Schedule 1 Amendment of Duties Act 1997 No 123

[1] Section 8 Imposition of duty on certain transactions concerning dutiable property

Insert after section 8(1)(b)(viii)—

- (ix) another transaction that results in a change in beneficial ownership of dutiable property, other than an excluded transaction.

[2] Section 8(2A)

Insert after section 8(2)—

- (2A) Despite subsection (1)(b)(ix), an excluded transaction that results in a change in beneficial ownership of dutiable property is a dutiable transaction if it is part of a scheme or arrangement that, in the Chief Commissioner's opinion, was made with a collateral purpose of reducing the duty otherwise chargeable under this Chapter.

[3] Section 8(3)

Insert in alphabetical order—

beneficial ownership includes ownership of dutiable property by a person as trustee of a trust.

change in beneficial ownership includes the following—

- (a) the creation of dutiable property,
- (b) the extinguishment of dutiable property,
- (c) a change in equitable interests in dutiable property,
- (d) dutiable property becoming the subject of a trust,
- (e) dutiable property ceasing to be the subject of a trust.

excluded transaction means the following—

- (a) the purchase, gift, allotment or issue of a unit in a unit trust scheme,
- (b) the cancellation, redemption or surrender of a unit in a unit trust scheme,
- (c) the abrogation or alteration of a right relating to a unit in a unit trust scheme,
- (d) the payment of an account owing for a unit in a unit trust scheme,
- (e) the grant, renewal or variation of a lease for no consideration,
- (f) the grant of an easement for no consideration,
- (g) the grant of a profit a prendre for no consideration,
- (h) the provision of a security interest within the meaning of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth,
- (i) a change in a trustee's right of indemnity,
- (j) the creation of an interest in dutiable property by statute,
- (k) a transaction of a kind prescribed by the regulations,
- (l) a combination of the transactions referred to in paragraphs (a)–(k).

[4] Section 8AA

Insert after section 8—

8AA Imposition of duty on acknowledgment of trust

- (1) This Chapter also charges duty on the making of a statement that—
  - (a) purports to be a declaration of trust over dutiable property, but
  - (b) merely has the effect of acknowledging that identified property vested, or to be vested, in the person making the statement is already held, or to be held, in trust for a person or purpose mentioned in the statement.
- (2) For the purpose of charging the duty—
  - (a) the making of the statement is taken to be a declaration of trust over dutiable property and, accordingly, is a dutiable transaction, and
  - (b) the property vested, or to be vested, in the person making the statement is taken to be the property transferred, and
  - (c) the person making the statement is taken to be the transferee, and
  - (d) the transfer is taken to occur when the statement is made.

[5] Section 9 Imposition of duty on dutiable transactions that are not transfers

Insert at the end of the Table—

another transaction that results in a change in beneficial ownership of dutiable property	the property the beneficial ownership of which is changed	the person who obtains the beneficial ownership or whose beneficial ownership is increased	when beneficial ownership changes
---	---	--	-----------------------------------

- (11) In this section—

marriage includes a void marriage.

matrimonial property means property in relation to the parties to a marriage or of either of them, within the meaning of the Family Law Act 1975 of the Commonwealth, including property treated as property in relation to the parties or of either of them as a result of an order made under that Act.

party to a marriage includes a person who was a party to a marriage that has been dissolved or annulled, in Australia or elsewhere.

relationship property—

- (a) in relation to a de facto relationship, means property in relation to the parties to the de facto relationship or of either of them, within the meaning of the Family Law Act 1975 of the Commonwealth, including property treated as property in relation to the parties or of either of them as a result of an order made under that Act, or
- (b) in relation to a domestic relationship, means property of the parties to the relationship or of either of them.

