The Legislature of New South Wales enacts—

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Industrial Relations and Other Legislation Amendment (Workplace Protections) Act 2025.

2 Commencement

This Act commences as follows—

- (a) for Schedule 1[1], [3], [6], [9], [22], [23], [29]–[31], [39] and [41] and Schedule 3—on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation,
- (b) otherwise—on the date of assent to this Act.

Schedule 1      Amendment of Industrial Relations Act 1996 No 17

[1]    Section 3 Objects

Omit section 3(f). Insert instead—

- (f) to prevent and eliminate discrimination, bullying and sexual harassment in the workplace,
- (f1) to achieve gender equality in the workplace, and in particular—
  - (i) to ensure equal remuneration for men and women doing work of equal or comparable value, and
  - (ii) to eliminate gender-based undervaluation of work,

[2]    Section 6 Definition of industrial matters

Insert after section 6(2)(e)—

- (e1) the return to work for employees who have received a workplace injury,

[3]    Section 129M Meaning of “good faith” in mutual gains bargaining

Insert after section 129M(1)(b)—

- (b1) without limiting paragraph (b), providing other parties, as soon as practicable, with relevant information about gender equality in the workplace for the employees concerned necessary to enable the other parties to make informed contributions to negotiations,

[4]    Section 129P Provisions applying if mutual gains bargaining unresolved

Omit section 129P(1)(b). Insert instead—

- (b) one or both of the parties, whether or not the services of a facilitator have been used.

[5]    Section 134 Conciliation of dispute

Omit section 134(2) and (2A). Insert instead—

(2)    Recommendations or directions

During conciliation proceedings, the Commission may make a recommendation or give a direction to the parties to the industrial dispute.

- (2A) The Commission may make the recommendation or give the direction regardless of whether a party to the industrial dispute consents or agrees with the making of the recommendation or the giving of the direction.
- (2B) A party’s failure to comply with a recommendation or direction may not be penalised but may be taken into account by the Commission in exercising the Commission’s functions under this Act.
- (2C) A party that does not comply with a recommendation or direction must, in the time determined by the Commission, give written reasons to the Commission for not complying.
- (2D) Without limiting subsection (2), the Commission may make a recommendation to the parties to undertake mutual gains bargaining under Chapter 2A.

[6]    Section 134(4)(c)

Omit the paragraph. Insert instead—

- (c) disclosed relevant information for the purposes of negotiation, including information about gender equality in the workplace for the employees concerned necessary to enable the other parties to make informed contributions to negotiations.

Omit section 136(1)(d). Insert instead—

- (d) make an order or determination with prospective application, whether on an interim or final basis, including an order or determination about the interpretation or application of an industrial instrument for the purposes of resolving the dispute,
- (e) make another kind of order it is authorised to make, including on an interim basis.

[8] Section 136A

Insert after section 136—

136A Civil penalty for breach of final order

A person to whom an order or determination made by the Commission on a final basis under section 136(1)(d) applies must not contravene the order or determination.

Maximum civil penalty—$25,000.

[9] Chapter 3A

Insert after Chapter 3—

Chapter 3A Bullying and sexual harassment

Part 1 Stop bullying at work

144A Definitions

In this part—

employee—

- (a) includes a worker within the meaning of the Work Health and Safety Act 2011, and
- (b) does not include a worker who may apply to the Fair Work Commission for an order under the Fair Work Act 2009 of the Commonwealth, section 789FC.

stop bullying order means an order made under section 144G.

144B Application of part

This part does not limit another order that a person may seek from the Commission under this Act unless otherwise specified by this Act.

144C Definition of bullied at work

- (1) For this part, an employee is bullied at work if, while the employee is at work—
  - (a) an individual, or group of individuals, repeatedly behaves unreasonably towards—

- (i) the employee, or
  - (ii) a group of employees of which the employee is a member, and
- (b) the behaviour creates a risk to health and safety.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to reasonable management action carried out in a reasonable way.

