Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Amendment (Change of Name) Bill 2012

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The object of this Bill is to amend the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995:

- (a) to provide that certain classes of persons (restricted persons), including inmates of correctional centres, persons on remand and forensic patients, may not make an application to change their name unless the supervising authority has approved of the change of name, and
- (b) to provide that the Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages (the Registrar) may not register the change of name of a restricted person unless that approval has been obtained, and
- (c) to provide that the Registrar must not, during a specified period, register the name of a person who was a serious offender unless the approval of the Commissioner of Corrective Services and the Commissioner of Police has been obtained, and
- (d) to set out the criteria for granting approvals, and
- (e) to provide a right to apply to the Administrative Decisions Tribunal for the review of certain decisions under the new provisions, and

- (f) to provide a right of appeal in relation to certain decisions of the Mental Health Review Tribunal under the new provisions.

The Bill also makes consequential amendments to the Child Protection (Offenders Registration) Act 2000, the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Regulation 2011 and the Mental Health Regulation 2007.

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 sets out the name (also called the short title) of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

Schedule 1      Amendment of Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995 No 62

Schedule 1 [1] defines certain terms used for the purposes of Part 5 of the Act which deals with the registration by the Registrar of name changes of persons.

Schedule 1 [2] inserts a new Division 3 into Part 5 of the Act which contains the following provisions:

Proposed section 31A provides that the proposed Division contains requirements and restrictions that are additional to the other requirements and restrictions of Part 5 and excludes the application of the proposed Division in certain circumstances, such as where a court orders a change of name.

Proposed section 31B defines restricted person to mean inmates of correctional centres, persons on remand in correctional centres, persons that are subject to certain supervision orders made by a court but are not in custody, persons on parole, periodic detainees, forensic patients and correctional patients (within the meaning of Part 5 of the Mental Health (Forensic Provisions) Act 1990). The regulations may include and exclude certain classes of persons from the definition.

Proposed section 31C makes it an offence for a restricted person, or a person acting on behalf of a restricted person, to apply to the Registrar, or to the Registrar's counterpart in another State or Territory, for the registration of a change of the restricted person's name unless the approval of the supervising authority has been obtained. The supervising authority is generally the Commissioner of Corrective Services or, in the case of a forensic patient, the Mental Health Review Tribunal.

Proposed section 31D provides that a supervising authority may give approval for the registration of a restricted person's change of name only if satisfied that the change of name is in all the circumstances necessary or reasonable. The proposed section also specifies circumstances in which the approval must not be given, for example, if it is reasonably likely that it will threaten the security of premises at which the person is held, that it is for the purpose of evading or hindering supervision of the person or that the proposed name would be regarded as offensive by a victim of crime or an appreciable sector of the community.

In the case of a forensic patient who is also an inmate, on remand, subject to a supervision order, on parole or a periodic detainee, the Mental Health Review Tribunal must consult with and obtain the concurrence of the Commissioner of Corrective Services to the change of name before giving approval.

Proposed section 31E prevents the Registrar registering a change of name of a restricted person if an approval under the proposed Division has not been given by the supervising authority.

Proposed section 31F prevents the Registrar registering a change of name of a person who is a former serious offender unless the Commissioner of Corrective Services and the Commissioner of Police have approved of the change of name. The restriction will not apply if a 10-year period has passed during which the person has not served a term of imprisonment for an offence.

Proposed section 31G enables the Registrar to alter the Register maintained under section 43 of the Act if a change of name of a person has been registered contrary to the requirements of the proposed Division.

Proposed section 31H enables regulations to be made for the purposes of the proposed Division.

Schedule 1 [3] inserts proposed sections 31I–31L into the Act.

Proposed section 31I provides for supervising authorities and the Commissioner of Corrective Services to provide information on restricted persons and former serious offenders to the Registrar to enable the Registrar to appropriately deal with applications for a change of name by those persons.

Proposed section 31J provides a right of review to the Administrative Decisions Tribunal in relation to certain decisions under the proposed provisions. Schedule 1 [4] makes a consequential amendment.

Proposed section 31K provides a right of appeal from certain decisions of the Mental Health Review Tribunal under the proposed provisions.