[25] Section 274 Transfer of certain business property between family members

Omit section 274(1)–(5). Insert instead—

- (1) Duty under this Act is not chargeable in relation to a transfer of land used for primary production, together with other property that is an integral part of the business of primary production, if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied of all the matters specified in subsections (2)–(4).
- (2) Firstly, the Chief Commissioner must be satisfied that the transferor, or the person directing the transferor, is a member of the family of—
  - (a) the transferee, or
  - (b) the person directing the transferee.
- (3) Secondly, the Chief Commissioner must be satisfied that the land was, immediately before the transfer or the date of first execution of the instrument of transfer, land used for primary production in connection with a business carried on, whether alone or with others, by—
  - (a) the transferee, or a member of the family of the transferee, or
  - (b) the person directing the transferee, or a member of the family of the person directing the transferee.
- (4) Thirdly, the Chief Commissioner must be satisfied that the business will continue to be carried on, whether alone or with others, by—
  - (a) the transferee, or
  - (b) the person directing the transferee.
- (4A) For the purposes of this section, the person directing a transferor or transferee is—
  - (a) for a transferor or transferee acting in the capacity of—
    - (i) executor of a deceased estate—the deceased person, or
    - (ii) trustee of a bare trust—a person who is a named beneficiary of the trust, or
    - (iii) trustee of a self managed superannuation fund—a person who is a member of the fund, or
  - (b) for a transferor or transferee acting in the capacity of trustee of a discretionary trust—a person or persons who are entitled, as takers in default of appointment, to not less than a 25% interest in the capital of the trust, being an entitlement—
    - (i) for a transferor—that existed for at least 3 years before the date of the transfer or that existed from the date of establishment of the trust, or
    - (ii) for a transferee—that exists for at least 3 years after the date of the transfer, or

- (c) for a transferor or transferee acting in the capacity of trustee of a private unit trust scheme—a unit holder or unit holders in the unit trust scheme who hold the units beneficially and are entitled, as unit holders, to not less than 25% of the assets of the unit trust scheme on winding up, being an entitlement—
    - (i) for a transferor—that existed for at least 3 years before the date of the transfer or that existed from the date of establishment of the trust, or
    - (ii) for a transferee—that exists for at least 3 years after the date of the transfer, or
  - (d) for a transferor or transferee that is a proprietary limited company—a shareholder or shareholders in the company who—
    - (i) are beneficially entitled to the shares in the company, and
    - (ii) are entitled to vote at meetings of the company, and
    - (iii) are entitled as shareholders to not less than 25% of the assets of the company on winding up, being an entitlement—
      - (A) for a transferor—that existed for at least 3 years before the date of the transfer or that existed from the date of incorporation of the company, or
      - (B) for a transferee—that exists for at least 3 years after the date of the transfer.
- (4B) For a transfer involving a proprietary limited company or unit trust scheme (a subsidiary entity) that is owned by another proprietary limited company or unit trust scheme (the parent entity), a person is taken to be a person directing the subsidiary entity if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that, had the parent entity been the transferor or transferee, as the case requires, the person would be the person directing the parent entity under subsection (4A).
- (5) Except as provided by subsections (4A) and (4B), there are no other cases in which a person is considered to be a person directing a transferor or transferee.

[26] Section 274(5A)

Omit “or shares”.

[27] Section 274(6)

Insert in alphabetical order—

transfer of land includes the following—

Omit the provisions.

[5] Section 58 Summary of enforcement procedure

Omit section 58(1)(b) and (c). Insert instead—

(b) Licence and registration enforcement action

If the fine is not paid within the period specified, Transport for NSW takes action against the fine defaulter’s driver licence, vehicle registration, visitor privileges or marine safety licence (see Division 3).

(c) Civil enforcement

Civil enforcement action in the form of a property seizure order, a garnishee order or the registration of a charge on land owned by the fine defaulter is taken if enforcement action under Division 3 is unavailable or unsuccessful, or if the Commissioner is satisfied that civil enforcement action is preferable (see Division 4).

[6] Section 58(1)(f)

Omit “order requiring community service work and imprisonment”.

Insert instead “orders requiring community service work”.

[7] Part 4, Division 3, heading

Omit the heading. Insert instead—

Division 3 Licence and registration enforcement action

Subdivision 1 Preliminary

[8] Section 65 When enforcement action taken under this Division

Omit “with respect to a fine defaulter’s driver licence” from section 65(3).

[9] Section 65(3A)

Omit the subsection.

[10] Part 4, Division 3, Subdivision 2, heading

Insert after section 65—

Subdivision 2 Suspension or cancellation of New South Wales driver licence or vehicle registration

[11] Sections 66A and 69A

Omit the sections.

