Water Management Legislation Amendment (Stronger Enforcement and Penalties) Bill 2025

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to amend the Water Management Act 2000 (the Act) to—
 - (i) establish a system of civil penalties for contraventions of the Act or the regulations, and
 - (ii) update the Minister's power to impose financial charges for water illegally taken or taken without authority, and
 - (iii) address matters relating to the metering of water and the attestation of volumes of water taken under a licence, and
 - (iv) provide additional orders that may be made by a court, including in relation to the forfeiture of monetary benefits obtained as a result of a contravention, and
- (b) to amend the Natural Resources Access Regulator Act 2017 to address concerns about the ability of the Natural Resources Access Regulator (the Regulator) to take action in relation to contraventions of the Act or the regulations, and
- (c) to make consequential amendments to the following legislation—
 - (i) the Crimes (Appeal and Review) Act 2001,
 - (ii) the Criminal Appeal Act 1912,
 - (iii) the Land and Environment Court Act 1979,
 - (iv) the Natural Resources Access Regulator Regulation 2023,
 - (v) the Water Management (General) Regulation 2025.

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 sets out the name, also called the short title, of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act.

Schedule 1 Amendment of Natural Resources Access Regulator Act 2017 No 64

Schedule 1[2] makes an amendment to clarify the authority of the Regulator to prosecute offences and take proceedings for contraventions of civil penalty provisions under the Act. Schedule 1[1], [5] and [7] make consequential amendments.

Schedule 1[3], [4], [6] and [8]–[14] make amendments consequential on amendments made by Schedule 3.

Schedule 2 Amendment of Natural Resources Access Regulator Regulation 2023

Schedule 2[1] and [2] make amendments consequential on Schedule 1[7] and [8].

Schedule 3 Amendment of Water Management Act 2000 No 92

Schedule 3[2], [11] and [18] make amendments to clarify references to water sources where water may have been taken from more than one water source.

Schedule 3[5], [51], [74] and [130] make amendments of a statute law revision nature.

Schedule 3[19], [20] and [61] make amendments to the Minister's power to require a person to make a payment via an administrative charge for water illegally taken. Schedule 3[21]–[23], [27]–[30], [33], [65], [66], [121]–[125], [135], [136] and [138] make consequential amendments.

Schedule 3[24]–[26], [31], [32], [62]–[64], [67] and [68] make amendments to the way water access licences and water use approvals are suspended or cancelled, including to provide that, if a licence is cancelled by the Minister under section 78, the water allocation for the licence and water credited to the water allocation account for the licence are forfeited to the Crown.

Schedule 3[36] inserts proposed section 88AB, which provides that a water access licence holder who is required to periodically attest the volume of water taken under the licence may not refuse to give the attestation on the basis that the attestation may incriminate the holder or otherwise expose the holder to a penalty.

Schedule 3[38] inserts proposed section 91AB to clarify the operation of provisions concerning the installation of water metering equipment.

Schedule 3[69] and [83] make amendments consequential on the insertion of the definition of Regulator in the dictionary.

Schedule 3[76]–[79] make amendments relating to certifying the accuracy of water metering equipment.

Schedule 3[81] inserts proposed section 336A, which provides for the Minister to issue a notice directing a person to pay the costs associated with monitoring the person's compliance with a direction given under Chapter 7, Part 1.

Schedule 3[84] inserts proposed Chapter 7, Part 1, Division 9, which provides for the Minister to appoint a person to take remedial measures if the person directed to take the remedial measures fails to do so.

Schedule 3[86] makes an amendment to clarify that authorised officers may carry out their functions using remotely controlled aircraft, vehicles and vessels.

Schedule 3[91] inserts proposed Chapter 7, Part 2, Division 3A, which provides for the handling of things seized by an authorised officer under section 339B.

Schedule 3[103] inserts proposed section 341, which provides that a person who obtains a monetary benefit as a result of the commission by another person of a contravention of the Act or the regulations also commits a contravention.

Schedule 3[116] amends section 353 to provide that a court may, when making orders, consider potential harm to the environment. Schedule 3[128] and [129] make consequential amendments.

Schedule 3[117]–[119] make amendments concerning the orders a court may make when dealing with contraventions of the Act or the regulations, including orders to forfeit monetary benefits and orders to cancel an access licence or an approval.

Schedule 3[120] inserts proposed Chapter 7, Part 3B, which provides for a court that has ordered a person to carry out a specified project or activity to require the person to give the Regulator a financial assurance guaranteeing the project or activity.

Schedule 3[126] provides for an increase in the maximum penalties that may be imposed by the Local Court.