Proposed section 31L enables the Commissioner of Corrective Services or the Commissioner of Police to classify certain information as security sensitive information. Security sensitive information need not be disclosed by those Commissioners when giving reasons for certain decisions under the proposed provisions. Also, the Administrative Decisions Tribunal, when reviewing those decisions, is to ensure that such information is not disclosed without the approval of the Commissioner who made the decision.

Schedule 1 [5] and [6] contain provisions of a savings and transitional nature consequent on the enactment of the proposed Act.

Schedule 2      Consequential amendment of other legislation

Schedule 2.1 amends the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Regulation 2011 to prescribe certain exclusions from the definition of restricted person.

Schedule 2.2 amends the Child Protection (Offenders Registration) Act 2000 to make it clear that the requirements of Part 3A of that Act relating to the change of name of a registrable person within the meaning of that Act are in addition to the requirements under proposed Division 3 of Part 5 of the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995.

Schedule 2.3 amends the Mental Health Regulation 2007 to provide for the way in which the Mental Health Review Tribunal is to be constituted when exercising functions under proposed Division 3 of Part 5 of the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995.

Division 2      General requirements relating to change of name 30
31

[2] Part 5, Division 3	1
Insert after section 31:	2
Division 3      Change of name restrictions for certain persons	3 4
31A Application of Division	5
(1) The requirements and restrictions contained in this Division are in addition to any other requirements and restrictions contained in this Part.	6 7 8
(2) This Division does not apply to a change of name resulting from the exercise of a power, or the operation of an Act, referred to in section 29C (3).	9 10 11
Note. The Child Protection (Offenders Registration) Act 2000 contains additional requirements and restrictions in relation to the change of name of registrable persons within the meaning of that Act.	12 13 14
31B Restricted persons	15
(1) For the purposes of this Part, a restricted person means any of the following persons:	16 17
(a) an inmate,	18
(b) a person on remand,	19
(c) a parolee,	20
(d) a periodic detainee,	21
(e) a person who is subject to a supervision order,	22
(f) a forensic patient,	23
(g) a correctional patient,	24
(h) a person of a class included by the regulations under subsection (2).	25 26
(2) The regulations may include as a class of restricted person any person of a class that comprises the whole or any part of either or both of the following classes:	27 28 29
(a) persons that are in lawful custody,	30
(b) persons that are the subject of an order made under an Act authorising some form of supervision or conditional release of the person concerned in connection with the commission, or the alleged commission, of an offence	31 32 33 34

(3)	Despite subsection (1), a restricted person does not include any person of a class prescribed by the regulations as not being a class of restricted persons.	1 2 3
31C	Applications for change of name by or on behalf of restricted person	4 5
(1)	A restricted person must not do any of the following without having first obtained the written approval of the supervising authority:	6 7 8
(a)	apply to the Registrar to register a change of his or her name under this Act,	9 10
(b)	apply to an interstate Registrar to register a change of his or her name under a corresponding law.	11 12
	Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.	13
(2)	A person must not, on behalf of a restricted person, do any of the following without having first obtained the written approval of the supervising authority:	14 15 16
(a)	apply to the Registrar to register a change of the restricted person's name under this Act,	17 18
(b)	apply to an interstate Registrar to register a change of the restricted person's name under a corresponding law.	19 20
	Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.	21
31D	Approval by supervising authority	22
(1)	The supervising authority may approve the making of an application to the Registrar for registration of a change of name of a restricted person only if the authority is satisfied that the change of name is in all the circumstances necessary or reasonable.	23 24 25 26 27
(2)	The supervising authority must not approve the making of an application to the Registrar for registration of a change of name of a restricted person if the authority is satisfied that:	28 29 30
(a)	the change of name would, if registered, be reasonably likely:	31 32
(i)	to adversely affect the security, discipline or good order of any premises or facility at which the restricted person is held or accommodated, or	33 34 35
(ii)	to jeopardise the restricted person's or another person's health or safety, or	36 37
(iii)	to be used to further an unlawful activity or purpose, or	38 39

