section 20 to remove acting as a match-maker for an amateur combat sport contest from the exemptions to the registration requirements of section 20.

Schedule 1[38] inserts proposed sections 28A–28D. Proposed section 28A enables the variation of a registration of an industry participant or promoter to add a registration class. Schedule 1[37] makes a consequential amendment. Proposed sections 28B–28D provide for the automatic suspension of an industry participant or promoter's registration in certain circumstances and for requirements relating to the duration and notification of those suspensions.

Schedule 1[40] amends section 30 to provide that the Combat Sports Authority may take disciplinary action if satisfied that it would be contrary to public interest for a person to remain registered as a combatant, industry participant or promoter.

Schedule 1[41] amends section 35 to clarify that, where the Combat Sports Authority imposes a registration pre-condition on a person whose registration has been cancelled, the person must meet the condition before becoming eligible to be registered again.

Schedule 1[42] replaces section 37 consequent on the amendments made by Schedule 1[18] and [38]. Proposed section 37 provides for the surrender of registration from 1 or more, or all, of the classes in which a registered combatant, industry participant or promoter is registered.

Schedule 1[43] inserts proposed Part 2A. The proposed part contains provisions relating to the accreditation of attending medical practitioners. Part 2A, Division 1 requires attending medical practitioners to be accredited by the Combat Sports Authority. An accreditation may be with or without conditions and the Combat Sports Authority is required to maintain a register of accredited medical practitioners. Part 2A, Division 2 contains provisions concerning disciplinary action against attending medical practitioners. Schedule 1[54], [57]–[59], [61] and [63] make amendments consequent on the insertion of Part 2A.

Schedule 1[44] amends section 38 to include in the scope of Part 3, Division 1 combat sports contests held over consecutive days at the same venue.

Schedule 1[45], [46], [52], [53], [55] and [56] make amendments consequent on the changes to enable corporations to be industry participants or promoters. The proposed changes enable corporations to apply for and hold permits to hold combat sports contests and provide for the applicable penalties in circumstances where a corporation contravenes the requirements the Act imposes on promoters.

Schedule 1[47] amends section 40 to require an application for a permit to hold a combat sports contest to be accompanied by the prescribed fee, if any. Schedule 1[48] makes a consequential amendment.

Schedule 1[51] replaces section 50 to provide for additional circumstances in which an unfit combatant is prohibited from engaging in contests or sparring and to require a combatant to provide the Combats Sports Authority with written notice of a medical practitioner's certification in certain circumstances.

Schedule 1[60] and [62] amend section 57 to provide for the attending medical practitioner to certify, in a pre-contest or post-contest medical examination, that a combatant must not engage in a contest or sparring until the combatant is cleared by a medical practitioner as fit.

Schedule 1[65] amends section 58 to require a pre-contest medical examination before a contest in circumstances where the combatant has previously engaged in a different contest on the same day. Schedule 1[64] makes a consequential amendment.

Schedule 1[66] amends section 58 to require a promoter of combat sport contest to, before permitting a combatant to engage in a contest, be satisfied a combatant has been examined by an attending medical practitioner who has sighted the combatant's medical book and certified the combatant is medically fit to engage in the contest. The amendment also provides for a penalty for corporate promoters.

Schedule 1[67] and [69] amend sections 59 and 62 to ensure consistency of language.

Schedule 1[70]–[76] amend Part 3, Division 4 concerning directions to not hold, to suspend, and to stop and end a combat sport contest. The proposed amendments provide for additional circumstances in which directions to prevent or stop and end a contest can be made where a combatant is at risk of injury or shows signs of head injury, where there is a disruption, or in circumstances prescribed by the regulations or specified in the rules. The amendments also provide for new duties to issue directions to suspend a contest where a combatant shows signs of head injury, where there is a disruption or in circumstances prescribed by the regulations or specified by the rules. The amendments also expand the circumstances in which a referee has a duty to stop and end a contest and imposes a duty for the referee to suspend a contest in certain circumstances. Schedule 1[68] makes a consequential amendment.

Schedule 1[77] amends section 71 to enable the Combat Sports Authority to make a health and safety prohibition order against a person if, in the Combat Sports Authority's opinion, it is in the interests of the health or safety of another person.

