

New South Wales

Casino Legislation Amendment Bill 2022

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The object of this Bill is to amend the Casino Control Act 1992 and the Gaming and Liquor Administration Act 2007 to implement recommendations of the Casino Inquiry Report by the Hon P A Bergen SC, including to—

- (a) establish the New South Wales Independent Casino Commission as a new independent regulator, and
- (b) extinguish compensation triggers for casino operators in relation to regulatory action taken by Parliament, the Government and the Commission.

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 sets out the name, also called the short title, of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act.

Schedule 1 Amendment of Casino Control Act 1992 No 15

Establishment of NSW Independent Casino Commission and Casino Supervisory Fund

Schedule 1[90] inserts proposed Part 9A into the Casino Control Act 1992 (the Act) which establishes the NSW Independent Casino Commission (the NICC). The proposed Part also sets out matters in relation to the following—

- (a) the functions of the NICC,

- (b) the membership and appointment of Commissioners and Assistant Commissioners to the NICC,
- (c) arrangements for the supply of certain NSW Police Force records to the NICC,
- (d) the NICC's annual report and report of operations,
- (e) the seal of the NICC.

Schedule 1[102] provides for the Constitution and procedure of the NICC.

Schedule 1[81] inserts proposed section 115AB which establishes the Casino Supervisory Fund (the Fund) in the Special Deposits Account. The proposed section provides that money in the account is under the control and management of the NICC, and sets out the amounts that must be paid into, and from, the Fund. Schedule 1[79] and [80] make consequential amendments.

Compensation triggers

Schedule 1[96] inserts a new section 156 to provide that compensation for regulatory action that has an effect on the following is not payable by or on behalf of the Crown—

- (a) a casino licence or casino operator,
- (b) a relevant person,
- (c) another matter connected to the management or operation of a casino.

The terms compensation, regulatory action, relevant person and Crown are defined in the proposed section.

Prohibition on promotional prizes and junkets

Schedule 1[69] inserts proposed section 76A which prohibits the use of promotional prizes by casino operators. Casino operators are also required to provide each participant in a player reward scheme with information about problem gambling counselling services available to patrons of the casino under the Act, section 72A. The proposed section also sets out certain requirements for casino operators that conduct a player reward scheme.

Schedule 1[69] also inserts proposed section 76B which prohibits, as a condition of a casino licence, the casino operator from—

- (a) promoting or conducting junkets, or
- (b) paying a commission, or another financial or non-financial benefit to a person not playing at the casino by reference to another person's turnover of play or another gambling metric.

The terms player reward scheme, promotional prizes and junket are defined in the proposed sections.

Schedule 1[55] and [60]–[68] make consequential amendments.

Anti-money laundering requirements

Schedule 1[4] provides that a primary object of the Act is to ensure that each casino operator prevents money laundering and terrorism financing activities within the operations of the casino.

Schedule 1[91] provides that an object of the NICC is to maintain and administer systems for the licensing, supervision and control of a casino for the purpose of ensuring the casino operator prevents money laundering and terrorism financing activities within the operations of the casino.

Schedule 1[51] makes an amendment to the certificate of competency requirements for the functions of special employees in relation to money laundering and terrorism financing.

Schedule 1[52] specifies the period for which closed-circuit television footage recorded for conducting monitoring and surveillance of operations in the casino must be kept.

Schedule 1[57] inserts the following—

- (a) proposed section 71 requires a casino operator to ensure gaming machines and certain gaming-related signs are not visible outside the boundary of the casino,

- (b) proposed section 71A makes it a condition of a casino licence that all gaming conducted at the casino must be by use of a player card issued to each patron. The proposed section also provides for the regulations to prescribe requirements with which a player card must comply.

Schedule 1[59] prohibits a casino operator from accepting more than $1,000 cash from a customer in a day for wagering purposes.

Schedule 1[84] provides that the system of internal controls for a casino must include requirements for the casino operator to address certain risks associated with money laundering, terrorism financing and matters relating to responsible gambling.