144D Application for stop bullying orders

- (1) The following persons may apply to the Commission for a stop bullying order—
  - (a) an employee who reasonably believes the employee has been bullied at work,
  - (b) an industrial organisation on behalf of the employee.
- (2) The industrial organisation may make one application on behalf of a number of employees who were bullied at work in related circumstances.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not prevent the Commission from hearing a number of applications under this part together or individually.

144E Conciliation of applications

The Commission must endeavour, by all means the Commission considers proper and necessary, to settle the application by conciliation.

144F Arbitration where conciliation unsuccessful

- (1) When, in the opinion of the Commission, all reasonable attempts to settle the application by conciliation have been made but have been unsuccessful, the Commission must determine the application by making—
  - (a) a stop bullying order, or
  - (b) an order dismissing the application.
- (2) Nothing in this section prevents further conciliation from being attempted before the Commission makes an order.

144G Stop bullying orders

- (1) The Commission may make any order it considers appropriate to prevent an employee from being bullied at work by the individual or group if the Commission is satisfied that—
  - (a) the employee has been bullied at work, and
  - (b) there is a risk that the employee will continue to be bullied at work.
- (2) The order may apply to the following—
  - (a) the individual or one or more individuals in the group,
  - (b) the employee's employer,
  - (c) a person conducting a business or undertaking if the bullying occurs in connection with the business or undertaking.
- (3) Without limiting the kinds of orders made under subsection (1), the Commission may order one or more of the following—
  - (a) the payment of damages to the employee as compensation for loss or damage suffered from the bullying,
  - (b) a prohibition on continuing or repeating the bullying,

- (c) the performance of reasonable actions or a course of conduct to be carried out to redress loss or damage suffered by the employee,
  - (d) the publication of an apology or retraction,
  - (e) the development and implementation of a program or policy aimed at eliminating bullying.
- (4) The Commission must not order a payment of damages of more than $100,000 for an employee.
- (5) In determining the terms of the order, the Commission must take into account all of the following—
  - (a) other grievance or dispute procedures available to the employee that the Commission is aware of,
  - (b) outcomes, whether interim or final, the Commission is aware of from other—
    - (i) investigations into the conduct the subject of the application, or
    - (ii) grievance or dispute procedures carried out in response to the conduct the subject of the application,
  - (c) other matters the Commission considers relevant.

144H Contravention of stop bullying order

A person to whom a stop bullying order applies must not contravene a term of the order.

Maximum civil penalty—

- (a) for an individual—$18,870, or
- (b) otherwise—$93,900.

144I Multiple actions under anti-discrimination laws not permitted

- (1) A person must not apply for a stop bullying order if—
  - (a) the person has commenced proceedings or made an application or complaint in relation to the same conduct under an anti-discrimination law, and
  - (b) the proceedings, application or complaint has not been withdrawn or failed for want of jurisdiction.
- (2) A person must not recover compensation under a stop bullying order if the person has received compensation for the matter under an anti-discrimination law.

144J Actions under work health and safety laws permitted

The Work Health and Safety Act 2011, section 115 does not apply in relation to an application for a stop bullying order.

Note— This section allows a person to apply for a stop bullying order and also commence a proceeding or make an application in relation to the same conduct under WHS laws.

Part 2 Prohibition on sexual harassment in connection with work

Division 1 Preliminary

144K Definitions

In this part—

aggrieved person—see section 144P(1)(a).

employee—

- (a) includes a worker within the meaning of the Work Health and Safety Act 2011, and
- (b) does not include a national system employee within the meaning of the Fair Work Act 2009 of the Commonwealth.

person conducting a business or undertaking does not include a person who is a national system employer within the meaning of the Fair Work Act 2009 of the Commonwealth.

sexual harassment order means an order made under section 144T.

144L Definition of sexual harassment

- (1) In this part, sexual harassment has the same meaning as in the Anti-Discrimination Act 1977, section 22A.