- (iv) to be used to evade or hinder the supervision of the restricted person, or 1
- (b) the proposed name would be reasonably likely to be regarded as offensive by a victim of crime or an appreciable sector of the community. 3
- (3) The supervising authority for a restricted person who is a forensic patient and a person referred to in section 31B (1) (a), (b), (c), (d) or (e) must not approve the making of an application to the Registrar for registration of a change of the person's name unless the authority has consulted with the Commissioner of Corrective Services and the Commissioner has given concurrence. 6
10
11
- Note. The supervising authority for all forensic patients is the Mental Health Review Tribunal. 12 13
- (4) Subsections (1) and (2) apply to a determination of the Commissioner of Corrective Services as to whether to give concurrence in the same way as those subsections apply to a determination of a supervising authority as to whether to give approval. 14
15
16
17
18
- (5) If the supervising authority approves of the making of an application to the Registrar for registration of a change of name of a restricted person, the authority must: 19
20
21
- (a) as soon as practicable, give written notice of the approval to the person who intends to make the application, and 22 23
- (b) give a copy of the written notice of approval to the Registrar or the interstate Registrar (as the case requires). 24 25
- 31E Additional requirements for registration of change of name of restricted person 26 27
- (1) The Registrar must not register a change of name of a restricted person unless the Registrar has received a copy of the notice of approval of the supervising authority to the application for registration of a change of name. 28 29
30
31
- (2) The Registrar must give written notice to the supervising authority of a decision of the Registrar to register or refuse to register a change of name of a restricted person. 32
33
34
- (3) The Registrar must give written notice: 35
- (a) to the Commissioner of Corrective Services when the Registrar registers the name of a person who is a forensic patient and a person referred to in section 31B (1) (a), (b), (c), (d) or (e), and 36
37
38
39

(b)	to the Commissioner of Police when the Registrar registers the name of a person who is a restricted person and a registrable person (within the meaning of the Child Protection (Offenders Registration) Act 2000 ).	1 2 3 4
31F	Additional requirements for registration of change of name of former serious offender	5 6
(1)	The Registrar must not register a change of name of a former serious offender unless the Registrar has first obtained the written approval of the Commissioner of Corrective Services and the Commissioner of Police.	7 8 9 10
(2)	However, the Registrar is not required to obtain the approval of the Commissioner of Police under this section if the Commissioner has given approval under Part 3A of the Child Protection (Offenders Registration) Act 2000 to the making of the relevant application to change the name.	11 12 13 14 15
(3)	The Commissioner of Corrective Services and the Commissioner of Police may approve the making of an application to the Registrar for registration of a change of name of a former serious offender only if satisfied that the change of name is in all the circumstances necessary or reasonable.	16 17 18 19 20
(4)	The Commissioner of Corrective Services and the Commissioner of Police must not give an approval under this section if satisfied that:	21 22 23
(a)	the change of name would, if registered, be reasonably likely:	24 25
(i)	to jeopardise the former serious offender's or another person's health or safety, or	26 27
(ii)	to be used to further an unlawful activity or purpose, or	28 29
(b)	the proposed name would be reasonably likely to be regarded as offensive by a victim of crime or an appreciable sector of the community.	30 31 32
(5)	This section does not apply to the change of name of a person who is a former serious offender if:	33 34
(a)	at any time since the release date, the person has had a prison-free period of 10 consecutive years, or	35 36
(b)	at the time of making the application for the change of name, the person is a restricted person, or	37 38