[12] Part 4, Division 3, Subdivisions 3 and 4

Insert after section 70—

Subdivision 3 Suspension of visitor driver and vehicle privileges

70A Definitions

In this Subdivision—

road transport legislation has the same meaning as in the Road Transport Act 2013.

visitor driver privileges means an exemption under road transport legislation that permits a person to drive a motor vehicle in this jurisdiction, even though the person does not hold a driver licence, because the person holds a licence or permit to drive a motor vehicle issued in a place outside this jurisdiction.

visitor privileges means—

- (a) visitor driver privileges, or
- (b) visitor vehicle privileges.

visitor vehicle privileges means an exemption under road transport legislation that permits a motor vehicle, registered outside this jurisdiction in the name of a person, to be used by the person in this jurisdiction.

70B Suspension of visitor privileges

- (1) Transport for NSW must suspend visitor privileges of a fine defaulter against whom it is required to take enforcement action.
- (2) Transport for NSW must suspend visitor privileges even if the Commissioner has, after requiring Transport for NSW to take enforcement action—
  - (a) granted an extension of time for the payment of the fine, or
  - (b) allowed the fine defaulter to pay the fine by instalments.
- (3) Transport for NSW must remove the suspension of visitor privileges if the Commissioner directs it to cease enforcement action in relation to the fine defaulter under this Division.
- (4) The statutory rules under the Road Transport Act 2013 may make further provision for the suspension of visitor privileges in connection with fine enforcement orders.
- (5) This section does not limit the powers of Transport for NSW in relation to visitor privileges under another Act.

70C Interim restoration of visitor privileges

- (1) A person may apply to Transport for NSW for restoration of visitor privileges suspended under this Division if—
  - (a) for a penalty notice enforcement order—the person has lodged an application under Part 3, Division 5 to have an application to annul the order determined by the Local Court and the proceedings have not been determined, or
  - (b) for a court fine enforcement order—the person has lodged an appeal against the conviction or sentence in relation to which the fine was imposed, or the person has lodged an application under the Crimes (Appeal and Review) Act 2001, Part 2 to annul the conviction or sentence, and the proceedings have not been determined.
- (2) In that case, Transport for NSW must restore visitor privileges by removing the suspension of visitor privileges.
- (3) Restored visitor privileges may be suspended again under this Act following the determination of the proceedings referred to in subsection (1) or in connection with a different fine payable by the person.
- (4) Visitor privileges cannot be restored under this section if visitor privileges have ceased to apply to the person for another reason under the road transport legislation.

Subdivision 4 Suspension or cancellation of New South Wales marine safety licence

70D Suspension or cancellation of marine safety licences

- (1) Transport for NSW has the same functions in relation to a boat driving licence or vessel registration certificate as it has under Subdivision 2 in relation to a driver licence or vehicle registration.
- (2) Accordingly, Subdivision 2 extends to a boat driving licence or vessel registration certificate—
  - (a) as if a reference to a driver licence were a reference to a boat driving licence, and
  - (b) as if a reference to vehicle registration were a reference to a vessel registration certificate.
- (3) The regulations may prescribe modifications of Subdivision 2 in its application to a boat driving licence or vessel registration certificate.
- (4) In this section—

boat driving licence means a marine safety licence referred to in the Marine Safety Act 1998, section 29(e).

vessel registration certificate means a marine safety licence referred to in the Marine Safety Act 1998, section 29(a).

[13] Section 71 When enforcement action taken under this Division

[19] Section 117 Access to information held by police and government agencies

Omit section 117(1) and (1A). Insert instead—

(1) Police officers or other members of the NSW Police Force and government agencies are authorised and required to provide the Commissioner, on request, with available information about a fine defaulter’s criminal record, address, email address, phone number, property, date of birth or driver licence number for the purpose of enabling the Commissioner to exercise a function under this Act in relation to the fine defaulter.

[20] Section 117AA Access to information held by employers

Omit “for the purposes of the enforcement of a garnishee order (within the meaning of section 73)”.

Insert instead “for the purpose of enabling the Commissioner to exercise a function under this Act in relation to the fine defaulter”.

