

New South Wales

Local Court and Bail Legislation Amendment Bill 2025

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to abolish the office of Magistrate and related judicial offices and establish the new office of Judge of the Local Court and other related judicial offices, and
- (b) to make it clear that only certain judicial officers may make bail decisions.

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 sets out the name, also called the short title, of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act.

Schedule 1 Amendment of Local Court Act 2007 No 93

Schedule 1 amends the Local Court Act 2007—

- (a) to abolish the following offices of the Local Court—
 - (i) Chief Magistrate,
 - (ii) Deputy Chief Magistrate,
 - (iii) Magistrate, and
- (b) to establish the following new offices of the Local Court—
 - (i) Chief Judge,
 - (ii) Deputy Chief Judge,

- (iii) Judge.

The proposed schedule also contains consequential amendments to the Local Court Act 2007.

Schedule 2 Consequential amendments relating to new judicial offices

Schedule 2 amends—

- (a) the Children's Court Act 1987—
 - (i) to abolish the office of Children's Magistrate, and
 - (ii) to establish the new office of Children's Judge, and
- (b) the Industrial Relations Act 1996—
 - (i) to abolish the offices of Chief Industrial Magistrate and Industrial Magistrate, and
 - (ii) to establish new offices of Chief Industrial Local Court Judge and Industrial Local Court Judge.

The proposed schedule also contains consequential amendments to other legislation.

Schedule 3 Amendments relating to bail

Schedule 3 amends various legislation consequent on the amendment of the Bail Act 2013 by the Bail and Other Legislation Amendment (Domestic Violence) Act 2024 to insert section 70A. The proposed schedule—

- (a) extends the operation of the Bail Act 2013, section 70A to prevent all authorised justices, and not just registrars, from making bail decisions, and
- (b) makes consequential amendments to the Bail Act 2013 and other legislation to make it clear that only Judges and, prior to the commencement of proposed Schedules 1 and 2, Magistrates can make bail decisions.

Part 12 Provisions consequent on enactment of Local Court and Bail Legislation Amendment Act 2025—new judicial offices

22 Definitions

In this part—amending Act means the Local Court and Bail Legislation Amendment Act 2025.

commencement date means the date on which the amending Act, Schedules 1 and 2 commence.

former offices—see clause 23.

new offices means the following offices of the Local Court—

- (a) Chief Judge,
- (b) Deputy Chief Judge,
- (c) Judge.

23 Abolition of offices of Chief Magistrate, Deputy Chief Magistrate and Magistrate

The following offices of the Local Court (former offices) are abolished on the commencement date—

- (a) Chief Magistrate,
- (b) Deputy Chief Magistrate,
- (c) Magistrate.

Note— See the Constitution Act 1902, section 56(2), which provides for the consequences of abolishing a judicial office.

24 Appointment to new offices

- (1) On the commencement date—

- (a) the person holding office as the Chief Magistrate immediately before the abolition of the office is appointed as the Chief Judge of the Local Court, and
- (b) a person holding office as a Deputy Chief Magistrate immediately before the abolition of the office is appointed as a Deputy Chief Judge of the Local Court, and
- (c) a person holding office as a Magistrate immediately before the abolition of the office is appointed as a Judge of the Local Court, and
- (d) a person acting as a Magistrate immediately before the abolition of the office of Magistrate is appointed to act as a Judge of the Local Court.

- (2) A person referred to in subclause (1) is taken to hold the new office, or to act in the new office, subject to the terms and conditions, including remuneration, that applied to the person's former office immediately before the commencement date.

- (3) A person referred to in subclause (1)(d) is appointed to act as a Judge for the remainder of the term for which the person was appointed to act as a Magistrate.

- (4) Unless the contrary intention appears, a person's service in a former office must be reckoned for all purposes as service in the person's new office corresponding to the former office.

(5)	To avoid doubt, the appointment under subclause (1) does not require a further commission under the public seal of the State.	1 2
25	Abolition of former offices has no effect on proceedings	3
(1)	A person appointed to a new office by clause 24 may continue to hear and determine or otherwise deal with proceedings that, immediately before the commencement date, were pending before or being heard by the person in the person's capacity as the holder of a former office.	4 5 6 7
(2)	Schedule 1, clause 4 does not apply to the person.	8
26	Continuing effect of things done before commencement of amending Act	9
	An act, matter or thing done under this Act, or another Act, by a person holding a former office immediately before the commencement date is taken to have been done by the person—	10 11 12
(a)	in the person's capacity as the holder of the new office corresponding to the person's former office, and	13 14
(b)	under this Act, or the other Act, as amended by the amending Act.	15
	Example— Forms approved by the Chief Magistrate under this Act, section 72 as in force before the commencement date are taken to have been approved by the Chief Judge under that section as amended by the amending Act.	16 17 18
27	Continuation of positions relating to former offices	19
(1)	This clause applies to a person who, immediately before the commencement date, holds a position, role or office (a relevant position) under this Act or another Act that the person is eligible to hold because the person holds, or has held, a former office.	20 21 22 23
(2)	The person continues to hold the relevant position despite—	24
(a)	the abolition of the person's former office by clause 23, and	25
(b)	the amendments made to this Act or the other Act by the amending Act.	26
28	Judicial oaths	27
(1)	A person appointed to a new office by clause 24 is not required to take a judicial oath in relation to the new office to which the person is appointed.	28 29
(2)	In this clause— judicial oath means the oath prescribed in the Oaths Act 1900 , Fourth Schedule.	30 31 32
29	Construction of references to retired office holders	33
(1)	A relevant reference to a retired or former holder of a new office is taken to include a person who, immediately before the commencement date, is a retired or former holder of the corresponding former office.	34 35 36
(2)	In this clause— corresponding former office means the following—	37 38
(a)	for the office of Chief Judge—the office of Chief Magistrate,	39
(b)	for the office of Deputy Chief Judge—the office of Deputy Chief Magistrate,	40 41