Schedule 1[78] amends section 74 to clarify that the Combat Sports Authority may make a general prohibition order to prohibit a person from attending premises at which a combat sport contest or weigh-in is being held on the day or days when the contest is to be held.

Schedule 1[79] amends the Act, section 77 consequent on other amendments in Schedule 1. The amendment provides for additional circumstances in which a person aggrieved of a decision may apply to the Civil and Administrative Tribunal for administrative review.

Schedule 1[81] inserts proposed sections 85A–85C. The proposed sections enable combat sports inspectors to enter premises with or without a warrant and provide for the powers exercisable upon entry to premises. Schedule 1[80] and [83] make consequential amendments.

Schedule 1[82] amends section 86 to provide that the Combat Sports Authority may require the provision of information relating to the approval of amateur bodies and accreditation of attending medical practitioners and the ongoing approval or accreditation of those bodies or practitioners.

Schedule 1[84] amends section 98 to provide for additional circumstances in which a certificate purportedly signed by the Combat Sports Authority is admissible in evidence in proceedings as evidence of the truth of the statement.

Schedule 1[85] and [86] amend section 100 to provide that a Public Service employee employed in the Office for Sport is a protected person for that section, to define done and liability for that section and to provide that where no personal liability attaches to a protected person, or a person acting under the direction of a protected person, liability instead attaches to the Crown.

Schedule 1[87] amends section 102 to enable the Combat Sports Authority to exempt persons ordinarily resident in New South Wales from the requirements of proposed sections 63A, 64A and 66A.

Schedule 1[88]–[93] amend sections 106 and 107 to enable the regulations and rules to make provision for the classification of combat sports, to increase the maximum penalty that an offence under the regulations may be punishable by, to enable the regulations to make provision for the ways in which fees or other charges may be processed and paid and to enable the rules to provide for medical examination of combatants, industry participants and related reporting requirements.

Schedule 1[94] inserts proposed section 109 to enable the Combat Sports Authority to approve forms for use under the Act.

Schedule 1[95] amends Schedule 1 to extend the total period a person may be appointed as a member of the Combat Sports Authority from 6 to 9 years.

Schedule 1[96] and [97] make amendments of a savings and transitional nature.

Schedule 2 Amendment of Combat Sports Regulation 2014

Schedule 2[1] inserts proposed clause 6A. The clause prescribes matters of which the Combat Sports Authority must be satisfied before registering a combatant for a registration class.

Schedule 2[2] and [3] amend clause 7 consequent on the amendment made by Schedule 1[15].

Schedule 2[4] and [5] amend clause 7 to prescribe standard conditions of a combatant's registration relating to certificates of fitness, serological clearances, disclosures of concussion and other head injuries and training relating to the management of concussion and other head injuries.

Schedule 2[6] inserts proposed clauses 7A and 7B. Clause 7A requires the Combat Sports Authority to include on the register of combatants information concerning the date up until which a combatant is eligible to engage in combat sports. Clause 7B enables the Combat Sports Authority to make certain information on the register of combatants publicly available.

Schedule 2[7]–[10] amend clause 9 to refer to registration status certificates, as defined, rather than clearances issued under that clause.

Schedule 2[11] inserts proposed clause 9A to provide for the timing of the ending of a medical suspension under the Act, section 16A as inserted by Schedule 1[20].

Schedule 2[12] inserts proposed Part 3A. The proposed part requires a combatant to notify the Combat Sports Authority of the refusal of a medical practitioner to issue a certificate of fitness, about the results of a directed examination and about the results of combat sport contests outside of New South Wales.

Schedule 2[13] replaces clause 18 to provide for matters the Combat Sports Authority must be satisfied of before registering an industry participant or promoter.

Schedule 2[14]–[18] and [22] amend clause 19 consequent on the amendments made by Schedule 1[26] and [35].

Schedule 2[19]–[21] and [23] amend clause 19 to prescribe standard conditions of an industry participant's or promoter's registration relating to training for the management of concussion and other head injuries, potential conflicts of interest and, for corporate managers or promoters, ongoing disclosure requirements relating to close associates. Schedule 2[24] consequentially inserts a definition of relevant officer.