Schedule 3[127] amends section 364A(1) to provide that a court must, when determining a penalty under the Act or the regulations, consider the impact of the offence on Aboriginal people.

Schedule 3[134] inserts proposed section 367C, which provides that multiple contraventions under a single provision may be dealt with as a single matter or individually, and proposed section 367D, which provides for the use of photographs and other images in proceedings for a contravention.

Schedule 3[137] inserts proposed Chapter 7, Part 6 to make provision for civil penalty orders for contraventions of the Act as an alternative to criminal penalties. Schedule 3[1], [3], [4], [6]–[10], [12]–[17], [34], [35], [37], [39]–[50], [52]–[60], [70]–[73], [75], [80], [82], [85], [87]–[90], [92]–[102], [104]–[115], [131]–[133] and [147]–[151] make consequential amendments.

Schedule 3[139] and [140] amend section 394 to allow for additional ways a document may be served electronically.

Schedule 3[141] inserts proposed section 394A to provide that the regulations may prescribe methodologies to be used when the Minister or a court is determining the value or volume of water taken or used.

Schedule 3[142]–[144] amend section 397 to provide that authorised persons under the Act, the Regulator and members of staff of the Regulator do not have personal liability for acts or omissions done in good faith under the Act.

Schedule 3[145] amends section 400 to increase the maximum monetary penalty that may be prescribed for a contravention under the regulations.

Schedule 3[146] makes amendments of a savings and transitional nature.

Schedule 3[152] makes consequential amendments to the dictionary.

Schedule 4 Amendment of Water Management (General) Regulation 2025

Schedule 4[1] makes amendments consequential on the amendment made by Schedule 3[145] to increase maximum penalties for certain offences. Schedule 4[4] makes a consequential amendment.

Schedule 4[2] provides for the content of a compliance cost notice and is consequential on the amendment made by Schedule 3[81].

Schedule 4[3] and [6] make amendments consequential on the amendments made by Schedule 3[152].

Schedule 4[5] makes an amendment consequential on Schedule 3[141].

Schedule 5 Amendment of other Acts

Schedule 5.1[1]–[7] make amendments to the Crimes (Appeal and Review) Act 2001 to provide that the Regulator may, in cases where it acted as the prosecutor, appeal to the Land and Environment Court from decisions of the Local Court. The proposed amendments are consequential on the amendments made by Schedule 1[2].

Schedule 5.2[1]–[3] make amendments to the Criminal Appeal Act 1912 to provide that the Natural Resources Access Regulator may, in cases where it acted as the prosecutor, appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeal from decisions of the Land and Environment Court. The proposed amendments are consequential on the amendments made by Schedule 1[2].

Schedule 5.3[1] and [2] make amendments to the Land and Environment Court Act 1979 to confer jurisdiction on the Land and Environment Court for matters under the Water Management Act 2000. The proposed amendments are consequential on the amendments made by Schedule 3[117] and [120].

353J	Form of financial assurance	23
	(1) A financial assurance may be given in one or more of the following forms—	24
	(a) a bank guarantee,	25
	(b) a bond,	26
	(c) a form of security prescribed by the regulations,	27
	(d) another form of security the court considers appropriate.	28
	(2) The court must not require a financial assurance for an amount that is more than the reasonably estimated cost of carrying out the specified project or	29

	activity, including reasonable costs associated with the Regulator supervising the carrying out of the project or activity.	1 2
353K	Claim on financial assurance	3
(1)	If the Regulator is satisfied on reasonable grounds that an offender has failed to carry out or complete the project or activity ordered by the court, the Regulator may—	4 5 6
(a)	carry out or complete the project or activity, including by having a third party carry out or complete the project or activity, and	7 8
(b)	make a claim on or realise the financial assurance.	9
(2)	Before making a claim on or realising the financial assurance, the Regulator must give the offender written notice that includes details of the following—	10 11
(a)	the project or activity the offender was ordered to carry out,	12
(b)	the grounds on which the Regulator is satisfied the offender has failed to carry out or complete the project or activity,	13 14
(c)	the amount to be claimed or realised from the financial assurance,	15
(d)	an opportunity for the offender to make submissions about why the Regulator should not make a claim on or realise the financial assurance,	16 17
(e)	the date, not less than 28 days after the date of the notice, by which the offender may make a submission about the Regulator's intention to make a claim on or realise the financial assurance.	18 19 20
(3)	If, after considering a submission made in accordance with subsection (2), the Regulator decides to make a claim on or realise the financial assurance, the Regulator must give the offender written notice that specifies—	21 22 23
(a)	the decision, and	24
(b)	the amount of the financial assurance to be claimed.	25
(4)	If the amount of the financial assurance is insufficient to cover the Regulator's reasonable costs and expenses in carrying out or completing the project or activity, the Regulator may recover the outstanding amount from the offender as a debt in a court of competent jurisdiction.	26 27 28 29
353L	Lapsing of financial assurance	30
	An order to give a financial assurance ceases to have effect if the Regulator gives the offender written notice that the project or activity to which the financial assurance relates has been completed satisfactorily.	31 32 33
353M	Limitation of liability	34
	The offender is liable for anything done or omitted to be done in good faith by the Regulator under section 353K(1) in connection with the carrying out or completion of the relevant project or activity.	35 36 37
353N	Financial assurance does not affect other penalty or charge	38
	A financial assurance may be claimed or realised despite, and without affecting—	39 40
(a)	the liability of the offender to pay a penalty for an offence or other contravention to which the assurance relates, and	41 42
(b)	other action that might be taken or is required to be taken in relation to a contravention or other circumstances to which the assurance relates.	43 44

