1.4 Principles of Crown land management

For the purposes of this Act, the principles of Crown land management are:

- (a) that environmental protection principles be observed in relation to the management and administration of Crown land, and
- (b) that the natural resources of Crown land (including water, soil, flora, fauna and scenic quality) be conserved wherever possible, and
- (c) that public use and enjoyment of appropriate Crown land be encouraged, and
- (d) that, where appropriate, multiple use of Crown land be encouraged, and
- (e) that, where appropriate, Crown land should be used and managed in such a way that both the land and its resources are sustained in perpetuity, and
- (f) that Crown land be occupied, used, sold, leased, licensed or otherwise dealt with in the best interests of the State consistent with the above principles.

32 Continuation of validation of certain secondary interests

- (1) Without limiting section 30 of the Interpretation Act 1987, each of the following remains unaffected by the repeal of the Crown Lands Act 1989:
 - (a) any validation by clause 59 of Schedule 8 (the former validation clause) to the Crown Lands Act 1989 of an existing secondary interest (as defined by that clause),
 - (b) any conclusive presumption in respect of those interests provided by the former validation clause,
 - (c) the application of section 104A (Saving of native title rights and interests etc) of the Native Title (New South Wales) Act 1994 to the validation of any interest by operation of section 34AA of the Crown Lands Act 1989 and the former validation clause.
- (2) The power of the Minister under section 2.19 to validate a secondary interest as referred to in that section extends to an existing secondary interest (as defined by the former validation clause).

- (3) A reference in section 2.19 to the use of Crown land in accordance with the secondary interest before its validation under that section extends to use and occupation before the commencement of that section.
- (4) This clause extends to the operation of section 2.19 in its application to Crown land managers because of section 3.17.
- (5) However, this clause continues not to affect:
 - (a) any decision of a court made before the commencement of section 34AA of the Crown Lands Act 1989, or
 - (b) any land claim (within the meaning of the Aboriginal Land Rights Act 1983) made before 9 November 2012 (the date of the decision in Minister Administering the Crown Lands Act v New South Wales Aboriginal Land Council (Goomallee Claim) [2012] NSWCA 358).