Schedule 2[25] inserts proposed clause 19A to enable the Combat Sports Authority to make certain information on the register of industry participants and promoters publicly available.

Schedule 2[27] amends clause 20 consequent on the amendment made by Schedule 1[39]. Schedule 2[26] makes a further consequential amendment.

Schedule 2[28] amends clause 21 to enable the Combat Sports Authority to take disciplinary action against a registered combatant, industry participant or promoter convicted of drug manufacturing.

Schedule 2[29] inserts proposed Part 6A in relation to the Act, proposed Part 2A, inserted by Schedule 1[43]. Part 6A provides for the information and documentation required for an application to be an accredited medical practitioner, the determination of those applications, the imposition of conditions on an accreditation and matters relating to the register of accredited medical practitioners.

Schedule 2[30] and [31] amend clause 22 consequent to the amendment made by Schedule 1[47].

Schedule 2[32] inserts proposed clause 22A to require the holder of a permit to hold a combat sport contest to pay an additional fee if the number of tickets issued for the contest exceeds the number of tickets on which the fee for the application for the permit was based.

Schedule 2[33] and [38] amend clause 23 to impose standard conditions on promoters of combat sport contests relating to the engagement of an accredited medical practitioner for the contest and the lodging of fight cards for a contest with the Combat Sports Authority. Schedule 2[36] also amends clause 23 to impose a standard condition that precludes an individual from being listed as a combatant on a fight card in a contest in which the individual has acted as match-maker.

Schedule 2[34], [35], [37], [55], [56] and [60] amend clauses 23, 38–41 and 45 to ensure consistency of language.

Schedule 2[39] amends clause 24 to impose conditions on permits for amateur combat sport contests relating to promotional materials for those contests.

Schedule 2[40] inserts proposed Part 7A in relation to requirements for combatants to be included on fight cards for a contest, including in relation to amateur eliminator contests, as defined in proposed clause 24A(3).

Schedule 2[41] inserts proposed clause 24B to enable a combat sport inspector to direct that a combat sport contest is not to be held unless a weigh-in is conducted.

Schedule 2[43] amends clause 25 to require a promoter of an amateur combat sport contest to ensure that a representative of the relevant approved amateur body attends the weigh-in for the contest.

Schedule 2[44], [46], [47], [50], [51], [54], [58], [66] and [68]–[74] amend penalty provisions to provide for applicable penalties for corporate offenders consequent on the amendments made by Schedule 1.

Schedule 2[45] amends clause 27 to require weigh-in scales to meet the specifications specified in the rules.

Schedule 2[48] amends clause 30 to require an approved amateur body to record the weight of each combatant in a contest, taken at the weigh-in, in the combatant's medical record book. Schedule 2[42] makes a consequential amendment.

Schedule 2[49] amends clause 31 consequent on the amendments made by Schedule 1.

Schedule 2[52] replaces clauses 33 and 34 to prescribe requirements relating to pre-contest and post-contest medical examinations of combatants.

Schedule 2[53] amends clause 36 to prescribe certain information concerning medical suspensions must be recorded in the register of combatants.

Schedule 2[57] amends clause 40 to require combatants and promoters to comply with any direction of a combat sport inspector relating to the wearing of protective clothing or equipment.

Schedule 2[59] inserts proposed clause 41A in relation to the duties of a promoter of a combat sports contest in relation to medical equipment, medical supplies, drugs and medications required to be present at the contest. Schedule 2[63] inserts proposed clause 46A in relation to the functions of attending medical practitioners in relation to the equipment, supplies, drugs and medications.

Schedule 2[62] amends clause 46 to increase the time before a weigh-in before which the Authority must be provided with a combatant's current serological clearance from 1 hour to 5 days. Schedule 2[61] makes a consequential amendment.

Schedule 2[64] amends clause 47 to provide that a function of an approved amateur body at an amateur combat sport contest is to ensure the contest is held in accordance with the approved sports rules for the contest.

Schedule 2[67] inserts proposed clauses 50A and 50B. Clause 50A requires the promoter of a combat sport contest to ensure an attending medical practitioner attends and is present for the whole of the contest. Clause 50B requires the promoter of an amateur combat sport contest to ensure that a representative of the relevant approved amateur body attends and is present for the whole of the contest. Schedule 2[65] makes a consequential amendment.

