Independent Commission Against Corruption Amendment Bill 2024

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The object of this Bill is to amend the Independent Commission Against Corruption Act 1988 to—

- (a) allow certain information disclosed under the Act to be further disclosed by the recipient in particular circumstances, and
- (b) provide that the Commission must give a copy of a corruption prevention recommendation made about a public authority to the relevant public authority and relevant Minister.

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 sets out the name, also called the short title, of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act on the date of assent to the proposed Act.

Schedule 1 Amendment of Independent Commission Against Corruption Act 1988 No 35

Schedule 1[1] and [2] amend the Independent Commission Against Corruption Act 1988 to provide that a direction under section 111(4)(c) may allow information disclosed under that paragraph to be recorded or further disclosed by the recipient.

Schedule 1[5] amends section 111E to provide that, as soon as practicable after making a corruption prevention recommendation under section 13(3)(b), the Commission must give a copy of the recommendation to the relevant public authority or official and, for a recommendation in relation to a public authority, the Minister for the public authority. Schedule 1[6] inserts a definition for the section. Schedule 1[3] and [4] make consequential amendments.