Note—The meaning in the Anti-Discrimination Act 1977, section 22A is as follows—

A person sexually harasses another person if—

- (a) the person makes an unwelcome sexual advance, or an unwelcome request for sexual favours, to the other person, or
- (b) the person engages in other unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature in relation to the other person, and the conduct, advance or request occurs in circumstances in which a reasonable person, having regard to all the circumstances, would have anticipated that the other person would be offended, humiliated or intimidated.

- (2) For subsection (1), the circumstances to be taken into account include, but are not limited to, the following—
  - (a) the sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, intersex status, marital or relationship status, religious belief, race, colour or national or ethnic origin of the other person,
  - (b) the relationship between the other person and the person who made the advance or request or who engaged in the conduct,
  - (c) a disability, if any, of the other person,
  - (d) another relevant circumstance.

144M Application of part

This part does not limit another order a person may seek from the Commission under this Act unless otherwise specified by this Act.

Division 2 Prohibition on sexual harassment

144N Prohibition on sexual harassment in connection with work

A person must not sexually harass another person (the protected person) in connection with the protected person being—

- (a) an employee, or

- (b) a prospective employee, or
- (c) a person conducting a business or undertaking.

Example— A visitor to a small business sexually harasses an employee of the business and the owner of the business (each a protected person). The visitor contravenes this section because the visitor has harassed the protected persons in connection with the protected person being either an employee or a person conducting a business.

Maximum civil penalty—

- (a) for an individual—$18,870, or
- (b) otherwise—$93,900.

Note— An application for a civil penalty order for an alleged contravention of this section must not be made unless a sexual harassment order has been made. See section 400E(2).

144O Vicarious liability

- (1) A person contravenes section 144N if—
  - (a) an employee or agent of the person does an act that contravenes section 144N, and
  - (b) the act is in connection with the employment of the employee or the duties of the agent as an agent.
- (2) For a person who has contravened section 144N by operation of this section, this Act applies in relation to the person as if the person had also done the act.
- (3) This section does not apply if the person proves that the person took all reasonable steps to prevent the employee or agent from doing acts that would contravene section 144N.

Division 3 Applications in response to alleged sexual harassment

144P Application for Commission to deal with sexual harassment in connection to work

- (1) The following persons may apply for a sexual harassment order—
  - (a) a person (an aggrieved person) who alleges the aggrieved person has been sexually harassed in contravention of section 144N by one or more other persons,
  - (b) an industrial organisation on behalf of the aggrieved person.
- (2) The industrial organisation may make one application on behalf of a number of aggrieved persons who allege a contravention of section 144N in related circumstances.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not prevent the Commission from hearing a number of applications under this part together or individually.

144Q Time limit for making applications

An application under this part must be made not later than 24 months after the alleged contravention of section 144N.

144R Conciliation of applications

The Commission must endeavour, by all means the Commission considers proper and necessary, to settle the application by conciliation.

144S Arbitration where conciliation unsuccessful

- (1) When, in the opinion of the Commission, all reasonable attempts to settle the application by conciliation have been made but have been unsuccessful, the Commission must determine the application by making—
  - (a) a sexual harassment order, or
  - (b) an order dismissing the application.
- (2) Nothing in this section prevents further conciliation from being attempted before the Commission makes an order.

Division 3 Orders to stop and remedy sexual harassment

144T Sexual harassment orders

- (1) The Commission may make any order the Commission considers appropriate if the Commission is satisfied that the aggrieved person has been sexually harassed in contravention of section 144N by the person or persons.
- (2) The order may apply to the following—
  - (a) the person or persons who have contravened section 144N,
  - (b) a person who has contravened section 144N by operation of section 144O.
- (3) Without limiting the kinds of order that may be made under subsection (1), the Commission may make an order to prevent the sexual harassment or remedy the contravention, including an order for one or more of the following—
  - (a) the payment of damages to the aggrieved person as compensation for loss or damage suffered from the sexual harassment,
  - (b) a prohibition on continuing or repeating the sexual harassment,
  - (c) the performance of reasonable actions or a course of conduct to be carried out to redress loss or damage suffered by the aggrieved person,
  - (d) the publication of an apology or retraction,
  - (e) the development and implementation of a program or policy aimed at eliminating sexual harassment.
- (4) The Commission must not order a payment of damages of more than $100,000 for an aggrieved person.
- (5) In determining the terms of the order, the Commission must take into account all of the following—
  - (a) other grievance or dispute procedures available to the aggrieved person that the Commission is aware of,
  - (b) outcomes, whether interim or final, the Commission is aware of from other—
    - (i) investigations into the conduct the subject of the application, or
    - (ii) grievance or dispute procedures carried out in response to the conduct the subject of the application,
  - (c) other matters the Commission considers relevant.

