

New South Wales

Coastal Management Amendment Bill 2021

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The object of this Bill is to defer the date on which certain savings provisions cease to have effect from 1 December 2021 to 1 December 2023. The savings provisions provide that—

- (a) a coastal zone management plan in force under the Coastal Protection Act 1979 (the former Act) continues to have effect until replaced by a coastal management program prepared and adopted under the Coastal Management Act 2016, and
- (b) certain coastal zone management plans, prepared before the repeal of the former Act and certified after the repeal, are taken to be coastal management programs prepared and adopted under the Coastal Management Act 2016.

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 sets out the name, also called the short title, of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act on the date of assent to the proposed Act.

Clause 3 gives effect to the Overview set out above.
