Environment Protection Legislation Amendment Act 2002 (but only to the extent that it amends this Act)

[11] Schedule 2, clause 6

Insert after clause 5 of Schedule 2:

6 Accreditation of site auditors

The accreditation of a site auditor in force immediately before the amendment of section 50 (1) by the Environment Protection Legislation Amendment Act 2002 expires (if not revoked under this Act) on the date on which it would have expired if the amendment had not been made and may be renewed in accordance with that section as so amended.

Schedule 2 Amendment of Protection of the Environment Operations Act 1997

(Section 4)

[1] Section 60 Requirement for further information

Insert “(other than an application for the approval of the surrender of a licence)” after “licence application” in section 60 (1).

[2] Section 61 Reasons to be given for grant or refusal of certain licence applications

Insert “(other than an application for the approval of the surrender of a licence)” after “licence application” in section 61 (1).

[3] Section 66 Conditions requiring monitoring and certification and relating to other matters

Insert after section 66 (2):

(2A) Conditions relating to certain information

The conditions of a licence may require the holder of a licence to supply to the appropriate regulatory authority information relating to a pollution incident to which Part 5.7 applies in addition to the information required under that Part.

[4] Section 80 Surrender of licence

Insert after section 80 (1A):

(2) If an application for the approval of the surrender of a licence is granted or refused, any person may make a written request to the appropriate regulatory authority for the reasons for the grant or refusal of the application and the appropriate regulatory authority is to provide a written statement of the reasons to the person.

(2A) The regulations may make provision with respect to any such statement of reasons, including:

(a) the time within which a request for reasons must be made or within which the statement of reasons must be provided, and

- (b) the matters to be set out in a statement of reasons, and
- (c) the cases in which a statement of reasons is not required to be provided.

[5] Section 109A Special provision relating to clean-up and prevention notices and related action

Omit the section.

[6] Section 120

Omit the section. Insert instead:

120 Prohibition of pollution of waters

- (1) A person who pollutes any waters is guilty of an offence.
- (2) In this section:
 - pollute* waters includes cause or permit any waters to be polluted.

[7] Section 154 Definitions

Omit “at any point specified in or” from section 154 (2) (a).
Insert instead “as”.

[8] Section 186 Extension of Chapter to other environment protection legislation

Insert after section 186 (b1):

- (b2) Radiation Control Act 1990 and the regulations under that Act,

[9] Part 7.2, heading

Insert “and enforcement officers” after “Authorised officers”.

[10] Section 187 Appointment of authorised officers

Insert after section 187 (2):

(3) In this section:

employee of an authority includes a person whose services are used by the authority and who is, in respect of those services, subject to the direction and control of the authority.

[11] Section 188 Scope of authority

Insert after section 188 (3):

(4) Despite subsection (3) and any other provision of this Chapter, an authorised officer of a regulatory authority may exercise powers under this Chapter (other than under Part 7.6) for the purpose of determining whether a matter concerns the functions of the regulatory authority.

[12] Section 189 Identification

Insert “or enforcement officer” after “authorised officer” wherever occurring.

[13] Section 189 (3)

Insert after section 189 (2):

(3) It is sufficient compliance with subsection (2) if an enforcement officer, acting in the capacity of an enforcement officer, who is also an authorised officer produces his or her identification card as an authorised officer.

[14] Section 189A

Insert after section 189:

189A Powers of enforcement officers

An enforcement officer has, in respect of any of the officer’s responsibilities or functions as an enforcement officer under this Act or the regulations, the functions of an authorised officer under this Chapter (other than section 204 (2) and Part 7.6) and this Chapter applies accordingly.

[15] Section 199 Search warrants

Omit section 199 (1). Insert instead:

(1) Application for search warrant

An authorised officer may apply to an authorised justice for the issue of a search warrant if the authorised officer believes on reasonable grounds that:

- (a) a provision of this Act or the regulations is being or has been contravened at any premises, or
- (b) there is in or on any premises matter or a thing that is connected with an offence under this Act or the regulations.