[21] Section 117AB Access to and use of information held by credit reporting bodies

Omit “for the purposes of the Commissioner taking action against the person to enforce payment of a fine” from section 117AB(1).

Insert instead “for the purpose of enabling the Commissioner to exercise a function under this Act in relation to the fine defaulter”.

[22] Section 117AB(2), definition of “relevant information”, paragraph (c)

Insert after paragraph (b)—

(c) the contact details of the fine defaulter’s current or last known employer.

[23] Section 117AC

Insert after section 117AB—

117AC Access to information held by authorised deposit-taking institutions

The Commissioner may require an authorised deposit-taking institution to provide the Commissioner with the following information for the purpose of enabling the Commissioner to decide whether to make a garnishee order in relation to a fine defaulter—

- (a) whether the fine defaulter has an account with the authorised deposit-taking institution,
- (b) if so, the balance of the account.

[24] Section 119A

Insert after section 119—

119A Penalty notices under this Act

- (1) A fines officer may issue a penalty notice to a person if it appears to the officer that the person has committed an offence against this Act or the regulations that is prescribed by the regulations as a penalty notice offence.
- (2) This Act applies to a penalty notice issued under this section.
Note— If a person issued with a penalty notice does not wish to have the matter determined by a court, the person may pay the amount specified in the notice and is not liable to further proceedings for the alleged offence.
- (3) The amount payable under a penalty notice issued under this section is the amount prescribed for the alleged offence by the regulations, not exceeding the maximum amount of penalty that could be imposed for the offence by a court.
- (4) This section does not limit the operation of another provision of, or made under, this or another Act relating to proceedings that may be taken in relation to offences.
- (5) In this section—
fines officer means a person referred to in section 22(2)(b).

Schedule 3      Amendment of Fines Regulation 2020

Clause 7A

Insert after clause 7—

[4] Section 33A

Insert after section 33—

33A Penalty tax relief

- (1) The Chief Commissioner may, in a way the Chief Commissioner thinks fit, publish guidelines on the circumstances in which, or the grounds on which, the Chief Commissioner may determine that no penalty tax is payable in relation to a tax default (penalty tax relief guidelines).
- (2) If the Chief Commissioner publishes penalty tax relief guidelines, the Chief Commissioner may determine that no penalty tax is payable in relation to a tax default after considering the guidelines.
- (3) This section does not affect section 27(3).

[5] Sections 83B and 83C

Insert before section 84—

83B Permitted disclosures—investigation and law enforcement

- (1) The Chief Commissioner may disclose information obtained under or in relation to the administration of a taxation law to an investigative or law enforcement agency to assist the agency to exercise its investigative, complaint handling or law enforcement functions.
- (2) In this section—
investigative or law enforcement agency means a government agency, or a government official, of a State, a Territory or the Commonwealth that has investigative, complaint handling or law enforcement functions.
investigative, complaint handling or law enforcement functions include functions that may result in the agency taking or instituting disciplinary, criminal or other formal action or proceedings against a person or body under investigation.

83C Permitted disclosures—tax clearance checks

- (1) The Chief Commissioner may disclose information about a taxpayer, obtained under or in relation to the administration of a taxation law, to a NSW public agency in connection with the procurement by the NSW public agency of goods or services from the taxpayer.
- (2) In particular, the Chief Commissioner may disclose the following information about a taxpayer, as current at the time of disclosure, to assist the NSW public agency in assessing whether the taxpayer is an appropriate person from whom the NSW public agency should procure goods or services—
  - (a) information about a return that is required to be lodged by the taxpayer with the Chief Commissioner but has not been lodged,
  - (b) information about the taxpayer's liability to pay tax under a taxation law,
  - (c) without limiting paragraph (a) or (b), information about a return, or tax liability, that is the subject of a special arrangement under section 37,
  - (d) the following information for the previous 5 years—
    - (i) the amount of penalty tax imposed on the taxpayer,
    - (ii) the amount of tax payable by the taxpayer and written off by the Chief Commissioner.
- (3) For the purposes of this section—
  - (a) information about, or in relation to, a taxpayer includes information about, or in relation to, an associated person of the taxpayer, and
  - (b) a person is an associated person of a taxpayer if the person is an associated person of the taxpayer for the purposes of the Duties Act 1997.

