Child Protection Legislation Amendment Bill 2013

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The object of this Bill is to amend the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998 (the Principal Act), the Adoption Act 2000, the Child Protection (Working with Children) Act 2012 and other legislation to implement miscellaneous reforms relating to the protection of children and young persons that are intended to:

- (a) promote good parenting and increase parental responsibility for children and young persons, and
- (b) achieve greater permanency for children and young persons in out-of-home care, and
- (c) modernise and create a more responsive and child focused system, and
- (d) improve the transparency and accountability of child protection services.

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 sets out the name (also called the short title) of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

Schedule 1 Amendment of Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998 No 157

Promotion of good parenting and increase of parental responsibility for children and young persons

Parent responsibility contracts

Schedule 1 [13]–[28] make a number of amendments to the Principal Act to expand the use, and increase the effectiveness, of parent responsibility contracts. The amendments:

- (a) amend sections 38A, 38B and 38E of the Principal Act to enable the Director-General of the Department of Family and Community Services (the Director-General) to enter into a parent responsibility contract with an expectant parent whose unborn child has been the subject of a pre-natal report under section 25 of the Principal Act and that contains provisions aimed at improving the parenting skills of the prospective parent and reducing the likelihood that the child will be at risk of significant harm after birth, and
- (b) amend section 38A (2) (e) of the Principal Act to extend the period during which a parent responsibility contract may be in force from 6 to 12 months after it is registered with the Children’s Court, and
- (c) omit section 38E (4) of the Principal Act to remove the automatic presumption that a child or young person is in need of care and protection if a contract breach notice is filed in the Children’s Court.

Schedule 1 [9] and [38] are consequential amendments.

Parent capacity orders

Schedule 1 [65] inserts Part 3 (proposed sections 91A–91I) into Chapter 5 of the Principal Act to enable the Children’s Court to make a new form of order requiring a parent or primary care-giver of a child or young person to attend or participate in a program, service or course or engage in therapy or treatment aimed at building or enhancing his or her parenting skills (a parent capacity order).

A parent capacity order will be able to be made on the application of the Director-General or on the Children’s Court’s own initiative if it finds that a prohibition order has been breached under proposed section 90A of the Principal Act. The Children’s Court may require the Director-General and the parent or primary care-giver concerned to attend a dispute resolution conference conducted by a Children’s Registrar so as to provide the parties with an opportunity to agree on action that should be taken to build or enhance the parenting skills of the parent or primary care-giver. The Children’s Court may make a parent capacity order if it is satisfied there is an identified deficiency in the parenting capacity of the parent or primary care-giver that has the potential to place the child or young person at risk of significant harm, that it is reasonable and practicable to require compliance with the order and that the parent or primary care-giver is unlikely to engage in the required program, service, course, therapy or treatment unless the order is made. The parties are able to make a parent capacity order by consent (proposed section 91F) and may seek its variation or revocation. Parties may also appeal on a question of law against the making of the order (proposed section 91I).

Schedule 1 [90] inserts Chapter 15A (proposed sections 244A–244C) into the Principal Act. Proposed section 244A defines alternative dispute resolution so as to encompass the different processes (such as family group conferencing) that may be used where the Act provides for use of alternative dispute resolution. Proposed section 244B limits the admissibility in proceedings in any court, tribunal or other body of anything said or done or any admission made during alternative dispute resolution. Proposed section 244C limits the circumstances in which a person who conducts or participates in alternative dispute resolution may disclose anything said or done or any admission made during the alternative dispute resolution to another person.

Schedule 1 [2], [10]–[12], [30]–[36], [66], [68] and [70] make amendments that are consequential on those made by Schedule 1 [65] and [90]. Schedule 1 [29] makes it clear that a parent capacity order is not a care order for the purposes of the Principal Act.

Achievement of greater permanency for children and young persons in out-of-home care

Permanent placement principles

Schedule 1 [5] and [6] amend sections 8 and 9, respectively, of the Principal Act and Schedule 1 [7] inserts proposed section 10A into that Act to provide for recognition that the primary means of providing for the safety, welfare and well-being of children and young persons is by providing them with long-term, safe, nurturing, stable and secure environments through permanent placement in accordance with permanent placement principles. Proposed section 10A (3) sets out the preferred hierarchy for permanent placements. Under the principles, the first preference is for a child or young person to be restored to the care of his or her parents, the second is for guardianship of a relative, kin or other suitable person, the third is (except in the case of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children and young persons) for the child or young person to be adopted and only after these options prove to be impracticable, or not in the best interests of the child or young person, for the child or young person to be placed as a last preference, under the parental responsibility of the Minister. In the case of an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander child or young person, adoption is the last preference. The principles are intended (subject to sections 8 and 9 of the Principal Act) to guide all actions and decisions made under the Act regarding permanent placements. Schedule 1 [47] and [48] amend section 78A of the Principal Act to require the permanent placement principles to be taken into account in the making of permanency plans. Proposed section 79 (3) (Schedule 1 [49]) requires the Children's Court to give particular consideration to the principles when making an order allocating parental responsibility.

Schedule 1 [53] amends section 83 (4) so that the Director-General must consider whether adoption is the preferred option for a child or young person in preparing a permanency plan for the placement of a child or young person for whom there is no realistic possibility of restoration to his or her parents.

Schedule 1 [1], [3],[4], [8], [54], [56] and [73] make consequential amendments to the Principal Act.