144U Contravention of sexual harassment order

A person to whom a sexual harassment order applies must not contravene a term of the order.

Maximum civil penalty—

- (a) for an individual—$18,870, or
- (b) otherwise—$93,900.

144V Multiple actions under anti-discrimination laws not permitted

- (1) A person must not apply for a sexual harassment order if—
  - (a) the person has commenced proceedings or made an application or complaint in relation to the same conduct under an anti-discrimination law, and
  - (b) the proceedings, application or complaint has not been withdrawn or failed for want of jurisdiction.
- (2) A person must not recover compensation under a sexual harassment order if the person has received compensation for the matter under an anti-discrimination law.

144W Actions under work health and safety laws permitted

The Work Health and Safety Act 2011, section 115 does not apply in relation to an application for a sexual harassment order.

Note— This section allows a person to apply for a sexual harassment order and also commence a proceeding or make an application in relation to the same conduct under WHS laws.

[10] Section 146E

Insert after section 146D—

146E Matters concerning injured workers

- (1) The Commission may only deal with an industrial matter referred to in section 6(2)(e1) in relation to an employee if the employee is not a national system employee within the meaning of the Fair Work Act 2009 of the Commonwealth.
- (2) The Commission does not have the power under this Act to compensate an employee for a workplace injury unless otherwise permitted by this Act.

- (2) In any other case, a penalty recovered must be paid into the Consolidated Fund or as otherwise provided by law.

[28] Chapter 7, Part 6

Insert after section 399A—

Division 2 Civil penalties

Subdivision 1 Preliminary

400A Definitions

In this division—

civil penalty order means an order imposing a monetary penalty made by an industrial court under section 400D for contravention of a civil penalty provision.

civil penalty proceeding means a proceeding for a civil penalty order.

civil penalty provision means a section or subsection of this Act that has at its end the words “maximum civil penalty”.

corresponding offence, in relation to a contravention of a civil penalty provision, means an offence constituted by conduct that is the same or substantially the same as the conduct constituting the contravention.

industrial court means—

- (a) the Commission in Court Session, or
- (b) the Local Court constituted for this part by an Industrial Magistrate sitting alone.

400B Application of division

This division does not apply to section 139 or Schedule 6.

400C Contravention of civil penalty provision

A contravention of a civil penalty provision is not an offence.

Subdivision 2 Civil penalty proceedings

400D Civil penalty orders

- (1) An industrial court may, on an application referred to in section 400E, order a person to pay a monetary penalty if the industrial court is satisfied the person has contravened the civil penalty provision.
- (2) The monetary penalty must not be more than the amount specified at the end of the civil penalty provision following the words “Maximum civil penalty”.

- (3) To avoid doubt, the industrial court may make an order under this section in addition to other orders.
- (4) The Local Court only has jurisdiction to consider applications for contraventions of the civil penalty provision under section 357.

400E Application for civil penalty orders

The following persons may apply to the industrial court for a civil penalty order—

- (a) an industrial organisation—
  - (i) concerned in the industry to which the proceedings relate, or
  - (ii) on behalf of the person affected by the contravention if the person is a member of the industrial organisation,
- (b) an industrial organisation or employer bound by the industrial instrument concerned,
- (c) an inspector,
- (d) a person authorised by the Minister or this Act to institute proceedings for offences.

400F Time limit for applications

An application for a civil penalty order must be made within 6 years of the alleged contravention.