Schedule 1[88] requires a casino operator who submits a suspicious matter report to AUSTRAC to also give a copy of the report to the NICC.

Schedule 1[89] inserts proposed section 131A which requires a casino operator to engage a person, who has been approved by the NICC in accordance with the proposed section, as a compliance auditor for the casino. The proposed section also sets out certain obligations for the compliance auditor. Schedule 1[35] provides that a contract for the engagement of a compliance auditor for a casino is a controlled contract for the Act, Part 3, Division 2.

Amendments to probity approval provisions

Schedule 1[3] replaces the definition of close associate of a casino operator or an applicant for a casino licence.

Schedule 1[5] places an onus on applicants to provide clear and convincing evidence of suitability for suitability assessments made by the NICC under the Act.

Schedule 1[28] expands the application of the Act, section 34 to a “relevant person” rather than a “casino operator”. Schedule 1[29] defines relevant person for the purposes of that section.

Schedule 1[41] inserts proposed Part 3, Division 3 which provides for the following matters in relation to close associates—

- (a) approvals of persons to be close associates,
- (b) the granting, and revocation, of exemptions from the requirement to obtain an approval,
- (c) notice requirements,
- (d) investigations, inquiries and disciplinary action against close associates.

Schedule 1[25] makes a consequential amendment.

Schedule 1[94] expands the list of law enforcement agencies in the Act, section 149(7) in relation to information gathering for law enforcement purposes.

Miscellaneous

Schedule 1[1], [8], [56] make consequential amendments to definitions.

Schedule 1[6] omits the Act, sections 5 and 5A which provide for the Minister to give certain directions.

Schedule 1[7] provides for a maximum of 2 casino licences to be in force under the Act at a particular time. Schedule 1[9]–[12] and [14] make consequential amendments.

Schedule 1[13], [27], [39], [40], [42], [44], [58], [72], [74]–[78], [85], [97], [100] and [101] amend penalty provisions.

Schedule 1[15], [20] and [83] replace references to “licensee” with “casino operator”.

Schedule 1[16]–[18] make amendments in relation to restrictions on gaming in the Barangaroo restricted gaming facility.

Schedule 1[19] requires a casino operator, in the management and operation of the casino, to cooperate with the NICC in relation to the NICC exercising its functions under the Act.

Schedule 1[21]–[24] make amendments in relation to disciplinary action against a casino operator to—

- (a) increase the pecuniary penalty that may be imposed on the casino operator, and
- (b) provide for enforceable undertakings as a disciplinary action, and
- (c) set out matters in relation to enforceable undertakings, including the variation, withdrawal and publishing of enforceable undertakings, and the steps that may be taken if a person fails to comply with an undertaking.

Schedule 1[26] specifies the way in which a review of a casino licence and the suitability of a casino operator is to be carried out, and provides for matters relating to the costs of a review.

Schedule 1[30] requires a casino operator, as a condition of a casino license, to ensure a major change in the state of affairs existing in relation to the casino operator, that is within the operator's power to prevent, does not occur other than with the prior written approval of the NICC. Schedule 1[31] clarifies that a major change in the state of affairs is taken to be within the operator's power to prevent if the major change can be prevented by a holding company of the casino operator.

Schedule 1[32] and [95] make consequential amendments.

Schedule 1[33] and [34] make amendments in relation to the cost of investigations into major changes referred to in Schedule 1[30] and [31].

Schedule 1[36]–[38] make the following amendments in relation to controlled contracts to—

- (a) make it an offence for a casino operator to enter into, or become a party to, a controlled contract without notifying the NICC,
- (b) set out certain matters in relation investigations under the Act, section 37, and require a casino operator to inform the NICC if the operator becomes aware of a change in a party to a controlled contract that would or may affect the suitability of the party,
- (c) enable the NICC to issue and revoke interim approvals of controlled contracts.

Schedule 1[43] exempts a special employee from holding a licence under the Act, section 44 if the employee holds a close associate approval issued under proposed section 42E.