Out-of-home care

Schedule 1 [55] substitutes section 83 (5) of, and inserts proposed section 83 (5A) into, the Principal Act to require the Children's Court to make a decision about the feasibility of restoration within specified time frames unless it decides to defer the decision in the best interests of the child or young person.

Schedule 1 [80] substitutes section 153 (3) and inserts proposed section 153 (4) into the Principal Act to provide that a child or young person cannot be placed in out-of-home care with a relative or kin otherwise than by a court order for more than 2 years. Schedule 1 [79] is a consequential amendment.

Schedule 1 [81] amends section 155 of the Principal Act so that a designated agency will not be required to conduct a review under that section in relation to the out-of-home care arrangements of a child or young person who is in supported out-of-home care of a relative or kin pursuant to a court order in certain circumstances.

Allocation of parental responsibility and guardianship orders

Schedule 1 [49], [51] and [76]–[78] amend the Principal Act to clarify and enhance provisions of the Act relating to the allocation of parental responsibility.

Sections 79 and 81 are merged to provide a clearer system for the allocation of parental responsibility and provision is made for the making of guardianship orders by the Children's Court allocating all aspects of parental responsibility for a child or young person in statutory out-of-home care or supported out-of-home care or who it has found is in need of care and protection to one or more persons, jointly, until the child reaches 18 years of age (proposed sections 79A–79C).

The Children’s Court may make such an order only if satisfied that there is no realistic possibility of the child or young person being restored to his or her parents, that the child or young person will be provided with a safe, nurturing, stable and secure environment, that, in the case of an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander child or young person, the principles set out in section 13 of the Principal Act are applied and that, if the child or young person is 12 or more years of age and capable of giving consent, the child or young person has consented. Proposed section 79C makes provision for financial assistance with respect to children and young persons who are the subject of guardianship orders. Schedule 1 [94] includes savings and transitional provisions deeming orders under section 79 (1) (a) (iii) to be guardianship orders and preserving arrangements for financial assistance for such authorised carers. Schedule 2.5 amends the Guardianship Act 1987 to ensure there is no inconsistency between guardianship orders made under the Principal Act and guardianship orders made under that Act. Schedule 1 [74] amends section 135 to make it clear that a child or young person under a guardianship order is not in out-of-home care. Schedule 1 [40]–[43], [50], [52], [59] and [91] are consequential amendments.

Schedule 1 [76]–[78] repeal section 149 (which provides for the making of orders awarding sole parental responsibility for children and young persons for whom the Minister has parental responsibility to the authorised carers of the children or young persons in certain circumstances) and sections 149AA and 149A.

Adoption of children in out-of-home care

The Bill makes a number of amendments to the Principal Act and the Adoption Act 2000 to simplify the processes for the adoption of children and young persons in out-of-home care and enable more expeditious permanent placement of children and young persons.

Schedule 1 [75] amends section 137 of the Principal Act to enable a regulatory framework to be established for dual authorisation of authorised carers and prospective adoptive parents.

Schedule 1 [88] and [89] amend section 181 to confer functions on the Children’s Guardian of accrediting adoption service providers under the Adoption Act 2000 and monitoring the carrying out of their responsibilities and those of the Director-General with respect to the provision of adoption services under that Act.

Schedule 2.1 amends the Adoption Act 2000 as follows:

- (a) to provide for the Children’s Guardian to accredit non-government organisations to provide adoption services and to monitor the carrying out of their responsibilities and those of the Director-General with respect to adoption services under that Act (Schedule 2.1 [5]),
- (b) to establish a framework that will enable organisations providing services in relation to both out-of-home care and adoption to be accredited through a single process and to be subject to integrated standards in accordance with the regulations (proposed section 13, Schedule 2.1 [5]),
- (c) by establishing a framework for simplified procedures to enable the authorised carers of a child who is in out-of-home care to be invited to apply to adopt the child and to be assessed as suitable to adopt the child (Schedule 2.1 [9]),
- (d) to enable a birth parent who has not consented to the adoption of a child to be given the opportunity to participate in the development of, and agree to, the adoption plan for the child and to the review of such a plan (Schedule 2.1 [10]),
- (e) to ensure that prospective adoptive parents cannot be assessed to be suitable to adopt a child unless they (and adult persons residing with them) have a working with children check clearance under the Child Protection (Working with Children) Act 2012 (Schedule 2.1 [8]).

Schedule 2.2 amends the Child Protection (Working with Children) Act 2012 to require prospective adoptive parents and prospective guardians under proposed section 79A of the Principal Act, and adults residing with them, to obtain a working with children check clearance of the volunteer class in certain circumstances.

Modernise and provide a more child focused system

Supervision orders

Schedule 1 [44]–[46] amend section 76 of the Principal Act to enable the Children’s Court to make a supervision order under that section for a longer period than 12 months (but not exceeding 24 months) if it is satisfied of special circumstances warranting the making of an order of that length and it is appropriate to do so.

Contact orders

Schedule 1 [57] and [58] amend section 86 of the Principal Act to provide for more flexibility concerning the persons who may seek a contact order and for use of alternative dispute resolution regarding contact arrangements. Schedule 1 [38] is a consequential amendment.

Schedule 1 [60] inserts proposed section 86 (6) into the Principal Act to limit the duration of initial contact orders (where there is no realistic possibility of restoration of a child or young person to his or her parents) to a maximum period of 12 months.