400G Procedure and evidence

- (1) A civil penalty proceeding is a civil proceeding for all purposes.
- (2) Evidence given in proceedings for the recovery of money under this chapter, Part 2 is not admissible in proceedings for a civil penalty order for contravention of an industrial instrument.

400H Payment and recovery of penalty

- (1) The industrial court may order that the monetary penalty under a civil penalty order is paid to the following—
  - (a) the State,
  - (b) an industrial organisation,
  - (c) another person.
- (2) The provisions of any Act relating to the recovery of penalties imposed for an offence apply in the same way for a recovery of a monetary penalty.

400I Injunctions to restrain further contraventions

- (1) The Commission in Court Session may, on the imposition of a civil penalty order by the Commission in Court Session or another industrial court, grant an injunction to restrain the person from committing further or other contraventions.
- (2) The injunction may be granted on application or on the Commission's own initiative.
- (3) A person who disobeys an injunction is guilty of contempt of the Commission and may be dealt with accordingly.

Note— Section 180 deals with proceedings for contempt.

400J Costs

- (1) The industrial court may award costs to either party in a civil penalty proceeding and assess the amount of those costs.
- (2) Costs must not be awarded against an applicant referred to in section 400E except in the circumstances in which costs can be awarded against the applicant as a prosecutor in criminal proceedings.

400K Application of criminal procedures for civil penalty proceedings

- (1) The regulations may apply a provision of this Act or another Act relating to criminal proceedings, with or without modification, to this part.
- (2) A provision applied by the regulations applies to a contravention of a civil penalty provision and civil penalty proceedings in the same way as it applies to criminal proceedings for an offence under this Act.

Subdivision 3 Interaction with criminal and other civil proceedings

400L Civil double jeopardy

If a person is ordered to pay a civil penalty in relation to particular conduct, the person is not liable to be ordered to pay a civil penalty under another provision of an Act in relation to the conduct.

400M Civil proceedings after criminal proceedings

The industrial court must not make a civil penalty order against a person if the person has been convicted of a corresponding offence.

400N Criminal proceedings during civil proceedings

- (1) Civil penalty proceedings are stayed if criminal proceedings are started or have already started against the person for a corresponding offence.

102B Application of division

This division applies in relation to any of the following disputes—

- (a) a dispute about a WHS matter that is a work group determination matter, work group variation matter or health and safety committee matter, if—
  - (i) an inspector has been appointed to assist the parties to the dispute to reach an agreement about the matter, and
  - (ii) the inspector has made a decision relating to the dispute under section 54(2) or 76(6),
- (b) a dispute about a WHS matter, other than a WHS matter mentioned in paragraph (a), whether or not an inspector has been appointed to assist in resolving the dispute.

102C Notice of dispute may be given to Industrial Relations Commission

- (1) A party to the dispute may give the Industrial Registrar written notice of the dispute.
- (2) The notice must state each of the following—
  - (a) the names of the parties to the dispute,
  - (b) the workplace where the dispute exists,
  - (c) the WHS matter the subject of the dispute,
  - (d) if, under this part, an inspector has been appointed to assist the parties to reach an agreement or resolve the dispute—whether a decision made by the inspector to exercise, or not to exercise, compliance powers under Part 10 is subject to review under Part 12.
- (3) On receiving the notice, the Industrial Registrar must immediately publish the notice on the NSW industrial relations website within the meaning of the Industrial Relations Act 1996.

- (4) If a relevant union for a worker affected by the WHS matter is not named as a party to the dispute in the notice, the union may notify the Industrial Registrar, in writing, that the union wants to participate in the resolution of the dispute.
- (5) A relevant union that gives notice under subsection (4) is taken to be a party to the dispute for the purposes of this division.

102D Effect of notice of dispute on involvement of inspector

- (1) This section applies if—
  - (a) the dispute is a dispute mentioned in section 102B(b), and
  - (b) notice of the dispute is given under section 102C(1), and
  - (c) the notice does not state an immediate or imminent exposure to a workplace hazard as a WHS matter the subject of the dispute.
- (2) A party to the dispute must not ask the regulator to appoint an inspector to assist in resolving the dispute and the regulator must not appoint an inspector to assist in resolving the dispute.
- (3) If an inspector has already been appointed to assist in resolving the dispute, the inspector must take no further action to attempt to assist to resolve the dispute.
- (4) Subsection (3) applies subject to any order made by the Industrial Relations Commission in relation to the dispute, including, for example, an order mentioned in section 102E(3) or directions mentioned in section 102F(3)(a)(iii).

