Government Information (Public Access) Amendment (Recklessly Destroying Government Records) Bill 2021

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

Section 120 of the Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009 provides that a person who destroys, conceals or alters any record of government information for the purpose of preventing the disclosure of the information as authorised or required by or under that Act is guilty of an offence.

The object of this Bill is to extend the offence to the reckless destruction, concealment and alteration of those kinds of government information records.

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 sets out the name (also called the short title) of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act on the date of assent to the proposed Act.

Clause 3 gives effect to the object of the proposed Act outlined in the overview.