Schedule 1 [61] inserts proposed section 86A into the Principal Act to enable a contact order to be varied in the light of a change in circumstances since the contact order was last made or varied by agreement of the parties to the proceedings in which the contact order was made who are affected by the variation.

Schedule 1 [62] amends section 90 of the Principal Act to require an applicant for rescission or variation of a care order to notify affected parties (subject to any order of the Children’s Court).

Prohibition orders

Schedule 1 [63] amends section 90A of the Principal Act to enable the Children’s Court to make prohibition orders during care proceedings prohibiting any persons, including persons who are not parties to the proceedings, from doing anything that could be done by a parent in carrying out his or her parental responsibility.

Schedule 1 [64] amends section 90A to enable parties to care proceedings in which a prohibition order is made to notify the Children’s Court of alleged breaches of the prohibition order and to confer on the Children’s Court powers to make orders if it determines a breach has occurred. The powers conferred include power to make a parent capacity order under proposed Part 3 of Chapter 5 (see Schedule 1 [65]).

Reporting requirements

Schedule 1 [71] and [72] amend section 122 of the Principal Act to clarify mandatory reporting requirements under that section so that they will not apply to friends or relatives who provide residential accommodation to a child living away from home without parental permission in specified circumstances.

Special medical treatment

Schedule 1 [84]–[86] amend section 175 of the Principal Act to provide that the prescription of drugs of addiction and treatment that does not comply with certain national health ethical guidelines is special medical treatment under the Principal Act and to enable the grant of exemptions in specified circumstances.

Schedule 1 [87] inserts proposed section 177A into the Principal Act to enable regulations to be made for or with respect to the procedures to be followed by the designated agency having supervisory responsibility for a child or young person in out-of-home care in authorising, consenting to or monitoring the physical, psychological, psychiatric or other medical examinations, treatment and control of the behaviour of the child or young person under Chapter 9 of the Principal Act.

Exchange of information

Schedule 1 [92] enables bodies and classes of bodies and organisations in addition to those specified in section 248 (6) to be prescribed for the purpose of Chapter 16A of the Principal Act. Chapter 16A provides for the exchange of information and co-ordination of services to children and young persons by prescribed bodies, authorises them to exchange relevant information and protects the confidentiality of information exchanged.

Improving transparency and accountability

Schedule 1 [67] amends section 105 of the Principal Act to make it clear that the provisions of that section prohibiting the publication of names and identifying information concerning children and young persons extend to publication on the internet.

Schedule 1 [83] inserts section 172A into the Principal Act to require the Director-General to report to the Minister annually with respect to the deaths of children and young persons in specified circumstances. The Minister is required to table a copy of the report in Parliament as soon as practicable after it is made.

Miscellaneous

Schedule 1 [37] inserts section 67A to make it clear that the Children's Court may make consecutive care orders.

Schedule 1 [69] amends section 116 to better reflect current practice with respect to notification of applications for orders for alternative parenting plans.

Schedule 1 [82] amends section 161 to enable the regulations to prescribe additional circumstances in which financial assistance may be provided under that section.

Schedule 1 [93] amends Schedule 3 to the Principal Act to enable the making of savings and transitional regulations.

Schedule 2.3 repeals the uncommenced provisions of the Children Legislation Amendment (Wood Inquiry Recommendations) Act 2009. Those provisions are superseded by the proposed amendments described above relating to contact orders and alternative dispute resolution.

79 Order (other than guardianship order) allocating parental responsibility	3
(1) The Children’s Court may make an order under this section allocating all aspects of parental responsibility, or one or more specific aspects of parental responsibility, for a child or young person who it finds is in need of care and protection for a period specified in the order:	4 5 6 7
(a) to one parent to the exclusion of the other, or to both parents jointly, or	8
(b) solely to the Minister, or	9
(c) to one or both parents and to the Minister jointly, or	10
(d) to one or both parents and to another person or persons jointly, or	11
(e) to the Minister and another suitable person or persons jointly, or	12
(f) to a suitable person or persons jointly.	13
(2) The specific aspects of parental responsibility that may be allocated by an order of the Children’s Court under subsection (1) include, but are not limited to, the following:	14 15 16
(a) the residence of the child or young person,	17
(b) contact,	18
(c) the education and training of the child or young person,	19
(d) the religious and cultural upbringing of the child or young person,	20
(e) the medical and dental treatment of the child or young person.	21
(3) The Children’s Court must not make an order allocating parental responsibility unless it has given particular consideration to the permanent placement principles and is satisfied that the order is in the best interests of the child or young person.	22 23 24 25
(4) Without limiting subsection (3), the Children’s Court must not make an order under this section if, taking into account the permanent placement principles, it would be more appropriate to make a guardianship order than an order under this section.	26 27 28 29
(5) The Children’s Court must not make an order allocating parental responsibility for a child or young person if the order would be inconsistent with:	30 31 32
(a) any order made with respect to the child or young person by the Supreme Court in the exercise of its jurisdiction with respect to the custody and guardianship of children, or	33 34 35
(b) a guardianship order with respect to the young person made by the Guardianship Tribunal.	36 37
(6) If an order allocates all aspects of parental responsibility for a child or young person to the Minister, the Minister must, so far as is reasonably practicable, have regard to the views of the persons who had parental responsibility for the child or young person before the order was made while still recognising that the safety, welfare and well-being of the child or young person remains the paramount consideration.	38 39 40 41 42 43
(7) If aspects of parental responsibility are allocated jointly between the Minister and another person or persons, either the Minister or the other person may	44 45

