 - (b) a person who holds a management position in an organisation the duties of which include direct responsibility for, or direct supervision of, the provision of health care, welfare, education, residential services or law enforcement, wholly or partly, to adults with disability or older adults.
- (2) If a person to whom this section applies has reasonable grounds to suspect that an adult with disability or older adult is subject to, or at risk of, serious abuse, neglect or exploitation, and those grounds arise during the course of or from the person's work, it is the duty of the person to make a report, as soon as practicable, to the Commissioner under section 13.