353O	Disputes about calling on or using financial assurance	1
	The Land and Environment Court has jurisdiction to determine disputes about claiming or realising financial assurances.	2 3
353P	Regulations	4
	The regulations may provide for the following—	5
	(a) the form and amount of a financial assurance required to be given,	6
	(b) the way the Regulator may make a claim or realise a financial assurance,	7
	(c) the giving of notice for this part.	8

369 Definition	30
In this part—	31

	Court means the Land and Environment Court.	1
370	When provision is civil penalty provision	2
	A provision of this Act or the regulations is a civil penalty provision if the words “Maximum civil penalty” and a civil penalty tier level are set out at the end of the provision.	3 4 5
370A	Certain activities excluded	6
(1)	The Court must not find an individual has contravened a civil penalty provision if the individual’s conduct was one or more of the following—	7 8
	(a) taking water for domestic consumption or stock watering,	9
	(b) installing a flood work solely to protect a dwelling,	10
	(c) undertaking, for the sole purpose of providing access to a dwelling, a controlled activity that does not involve impounding water,	11 12
	(d) an activity prescribed by the regulations.	13
(2)	This section does not apply to an individual taken to have contravened a civil penalty provision in accordance with section 370C or 370D.	14 15
(3)	In this section—	16
	domestic consumption , in relation to land, includes domestic consumption within the meaning of section 52.	17 18
	stock watering , in relation to land, includes stock watering within the meaning of section 52.	19 20
370B	Involvement in contravention taken to be contravention	21
(1)	A person who is involved in, causes or permits a contravention of a civil penalty provision is taken to have contravened the provision.	22 23
(2)	A person is involved in a contravention of a civil penalty provision only if the person has—	24 25
	(a) aided, abetted, counselled or procured the contravention, or	26
	(b) induced the contravention, whether by threats or promises or otherwise, or	27 28
	(c) been knowingly involved in or a party to the contravention, whether directly or indirectly, or	29 30
	(d) conspired with others to effect the contravention.	31
370C	Contravention by corporation	32
(1)	If a corporation contravenes a civil penalty provision, each of the following persons is taken to have contravened the same provision if the person knowingly authorised or permitted the act or omission constituting the contravention—	33 34 35 36
	(a) a director of the corporation,	37
	(b) a person involved in the management of the corporation.	38
(2)	Proceedings may be taken against a person for a contravention of a civil penalty provision whether or not proceedings have been taken against the corporation.	39 40 41
(3)	Nothing in this section affects any liability imposed on a corporation for a contravention of a civil penalty provision by the corporation.	42 43

370D

Contravention by co-holders of access licence or approval

If the holder of an access licence or approval contravenes a civil penalty provision, each co-holder of the licence or approval is taken to have contravened the same provision unless the co-holder establishes—

(a)

the contravention was committed by another person, whether or not the other person was a co-holder of the licence or approval, and the other person was not associated with the co-holder at the time of the contravention, and the co-holder took all reasonable steps to prevent the contravention.

(b)

(2)

Without limiting the circumstances in which a person may be associated with a co-holder, a person is associated with a co-holder for subsection (1)(b) if the person is an employee, agent, licensee, contractor or subcontractor of the co-holder.

10

12

(3)

Proceedings may be taken against the co-holder of a licence or approval for a contravention of a civil penalty provision whether or not proceedings have been taken against another person for the same contravention.

14

16

370E

Continuing contraventions

17

(1)

A person commits a continuing contravention for each day a contravention of a civil penalty provision of this Act or the regulations continues.

18

(2)

The person continues to be required to comply with a civil penalty provision despite a time specified for compliance having passed.