exercise those aspects but, if they disagree concerning their exercise, the disagreement is to be resolved by order of the Children’s Court.	1 2
(8) The Children’s Court must not make an order allocating parental responsibility jointly between two or more persons unless it is satisfied that the persons can work together co-operatively in the best interests of the child or young person.	3 4 5 6
79A Allocation of parental responsibility by guardianship order	7
(1) In this Act:	8
guardian means a person who has been allocated all aspects of parental responsibility for a child or young person until the child or young person reaches 18 years of age by a guardianship order made under this section.	9 10 11
prospective guardian means the person to whom it is proposed to allocate parental responsibility for a child or young person under a guardianship order.	12 13
(2) An order may be made by the Children’s Court allocating to a suitable person all aspects of parental responsibility for a child or young person who is in statutory out-of-home care or supported out-of-home care or who it finds is in need of care and protection until the child or young person reaches 18 years of age (a guardianship order).	14 15 16 17 18
(3) The Children’s Court must not make a guardianship order unless it is satisfied that:	19 20
(a) there is no realistic possibility of restoration of the child or young person to his or her parents, and	21 22
(b) that the prospective guardian will provide a safe, nurturing, stable and secure environment for the child or young person and will continue to do so in the future, and	23 24 25
(c) if the child or young person is an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander child or young person—permanent placement of the child or young person under the guardianship order is in accordance with the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Child and Young Person Placement Principles that apply to placement of such a child or young person in statutory out-of-home care under section 13, and	26 27 28 29 30 31
(d) if the child or young person is 12 or more years of age and capable of giving consent—the consent of the child or young person is given in the form and manner prescribed by the regulations.	32 33 34
(4) A guardianship order may allocate parental responsibility jointly to more than one person.	35 36
(5) The Children’s Court must not make a guardianship order with respect to a child or young person if the order would be inconsistent with:	37 38
(a) any order made with respect to the child or young person by the Supreme Court in the exercise of its jurisdiction with respect to the custody and guardianship of children, or	39 40 41
(b) a guardianship order with respect to the young person made by the Guardianship Tribunal.	42 43
(6) A guardianship order remains in force (unless sooner varied or rescinded under section 90) until the child or young person concerned reaches 18 years of age.	44 45 46
(7) A guardianship order may only be made as a final order.	47

79B Applications for guardianship orders	1
(1) Despite section 61 (1), an application for a guardianship order may be made by the following:	2
(a) the Director-General,	3
(b) with the written consent of the Director-General—the designated agency responsible for supervising the placement of the child or young person,	4
(c) with the written consent of the Director-General—a person who is an authorised carer or who has been assessed, in accordance with the regulations, by the Director-General or designated agency in relation to a child or young person to be a suitable person to be allocated all aspects of parental responsibility for the child or young person.	5
(2) The Children’s Court may order an applicant for a guardianship order to notify those persons specified by the Children’s Court of the making of the application.	6
Note. Section 256A sets out the circumstances in which the Children’s Court may dispense with service.	7
(3) Subject to any order the Children’s Court may make, the applicant for a guardianship order is to make reasonable efforts to notify each parent of the child or young person of the making of the application for the order.	8
(4) Each parent must be given a reasonable opportunity to obtain independent legal advice about the application and is entitled to be heard at the hearing of the matter.	9
(5) Without limiting section 90 (1A), an applicant for variation or rescission of a guardianship order made in respect of a child or young person must notify the principal officer of the designated agency that was supervising the placement of the child or young person in out-of-home care immediately before the guardianship order was made of the making of the application.	10
(6) Without limiting subsection (2), an applicant for a guardianship order other than the Director-General is to notify the Director-General of the making of the application for the order on the day the application is filed and the Director-General is entitled to be a party to the proceedings.	11
(7) An application cannot be made under subsection (1) (c) by a person who is an authorised carer solely in his or her capacity as the principal officer of a designated agency.	12
(8) Subject to any order the Children’s Court may make, an applicant for a guardianship order must present the following to the Children’s Court before the order is made:	13
(a) copies of any written consent required to be given in relation to the applicant by subsection (1),	14
(b) a care plan prepared by the applicant,	15
(c) a copy of any report on the health, educational or social well-being of the child or young person that is available to the applicant and that is relevant to the care plan.	16
(9) Without limiting the information that must be contained in a care plan, it must contain information about the following:	17
(a) the residence of the child or young person,	18

