Item [4] explicitly provides that those directions may relate to financial management governance. Item [3] makes a consequential amendment.	17 18
Items [5] and [6] recast a provision that requires the Head of an authority to establish an effective internal audit organisation, to clarify that such an organisation is not required to be internal to the authority. The proposed amendment replaces the requirement to establish such an organisation with a requirement to establish effective arrangements for the internal audit of the authority (which may include the establishment of any internal or external organisation responsible for the internal audit).	19 20 21 22 23
Item [7] requires the Head of an authority to establish and maintain for the authority effective arrangements for ensuring the integrity of financial information, managing risks and ensuring compliance with the Principal Act.	24 25 26
Item [8] replaces the requirement that the accounting procedures for an authority be maintained in a single manual with more flexible arrangements relating to the form in which information about those procedures may be kept and used by officers of the authority.	27 28 29
Item [9] provides an exception to a secrecy provision of the Principal Act to enable the Auditor-General, an auditor or an authorised person to report or communicate any matter or thing relating to the audit of an authority to a body established to monitor the audit and risk management arrangements of the authority.	30 31 32 33

(a) a member of staff of the Department of Trade and Investment, Regional Infrastructure and Services,	47 48

	(b) a member of staff of an agency of another State or a Territory that administers radiation control legislation,	1 2
	(c) a person of a class prescribed by the regulations.	3
	(2B) A person to whom the exercise of a function is delegated under subsection (2) must exercise the function in accordance with any conditions or limitations specified in the regulations made under that subsection.	4 5 6
	Note. The instrument of delegation may also limit the delegation. See section 49 of the Interpretation Act 1987 .	7 8
[4]	Section 5A (3)	9
	Omit “The Authority cannot”.	10
	Insert instead “Neither the Authority nor the Chairperson of the Authority can”.	11
[5]	Section 5A (7)	12
	Insert “, in respect of any persons or any public body exercising functions under this section” after “1997”.	13 14
[6]	Section 28 Recovery of costs	15
	Omit section 28 (2). Insert instead:	16
	(2) If a notice under section 18 is served on a person, or a direction under section 19 is given to a person, the Authority may, by giving notice in writing, require the person to pay all or any reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the Authority in connection with:	17 18 19 20
	(a) monitoring action under the notice or direction, and	21
	(b) ensuring that the notice or direction is complied with, and	22
	(c) any other associated matters.	23
	(2A) The Authority may give such a notice even if it did not issue the relevant notice under section 18 or the relevant direction under section 19.	24 25
[7]	Section 29 Radiation Advisory Council	26
	Omit “Director-General” from section 29 (2) (k). Insert instead “Secretary”.	27
[8]	Section 39A Personal liability	28
	Omit “on behalf of a public body” from section 39A (e).	29
	Explanatory note	30
	Items [2] and [7] of the proposed amendments to the Radiation Control Act 1990 (the Principal Act) update references to Departments and their heads, including as a consequence of changes made by the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 .	31 32 33
	Item [3] enables the Secretary of the Department of Trade and Investment, Regional Infrastructure and Services to delegate functions of the Environment Protection Authority (the EPA), or the Chairperson of the EPA, in respect of radioactive ore that the regulations under the Principal Act provide that the Secretary may exercise. Items [1], [5] and [8] are consequential amendments.	34 35 36 37
	Item [4] provides that the Chairperson of the EPA and the EPA (rather than just the EPA, as is currently the case) cannot exercise functions in respect of radioactive ore that the regulations provide the Secretary may exercise.	38 39 40
	Item [6] enables the EPA to require a person given certain notices or directions to reimburse the EPA for certain related costs and expenses incurred by it (for example, in ensuring that the notice or action is complied with), regardless of who gave the notice or issued the direction. The proposed amendment replaces an existing provision that wrongly describes the persons who may give the notices concerned and only refers to the giving of the directions concerned by the EPA (whereas such directions can also be issued by an authorised officer, police officer or other person appointed for that purpose by the EPA).	41 42 43 44 45 46 47

(d) to give any notice authorised or required under this Part,	17
(e) to do or facilitate the doing of any other thing authorised or required under this Part.	18 19
(3) Use of the online rental bond service is subject to any terms and conditions imposed by the Director-General.	20 21
(4) A landlord, landlord's agent or any other person must not require a tenant or another person to use the online rental bond service. Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.	22 23 24
(5) A notice or other document that is authorised or required by this Part, or under a provision of a residential tenancy agreement that relates to the requirements of this Part, may be given or served by a user of the online rental bond service to or on any other user of the online rental bond service by delivering it electronically to an address nominated by the user as an address for service of the notice or other document.	25 26 27 28 29 30
(6) In this section:	31
user of the online rental bond service means:	32
(a) the Director-General, or	33
(b) any tenant, landlord or landlord's agent, or person acting on behalf of a tenant or landlord, who has agreed to use the online rental bond service.	34 35
[3] Section 159 Payment of bonds	36