[16] Section 199 (4)

Insert in alphabetical order:

matter or a thing connected with an offence means:

- (a) matter or a thing with respect to which the offence has been committed, or
- (b) matter or a thing that will afford evidence of the commission of an offence, or
- (c) matter or a thing that was used, or is intended to be used, for the purpose of committing the offence.

offence includes an offence that there are reasonable grounds for believing has been, or is to be, committed.

[17] Sections 212C and 212D

Insert after section 212B:

212C Actions by incorrect regulatory authority

- (1) This section applies if a regulatory authority or an authorised officer of the authority, in good faith, exercises functions under this Act or the regulations relating to an activity or work that:
 - (a) is not authorised or controlled by an environment protection licence, and
 - (b) in relation to which the authority is not the appropriate regulatory authority.

- (2) A regulatory authority must, as soon as practicable after becoming aware of any such exercise of functions, notify the appropriate regulatory authority in writing of the functions so exercised and of any such functions that it proposes to continue to exercise or to cease to exercise in relation to the matter.
 - (3) A regulatory authority or an authorised officer of the authority may (but is not required to), if notice is given in accordance with subsection (2), continue to exercise functions under this Act or the regulations relating to the activity or work until:
 - (a) directed to do otherwise by the appropriate regulatory authority, or
 - (b) an environment protection licence is granted in respect of the activity or work concerned.
 - (4) The appropriate regulatory authority may, by notice in writing, direct a regulatory authority (including its authorised officers) not to exercise functions under this Act or the regulations in relation to an activity or work if it becomes aware that the other authority or an authorised officer of that authority is exercising, or has exercised, functions of the appropriate regulatory authority in relation to that activity or work.
 - (5) A direction given by the appropriate regulatory authority or the grant of a licence does not affect any proceedings already commenced by the other regulatory authority or an officer of that authority in respect of the activity or work and, for that purpose, this section and section 212D apply as if the direction had not been given or the licence had not been granted.
 - (6) For the purposes of this Act and the regulations and any proceedings, a regulatory authority or an authorised officer of that authority who exercises a function as referred to in subsection (1), or who continues to exercise a function in accordance with subsection (3), is taken to be the appropriate regulatory authority or an authorised officer of the appropriate regulatory authority in relation to the activity or work concerned and this Act applies accordingly.

212D Appropriate regulatory authority may continue to exercise functions

- (1) If a regulatory authority (including an authorised officer) is required to cease to exercise functions, or ceases to exercise functions, under section 212C (3) or (4), the appropriate regulatory authority or an authorised officer of that authority may continue to exercise any functions commenced by the other regulatory authority or an authorised officer, as if the functions had been exercised by the appropriate regulatory authority or an authorised officer of that authority.
- (2) For the purposes of this Act and the regulations and any proceedings, any function previously exercised by the other regulatory authority (including an authorised officer) relating to the activity or work concerned is taken to have been exercised by the appropriate regulatory authority (or an authorised officer of that authority) and this Act applies accordingly.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (2), any notice or direction given by the other authority or an authorised officer of the authority may be enforced, or varied or revoked, as if it had been given by the appropriate regulatory authority or an authorised officer of that authority.
- (4) A notice issued by the other authority or an authorised officer of the authority is taken to be varied, to the extent of any inconsistency, if a subsequent inconsistent notice is issued by or on behalf of the appropriate regulatory authority or an authorised officer of that authority.
- (5) Nothing in this section affects the right of the other regulatory authority to recover a fee, charge or cost under this Act in relation to a notice given while exercising functions as referred to in section 212C (1) or (3).

[18] Section 219 Any person or authority may institute proceedings with leave of Land and Environment Court

Insert after section 219 (1):

- (1A) An appropriate regulatory authority (other than the EPA) and any person or authority referred to in section 218 may institute proceedings in the Land and Environment Court for an offence against this Act or the regulations, if the Court grants the authority leave to bring the proceedings.
- (1B) Nothing in section 217 or 218 limits the operation of this section.

[19] Section 219 (2) (a)

Insert “or authority” after “person”.

[20] Section 220 Officers and employees of authorities

Insert at the end of the section:

- (2) In this section:
employee of an authority includes a person whose services are used by the authority and who is, in respect of those services, subject to the direction and control of the authority.

[21] Section 221 Penalty notices and related proceedings

Omit “authorised officer” from section 221 (3) wherever occurring.
Insert instead “enforcement officer”.