102E Action for settling dispute

- (1) This section applies if notice of a dispute has been given under section 102C.
- (2) The Industrial Relations Commission may deal with the dispute in any way it thinks fit, including by means of mediation, conciliation or arbitration.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (2), if the Industrial Relations Commission deals with the dispute by arbitration, the Commission may make an order the Commission considers appropriate for the prompt settlement of the dispute.
- (4) A person must not contravene an order made under subsection (3).
WHS civil penalty provision.
Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.

102F Review of particular decisions made by inspector

- (1) Subsections (2)–(5) apply if a dispute relates to any of the following decisions (an original decision) made by an inspector—
  - (a) a decision by an inspector under section 54(2) or 76(6),
  - (b) a decision (a compliance decision) made by an inspector to exercise, or not to exercise, compliance powers under Part 10 to assist in resolving the dispute.
- (2) In dealing with the dispute under this division, the Industrial Relations Commission may review the decision.
- (3) If the Industrial Relations Commission reviews an original decision under subsection (2), the Commission—
  - (a) may decide to—
    - (i) confirm or vary the original decision, or

- (ii) set aside the original decision and substitute another decision the Commission considers appropriate, or
  - (iii) set aside the original decision and return the matter to the inspector who made the decision with directions the Commission considers appropriate, and
- (b) must give the regulator notice of—
  - (i) the Commission’s decision to review the original decision, and
  - (ii) any decision made by the Commission under paragraph (a) (the review decision).
- (4) Despite section 102E(3), the Industrial Relations Commission must not make an order under this division staying the operation of the original decision.
- (5) Subsections (6)–(8) apply if the dispute relates to an original decision that is a compliance decision.
- (6) The notice mentioned in subsection (3)(b) must state that any review of the compliance decision, or any stay of the operation of the compliance decision, under Part 12 ends on the making of the Industrial Relations Commission’s decision to review the compliance decision under this section.
- (7) A compliance decision reviewed by the Industrial Relations Commission under this section is, from the time the Commission decides to review the decision, taken not to be a reviewable decision under section 223.
- (8) If the compliance decision is or has been the subject of review proceedings under Part 12—
  - (a) any review of the compliance decision, or any stay of the operation of the compliance decision, under that part ends when the Industrial Relations Commission decides to review the compliance decision, and
  - (b) subsection (6) does not affect the validity of any action taken under Part 12 before the making of the Industrial Relations Commission’s decision to review the compliance decision.

102G Decision not to deal with dispute

- (1) The Industrial Relations Commission may decide not to deal with a dispute about a WHS matter if—
  - (a) notice of the dispute was not given in accordance with section 102C, or
  - (b) the Industrial Relations Commission considers the WHS matter the subject of the dispute is frivolous, vexatious, misconceived or lacking in substance.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not limit the grounds on which the Industrial Relations Commission may decide not to deal with the dispute.
- (3) The Industrial Relations Commission may make a decision under subsection (1) on the Commission’s own initiative.

102H Costs

- (1) A party to a dispute notified to the Industrial Relations Commission under this division must bear the party’s own costs in relation to the dispute.
- (2) However, the Industrial Relations Commission may order a party (the first party) to pay costs incurred by another party in relation to the dispute if the Commission is satisfied—

- (a) the WHS matter the subject of the dispute is frivolous, vexatious, misconceived or lacking in substance, and
- (b) the first party notified the dispute to the Commission or has otherwise acted without reasonable cause in relation to the dispute.
- (3) If the Industrial Relations Commission orders the payment of costs, the amount ordered may be recovered as a debt.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not limit other ways in which amounts may be recovered on an order of the Industrial Relations Commission.