Schedule 1[45] and [46] enable disciplinary action to be taken under the Act, section 59 against former licensees.

Schedule 1[47] reduces the period, from 14 days to 48 hours, in which a casino operator must notify the NICC of the cessation of functions of a licensed employee.

Schedule 1[48]–[50] expand the application of the Act, section 64 to certain close associates.

Schedule 1[53] expands the conditions of a casino licence in relation to the conduct of gaming to enable chips for gaming in the casino to be issued if the chips are paid for in reward points or another similar promotional method. Schedule 1[54] provides for certain offences in relation to the issuing of chips.

Schedule 1[70] provides an inspector a right of entry to a casino to exercise functions conferred or imposed on the inspector by the Act, the NICC, other liquor and gaming legislation or another Act.

Schedule 1[71] requires a casino operator to take the following actions as a condition of the casino licence if the operator, or the person for the time being in charge of the casino, gives an exclusion order to a person other than on the person's voluntary application—

- (a) give notice of the order to the other casino operator,
- (b) cancel a player card of the person subject to the order,
- (c) ensure that a player card is not issued to the person subject to the order unless written permission for the issue of the card to the person is given by the NICC or Commissioner of Police.

Schedule 1[73] requires a casino operator to take reasonable steps to prevent a person who is the subject of an exclusion order for the casino from entering the casino.

Schedule 1[82] provides for the calculation of duty and levies payable under the Act, Part 8 that are based on casino revenue.

Schedule 1[86] makes it a condition of a casino licence that the casino operator give the NICC complete and full access to certain systems.

Schedule 1[87] makes it a condition of a casino licence that the casino operator maintain a single account, approved by the NICC, at an authorised deposit-taking institution in New South Wales, for all banking transactions by patrons.

Schedule 1[92] specifies certain matters that invalidate an agreement entered into under the Act, section 142.

Schedule 1[93] enables the NICC to publish the results of an enquiry held under the Act, section 143.

Schedule 1[98] provides for the liability of certain persons for an offence against a provision of gaming and liquor legislation committed by a corporation (an executive liability offence).

Schedule 1[99] provides for a limitation period of 3 years for offences against the Act.

Schedule 1[103] inserts savings and transitional provisions consequent on the enactment of the proposed Act.

Schedule 1[104] replaces certain references to “Authority” with “NICC”.

Schedule 2 Amendment of Casino Control Regulation 2019

Schedule 2[1] prescribes the matters the NICC must have regard to in deciding whether to grant an exemption to the requirements under proposed section 42B in relation to the approval of close associates.

Schedule 2[2] and [3] make amendments consequent on the proposed Act.

Schedule 2[4]–[10], [12], [13], [15]–[20] and [27]–[34] make amendments to penalty provisions.

Schedule 2[11] and [14] prescribe certain requirements in relation to debit cards and player cards.

Schedule 2[21] specifies that the casino supervisory levy for the 2022-23 financial year is $19,000,000. Schedule 2[22] sets out certain ways in which the levy is to be paid.

Schedule 2[24] omits a clause from the Casino Control Regulation 2019, Schedule 1 which prescribes a description of a major change in the state of affairs of a casino operator.

Schedule 2[25] and [26] provide for the termination of a licensee by a casino operator to be a prescribed description of a change in the state of affairs of the licensee.

Schedule 3 Amendment of other legislation

Gaming and Liquor Administration Act 2007 No 91

Schedule 3.2[25] inserts proposed Part 4A into the Gaming and Liquor Administration Act 2007 to establish the Casino, Liquor and Gaming Coordination Committee. The proposed Part also provides for the membership and functions of the committee.

Schedule 3.1[1]–[4], [6], [10]–[16], [18]–[21], [23], [24], [26]–[30] and [33]–[35] make amendments as a consequence of the proposed Act.

Schedule 3.1[5] provides that the meaning of close associate in the Gaming and Liquor Administration Act 2007, section 5 does not apply to the Casino Control Act 1992 and regulations made under that Act.