[22] Section 221 (4)

Insert at the end of the section:

- (4) In this section:
employee of an authority includes a person whose services are used by the authority and who is, in respect of those services, subject to the direction and control of the authority.

[23] Section 224 Service of penalty notices

Omit “authorised officer” wherever occurring in section 224 (1).
Insert instead “enforcement officer”.

[24] Section 226 Enforcement officers

Omit “authorised officer” from section 226 (1).
Insert instead “enforcement officer”.

[25] Section 226 (2) and (3)

Omit “authorised officer” wherever occurring.
Insert instead “enforcement officer”.

[26] Section 227 Penalty payable

Omit “$1,500 nor” from section 227 (2).

[27] Section 228 Withdrawal of penalty notice

Omit “authorised officer” wherever occurring in section 228 (1).
Insert instead “enforcement officer”.

[28] Part 8.2, Division 6

Insert after section 241:

Division 6 Continuing offences

242 Continuing offences

- (1) A person who is guilty of an offence because the person contravenes a requirement made by or under this Act or the regulations (whether the requirement is imposed by a notice or otherwise) to do or cease to do something (whether or not within a specified period or before a particular time):
 - (a) continues, until the requirement is complied with and despite the fact that any specified period has expired or time has passed, to be liable to comply with the requirement, and

(b) is guilty of a continuing offence for each day the contravention continues.

(2) This section does not apply to an offence if the relevant provision of this Act or the regulations does not provide for a penalty for a continuing offence.

(3) This section does not apply to the extent that a requirement of a notice is revoked.

[29] Section 261 Certificate evidence of certain matters

Insert “or enforcement officer” after “officer” in section 261 (2) (g).

[30] Section 261 (3)

Insert “or enforcement officer” after “authorised officer” wherever occurring.

[31] Section 287 Appeals regarding licence applications and licences

Omit the note to section 287 (2). Insert instead:

Note. The Dictionary defines licence application to mean an application for the issue, transfer or variation of a licence or for approval of the surrender of a licence.

[32] Sections 287 (3)–(6)

Omit subsections (3) and (4). Insert instead:

(3) For the purposes of this section, a licence application is taken to have been refused:

(a) in the case of an application for a variation of a licence about which the appropriate regulatory authority is required to invite and consider public submissions under section 58 (6), if the application is not granted within 90 days after it is duly made, or

(b) in the case of an application for a licence relating to controlled development, if the application is not granted within 60 days after it is duly made or within 30 days after development consent is granted for the controlled development, whichever is the later, or

(c) in any other case, if the application is not granted within 60 days after it is duly made.

- (4) The period commencing when an applicant is duly required under this Act to provide additional information within a specified period for the purposes of determining a licence application and ending when that information is provided or the specified period ends (whichever occurs first) is not to be taken into account in determining whether a licence application is taken to have been refused.
- (5) Nothing in this section prevents the determination of a licence application under this Act after the end of a period referred to in subsection (3).
- (6) There is no appeal under this section against a condition that is imposed on a licence, or varied or revoked, by the regulations.

[33] Section 295D Licence conditions

Omit section 295D (3).

[34] Section 319A

Insert after section 319:

319A Continuing effect of notices

- (1) A notice given under this Act or the regulations that specifies a time by which, or period within which, the notice must be complied with continues to have effect until the notice is complied with even though the time has passed or the period has expired.
- (2) A notice that does not specify a time by which, or period within which, the notice must be complied with continues to have effect until the notice is complied with.
- (3) This section does not apply to the extent that any requirement under a notice is revoked.
- (4) Nothing in this section affects the powers of a regulatory authority with respect to the enforcement of a notice.

[35] Section 320A

Insert after section 320:

320A False representations as to EPA approval, use or recommendation

- (1) A person is guilty of an offence if the person, knowing it to be false or misleading, represents that any goods or services are approved, provided, recommended or used by the EPA.

Maximum penalty:

- (a) in the case of a corporation—200 penalty units, or
(b) in the case of an individual—100 penalty units.

- (2) In this section:

represent includes cause or permit a representation to be made.