Note— See the Duties Act 1997, Dictionary, clause 2.
- (4) In this section—

NSW public agency means the following—

  - (a) a government sector agency within the meaning of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013,
  - (b) a NSW Government agency,
  - (c) another public authority that is constituted by or under an Act or that exercises public functions, other than a State owned corporation,
  - (d) a State owned corporation prescribed by the regulations.

[6] Part 10A

Insert after Part 10—

Part 10A Tax avoidance schemes

Division 1 Preliminary

106E Object of Part

The object of this Part is to deter schemes to avoid tax liability.

106F What is a tax avoidance scheme?

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, a tax avoidance scheme is a scheme that a person, whether alone or with others, enters into, makes or carries out for the sole or dominant purpose of enabling a tax liability to be avoided.
- (2) It does not matter if the scheme is entered into, made or carried out wholly or partly outside New South Wales.
- (3) In determining the sole or dominant purpose for which a scheme is entered into, made or carried out, any purpose related to avoiding a liability for foreign tax must be disregarded.
- (4) In this section—
foreign tax means a duty, tax or other impost imposed under a law of another State, a Territory, the Commonwealth or a jurisdiction outside Australia.

106G Matters relevant to whether scheme is tax avoidance scheme

The following matters must be taken into account in determining whether a scheme is a tax avoidance scheme—

- (a) the way in which the scheme was entered into, made or carried out,
- (b) the form and substance of the scheme, including—
  - (i) the legal rights and obligations involved in the scheme, and
  - (ii) the economic and commercial substance of the scheme,
- (c) when the scheme was entered into or made and the length of the period during which the scheme was carried out,
- (d) the purpose of a taxation law, or of a provision of a taxation law, whether or not the purpose is expressly stated,
- (e) the effect that a taxation law would have in relation to the scheme apart from this Part,
- (f) any change in a person's financial position, or other circumstances, that has resulted, will result, or may reasonably be expected to result, from the scheme,
- (g) the nature of any connection, whether of a business, family or other nature, between the person whose tax liability is avoided as a result of the scheme and another person whose financial position or other circumstances have changed, will change, or may reasonably be expected to change, as a result of the scheme,
- (h) the circumstances surrounding the scheme.

106H Meaning of "scheme"

- (1) In this Part, a scheme means—
  - (a) a trust, contract, agreement, arrangement, understanding, promise or undertaking, including all steps and transactions by which it is carried into effect—
    - (i) whether entered into or made orally or in writing, and
    - (ii) whether express or implied, and
    - (iii) whether or not it is, or is intended to be, enforceable by legal proceedings, or
  - (b) a scheme, plan or proposal, whether implemented or not, or
  - (c) an action, a course of action or a course of conduct.

- (2) A scheme may be a unilateral scheme.
- (3) This Part applies in relation to a part of a scheme in the same way as it applies to a scheme and a reference in this Part to a scheme includes a reference to a part of a scheme.

106I Meaning of “avoid”

In this Part—

- (a) a reference to avoiding tax, or payment of tax, includes a reference to postponing payment of tax, and
- (b) a reference to avoiding tax liability includes a reference to reducing or postponing tax liability.

Division 2 Payment of avoided tax

106J Payment of tax avoided as a result of tax avoidance scheme

- (1) A person is liable to pay the amount of tax avoided by the person as a result of a tax avoidance scheme.
- (2) For the purposes of this Part, the amount of tax avoided by a person as a result of a tax avoidance scheme is the amount of tax that, if the tax avoidance scheme had not been entered into, made or carried out—
  - (a) would have been payable by the person, or
  - (b) it is reasonable to expect would have been payable by the person, assuming that a reasonable alternative to entering into or making the scheme had been adopted, being an alternative that would have achieved the same economic or commercial result as the scheme, other than the result of avoiding tax.
- (3) The Chief Commissioner may make an assessment, or reassessment, of tax liability on the basis of the person’s liability under this Part to pay an amount of tax avoided by the person.

106K When does a liability to pay avoided tax arise?