Schedule 2[75] replaces provisions concerning exemptions from registration requirements. Clauses 59 and 60 provide for certain exemptions for combatants and industry participants.

Schedule 2[76] amends clause 63 to prescribe the period during which a serological clearance can be relied on for the Act, section 7, as inserted by Schedule 1.

Schedule 2[77] and [78] amend Schedule 2 to update penalty notice offences and the associated penalties consequent on the amendments made by Schedules 1 and 2, including to provide for applicable penalties for corporate offenders.

Schedule 2[79] and [80] amend Schedule 3 consequent on amendments made by Schedules 1 and 2 concerning fees.

16A	Automatic suspension of registration—medical suspensions	9
(1)	A person's registration as a combatant is automatically suspended in the following circumstances—	10 11
(a)	the person loses a combat sport contest by knockout under the sports rules for the combat sport involved in the contest,	12 13
(b)	the person becomes the subject of an automatic or other suspension on the basis of a medical suspension certification by an authority responsible for the regulation and administration of combat sports in another jurisdiction,	14 15 16 17
(c)	the person becomes the subject of a medical suspension certification by a medical practitioner in New South Wales,	18 19
(d)	the person becomes the subject of a medical suspension certification by a medical practitioner in another jurisdiction.	20 21
(2)	In this Act, the suspension of a person's registration under this section is a medical suspension .	22 23
(3)	The suspension of the person's registration as a combatant under this section applies to each registration class of combatant in which the person is registered.	24 25 26
(4)	In this section—	27
	knockout —	28
(a)	includes a technical knockout if the person who calls for the contest to be stopped (the caller) does so—	29 30
(i)	on the basis that the caller observed a category 1 head injury sign in a combatant, or	31 32
(ii)	under a direction by another person who observed a category 1 head injury sign in a combatant, but	33 34
(b)	does not include a tap out or submission.	35
	medical suspension certification means a certification by a medical practitioner on any of the following terms—	36 37
(a)	that, in the medical practitioner's opinion, the person is not medically fit to engage in a combat sport contest or sparring,	38 39
(b)	that the person must not engage in any combat sport contest or sparring until the person has been examined and cleared by a medical practitioner as being fit to engage in combat sport,	40 41 42
(c)	that the person must not engage in any combat sport contest or sparring before a specified date,	43 44
(d)	that the person must not engage in any combat sport contest or sparring before a specified date unless the person has been examined and cleared by a medical practitioner as being fit to engage in combat sport.	45 46 47

16B	Automatic suspension of registration—safety training conditions	1
	A person’s registration as a combatant is automatically suspended if the person does not comply with a safety training condition of the person’s registration.	2 3
16C	Duration of automatic suspensions	4
(1)	The medical suspension of a person’s registration starts—	5
(a)	for a medical suspension under section 16A(1)(a)—as soon as the knockout occurs, or	6 7
(b)	for a medical suspension under section 16A(1)(b)—when the automatic or other suspension started, or	8 9
(c)	for a medical suspension under section 16A(1)(c) or (d)—when the person is notified of the medical suspension.	10 11
(2)	The medical suspension of a person’s registration ends—	12
(a)	for a medical suspension under section 16A(1)(a)—in accordance with the regulations, or	13 14
(b)	for a medical suspension relating to a certification that the person is not medically fit to engage in a combat sport contest or sparring—on the day a medical practitioner subsequently certifies that the person is medically fit to engage in a contest or sparring, or	15 16 17 18
(c)	for a medical suspension under section 16A(1)(b)—on the day the automatic or other suspension ends, or	19 20
(d)	for a medical suspension relating to a certification that the person must not engage in any combat sport contest or sparring until the person has been examined and cleared by a medical practitioner as being fit to engage in combat sport—on the day the person is examined and cleared by a medical practitioner as being fit to engage in combat sport, or	21 22 23 24 25
(e)	for a medical suspension relating to a certification that the person must not engage in any combat sport contest or sparring before a specified date—on the specified date, or	26 27 28
(f)	for a medical suspension relating to a certification that the person must not engage in any combat sport contest or sparring before a specified date unless the person has been examined and cleared by a medical practitioner as being fit to engage in combat sport—on the earlier of the specified date or the day the person is examined and cleared by a medical practitioner as being fit to engage in combat sport.	29 30 31 32 33 34
(3)	The automatic suspension of a person’s registration under section 16B—	35
(a)	starts at the end of the day on which the person was due to comply with the safety training condition, and	36 37
(b)	ends at the end of the day on which person complies with the safety training condition as stated in the notice given under section 16G(2).	38 39
16D	Authority must notify combatants of particular medical suspensions	40
(1)	As soon as reasonably practicable after becoming aware that a combatant is the subject of a medical suspension imposed as a result of a certification given by a medical practitioner under Part 3, the Authority must give the combatant written notice of the combatant’s medical suspension.	41 42 43 44
(2)	The notice must state the following—	45
(a)	the combatant’s name,	46

