Real Property Amendment (Certificates of Title) Bill 2021

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The object of this Bill is to amend the Real Property Act 1900 to remove—

- (a) the requirement for the Registrar-General to issue certificates of title for real property, and
- (b) requirements for the Registrar-General to make recordings on certificates of title, and
- (c) the Registrar-General's powers to require the production of certificates of title, and
- (d) requirements for land owners to produce and rely on certificates of title in conveyancing transactions, and
- (e) provisions that restrict the use of electronic conveyancing.

The Bill also makes consequential amendments to other Acts and regulations.

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 sets out the name, also called the short title, of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act.

Schedule 1 Amendment of Real Property Act 1900 No 25

Certificates of title and duplicate registered dealings

Schedule 1.1[2], [3] and [5] remove references to certificates of title and duplicate registered dealings.

Schedule 1.1[20] removes the power of the Registrar-General to issue, and to decline to issue, a certificate of title to land and removes references to the Registrar-General delivering to a person instruments, including certificates of title, following the recording of a dealing.

The amendment provides for the Registrar-General to issue an information notice to note that a dealing has been registered. An information notice confers no interest or title in land and is for information purposes only.

The amendment preserves the Registrar-General's capacity to assume people lodging dealings have the authority to do so. Schedule 1.1[4] makes a consequential amendment.

Schedule 1.1[6]–[12], [14]–[19], [21], [22], [24]–[27] and [32] make amendments to remove references to certificates of title in recognition that, as the Registrar-General will no longer issue certificates of title, there is no basis to require dealings and interests to be recorded on them.

The amendments also omit references and provisions requiring a person to give a certificate of title to the Registrar-General for the purpose of making a recording on the certificate or for another purpose.

Schedule 1.1[28]–[31], [33] and [34] remove references to a person applying to the Registrar-General for the issue of a certificate of title or duplicate registered dealing.

Schedule 1.1[35]–[37] remove references to a court making orders for the production, issue or delivery of a certificate of title as a consequence of the amendments removing references to dealings being recorded on certificates of title.

Schedule 1.1[13] removes references to offences relating to certificates of title, including offences associated with wrongful retention of a certificate of title. Schedule 1.1[38] makes a consequential amendment.

Schedule 1.1[23] removes a reference to the Registrar-General requiring a dealing to be lodged in paper form and provides for dealings to be lodged in a way approved by the Registrar-General.

Schedule 1.1[39] inserts savings and transitional provisions.

Electronic lodgment of documents

Schedule 1.2[1] and [8] replace the current provision allowing documents to be lodged via an Electronic Lodgment Network under the Electronic Conveyancing National Law (NSW) with a provision that also allows lodgment by any electronic means approved by the Registrar-General. Schedule 1.2[2] and [3] make consequential amendments.

Schedule 1.2[4]–[7], [9] and [10] allow the Registrar-General to approve ways of providing consents, evidence and certificates in relation to land dealings under the Real Property Act 1900. These amendments will allow the Registrar-General to approve a range of electronic methods for providing consents, evidence and certificates.

Other amendments

Schedule 1.1[1] updates a reference to a Department.

Schedule 2 Amendment of Real Property Regulation 2019

Schedule 2 makes consequential amendments to the Real Property Regulation 2019.

Schedule 3 Amendment of other legislation

Schedule 3 makes consequential amendments to a number of Acts and regulations, including the Conveyancing Act 1919 and the Strata Schemes Development Act 2015.

Part Real Property Amendment (Certificates of Title) Act 2021	34 35
Definitions	36
In this Part—	37

amending Act means the Real Property Amendment (Certificates of Title) Act 2021 .	1
cessation day has the meaning given by clause 31(1) of this Schedule.	2
Cessation of issue of certificates of title	3
(1) The Registrar-General may, by order published in the Gazette, declare that the Registrar-General will cease to issue certificates of title under this Act on a specified day (the cessation day).	4
(2) The cessation day must be no earlier than the first day after the end of the period of 3 months, beginning with the day on which the order referred to in subclause (1) is published in the Gazette.	5
(3) On and from the cessation day—	6
(a) the Registrar-General is no longer required to issue certificates of title under this Act or any other Act, and	7
(b) a certificate of title previously issued has no force or effect for the purposes of a requirement, whether made under this Act or any other Act, for the lodgment or production of a certificate of title that is imposed in connection with the registration of a matter.	8
Dealings underway on cessation day	9
(1) This clause applies to a dealing that—	10
(a) is lodged with the Registrar-General before the cessation day, and	11
(b) is not registered by the cessation day, and	12
(c) at the time of lodgment required a certificate of title for registration.	13
(2) A dealing to which this clause applies is to be dealt with under the requirements that applied when the dealing was lodged with the Registrar-General.	14
(3) If a dealing is withdrawn and relodged—	15
(a) subclause (2) does not apply, and	16
(b) the dealing is to be dealt with under the requirements that apply when it is relodged.	17
Disposal of documents	18
(1) Subject to the State Records Act 1998 , the Registrar-General may—	19
(a) destroy a paper document that the Registrar-General is not under a duty to deliver or issue to a person, whether or not it is part of the Register, or	20
(b) deliver a paper document that the Registrar-General is empowered to destroy under paragraph (a) to a person who, in the Registrar-General's opinion, intends to preserve it for historical purposes.	21
(2) Before destroying a document under subclause (1)(a) the Registrar-General must make a reproducible copy of the document if—	22
(a) for a document is part of the Register—it evidences a subsisting interest, or	23
(b) for a document that is not part of the Register—the Registrar-General would, but for subclause (1)(a), have a duty to preserve it.	24
(3) The Registrar-General must preserve a reproducible copy of a document referred to in subclause (2)(a) or (b) for as long as the interest evidenced by the	25

document subsists or for as long as the Registrar-General would, but for subclause (1)(a), have had a duty to preserve the document.	1 2
(4) If a reproducible copy of a document is preserved under subclause (3) and that document would, if it had not been destroyed under subclause (1)(a), be part of the Register, whether for all purposes or for the purpose only of section 96B, the reproducible copy is part of the Register for all purposes or for that purpose.	3 4 5 6 7
(5) In this clause— reproducible copy means a copy of a document that is captured and kept in a way that enables the document to be reproduced.	8 9 10
Effect of repeal of section 46B	11
The repeal of section 46B of this Act by the amending Act has no effect on any title to land that had previously been validated by that section.	12 13
Effect of repeal of section 46C(4)	14
The repeal of section 46C(4) of this Act by the amending Act has no effect on—	15 16
(a) the validity of any recording in the Register that was deemed by that section to have been authorised, or	17 18
(b) the validity of the issue of any certificate of title that was deemed by that section to have been validly issued.	19 20
1.2 Amendments concerning electronic lodgment of documents	21