(b)	if the Children’s Court has made any contact order under section 86 in relation to contact of the child or young person with his or her parents, relatives, friends or other persons—the arrangements for contact,	1 2 3
(c)	the education and training of the child or young person,	4
(d)	the religious upbringing of the child or young person,	5
(e)	the health care of the child or young person,	6
(f)	the resources required to provide any services that need to be provided to the child or young person and the availability of those resources,	7 8
(g)	any views the child or young person has expressed about any aspect of the care plan.	9 10
(10)	Other requirements and the form of care plan under this section may be prescribed by the regulations.	11 12
(11)	The care plan is only enforceable to the extent to which its provisions are embodied in or approved by orders of the Children’s Court.	13 14
(12)	In this section: care plan means a plan to meet the needs of a child or young person that represents a set of proposals to be considered by the Children’s Court.	15 16 17
79C	Financial assistance for children and young persons in respect of whom guardianship orders are made	18 19
(1)	The Director-General may, after the making of the guardianship order, continue to provide financial assistance to the guardian of a child or young person who, immediately before the guardianship order was made, was being provided with financial assistance in respect of the child or young person under section 161 as if (for this purpose only) the child or young person were still in out-of-home care.	20 21 22 23 24 25
(2)	The Director-General may grant financial assistance to the guardian of a child or young person in respect of whom a guardianship order is made who was not being provided with financial assistance under section 161 before the guardianship order was made:	26 27 28 29
(a)	if the Director-General considers it is appropriate to provide the financial assistance for the purpose of achieving the objects of the Act, or	30 31 32
(b)	in such other circumstance as may be prescribed by the regulations.	33
(3)	Without limiting subsection (2), financial assistance may take the form of a grant, an allowance or a refund of expenditure, or any other form of financial assistance that the Director-General may approve generally, or in a particular case or class of cases.	34 35 36 37
(4)	A guardian who is provided with financial assistance under this section must make an annual report to the Director-General (in the form required by the Director-General) concerning such matters as may be required by the Director-General relating to the provision of that financial assistance.	38 39 40 41

Omit section 83 (5). Insert instead:	11
(5) The Children’s Court is to decide whether to accept the Director-General’s assessment of whether or not there is a realistic possibility of restoration:	12 13
(a) in the case of a child who is less than 2 years of age on the date the Children’s Court makes an interim order allocating parental responsibility for the child to a person other than a parent—within 6 months after the Children’s Court makes the interim order, and	14 15 16 17
(b) in the case of a child or young person who is 2 or more years of age on the date the Children’s Court makes an interim order allocating parental responsibility for the child or young person to a person other than a parent—within 12 months after the Children’s Court makes the interim order.	18 19 20 21 22
(5A) However, the Children’s Court may, having regard to the circumstances of the case and if it considers it appropriate and in the best interests of the child or young person, decide, after the end of the applicable period referred to in subsection (5), whether or not there is a realistic possibility of restoration.	23 24 25 26
[56] Section 83 (9)	27
Omit the subsection. Insert instead:	28
(9) In this section, parent , in relation to the child or young person concerned, means:	29 30
(a) the child’s or young person’s birth parent, or	31
(b) if the child or young person has been adopted—the child’s or young person’s adoptive parent.	32 33
[57] Section 86 Contact orders	34
Omit section 86 (1). Insert instead:	35
(1) An order may be made by the Children’s Court doing any one or more of the following:	36 37
(a) stipulating minimum requirements concerning the frequency and duration of contact between a child or young person and his or her parents, relatives or other persons of significance to the child or young person,	38 39 40 41
(b) requiring contact with a specified person to be supervised,	42
(c) denying contact with a specified person if contact with that person is not in the best interests of the child or young person.	43 44

[58] Section 86 (1A)–(1F)	1
Insert after section 86 (1):	2
(1A) A contact order may be made by the Children’s Court:	3
(a) on application made by any party to proceedings before the Children’s Court with respect to a child or young person, or	4 5
(b) with leave of the Children’s Court—on application made by any of the following persons who were parties to care proceedings with respect to a child or young person:	6 7 8
(i) the Director-General,	9
(ii) the child or young person,	10
(iii) a person having parental responsibility for the child or young person,	11 12
(iv) a person from whom parental responsibility for the child or young person has been removed,	13 14
(v) any person who considers himself or herself to have a sufficient interest in the welfare of the child or young person, or	15 16
(c) with leave of the Children’s Court—on application made by any person who considers himself or herself to have a sufficient interest in the welfare of the child or young person.	17 18 19
(1B) The Children’s Court may grant leave under subsection (1A) (b) or (c) if it appears to the Court that there has been a significant change in any relevant circumstances since a final order was made in the proceedings.	20 21 22
(1C) The Children’s Court is not required to hear or determine an application made to it with respect to a child or young person by a person referred to in subsection (1A) (c) unless it considers the person to have a sufficient interest in the welfare of the child or young person.	23 24 25 26
(1D) Before granting leave under subsection (1A) (b) or (c), the Children’s Court:	27
(a) must take into consideration whether the applicant for the contact order and persons to whom the contact order applies have attempted, or been ordered by the Children’s Court to try, to reach an agreement about contact arrangements by participating in alternative dispute resolution, and	28 29 30 31 32
(b) may order the applicant and those persons to attend a dispute resolution conference conducted by a Children’s Registrar under section 65 or alternative dispute resolution process under section 65A.	33 34 35
(1E) Subject to any order the Children’s Court may make, an applicant for a contact order under subsection (1A) (b) who was a party to care proceedings must notify other persons who were parties to the proceedings of the making of the application.	36 37 38 39
Note. Section 256A sets out the circumstances in which the Children’s Court may dispense with the requirement to give notice.	40 41
(1F) A contact order made under subsection (1A) (b) on application of a person who was a party to proceedings in which an earlier contact order was made that has expired may be made in the same or different terms to the expired order.	42 43 44
[59] Section 86 (2)	45