- (1) A liability to pay an amount of tax avoided by a person as a result of a tax avoidance scheme is taken to arise on the date the amount of tax avoided would have been payable if the tax avoidance scheme had not been entered into or made.
- (2) Accordingly, a tax default is taken to have occurred on the date the amount of tax avoided would have been payable if the tax avoidance scheme had not been entered into or made.

Note— This means that interest and penalty tax may be charged in addition to the amount of tax avoided.
- (3) This section applies only if the Chief Commissioner issues a notice of assessment, or reassessment, of tax liability on the basis that a scheme is a tax avoidance scheme.

106L Reasons for decision to be given

A notice of assessment, or reassessment, of tax liability that is issued by the Chief Commissioner on the basis that a scheme is a tax avoidance scheme must be accompanied by a statement of the Chief Commissioner’s reasons for making the assessment or reassessment.

106M Innocent participants

- (1) A person is liable under this Part to pay an amount of tax avoided by the person as a result of a tax avoidance scheme whether or not the person entered into, made or carried out the tax avoidance scheme.
- (2) However, a person is not liable to pay an amount of tax avoided by the person as a result of a tax avoidance scheme if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the person did not know, and could not reasonably be expected to have known, that the scheme was a tax avoidance scheme.

Division 3 Promotion of tax avoidance schemes

106N Promotion of tax avoidance schemes prohibited

- (1) A person must not engage in conduct that results in a person being a promoter of a tax avoidance scheme.
- (2) A person is a promoter of a tax avoidance scheme if the person markets the scheme or otherwise encourages the growth of the scheme or interest in it.
- (3) However, a person is not a promoter of a tax avoidance scheme merely because the person—
  - (a) provides advice about the scheme, or
  - (b) distributes information or material about the scheme prepared by another person.

106O Civil penalty for promotion of tax avoidance scheme

- (1) The Supreme Court may, on application by the Chief Commissioner, make an order requiring a person who contravenes section 106N to pay the State a civil penalty not exceeding—
  - (a) 10,090 penalty units for an individual, or
  - (b) 50,450 penalty units for a corporation.
- (2) In deciding what penalty is appropriate for a contravention of section 106N by a person (referred to in subsection (4) as a promoter), the Supreme Court may have regard to all matters it considers relevant, including the following—
  - (a) the amount of the consideration received or receivable, directly or indirectly, by the person or associated persons, or both, in relation to the scheme,
  - (b) the deterrent effect the penalty may have,
  - (c) the amount of loss or damage incurred by a person who enters into, makes or carries out the tax avoidance scheme,
  - (d) the nature and extent of the contravention,
  - (e) the circumstances in which the contravention took place, including the deliberateness of the person's conduct and whether there was an honest and reasonable mistake of law,
  - (f) the period over which the conduct extended,
  - (g) whether the person took steps to avoid the contravention,
  - (h) whether the person has previously been found by the Court to have engaged in the same or similar conduct,
  - (i) the degree of the person's cooperation with the Chief Commissioner.

- (3) The debt arising from an order to pay a civil penalty is taken to be a judgment debt.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, a person is an associated person of a promoter of a tax avoidance scheme if the person is an associated person of the promoter for the purposes of the Duties Act 1997.
Note— See the Duties Act 1997, Dictionary, clause 2.

106P When civil penalty not available

- (1) The Supreme Court must not order a person (the relevant person) to pay a civil penalty if the person satisfies the Court—
  - (a) that the conduct in relation to which the proceedings were instituted was due to a reasonable mistake of fact, or
  - (b) that—
    - (i) the conduct in relation to which the proceedings were instituted was due to the act or default of another person, to an accident or to some other cause beyond the relevant person’s control, and
    - (ii) the relevant person took reasonable precautions and exercised due diligence to avoid the conduct.
- (2) The other person referred to in paragraph (1)(b) does not include someone who was an employee or agent of the relevant person when the alleged conduct occurred.
- (3) The Chief Commissioner must not make an application under section 106O for conduct referred to in section 106N in relation to a person’s involvement in a tax avoidance scheme if—
  - (a) the scheme is based on treating a taxation law as applying in a particular way, and
  - (b) that way agrees with—
    - (i) advice given to the person or the person’s agent by or on behalf of the Chief Commissioner, or
    - (ii) a statement in a publication approved in writing by the Chief Commissioner.
- (4) The Chief Commissioner must not make an application under section 106O in relation to a person’s involvement in a tax avoidance scheme more than 6 years after the person last engaged in conduct that resulted in the person or another person being a promoter of the scheme.