(b)	that the person’s registration as a combatant is automatically suspended under the Act, section 16A,	1 2
(c)	for a medical suspension under section 16A(1)(a)—the details of the contest in which the combatant was knocked out,	3 4
(d)	for a medical suspension under section 16A(1)(c)—the details of the medical suspension certification,	5 6
(e)	when the medical suspension started and will end.	7
16E	Combatant must notify Authority of particular medical suspensions	8
(1)	This section applies to a combatant who becomes the subject of a medical suspension other than a medical suspension imposed as a result of a certification given by a medical practitioner under Part 3.	9 10 11
(2)	The combatant must give the Authority notice of the medical suspension as soon as reasonably practicable after becoming aware of the medical suspension. Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.	12 13 14 15
(3)	The notice must—	16
(a)	state the combatant’s name, and	17
(b)	state that the combatant is the subject of a medical suspension, and	18
(c)	state the day on which the combatant became aware of the medical suspension, and	19 20
(d)	for a medical suspension referred to in section 16A(1)(b)–(d)—	21
(i)	state the name and contact details of the authority or medical practitioner, and	22 23
(ii)	state the terms of the medical suspension, and	24
(iii)	be accompanied by a copy of the medical suspension certification.	25 26
16F	Combatant must notify Authority of end of particular medical suspensions	27
(1)	This section applies if the notice of a combatant’s medical suspension given under section 16D or 16E does not specify a date on which the medical suspension ends.	28 29 30
(2)	The combatant must give the Authority written notice of the end of the combatant’s medical suspension as soon as practicable after the medical suspension ends.	31 32 33
(3)	The notice must include the following information—	34
(a)	the combatant’s name,	35
(b)	the day on which the medical suspension ended,	36
(c)	details of the medical suspension to which the notice relates, including the conditions that were required to be met for the medical suspension to end,	37 38 39
(d)	a copy of any certification by a medical practitioner required to end the medical suspension.	40 41

16G Authority must notify combatants of automatic suspension—safety training conditions	1 2
(1) As soon as reasonably practicable after becoming aware of the automatic suspension of a person’s registration under section 16B, the Authority must give the person written notice of the suspension.	3 4 5
(2) As soon as reasonably practicable after becoming aware that a person has complied with the safety training condition to which the automatic suspension relates, the Authority must give the person written notice of the end of the suspension.	6 7 8 9
(3) A notice given under this section must state the following—	10
(a) the person’s name and combatant registration number,	11
(b) the safety training condition to which the suspension relates,	12
(c) that the person’s registration as a combatant is, or was, automatically suspended under the Act, section 16B,	13 14
(d) the day on which the suspension started,	15
(e) for a notice under subsection (1)—that the suspension will end at the end of the day on which the person complies with the safety training condition,	16 17 18
(f) for a notice under subsection (2)—the day on which the person complied with the safety training condition.	19 20