86A Variation of contact orders by agreement	15
(1) A contact variation agreement is an agreement to vary the terms of a contact order in the light of a change in any relevant circumstances since the contact order was made or last varied.	16 17 18
(2) A contact variation agreement must:	19
(a) be in writing, and	20
(b) be signed and dated by those parties to the proceedings in which the contact order was made who are affected by the variation and, if the contact variation agreement is made less than 12 months after the contact order was made, the legal representative of the child or young person, and	21 22 23 24 25
(c) be registered with the Children’s Court by those parties within 28 days after the date on which the agreement was signed.	26 27
(3) The contact variation agreement is taken to be registered with the Children’s Court when filed with the registry of the Court without the need for any order or other action by the Court.	28 29 30
(4) The contact variation agreement takes effect only if (and when) it is registered.	31
(5) The contact variation agreement has effect from the date of registration until the end of the period specified in the variation agreement.	32 33
(6) Nothing in this section prevents the variation of a contact order under section 90.	34 35
[62] Section 90 Rescission and variation of care orders	36
Omit section 90 (1A). Insert instead:	37
(1A) Subject to any order the Children’s Court may make, a person who makes an application under this section must give notice of the application to the persons who were parties to the proceedings in which the care order was made.	38 39 40
Note. Section 256A sets out the circumstances in which the Children’s Court may dispense with the requirement to give notice.	41 42

[63] Section 90A Prohibition orders	1
Omit “order prohibiting any person, including a parent of a child or young person”.	2
Insert instead “order (a prohibition order) prohibiting any person, including a parent of a child or young person or any person who is not a party to the care proceedings”.	3 4
[64] Section 90A (2)–(4)	5
Insert at the end of section 90A:	6
(2) A party to care proceedings during which a prohibition order is made may notify the Children’s Court of an alleged breach of the prohibition order.	7 8
(3) The Children’s Court, on being notified of an alleged breach of a prohibition order:	9 10
(a) must give notice of its intention to consider the alleged breach to the person alleged to have breached the prohibition order, and	11 12
(b) must give that person an opportunity to be heard concerning the allegation before it determines whether or not the order has been breached, and	13 14 15
(c) is to determine whether or not the order has been breached, and	16
(d) if it determines that the order has been breached—may make such orders (including a parent capacity order) as it considers appropriate in all the circumstances.	17 18 19
(4) The person who is alleged to have breached the prohibition order is entitled to be heard, and may be legally represented, at the hearing of the matter.	20 21
[65] Chapter 5, Part 3	22
Insert after section 91:	23
Part 3 Parent capacity orders	24
91A Interpretation	25
In this Part:	26
parent , in relation to a child or young person, means the following:	27
(a) the child’s or young person’s birth parent,	28
(b) if the child or young person has been adopted—the child’s or young person’s adoptive parent.	29 30
parent capacity order means an order requiring a parent or primary care-giver of a child or young person to attend or participate in a program, service or course or engage in therapy or treatment aimed at building or enhancing his or her parenting skills.	31 32 33 34
91B When parent capacity orders may be made	35
A parent capacity order may be made in relation to a parent or primary care-giver of a child or young person by the Children’s Court:	36 37
(a) on the application of the Director-General, or	38
(b) on the Children’s Court’s own initiative if it determines under section 90A that a prohibition order has been breached by the parent or primary care-giver.	39 40 41

91C Applications for parent capacity orders	1
(1) The Director-General is to cause a copy of an application made under section 91B (a) to be served on the parent or primary care-giver in relation to whom the order is sought to be made as soon as is reasonably practicable after the application is filed.	2 3 4 5
(2) The copy of the application must be written and arranged in such a form that there is a reasonable likelihood that its contents will be understood by the person on whom it is served.	6 7 8
91D Dispute resolution conferences	9
(1) If it considers it appropriate, the Children's Court may, before or at any stage during the hearing of an application by the Director-General for a parent capacity order, or after it finds a prohibition order has been breached in proceedings under section 90A, refer the matter to a Children's Registrar to be dealt with under this section.	10 11 12 13 14
(2) The Children's Registrar is to arrange and conduct a dispute resolution conference between the Director-General and the parent or primary care-giver in relation to whom the order is sought (the parties).	15 16 17
(3) The purpose of a dispute resolution conference is to provide the parties with an opportunity to agree on action that should be taken to build or enhance the parenting skills of the parent or primary care-giver.	18 19 20
(4) In conducting a dispute resolution conference, a Children's Registrar is to act as a conciliator between the parties. In so doing:	21 22
(a) the Children's Registrar should seek to encourage the parties to agree on action that should be taken (including the formulation of an order that may be made by consent under section 91F), or	23 24 25
(b) if the parties cannot agree on the action to be taken, the Children's Registrar should encourage the parties:	26 27
(i) to identify areas of agreement between the parties, and	28
(ii) to identify issues in dispute between the parties, and	29
(iii) to determine the best way of resolving any issues in dispute, and	30
(iv) to set a timetable for the hearing of the matter by the Children's Court.	31 32
(5) A party may be legally represented at a dispute resolution conference.	33
91E Making of parent capacity orders	34
(1) The Children's Court may make a parent capacity order in relation to a parent or primary care-giver of a child or young person (including a parent or primary care-giver found to have breached a prohibition order under section 90A) if it is satisfied that:	35 36 37 38
(a) there is an identified deficiency in the parenting capacity of the parent or primary care-giver that has the potential to place the child or young person at risk of significant harm and it is reasonable and practicable to require the parent or primary care-giver to comply with the order, and	39 40 41 42
(b) the parent or primary care-giver is unlikely to attend or participate in the program, service or course or engage in the therapy or treatment required by the order unless the order is made.	43 44 45
(2) A parent capacity order may be made whether or not a care application or care order has been made and at any stage in care proceedings.	46 47

