

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The objects of this Bill are:

(a) to transfer to the national park estate certain river red gum State forest lands in the Riverina area, and

(b) to enable the transfer to Aboriginal ownership and conservation of certain other State forest lands in the Riverina area, and

(c) to enable forestry operations to continue on land in the Riverina area remaining as State forest, and

(d) to enable payments to be made from the Environmental Trust Fund, established under the Environmental Trust Act 1998, for the purpose of implementing forestry restructure and assistance programs and schemes in the Riverina area, and

(e) to enable the collection of firewood for non-commercial purposes to continue in areas reserved as national or regional parks under the proposed Act and to make other miscellaneous provisions.

Explanatory note

Outline of provisions

Part 1 Preliminary

Clause 1 sets out the name (also called the short title) of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act on 1 July 2010.

Clause 3 defines certain words and expressions used in the proposed Act.

Part 2 Land transfers

Clause 4 revokes the dedication as State forest of lands that are to be reserved as national park or regional park or vested in the Minister for Climate Change and the Environment for the purposes of Part 11 of the National Parks and Wildlife Act 1974. The dedication of the lands specified in Schedules 1, 3, 5 and 6 is revoked on 1 July 2010.

Clause 5 reserves, on 1 July 2010, certain lands in revoked State forests as national park or regional park. The lands concerned are set out in Schedule 1.

Clause 6 reserves, on 1 July 2010, certain Crown lands as state conservation area. The lands concerned are set out in Schedule 2.

Clause 7 vests, on 1 July 2010, certain lands in revoked State forests in the Minister for Climate Change and the Environment for the purposes of Part 11 of the National Parks and Wildlife Act 1974. The lands concerned are set out in Schedule 3.

Clause 8 reserves, on 1 July 2010, certain lands controlled by the Forestry Commission (and taken to be State forest) as national park. The lands concerned are set out in Schedule 4.

Clause 9 vests, on 1 July 2010, certain lands in revoked State forests in the Crown as Crown land, which will be subject to the Crown Lands Act 1989 (with an assessed preferred use for the purposes of nature conservation). The lands concerned are set out in Schedule 5.

Clause 10 vests, on 1 July 2010, certain lands in revoked State forests in the Minister for Climate Change and the Environment for the purposes of Part 11 of the National Parks and Wildlife Act 1974. The Minister may deal with those lands by vesting them in an Aboriginal landholding body. The lands concerned are set out in Schedule 6.

Clause 11 reserves, on 1 July 2010, certain lands that had been vested in the Minister for Climate Change and the Environment for the purposes of Part 11 of the National Parks and Wildlife Act 1974 as state conservation area.

Clause 12 changes the names of, and consolidates, certain reserved lands that are currently within national parks, nature reserves and state conservation areas.

Clause 13 enables the Director-General of the Department of Environment, Climate Change and Water (the Director-General) to adjust the descriptions of land in Schedules 1–7 in order to alter the boundaries of the land for the purposes of effective management of national park estate land and State forest land, to adjust boundaries to public roads, to adjust descriptions of easements or to provide a more detailed description of the boundaries of the land.

Part 3 Forestry operations on land remaining as State forest

Clause 14 defines certain words and expressions used in proposed Part 3. Riverina forestry operations is defined to mean forestry operations within the meaning of the Forestry and National Park Estate Act 1998 to which Part 4 of that Act applies that are carried out in Riverina State forests.

Clause 15 provides that an integrated forestry operations approval may be granted under Part 4 of the Forestry and National Park Estate Act 1998 for Riverina forestry operations. The clause makes transitional arrangements to enable forestry operations to continue pending the granting of an approval.

Part 4 Miscellaneous

Clause 16 provides that firewood may be collected from land reserved as national or regional park or other land reserved under the National Parks and Wildlife Act 1974 in certain circumstances. The firewood is not to be collected for commercial purposes. It must be collected only by an individual or not-for-profit organisation, licensed by the Director-General, and must be collected from firewood collection zones as determined by the Director-General. The collection of firewood must comply with any conditions of a licence issued to the person or the organisation and any regulations.

Clause 17 provides that the proposed Act binds the Crown.

Clause 18 enables the making of regulations for the purposes of the proposed Act.

Schedule 9 Land transfers—ancillary and special provisions

This Schedule makes ancillary and special provisions with respect to land transferred under the proposed Act.

Schedule 10 Amendment of Acts

Schedule 10.1 amends the Forestry and National Park Estate Act 1998 to remove the requirement for a forest agreement to be prepared under that Act before an integrated forestry operations approval can be prepared under that Act in respect of the Riverina area, and makes a consequential change to the application of the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979.

Schedule 10.2 amends the Forestry Restructuring and Nature Conservation Act 1995 to enable payments to be made to the Consolidated Fund from the Environmental Trust Fund, established under the Environmental Trust Act 1998, to offset expenditure from the Consolidated Fund for the purposes of implementing forestry restructure and assistance programs and schemes in the Riverina area. The total amounts paid from the Fund in respect of the Riverina area must not exceed $45,813,000 and payments from the Fund in respect of the Riverina area can only be made until 30 June 2015. Annual progress reports are to be made and tabled in Parliament on expenditure in the Riverina area, including an independent final 5-year report on that expenditure and the outcomes of those policies.

Schedule 10.3 amends the Native Title (New South Wales) Act 1994 to preserve native title rights and interests in respect of a reservation or vesting of, or declaration over, land or waters by the operation of the proposed Act.