20

(3)

A continuing contravention ceases if the relevant provision is complied with.

22

370F

Civil penalty levels

23

(1)

The following table sets out the maximum civil penalties under this Act—

24

Tier	Penalty for individuals		Penalty for corporations
	Penalty	Additional penalty for each day contravention continues	Penalty	Additional penalty for each day contravention continues
Tier A	the greater of 45,450 penalty units or 5 times the value of the water taken	2,200 penalty units	the greater of 90,900 penalty units or 5 times the value of the water taken	4,500 penalty units

27

Division 2	Procedure	1
370G	Limitation period for civil penalty proceedings	2
	Proceedings for a contravention of a civil penalty provision may be brought within 6 years after the later of the following—	3
	(a) the day the contravention occurred,	4
	(b) the day the contravention first came to the attention of an authorised officer.	5
370H	Proceedings for contravention of civil penalty provision	6
(1)	Proceedings may be brought in the Court against a person for a contravention of a civil penalty provision.	7
(2)	The Court must apply the rules of evidence and procedure for civil proceedings when hearing proceedings for a contravention of a civil penalty provision.	8
370I	Proceedings may be brought by Minister	9
	Proceedings for a contravention of a civil penalty provision may be brought by the Minister.	10
370J	Criminal proceedings during civil proceedings	11
(1)	Proceedings against a person for a contravention of a civil penalty provision are stayed if criminal proceedings are, or have been, commenced against the person for an offence in relation to substantially the same conduct.	12
(2)	Proceedings stayed under this section—	13
	(a) must be dismissed if the person is convicted or found guilty in the criminal proceedings, and	14
	(b) may otherwise be resumed following the conclusion of the criminal proceedings.	15
370K	Criminal proceedings after civil proceedings	16
	Criminal proceedings may be commenced against a person for conduct that is substantially the same as conduct constituting a contravention of a civil penalty provision regardless of whether a civil penalty order has been made against the person.	17
370L	Civil proceedings after criminal proceedings	18
	The Court must not make a civil penalty order against a person if the person has been convicted of an offence under this Act or another law in relation to substantially the same conduct.	19
370M	Evidence given in civil penalty proceedings not admissible in criminal proceedings	20
(1)	Evidence of information given by an individual or evidence of the production of a document by the individual is not admissible in criminal proceedings against the individual if—	21
	(a) the information or document is only known to the prosecutor because the individual relied on the information or document in proceedings against the individual for a contravention of a civil penalty provision, and	22

	(b) the conduct alleged to constitute the offence is substantially the same as the conduct alleged to constitute the contravention of the civil penalty provision.	1 2 3
	(2) This section does not apply to criminal proceedings in relation to the individual giving false evidence in the proceedings for the contravention of the civil penalty provision.	4 5 6
370N	Contravention of more than one civil penalty provision	7
	(1) If a person's conduct constitutes a contravention of 2 or more civil penalty provisions, proceedings may be instituted under this Act against the person in relation to the contravention of one or more of the provisions.	8 9 10
	(2) Despite subsection (1), a person is not liable to more than one civil penalty under this Act for the same conduct.	11 12
370O	Multiple contraventions of civil penalty provision	13
	(1) The Court may make a single civil penalty order against a person for multiple contraventions of a civil penalty provision if—	14 15
	(a) proceedings for the contraventions rely on the same facts, or	16
	(b) the contraventions form, or are part of, a series of contraventions of the same or a similar character.	17 18
	(2) The penalty must not be more than the sum of the maximum penalties that could be imposed if a separate penalty were ordered for each contravention.	19 20
370P	Proceedings may be heard together	21
	The Court may direct that 2 or more proceedings for contraventions of civil penalty provisions be heard together.	22 23
370Q	Proof of state of mind not required	24
	(1) In proceedings against a person for a contravention of a civil penalty provision, it is not necessary to prove the following—	25 26
	(a) the person's intention,	27
	(b) the person's knowledge,	28
	(c) the person's recklessness,	29
	(d) the person's negligence,	30
	(e) another state of mind of the person.	31
	(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to proceedings for a matter that is taken, for section 370B, 370C or 370D, to be a contravention.	32 33
	(3) Despite subsection (1), the defence of honest and reasonable mistake of fact may be established.	34 35
370R	Evidential burden	36
	In proceedings for a contravention of a civil penalty provision, a person who wishes to rely on an exception, exemption, excuse, qualification or justification that applies to the civil penalty provision has the evidential burden in relation to that matter.	37 38 39 40

Division 3 Orders

370S Orders for contravention of civil penalty provision

- (1) If the Court is satisfied a person has contravened a civil penalty provision, the Court may—