106Q Injunctions

The Supreme Court may, on application by the Chief Commissioner in relation to a person who has engaged, is engaging or is proposing to engage in conduct referred to in section 106N, grant an injunction—

- (a) restraining the person from engaging in the conduct, and
- (b) if, in the Court’s opinion, it is desirable to do so—requiring the person to do something.

106R Voluntary undertakings

- (1) The Chief Commissioner may accept a written undertaking given by a person for the purposes of this section in connection with furthering the object of this Part.

- (2) The person may withdraw or vary the undertaking at any time, but only with the consent of the Chief Commissioner.
- (3) If the Chief Commissioner considers that the person who gave the undertaking has breached any of its terms, the Chief Commissioner may apply to the Supreme Court for an order under subsection (4).
- (4) If the Court is satisfied that the person has breached a term of the undertaking, the Court may make one or both of the following orders—
  - (a) an order directing the person to comply with the term of the undertaking,
  - (b) another order that the Court considers appropriate.
- (5) The Chief Commissioner may publish a written undertaking given by a person for the purposes of this section in a way the Chief Commissioner thinks fit.

[7] Section 116 Service of documents by Chief Commissioner

Insert after section 116(3)—

- (4) For the purposes of this section, an approved electronic manner of serving a document on a person means—
  - (a) sending the document to a telephone number or email address provided by the person for the purposes of the service of the document, or
  - (b) providing the person access to the document via an online notification system if the person consents to the use of the system, or
  - (c) another electronic manner prescribed by the regulations.
- (5) A person may, orally or in writing, provide an email address or telephone number, or consent to the use of an online notification system, for the purpose of being served—
  - (a) a particular document, or
  - (b) a particular kind of document, or
  - (c) documents for a particular period, or
  - (d) all documents.
- (6) This section does not authorise a document to be served on a person orally.
- (7) In this section—

online notification system means an online system approved by the Chief Commissioner for the purpose of enabling a person to securely access a document by means of a website, mobile telephone or mobile device or by other electronic means.

serve includes give or send.

[10] Section 128

Omit the section. Insert instead—

128 Review of amendments by State Revenue and Fines Legislation Amendment (Miscellaneous) Act 2022

- (1) The Minister must review the amendments made to this Act by the State Revenue and Fines Legislation Amendment (Miscellaneous) Act 2022 to determine—
  - (a) whether the policy objectives of the amendments remain valid, and
  - (b) whether the terms of the amendments remain appropriate for securing the policy objectives.
- (2) The review must be undertaken as soon as possible after the period of 2 years from the date of assent to the State Revenue and Fines Legislation Amendment (Miscellaneous) Act 2022.
- (3) The Minister must table a report on the outcome of the review in each House of Parliament within 12 months after the end of the period of 2 years.

Insert at the end of the Schedule, with appropriate Part and clause numbering—

Part Provisions arising from enactment of State Revenue and Fines Legislation Amendment (Miscellaneous) Act 2022

Part 10A—tax avoidance schemes

- (1) Part 10A, as inserted by the State Revenue and Fines Legislation Amendment (Miscellaneous) Act 2022, applies to a scheme that is—
  - (a) entered into or made on or after the commencement of the Part, or
  - (b) carried out on or after the commencement of the Part, regardless of when it was first entered into or made.
- (2) However, Part 10A does not apply to tax avoided by a person as a result of a tax avoidance scheme if, apart from the scheme, the tax liability would have arisen before the commencement of the Part.
- (3) A provision of Part 10A that corresponds, or substantially corresponds, to a provision of the duty avoidance provisions extends to a scheme to which the duty avoidance provisions applied immediately before their repeal.
- (4) In this clause—

duty avoidance provisions means the Duties Act 1997, Chapter 11A.
scheme includes part of a scheme.
tax does not include duty under the Duties Act 1997.
tax liability does not include liability for duty under the Duties Act 1997.