(c)	the person's conviction for an offence as a result of which the person became a serious offender has been quashed or set aside.	1 2 3
(6)	This section applies to a former serious offender despite the Criminal Records Act 1991 .	4 5
(7)	In this section: prison-free period , in relation to a person who is a former serious offender, means any period during which the person has not served any part of a term of imprisonment (whether in New South Wales or elsewhere) as a result of being convicted of any offence. release date , in relation to a person who is a former serious offender, means:	6 7 8 9 10 11 12
(a)	the date on which the last sentence of imprisonment that the person served wholly or partly as a serious offender (whether in New South Wales or elsewhere) expired or, if the person was serving one or more other sentences of imprisonment consecutively or concurrently with that sentence of imprisonment, the date on which the combined terms of all of the sentences expired, or	13 14 15 16 17 18 19
(b)	if the person was a serious offender and a forensic patient, the date on which the person ceased to be a serious offender.	20 21 22
31G	Registrar may correct Register	23
(1)	The Registrar may correct the Register under section 45 if a change of name of a person has been registered in contravention of this Division.	24 25 26
(2)	This section does not limit the power of the Registrar under section 45 to correct the Register.	27 28
31H	Regulations for purposes of Division	29
	The regulations may make provision for or with respect to the making of applications under this Division, the giving of approvals and concurrences under this Division, consultation requirements for supervising authorities, exemptions from the requirements of any of the provisions of this Division and the modification of the application of the provisions of this Division in any specified circumstances.	30 31 32 33 34 35 36

Division 4      Miscellaneous	3
31I Information-sharing between relevant authorities and Registrar	4
(1) A supervising authority:	5
(a) must ensure that the Registrar is provided with information as to the identity of the restricted persons for whom it is the supervising authority, including the following information in relation to each of those persons (if known to the authority):	6 7 8 9 10
(i) the name (including any other name by which a restricted person is or has previously been known),	11 12
(ii) the date and place of birth of each restricted person,	13
(iii) the residential address or addresses of each restricted person, and	14 15
(b) must provide that information in the form and manner agreed to from time to time between the authority and the Registrar, and	16 17 18
(c) must notify the Registrar as soon as practicable after a person ceases to be a restricted person if the Registrar has previously been notified by the authority that the person is a restricted person.	19 20 21 22
(2) The Commissioner of Corrective Services:	23
(a) must ensure that the Registrar is provided with information as to the identity of persons who are former serious offenders, including the following information in relation to each of those persons (if known to the Commissioner):	24 25 26 27
(i) the name (including any other name by which each such person is or has previously been known),	28 29
(ii) the date and place of birth of each such person,	30
(iii) the residential address or addresses of each such person,	31 32
(iv) the release date of each such person (within the meaning of section 31F), and	33 34
(b) must provide that information in the form and manner agreed to from time to time between the Commissioner and the Registrar.	35 36 37
(3) This section has effect despite any law to the contrary.	38

31J	Review by Administrative Decisions Tribunal of certain decisions under this Part	1 2
	A person may apply to the Administrative Decisions Tribunal for a review of the following decisions in relation to the making of an application to the Registrar for the change of name of the person:	3 4 5 6
	(a) a decision of the supervising authority (other than the Mental Health Review Tribunal) under Division 3 to refuse to approve the making of the application,	7 8 9
	(b) a decision by the Commissioner of Corrective Services to refuse to give concurrence under section 31D (3) to the making of the application,	10 11 12
	(c) a decision by the Commissioner of Corrective Services or the Commissioner of Police to refuse to give approval under section 31F to the making of the application.	13 14 15
31K	Appeals from decisions of Mental Health Review Tribunal under this Part	16 17
	(1) A restricted person may appeal to the Forensic Division of the Mental Health Review Tribunal against a decision of the Tribunal under Division 3 to refuse to approve the making of an application to the Registrar for registration of a change of name of the restricted person.	18 19 20 21 22
	(2) A restricted person may appeal against the determination of an appeal by the Forensic Division of the Mental Health Review Tribunal under this section to the Supreme Court in accordance with section 163 of the Mental Health Act 2007 .	23 24 25 26
	(3) This section does not give a right of appeal against a decision of the Mental Health Review Tribunal that was made only because the Commissioner of Corrective Services refused to give concurrence under section 31D (3).	27 28 29 30
	(4) In this section, the Forensic Division of the Mental Health Review Tribunal has the same meaning as in Part 5 of the Mental Health (Forensic Provisions) Act 1990 .	31 32 33
31L	Protection of security sensitive information	34
	(1) This section applies to the following decisions:	35
	(a) a decision of the Commissioner of Corrective Services to refuse to give approval or concurrence under section 31D or 31F on a ground referred to in section 31D (2) (a),	36 37 38