Schedule 3.1[7] and [8] make amendments in relation to the membership of the Authority.

Schedule 3.1[37] makes a consequential amendment.

Schedule 3.1[9] provides for the authority to employ staff to assist the Authority to exercise its functions.

Schedule 3.1[17] enables information acquired in the exercise of functions under the gaming and liquor legislation to be divulged to the community at large if the Authority, NICC or Secretary certifies that to do so is in the public interest.

Schedule 3.1[22] provides that a function of an inspector is to detect, or assist in detecting, offences committed in a casino.

Schedule 3.1[31] provides for the payment of fees under the gaming and liquor legislation to certain persons. Schedule 3.1[32] makes a consequential amendment.

Schedule 3.1[36] reduces the maximum period for which an appointed member of the Authority holds office, subject to the Gaming and Liquor Administration Act 2007, Schedule 1, from 5 years to 4.

Schedule 3.1[38] provides that an appointed member of the Authority may not be a member for more than 2 consecutive terms.

Schedule 3.1[39] removes a distinction between full-time and part-time appointed members of the Authority in relation to remuneration. Previously, part-time appointed members were entitled to be paid such remuneration as the Minister determined.

Other legislation

Schedule 3 also amends the following Acts—

- (a) the Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009 to provide that information relating to audit, investigative, reporting and prosecuting functions of the NICC and the NSW Independent Liquor and Gaming Authority is excluded information under that Act, Schedule 2,
- (b) the Ombudsman Act 1974 to remove conduct of the Casino Control Authority or any other public authority when exercising functions under the Casino Control Act 1992 as excluded conduct for the purposes of the Ombudsman Act 1974, section 12,
- (c) the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 to—
 - (i) include the NICC and the Independent Gaming and Liquor Authority as a law enforcement agency in that Act, section 3, and
 - (ii) provide that the NICC and the Independent Gaming and Liquor Authority are not required to comply with the information protection principles under the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998,
- (d) the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975 in relation to remuneration for an appointed member of the Independent Liquor and Gaming Authority, the Chief Commissioner of the NICC and Commissioners of the NICC.

37A Interim approval of controlled contract	30
(1) While the NICC is considering a contract notice given by a casino operator in relation to approval to enter into or become a party to a controlled contract, or the variation of a controlled contract, the NICC may issue the casino operator with an interim approval of the controlled contract or variation.	31 32 33 34
(2) An interim approval—	35
(a) stays in force until a decision about the contract notice has been finally decided, unless earlier revoked by the NICC under section 37B(2), and	36 37
(b) is not to be taken as an indication the casino operator will give approval for the casino operator to enter into or become a party to a controlled contract, or the variation of the controlled contract.	38 39 40

37B	Revocation of interim approval of controlled contract	1
(1)	This section applies if, after the NICC issues a casino operator with an interim approval of a controlled contract or a variation of a controlled contract, the NICC—	2
	(a) objects to the proposed contract or variation, and	3
	(b) proposes to revoke the interim approval.	4
(2)	The NICC may, by written notice given to each of the parties to the proposed contract or variation—	5
	(a) advise the parties that the NICC proposes to revoke the interim approval, and	6
	(b) invite the parties to provide written submissions to the NICC within the period specified in the notice, not less than 14 days after the day the notice is given to the parties, about why the interim approval should not be revoked.	7
(3)	After considering any written submissions made under subsection (2)(b), the NICC must decide—	8
	(a) to revoke the interim approval, or	9
	(b) not to revoke the interim approval.	10
(4)	As soon as practicable after making its decision under subsection (3), the NICC must give written notice of the decision to each of the parties to the proposed contract or variation.	11
(5)	If the NICC’s decision is to revoke the interim approval, the notice may include a requirement that—	12
	(a) the casino operator must not enter into, or otherwise become a party to, the proposed contract or proposed variation to the contract, or	13
	(b) for an existing contract—the contract be terminated within a specified period.	14

	Division 3 Close associates	24
42A	Requirement for approval of close associate	25
(1)	A person must not be a close associate of a casino operator unless—	26
	(a) the NICC has given approval for the person to become a close associate, and	27