[36] Schedule 2 Regulation-making powers

Insert after clause 4 (5):

- (6) The liability of an owner of a motor vehicle or vessel for an offence under the regulations where an offence is committed with respect to or in connection with the motor vehicle or vessel (whether or not the act or omission concerned is committed or omitted by the owner), including the circumstances in which the owner is not liable.

[37] Schedule 2, clauses 6A and 6B

Insert after clause 6:

6A Fuel and fuel burning equipment

- (1) Prohibiting or regulating the sale, distribution, use, operation and maintenance of fuel burning equipment, and equipment for industrial plant, including control equipment.
- (2) Prohibiting or regulating the storage, sale, distribution or use of fuels and the sale, distribution, use, operation and maintenance of fuel tanks and other equipment used in connection with the sale or distribution of fuels.

- (3) Other matters incidental to or necessary for prohibiting or regulating the matters referred to in subclauses (1) and (2), including requirements with respect to the quality and composition of fuels, the emission of excessive air impurities and the fitting and control of pollution control devices.

6B Emission of air impurities

Requirements with respect to the emission of, and testing for, air impurities, including the methods for determining standards of concentration or rates of emission.

[38] Schedule 2, clause 8 (4)

Insert after clause 8 (3):

- (4) Imposing conditions on licences and revoking or varying conditions on licences (whether or not the conditions have been imposed by the regulations).

[39] Schedule 5 Savings, transitional and other provisions

Insert at the end of clause 2 (1):

Environment Protection Legislation Amendment Act 2002 (but only to the extent to which it amends this Act or regulations under this Act)

[40] Schedule 5, Part 10

Insert after Part 9:

Part 10 Provisions consequent on enactment of Environment Protection Legislation
Amendment Act 2002

18 Definition

In this Part:

2002 amending Act means the Environment Protection Legislation Amendment Act 2002.

19 Pollution incidents

- (1) Section 66 (2A), as inserted by the 2002 amending Act, applies to information provided under a licence condition before its commencement.
- (2) A licence condition of a kind referred to in section 66 (2A), as inserted by the 2002 amending Act, being a condition imposed before the commencement of section 66 (2A), is, for the purposes of section 66, taken to have been imposed under section 66 (2A).

20 Applications to surrender licences

Section 80, and the definition of licence application in the Dictionary, as amended by the 2002 amending Act, do not apply to or in respect of any application for the approval of the surrender of a licence made before the commencement of this clause.

21 Identification cards for enforcement officers

- (1) Section 189, as amended by the 2002 amending Act, does not apply to an enforcement officer or the authority that appointed the enforcement officer for a period of 6 months commencing on the commencement of the amendment.
- (2) It is sufficient compliance with section 189 (2), as amended by the 2002 amending Act, if an enforcement officer (acting in the capacity of an enforcement officer) who was, immediately before the commencement of the amendment of that section by the 2002 amending Act, an authorised officer produces the person's identification card as an authorised officer.

22 Mistaken exercise of power

Sections 212C and 212D, as inserted by the 2002 amending Act, apply to or in respect of a function exercised by an authority or an authorised officer before those sections commenced except where the exercise of the function relates to an offence for which proceedings commenced before that commencement.

23 Proceedings with leave of Land and Environment Court

The provisions of section 219 (1A) and (1B), as inserted by the 2002 amending Act, do not apply to or in respect of an offence arising out of an act or omission that occurred before the commencement of those provisions if proceedings for the offence are commenced before that commencement.

24 Continuing offences

Section 242, as inserted by the 2002 amending Act, applies to or in respect of an offence arising out of a contravention of a requirement made before the commencement of that section if proceedings for the offence are commenced on or after that commencement.

25 Appeals

The provisions of section 287 (3)–(6), as inserted by the 2002 amending Act, do not apply to or in respect of licence applications made before the commencement of those provisions.

26 Notices given by authorities

Section 319A, as inserted by the 2002 amending Act, does not apply to or in respect of a notice issued before the commencement of that section.

[41] Dictionary

Insert in alphabetical order:

enforcement officer—see section 226.

[42] Dictionary, definition of “licence application”

Omit “or variation”. Insert instead “, variation or surrender”.