91F Orders made by consent	1
(1) The Children’s Court may, with the consent of the Director-General and the parent or primary care-giver who will be subject to a parent capacity order, make that order by giving effect to the terms of an agreement reached between the Director-General and the parent or primary care-giver concerning his or her attendance or participation in a program, service or course or engagement in therapy or treatment aimed at building or enhancing his or her parenting skills (a consent order).	2 3 4 5 6 7 8
(2) A consent order may be made following the conclusion of a dispute resolution conference or at any stage of proceedings on an application for a parent capacity order.	9 10 11
(3) A consent order may be made by the Children’s Court if it considers it reasonable and practicable to do so and that the terms of the order are appropriate in the circumstances.	12 13 14
(4) The functions conferred on the Children’s Court by this section in relation to an application made under section 91B (a) may be exercised by a Children’s Registrar.	15 16 17
Note. See section 93A (Powers exercised by Children’s Registrar).	18
91G Duration of parent capacity orders	19
(1) A parent capacity order has effect for the period specified in the order, unless the order is varied or revoked under section 91H.	20 21
(2) The period for which a parent capacity order has effect may be specified by reference to a fixed or ascertainable period or by reference to the occurrence of a specified future event.	22 23 24
91H Variation or revocation of parent capacity order	25
(1) The Children’s Court may at any time vary or revoke a parent capacity order (including a parent capacity order made after a breach of a prohibition order) on application by:	26 27 28
(a) the Director-General, or	29
(b) the parent or primary care-giver to whom it relates.	30
(2) The Children’s Court may vary or revoke a parent capacity order if the Court is satisfied there has been a significant change in any relevant circumstances since the order was made or last varied.	31 32 33
(3) Subject to any order the Children’s Court may make, a person who makes an application under this section must notify other persons who were parties to the proceedings for the making of the parent capacity order of the making of the application.	34 35 36 37
Note. Section 256A sets out the circumstances in which the Children’s Court may dispense with the requirement to give notice.	38 39
(4) The Children’s Court must, before varying or revoking a parent capacity order under this section:	40 41
(a) allow all parties a reasonable opportunity to be heard on the matter, and	42
(b) have regard to the factors that the Children’s Court is required to have regard to under section 91E in considering whether or not to make a parent capacity order and in considering the terms of a parent capacity order.	43 44 45 46

91I	Right of appeal	1
(1)	A party to proceedings under this Part who is dissatisfied with a parent capacity order of the Children’s Court (including a parent capacity order made under section 90A) may, in accordance with the rules of the District Court, appeal to the District Court on a question of law.	2 3 4 5
(2)	The District Court is to hear and determine the appeal and make such order as it thinks appropriate by reason of its decision, including, without limiting the Court’s power to make such orders, an order confirming, varying or setting aside the decision of the Children’s Court.	6 7 8 9
(3)	Subject to any interlocutory order made by the District Court, an appeal does not affect the operation of the order appealed against or prevent the taking of action to implement that order.	10 11 12
(4)	The provisions of Chapter 6 apply to and in respect of the hearing of an appeal under this section in the same way as they apply to and in respect of the hearing of a care application under that Chapter.	13 14 15

Chapter 15A Alternative dispute resolution	3
244A Interpretation	4
In this Act:	5
alternative dispute resolution means any process (other than a process involving a judicial determination) conducted under this Act in which an impartial person assists persons in dispute to resolve issues between them, and includes (without limitation) the following:	6
(a) alternative dispute resolution conducted under section 37,	7
(b) a dispute resolution conference conducted under section 65,	8
(c) alternative dispute resolution conducted under section 65A,	9
(d) a dispute resolution conference conducted under section 91D,	10
(e) alternative dispute resolution conducted under section 114.	11
244B Protection of information disclosed in alternative dispute resolution	12
(1) Evidence of anything said or of any admission made in the course of alternative dispute resolution is not admissible in any proceedings before any court, tribunal or body.	13
(2) Evidence of the conduct of any party in the course of alternative dispute resolution is not admissible in any proceedings before any court, tribunal or body.	14
(3) A document prepared for the purposes of, or in the course of, or as a result of, alternative dispute resolution is not admissible in evidence in any proceedings before any court, tribunal or body.	15
(4) Subsections (1)–(3) do not apply with respect to any evidence or document:	16
(a) if the persons participating in, or identified during, the alternative dispute resolution and in the case of a document, all persons identified in the document, consent to the admission of the evidence or document, or	17
(b) in proceedings instituted with respect to any act or omission in connection with which a disclosure has been made under section 244C (2) (b) or (c), (3) or (4).	18
244C Confidentiality of information disclosed in alternative dispute resolution	19
(1) A person who conducts or participates in any alternative dispute resolution process must not disclose anything said or done or any admission made during the process to any other person, except as permitted by subsections (2)–(4).	20
(2) A person conducting alternative dispute resolution may disclose information obtained in connection with the alternative dispute resolution only in any one or more of the following circumstances:	21
(a) with the consent of the person from whom the information was obtained,	22
(b) if there are reasonable grounds to believe that the disclosure is necessary to prevent or minimise the danger of injury to any person or damage to any property,	23