Part 2A Accreditation of attending medical practitioners	1
Division 1 Accreditation of attending medical practitioners	2
37A Attending medical practitioners must be accredited	3
(1) A person must not carry out an activity as, or exercise a function of, an attending medical practitioner unless the person is accredited as an attending medical practitioner by the Authority.	4
Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.	6
(2) A promoter for a combat sport contest must not engage a person to be present, in the capacity of an attending medical practitioner, at a weigh-in for the contest or at the contest unless the person is accredited as an attending medical practitioner by the Authority.	8
Maximum penalty—	9
(a) for an individual—500 penalty units, or	10
(b) otherwise—1000 penalty units.	11
37B Applications for accreditation as attending medical practitioner	12
(1) A medical practitioner may apply to the Authority for accreditation as an attending medical practitioner.	13
(2) An application must—	14
(a) be in the approved form, and	15
(b) be accompanied by the fee, if any, payable for the application as prescribed by the regulations, and	16
(c) be accompanied by—	17
(i) evidence of the medical practitioner’s current registration with the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency as a medical practitioner, and	18
(ii) evidence that the medical practitioner holds current medical indemnity insurance of an appropriate level to cover a combat sport contest, and	19
(iii) evidence that the medical practitioner holds any other qualification, or has successfully completed any training or course of education, required by the Authority for accreditation, and	20
(iv) any other document or information prescribed by the regulations or required by the Authority for the application.	21
37C Deciding application	22
(1) The Authority may accredit a medical practitioner as an attending medical practitioner if the Authority is satisfied of the following—	23
(a) that the application is made in accordance with this division,	24
(b) any other matter prescribed by the regulations.	25
(2) The Authority must refuse to accredit a medical practitioner as an attending medical practitioner—	26
(a) if the Authority is not satisfied of the matters specified in subsection (1), or	27
(b) in any other circumstances prescribed by the regulations.	28

(3)	Subsection (2) does not limit the grounds on which the Authority may refuse to accredit a medical practitioner as an attending medical practitioner.	1 2
(4)	The Authority is not required to decide an application for accreditation as an attending medical practitioner if—	3 4
(a)	the Authority is not satisfied as to the identity of the applicant, or	5
(b)	the applicant fails, without reasonable excuse, to provide any relevant document or information requested by the Authority.	6 7
37D	Conditions of accreditation	8
(1)	The Authority may, on the accreditation of an attending medical practitioner or at any later time, impose conditions on the accreditation.	9 10
(2)	The regulations may impose standard conditions on the accreditation of attending medical practitioners.	11 12
(3)	The Authority may, at any time, revoke a condition or vary a condition on the accreditation of an attending medical practitioner, other than a standard condition imposed by the regulations.	13 14 15
(4)	This section does not limit any other power of the Authority under this Act to impose conditions on accreditation.	16 17
(5)	A person must comply with any conditions imposed on the person's accreditation. Maximum penalty for subsection (5)—50 penalty units.	18 19 20
37E	Register of attending medical practitioners	21
(1)	The Authority must keep a register of attending medical practitioners.	22
(2)	The register must include the following details for each person accredited as an attending medical practitioner—	23 24
(a)	the person's name and date of birth,	25
(b)	the person's home address and business address,	26
(c)	the person's telephone number or email,	27
(d)	the person's Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency registration number,	28 29
(e)	details of any conditions to which the person's accreditation is subject,	30
(f)	details of any suspension or cancellation of the person's accreditation, including any conditions or pre-accreditation conditions imposed,	31 32
(g)	any other information prescribed by the regulations.	33
(3)	The Authority may determine the way in which the register is maintained.	34
(4)	The Authority must ensure that information included on the register is accurate and up to date.	35 36
(5)	The regulations may make provision for or with respect to—	37
(a)	the information included on the register that may be made publicly available, and	38 39
(b)	the circumstances in which information included on the register must be made available to particular persons.	40 41