Schedule 3 Amendment of Radiation Control Act 1990

(Section 5)

[1] Section 4 Definitions

Insert in alphabetical order in section 4 (1):

authorised officer means a person appointed by the Authority under Part 7.2 of the Protection of the Environment Operations Act 1997 as an authorised officer for the purposes of this Act.

[2] Section 4 (1), definition of “inspector”

[3] Section 6 Restrictions on possession, use and sale etc of radioactive substances and certain radiation apparatus

Insert “possess,” before “use” in section 6 (2).

[4] Section 6 (3)

Insert “possession,” before “use”.

[5] Section 11 Term and renewal of licences, registrations and accreditations

Omit section 11 (2) and (3). Insert instead:

- (2) An accreditation (including any renewed accreditation) remains in force for the term specified by the Authority in the accreditation, unless it is cancelled or surrendered sooner.

[6] Section 11 (4)

Insert “or accreditation” after “registration”.

[7] Sections 15 and 16

Omit sections 15–17. Insert instead:

15 Application of Chapter 7 of Protection of the Environment Operations Act 1997

Chapter 7 (Investigation) of the Protection of the Environment Operations Act 1997 extends to the exercise of powers in connection with this Act and the regulations.

Note. Section 186 of the Protection of the Environment Operations Act 1997 provides that Chapter 7 of that Act extends to the exercise of certain powers in connection with certain other legislation, including this Act. Chapter 7 of the Protection of the Environment Operations Act 1997 deals with such matters as the appointment of authorised officers, powers to require information and records, powers of entry and search, powers to question and to identify persons and powers with respect to certain things such as vehicles.

16 Powers of entry

- (1) Without limiting section 15, an authorised officer may, at any time, enter premises if the authorised officer reasonably suspects that any radioactive substance or radiation apparatus is kept or used on the premises.
- (2) Chapter 7 (Investigation) of the Protection of the Environment Operations Act 1997 applies to the exercise of functions by an authorised officer under this section in the same way as it applies to the exercise of other powers to enter premises under that Chapter.

[8] Section 18 Notices to take action

Omit “inspector” wherever occurring. Insert instead “authorised officer”.

[9] Section 19 Powers to deal with dangerous situations

Omit “inspector” from section 19 (2). Insert instead “authorised officer”.

[10] Section 25A

Insert after section 25:

25A Penalty notices

- (1) An authorised officer or police officer may serve a penalty notice on a person if it appears to the authorised officer or police officer that the person has committed an offence against this Act or the regulations, being an offence prescribed by the regulations as a penalty notice offence.
- (2) A penalty notice is a notice to the effect that, if the person served does not wish to have the matter determined by a court, the person can pay, within the time and to the person specified in the notice, the amount of penalty prescribed by the regulations for the offence if dealt with under this section.
- (3) A penalty notice may be served personally or by post.
- (4) The regulations may authorise a penalty notice also to be served by leaving the notice on a vehicle or at other premises in respect of which the offence was committed.
- (5) If the amount of penalty prescribed for an alleged offence is paid under this section, no person is liable to any further proceedings for the alleged offence.
- (6) Payment under this section is not to be regarded as an admission of liability for the purpose of, and does not in any way affect or prejudice, any civil claim or proceeding arising out of the same occurrence.
- (7) The regulations may:
 - (a) prescribe an offence for the purposes of this section by specifying the offence or by referring to the provision creating the offence, and
 - (b) prescribe the amount of penalty payable for the offence if dealt with under this section, and
 - (c) prescribe different amounts of penalties for different offences or classes of offences.

- (8) The amount of a penalty prescribed under this section for an offence is not to exceed $1,500 or the maximum amount of penalty that could be imposed for the offence by a court, whichever is the lesser.
- (9) This section does not limit the operation of any other provision of, or made under, this or any other Act relating to proceedings that may be taken in respect of offences.

[11] Sections 26 (2) and 27 (1)

Omit “inspector” wherever occurring. Insert instead “authorised officer”.

[12] Section 32 Appointment of inspectors

Omit the section.

[13] Section 39A Personal liability

Omit “inspector” wherever occurring. Insert instead “authorised officer”.

