The term means an individual who provides ongoing care or assistance to a person in the target group referred to in the Disability Services Act 1993, a person with a mental illness or chronic illness or a person who, because of frailty, requires assistance to carry out everyday tasks. A carer does not include designated service providers under that Act or persons providing care or assistance under a contract of service or as a volunteer. Clause 10 provides that the Advisory Council consists of the Minister administering the proposed Act, other Ministers who are responsible for providing key support services to carers and persons appointed by the Minister as members who have knowledge of, and experience in, matters relevant to carers. A majority of members must be primary carers.

Clause 11 sets out the functions of the Advisory Council which include to work to advance the interests of carers and promote compliance by NSW government agencies with the proposed Act.

Clause 12 requires the Advisory Council to prepare a report each year for the Minister, and at such other times as the Minister requests, on certain matters including the performance by NSW government agencies of their obligations under the proposed Act.