(2A) Subsection (2) does not prevent a landlord, landlord's agent or other person from requiring a tenant or other person who has agreed to deposit a rental bond for a residential tenancy agreement with the Director-General to provide evidence that the rental bond has been so deposited before the residential tenancy agreement is entered into.	38 39 40 41 42

[6] Section 222 Functions of Director-General	6

[7] Schedule 2 Savings, transitional and other provisions	11
Insert after Part 4:	12
Part 5 Provision consequent on enactment of Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2014	13 14
18 Application of amendment	15
The amendment made to section 100 by the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2014 extends to residential tenancy agreements entered into before the commencement of the amendment but does not affect the validity of any termination notice given before the commencement of the amendment.	16 17 18 19
Explanatory note	20
Item [1] of the proposed amendments to the Residential Tenancies Act 2010 (the Principal Act) clarifies a provision that allows a tenant to terminate a fixed term tenancy agreement, without paying compensation to the landlord, if the landlord notifies an intention to sell the premises and did not disclose the proposed sale before entering into the residential tenancy agreement. The proposed amendment makes it clear that the tenant’s right to terminate is linked to the requirement imposed on the landlord by section 26 of the Principal Act. That section requires a landlord, before entering into a residential tenancy agreement, to disclose any proposal to sell the premises for which a contract for sale has been prepared. A tenant will have a right to terminate the agreement early, unless the proposed sale was disclosed in accordance with that section. Item [7] applies the proposed amendment made by item [1] to existing residential tenancy agreements.	21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30
Item [2] allows an online rental bond service to be established. The online rental bond service is an online facility or system that may be used to deposit a rental bond, to make a claim for payment of a rental bond, and for other matters relating to rental bonds. The service will be an alternative to the current (paper-based) service and use of the service will be voluntary. Accordingly, it will be an offence for a landlord to require a tenant to use the online rental bond service. The proposed amendment will permit communications between users of the service to be made by electronic (instead of paper-based) communication.	31 32 33 34 35 36 37
Item [3] is consequent on item [2]. Item [3] makes it clear that a landlord is not prevented from requiring a tenant who has agreed to deposit a rental bond with the Commissioner for Fair Trading, Office of Finance and Services to provide evidence that the rental bond has been deposited with the Commissioner before the residential tenancy agreement is entered into. Generally, a landlord can only require payment of a rental bond at the time that a residential tenancy agreement is entered into. The online rental bond service will permit a tenant to deposit a rental bond directly with the Commissioner before a residential tenancy agreement is entered into.	38 39 40 41 42 43 44
Items [4] and [5] update references to the Department of Human Services and the Director-General of that Department (now the Department of Family and Community Services and the Secretary of that Department).	45 46 47
Item [6] expands the functions of the Commissioner for Fair Trading to include assisting tenants and landlords and persons acting on their behalf to resolve complaints or disputes as the Commissioner considers appropriate.	48 49 50

1.19 Retirement Villages Act 1999 No 81	1
[1] Section 4 Definitions	2
Insert in alphabetical order in section 4 (1):	3
business day means a day other than a Saturday, Sunday, public holiday or bank holiday in New South Wales.	4 5
[2] Section 7 Meaning of “registered interest holder”	6
Omit “registered” from section 7 (1) (c). Insert instead “registrable”.	7
[3] Section 7 (2)	8
Omit “ registered long-term lease ”. Insert instead “ registrable long-term lease ”.	9
[4] Section 7 (2)	10
Insert “that is, or is capable of being,” before “registered under”.	11
[5] Section 7A Meaning of “capital gain”	12
Omit “, less any costs associated with the subsequent sale or lease of the premises” from section 7A (1).	13 14
[6] Section 102A Meaning of “prescribed CPI variation”	15
Omit “the village contract was entered into” from section 102A (1) (a).	16
Insert instead “the date that was 12 months before the date of the proposed variation”.	17
[7] Section 180 Payments to former occupants who were registered interest holders	18
Omit the note to the section.	19
[8] Section 180 (2)	20
Omit “following the sale of the premises” from section 180 (2).	21
Insert instead “under a village contract”.	22
[9] Section 201 Service of documents	23
Omit “working day” from section 201 (3). Insert instead “business day”.	24
[10] Schedule 4 Savings, transitional and other provisions	25
Insert after Part 3:	26
37 Application of amendment relating to definition of “capital gain”	27
The amendment made to the definition of capital gain by the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2014 extends to village contracts entered into before the commencement of that item, but not so as to affect the calculation of any capital gain that has been realised before that commencement.	28 29 30 31
Explanatory note	32
Item [1] of the proposed amendments to the Retirement Villages Act 1999 (the Principal Act) inserts a definition of business day that is consistent with the definition of that term in other fair trading legislation. Item [9] replaces a reference to “working day” with “business day” to ensure the consistent use of terminology in that Act.	33 34 35 36
Items [2]–[4] provide for persons who have certain long-term leases that are capable of being registered under the Real Property Act 1900 to be treated as registered interest holders for the purposes of the Principal Act even if the leases are not registered. Currently, the Principal Act requires such leases to be registered before the lessee can be treated as being a registered interest holder.	37 38 39 40