Environment Protection Legislation Amendment Act 2002 (but only to the extent that it amends this Act)

[15] Schedule 2, Part 3

Insert after Part 2:

Part 3 Provisions consequent on the enactment of the Environment Protection Legislation
Amendment Act 2002

3 Existing accreditations

Section 11, as in force before its amendment by the Environment Protection Legislation Amendment Act 2002, continues to apply in respect of an accreditation of a person as a radiation expert if the accreditation was in force immediately before the commencement of that amendment.

4 Existing inspectors

A person who, immediately before the substitution of section 15 by the Environment Protection Legislation Amendment Act 2002, held office as an inspector is taken to have been appointed as an authorised officer for the purposes of this Act under Chapter 7 of the Protection of the Environment Operations Act 1997.

Schedule 4 Amendment of Road and Rail Transport (Dangerous Goods) Act 1997

(Section 6)

[2] Clause 17 Use of motor vehicle sound systems

Omit “or permit”.

[3] Clause 20A

Insert after clause 20:

20A Owners and drivers of motor vehicles involved in excess noise offences

- (1) If a motor vehicle or the sound system of a motor vehicle is used contrary to clause 14 or 17, the driver and owner of the motor vehicle are each taken to be guilty of an offence under that provision.
- (2) Subclause (1) does not affect the liability of the actual offender but, if a penalty has been imposed or recovered from any person in relation to the offence (whether the actual offender, the driver or the owner), no further penalty may be imposed on or recovered from any other person. In this subclause, penalty includes a penalty under a penalty notice.

- (3) Subclause (1) does not apply to the owner of a motor vehicle if the motor vehicle was at the time of the commission of the offence a stolen motor vehicle or a motor vehicle illegally taken or used.
- (4) Subclause (1) does not apply to the owner of a motor vehicle if the owner was not in the motor vehicle at the relevant time and:
 - (a) gives notice in accordance with subclause (5) of the name and address of the person who was in charge of the motor vehicle at the relevant time, or
 - (b) satisfies the officer who gave the penalty notice for the offence or the court dealing with the offence (as the case requires) that the owner did not know, and could not with reasonable diligence have ascertained, that name and address.
- (5) The notice must be verified by statutory declaration and:
 - (a) if a penalty notice has been given for the offence—the notice must be given to an officer specified in the penalty notice for the purpose within 28 days after service of the penalty notice, and
 - (b) if a court is dealing with the offence—the notice must be given to the informant within 28 days after service of the summons for the offence.
- (6) A person who gives a statement for the purposes of subclause (4) knowing that it is false is guilty of an offence.
Maximum penalty: 10 penalty units.
- (7) This clause does not apply to or in respect of an act or omission that occurred before the commencement of this clause.

[4] Clause 30 Vessels not to emit offensive noise

Omit “or permit”.

[5] Clause 30A

Insert after clause 30:

30A Liability of owner of vessel

- (1) If a vessel is used contrary to clause 30, the person in charge and owner of the vessel are each taken to be guilty of an offence under that clause.
- (2) Subclause (1) does not affect the liability of the actual offender but, if a penalty has been imposed or recovered from any person in relation to the offence (whether the actual offender, the person in charge or the owner), no further penalty may be imposed on or recovered from any other person. In this subclause, penalty includes a penalty under a penalty notice.
- (3) Subclause (1) does not apply to the owner of a vessel if the vessel was at the time a stolen vessel or a vessel illegally taken or used.
- (4) Subclause (1) does not apply to the owner of a vessel if the owner was not in the vessel at the relevant time and:
 - (a) gives notice in accordance with subclause (5) of the name and address of the person who was in charge of the vessel at the relevant time, or
 - (b) satisfies the officer who gave the penalty notice for the offence or the court dealing with the offence (as the case requires) that the owner did not know, and could not with reasonable diligence have ascertained, that name and address.
- (5) The notice must be verified by statutory declaration and:
 - (a) if a penalty notice has been given for the offence—the notice must be given to an officer specified in the penalty notice for the purpose within 28 days after service of the penalty notice, and
 - (b) if a court is dealing with the offence—the notice must be given to the informant within 28 days after service of the summons for the offence.

- (6) A person who gives a statement for the purposes of subclause (4) knowing that it is false is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: 10 penalty units.

- (7) This clause does not apply to or in respect of an act or omission that occurred before the commencement of this clause.
