

New South Wales

Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Amendment (Homelessness Reporting Age) Bill 2010

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The object of this Bill is to amend the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998 to require the Director-General of the Department of Human Services to act on reports on the homelessness of young persons who are 16 years old and to enable such reports to be made without the consent of the young person concerned. At present, reports on the homelessness of young persons (namely 16 and 17-year olds) may only be made with the consent of the young person and the Director-General is not required to act on any such report.

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 sets out the name (also called the short title) of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act on the date of assent to the proposed Act.

Clause 3 amends the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998 in the manner described in the above overview.