Item [5] provides that any costs associated with the subsequent sale or lease of premises are not to be included in the determination of a capital gain for the purposes of the Principal Act. The proposed amendment will ensure that a capital gain is simply the difference between what one resident paid for the right to reside in the premises and what the next resident paid for that right. Item [10] ensures that the proposed amendment made by item [5] extends to existing village contracts. 1

Item [6] clarifies what the term prescribed CPI variation means for the purposes of the first variation of recurrent charges under a village contract so that it applies uniformly for all residents regardless of when they entered their village contracts. 6

Division 4 of Part 7 of the Principal Act enables an operator of a retirement village to make the first variation of recurrent charges by giving a resident 14 days' written notice of the variation, but only if the village contract provides that recurrent charges are to be varied otherwise than in accordance with a fixed formula and the variation does not exceed the prescribed CPI variation. However, if the variation exceeds the prescribed CPI variation, then all of the residents affected must consent to the variation. 9
10
12
14

Currently, section 102A (1) of the Principal Act defines "prescribed CPI variation" to mean the difference between the Consumer Price Index (CPI) published most recently before the village contract was entered into and the CPI published most recently before the notice of the proposed variation is given. As a result, the prescribed CPI variation may differ between residents if the dates they entered their village contracts differed. 15
16
19

The proposed amendment to section 102A (1) will provide for the prescribed CPI variation to be calculated by reference to the difference between the CPI published most recently before the date that was 12 months before the date of the proposed variation and the CPI published most recently before the notice of the proposed variation is given. 20
23

Item [8] amends section 180 (2) of the Principal Act to ensure consistency of language with a comparable provision in section 181 (2) of that Act. The current introductory words to section 180 (2) suggest that it is limited to circumstances when there has been a sale of premises, but the provision lists a number of circumstances that do not arise when there has been a sale of premises. Item [7] makes a consequential amendment. 24

1.21 Subordinate Legislation Act 1989 No 146 37

Schedule 5 Further postponement of repeal of certain statutory rules 38

Insert after clause 1 of Schedule 5: 39

2 Postponement of statutory rules due for repeal in 2014 40

The following statutory rules remain in force until 1 September 2015, unless sooner repealed: 41
42

- (a) Adoption Regulation 2003, 43
- (b) Community Services (Complaints, Reviews and Monitoring) Regulation 2004, 44 45
- (c) Employment Protection Regulation 2001, 46
- (d) Environmental Planning and Assessment Regulation 2000, 47
- (e) Home Building Regulation 2004, 48
- (f) Industrial Relations (General) Regulation 2001. 49

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989 (the Principal Act) has the effect of keeping a number of regulations in force for a further period of one year after the date on which they would otherwise be repealed by that Act. However, any of the regulations may be repealed sooner by other legislation.

This is necessary as the regulations have each been postponed on at least 5 occasions and are now due to be repealed by the Principal Act on 1 September 2014.

Each of the regulations continue to be required and the repeal of each of the regulations is to be further postponed until 1 September 2015 for the following reasons:

- (a) The Child Protection Legislation Amendment Act 2014 (recently enacted by Parliament) contains amendments to the Adoption Act 2000 that are yet to commence. Consequential amendments to the Adoption Regulation 2003 are anticipated. It is therefore proposed to postpone the repeal of that Regulation pending the commencement of the amendments.
- (b) The Community Services (Complaints, Reviews and Monitoring) Amendment Bill 2014 is currently before Parliament and it is anticipated that the Bill will require consequential amendments to the Community Services (Complaints, Reviews and Monitoring) Regulation 2004. It is therefore proposed to postpone the repeal of that Regulation pending Parliament's consideration of the Bill.
- (c) As a result of the recent commencement of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 and changes to national industrial relations laws, the Office of Industrial Relations is to undertake a review of the Industrial Relations Act 1996 and the Employment Protection Act 1982. It is considered that it would be premature to remake the Employment Protection Regulation 2001 and the Industrial Relations (General) Regulation 2001 before the conclusion of that review.
- (d) The Home Building Amendment Bill 2014 is currently before Parliament and it is anticipated that the Bill will require consequential amendments to the Home Building Regulation 2004. It is therefore proposed to postpone the repeal of that Regulation pending Parliament's consideration of the Bill.
- (e) The Planning Bill 2013 (currently before Parliament) contains provisions to repeal and replace the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979 (and consequently repeal the Environmental Planning and Assessment Regulation 2000). It is therefore proposed to postpone the repeal of the Environmental Planning and Assessment Regulation 2000 pending Parliament's consideration of the Bill.

Section 54 Authentication of lists

Omit "stamped with the official stamp of or signed by the Valuer-General".

Insert instead "authenticated in such manner as the Valuer-General considers appropriate".

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the Valuation of Land Act 1916 enables the Valuer-General to authenticate valuation lists and supplementary lists in a manner the Valuer-General considers appropriate (such as electronic authentication), replacing the current requirement for those lists to be authenticated by means of a physical stamp or the Valuer-General's signature.

- (4) In this section:

(The exercise of both the current and the proposed entitlement is contingent on relevant water return flow rules being established under that Act.)	2 3 4 5 6 7

Schedule 5	General savings, transitional and other provisions	1
1	Effect of amendment of amending provisions	3
(1)	An amendment made by Schedule 1, 2 or 3 to an amending provision contained in an Act or instrument is, if the amending provision has commenced before the Schedule 1, 2 or 3 amendment concerned, taken to have effect as from the commencement of the amending provision (whether or not the amending provision has been repealed).	4 5 6 7 8
(2)	In this clause: amending provision means a provision of an Act or instrument that makes a direct amendment to an Act or instrument by:	9 10 11
(a)	the repeal or omission of matter contained in the amended Act or instrument without the insertion of any matter instead of the repealed or omitted matter, or	12 13
(b)	the omission of matter contained in the amended Act or instrument and the insertion of matter instead of the omitted matter, or	14 15
(c)	the insertion into the amended Act or instrument of matter, not being matter inserted instead of matter omitted from the Act or instrument.	16 17
	Explanatory note	18
	This clause ensures that certain amendments, including amendments correcting errors in technical provisions (for example, headings indicating the section to be amended or directions as to where a new section is to be inserted) and rectifying minor drafting errors (for example, corrections in numbering of provisions, correction or insertion of cross-references, omission of unnecessary matter or insertion of omitted matter), will be taken to have commenced on the date the amendments to which they relate commenced.	19 20 21 22 23 24
2	Effect of amendment or repeal on acts done or decisions made	25
	Except where it is expressly provided to the contrary, if this Act:	26
(a)	amends a provision of an Act or an instrument, or	27
(b)	repeals and re-enacts (with or without modification) a provision of an Act or an instrument,	28 29
	any act done or decision made under the provision amended or repealed has effect after the amendment or repeal as if it had been done or made under the provision as so amended or repealed.	30 31 32
	Explanatory note	33
	This clause ensures that the amendment or repeal of a provision will not, unless expressly provided, vitiate any act done or decision made under the provision as in force before the amendment or repeal.	34 35
3	Effect of amendment on instruments	36
	Except where expressly provided to the contrary, any instrument made under an Act amended by this Act, that is in force immediately before the commencement of the amendment, is taken to have been made under the Act as amended.	37 38 39
	Explanatory note	40
	This clause ensures that, unless expressly provided, any instrument that is in force and made under a provision of an Act that is amended or substituted by the proposed Act will be taken to have been made under the Act as amended.	41 42 43

4	Revocation of repeal	1
	Section 29A of the Interpretation Act 1987 applies to the repeal of Acts, or provisions of Acts, by this Act.	2 3
	Explanatory note	4

5	Regulations	8
(1)	The Governor may make regulations containing provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of this Act.	9 10
(2)	Any such provision may, if the regulations so provide, take effect from the date of assent to this Act or a later date.	11 12
(3)	To the extent to which any such provision takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication on the NSW legislation website, the provision does not operate so as:	13 14 15
	(a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication, or	16 17 18
	(b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication.	19 20 21
	Explanatory note	22