(c)	if, as a result of obtaining the information, the person conducting alternative dispute resolution has reasonable grounds to suspect that a child or young person is at risk of significant harm within the meaning of Part 2 of Chapter 3,	1 2 3 4
	Note. See section 23.	5
(d)	in accordance with a requirement imposed by or under a law of the State (other than a requirement imposed by a subpoena or other compulsory process) or the Commonwealth.	6 7 8
(3)	A person participating in alternative dispute resolution may disclose information obtained in connection with the administration or execution of this Chapter only if there are reasonable grounds to believe that the disclosure is necessary to prevent or minimise the danger of injury to any person or damage to any property.	9 10 11 12 13
(4)	Any person conducting or participating in alternative dispute resolution may disclose information obtained in connection with the alternative dispute resolution if the disclosure is reasonably required for the purpose of referring any person conducting the alternative dispute resolution or a legal practitioner participating in the alternative dispute resolution to an appropriate body for any professional misconduct alleged to have been committed in connection with the alternative dispute resolution.	14 15 16 17 18 19 20

Part 10 Provisions consequent on enactment of Child Protection Legislation Amendment Act 2013	3
31 Definition	5
In this Part:	6
amending Act means the Child Protection Legislation Amendment Act 2013 .	7
32 Parent responsibility contracts	8
(1) An amendment made to sections 38A–38E by the amending Act extends (except as provided by subclause (2)) to a parent responsibility contract that is in force immediately before the commencement of the amendment.	9 10 11
(2) Section 38E (4) as in force immediately before its repeal by the amending Act continues to apply to and in respect of a parent responsibility contract that is in force immediately before that repeal unless its terms are varied under sections 38A–38E as amended by the amending Act.	12 13 14 15
33 Contact orders	16
(1) An application may be made under section 86 (1A), as inserted by the amending Act, by a party to proceedings commenced (irrespective of whether or not finally determined) before the commencement of the insertion.	17 18 19
(2) Section 86A, as inserted by the amending Act, extends to the variation of a contact order made before that insertion.	20 21
34 Orders for sole parental responsibility	22
An order that is in force under section 149 of the Act (as in force immediately before its repeal by the amending Act) allocating sole parental responsibility to an authorised carer (or to the authorised carer and his or her partner) continues to have effect, on the repeal, as if that section were still in force.	23 24 25 26
35 Other orders allocating parental responsibility	27
(1) An order that is in force under section 79 (1) (a) (iii) of the Act (immediately before the substitution of that subparagraph by the amending Act) allocating all aspects of parental responsibility for a child or young person at a place other than the usual home of the child or young person to a relative or kin of the child or young person until the child or young person reaches 18 years of age (the original order) is taken, on the commencement of section 79A, to be a guardianship order allocating all aspects of parental responsibility for the child or young person to that authorised person and his or her spouse.	28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35
(2) Despite section 135 (3) (b1) (as inserted by the amending Act), a relative or kin of a child or young person who, immediately before being taken to have parental responsibility for a child or young person under a guardianship order by the operation of subclause (1), was being provided with financial assistance under section 161 may (subject to subclause (3) and the regulations) continue to be provided financial assistance under that section as if the child or young person were still in out-of-home care for the purposes of this Act.	36 37 38 39 40 41 42

(3)	A person who is provided with financial assistance in accordance with subclause (2) must make an annual report to the Director-General (in the form required by the Director-General) concerning such matters as may be required by the Director-General relating to the provision of that financial assistance.	1 2 3 4
36	Existing supported out-of-home care arrangements	5
	Except as provided by clause 34, a provision of Chapter 8 that applied to or in respect of the placement of a child or young person in supported out-of-home care before the provision was amended by the amending Act continues to apply to and in respect of that placement as if the provision had not been amended.	6 7 8 9 10
37	Parent capacity orders	11
	Section 91B (b), as inserted by the amending Act, extends to a prohibition order breached before the insertion.	12 13
38	Alternative dispute resolution	14
	Chapter 15A, as inserted by the amending Act, does not apply to or in respect of alternative dispute resolution conducted before the commencement of that Chapter under section 37, 65 or 114.	15 16 17
39	Preparation of permanency plan	18
	Section 83 (4), as amended by the amending Act, extends to a plan prepared, but that has not been submitted to the Children's Court in accordance with section 83 (3), before the commencement of the amendment.	19 20 21

(1)	A charitable or non-profit organisation may apply to the Children’s Guardian for accreditation as an adoption service provider that may provide adoption services specified by the Children’s Guardian.	18 19 20
(2)	The Children’s Guardian is to monitor the carrying out of the responsibilities with respect to the provision of adoption services under this Act and the regulations of the Director -General and accredited adoption service providers.	21 22 23
13	Accreditation criteria	24
(1)	On the recommendation of the Children’s Guardian, the Minister may, from time to time by order published in the Gazette, approve standards and other criteria for use in determining:	25 26 27
	(a) whether to grant an application for accreditation as an accredited adoption service provider, and	28 29
	(b) the period for which accreditation is to be granted.	30
(2)	Standards and criteria may be approved under subsection (1) in respect of a class or classes of applicants.	31 32
(3)	Without limiting subsection (1), the criteria approved under that subsection are to be integrated, to the greatest extent practicable, with the criteria for accreditation of a designated agency under the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998 .	33 34 35 36
(4)	Failure to comply with subsection (3) does not affect the validity of any decision of the Children’s Guardian to accredit or not to accredit an applicant.	37 38