Division 2	Disciplinary and other provisions	1
37F	Grounds for disciplinary action	2
	The Authority may take disciplinary action against an attending medical practitioner on any of the following grounds—	3 4
	(a) the attending medical practitioner is no longer a medical practitioner or the attending medical practitioner’s registration with the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency as a medical practitioner is suspended,	5 6 7 8
	(b) the Authority considers the attending medical practitioner is not satisfactorily exercising, or cannot satisfactorily exercise, the functions of an attending medical practitioner,	9 10 11
	(c) the attending medical practitioner has contravened, or the Authority has reasonable ground to believe the attending medical practitioner is likely to contravene, a provision of this Act, the regulations or the rules,	12 13 14
	(d) the attending medical practitioner has contravened a law of another jurisdiction and the contravention would, if it had occurred in New South Wales, be a contravention of this Act, the regulations or the rules,	15 16 17
	(e) the attending medical practitioner has not complied with, or the Authority has reasonable ground to believe the attending medical practitioner is likely to not comply with, a condition of the attending medical practitioner’s accreditation,	18 19 20 21
	(f) the attending medical practitioner no longer holds current medical indemnity insurance of an appropriate level to cover a combat sport contest,	22 23 24
	(g) any other ground prescribed by the regulations.	25
37G	Notice to show cause why disciplinary action should not be taken	26
(1)	If the Authority believes a ground to take disciplinary action against an attending medical practitioner exists, the Authority must give the attending medical practitioner written notice (a show cause notice) that states the following—	27 28 29 30
	(a) the attending medical practitioner’s name,	31
	(b) the disciplinary action the Authority proposes taking (the proposed action),	32 33
	(b) details of the accreditation to which the proposed action relates,	34
	(c) details of the ground for the proposed action,	35
	(d) if the proposed action is a suspension of the attending medical practitioner’s accreditation—the proposed period of the suspension,	36 37
	(e) that the attending medical practitioner may make written submissions to the Authority, within a stated period of not less than 14 days after the show cause notice is given to the attending medical practitioner (the submission period), about why the proposed action should not be taken,	38 39 40 41
	(f) the date and time of a meeting of the Authority at which the attending medical practitioner may also attend and respond to the show cause notice,	42 43 44
	(g) that the attending medical practitioner may be represented at the meeting by a legal representative or other person,	45 46
	(h) that it is an offence to give false or misleading information in response to the show cause notice.	47 48

- (2) The Authority must ensure the show cause notice does not, in stating the ground on which disciplinary action is proposed to be taken or otherwise, disclose the existence or content of any criminal intelligence report or other criminal information without the approval of the Commissioner of Police. 1
2
3
4
- (3) The attending medical practitioner may respond to the notice— 5
(a) in writing to the Authority, or 6
(b) at the meeting of the Authority stated in the notice, or 7
(c) in both ways. 8
- (4) After the end of the submission period, the Authority must decide whether or not to take disciplinary action against the attending medical practitioner. 9 10
- (5) In deciding whether to take disciplinary action, the Authority must consider any response given by the attending medical practitioner to the show cause notice— 11
12
13
(a) within the submission period, or 14
(b) at the meeting of the Authority stated in the notice. 15
- 37H Suspension during show cause process 16
- (1) The Authority may, by written notice to an attending medical practitioner given a show cause notice under section 37G, suspend the person’s accreditation as an attending medical practitioner until the Authority decides whether or not to take disciplinary action against the person under this division. 17 18
19
20
21
- (2) The notice must state— 22
(a) the date on which the suspension of the person’s accreditation as an attending medical practitioner starts, and 23
24
(b) that the person’s registration as an attending medical practitioner is suspended until the Authority decides whether or not to take disciplinary action against the person under this division. 25
26
27
- 37I Disciplinary action may be taken 28
- (1) The Authority may take disciplinary action against the attending medical practitioner if the Authority is satisfied— 29 30
(a) there are grounds for taking the disciplinary action, and 31
(b) after considering any responses referred to in section 37G(5), the attending medical practitioner has not shown sufficient reasons why disciplinary action should not be taken. 32
33
34
- (2) The following actions are disciplinary actions the Authority may take— 35
(a) cancellation of the attending medical practitioner’s accreditation, 36
(b) suspension of the attending medical practitioner’s accreditation, 37
(c) imposition or variation of a condition on the attending medical practitioner’s accreditation, 38
39
(d) the giving of a written warning to the attending medical practitioner. 40
- (3) The Authority may take disciplinary action against the attending medical practitioner whether or not the attending medical practitioner has been convicted of an offence against this Act, the regulations or any other law. 41 42
43
- (4) The Authority is not limited to taking the disciplinary action stated in the show cause notice. 44
45

(5)	The Authority must give the attending medical practitioner written notice of the Authority's decision.	1 2
(6)	The notice must include the following details—	3
(a)	the attending medical practitioner's name,	4
(b)	if disciplinary action is taken against the attending medical practitioner—	5 6
(i)	details of the disciplinary action taken, and	7
(ii)	details of the ground on which the disciplinary action is being taken,	8 9