(b)	if the person holds a relevant position—the person holds a certificate of competency under section 64 for the functions that the close associate exercises.	1
	Maximum penalty—	2
(a)	for an individual—100 penalty units, or	3
(b)	for a corporation—1,000 penalty units.	4
(2)	Subsection (1) does not apply to a person to the extent the person—	5
(a)	holds an exemption granted by the NICC, by written notice given to the person, from the requirement to obtain an approval under this Division, or	6
(b)	held an exemption mentioned in paragraph (a) before it was revoked and it is not more than 28 days since the exemption was revoked,	7
(c)	is a close associate under an interim approval, or	8
(d)	was a close associate under an interim approval before it was revoked and it is not more than 28 days since the interim approval was revoked.	9
(3)	For subsection (2)(a)—	10
(a)	in deciding whether or not to grant an exemption, the NICC must have regard to the matters prescribed by the regulations, and	11
(b)	an exemption may be granted subject to any conditions the NICC considers appropriate.	12
(4)	In this section—	13
	relevant position has the same meaning as in section 3A(3).	14
42B	Application for approval of close associate	15
(1)	An application for approval of a close associate must be made to the NICC.	16
(2)	The application must—	17
(a)	be made in a form approved by the NICC, and	18
(b)	be accompanied by the fee decided by the NICC for the application, and	19
(c)	contain or be accompanied by any information—	20
(i)	required by the approved form, or	21
(ii)	otherwise requested by the NICC.	22
(3)	The application must be verified by statutory declaration.	23
(4)	Sections 14, 15, 17 and 18 apply, with any necessary changes, to an application for approval of a close associate under this Division as if it were an application for a licence.	24
42C	Interim approval of close associate	25
(1)	While the NICC is considering an application by a person for approval to become a close associate of a casino operator, the NICC may issue the person with an interim approval as a close associate for the following purposes—	26
(a)	to enable the person to start employment with the casino operator,	27
(b)	to enable commercial negotiations to start or continue.	28
(2)	The NICC may, at any time and for any reason, revoke an interim approval.	29
(3)	An interim approval—	30

(a)	stays in force until a decision about the application for approval of a close associate has been finally decided, unless earlier revoked by the NICC under subsection (2), and	1 2 3
(b)	is not to be taken as an indication the person will be given approval to become a close associate of the casino operator.	4 5
42D	Decision about application for approval of close associate	6
(1)	The NICC must consider an application and decide to—	7
(a)	grant the application and issue an approval (a close associate approval) to the person, with or without conditions or	8 9
(b)	refuse the application.	10
(2)	In deciding the application the NICC, must consider—	11
(a)	whether the NICC is satisfied the person is a suitable person to be concerned in or associated with the management and operation of a casino, and	12 13 14
(b)	any other matters the NICC considers relevant.	15
(3)	For subsection (2)(a), the NICC must consider whether—	16
(a)	the person is of good repute, having regard to character, honesty and integrity, and	17 18
(b)	the person is of sound and stable financial background, and	19
(c)	the person has any business association with a person, body or association that, in the NICC's opinion—	20 21
(i)	is not of good repute, having regard to character, honesty and integrity, or	22 23
(ii)	has undesirable or unsatisfactory financial sources, and	24
(d)	each director, partner, trustee, executive officer and secretary, and any other officer or person decided by the NICC to be associated or connected with the ownership, administration or management of the operations or business of the person, is a suitable person to act in that capacity.	25 26 27 28 29
42E	Conditions of close associate approvals	30
(1)	A close associate approval is subject to any conditions imposed by the NICC—	31 32
(a)	at the time the close associate approval is issued, or	33
(b)	at a later time and notified by the NICC to the close associate who holds the approval by written notice.	34 35
(2)	The NICC may, by written notice given to a close associate who holds a close associate approval, vary, substitute or revoke a condition of the approval—	36 37
(a)	on the NICC's own initiative, or	38
(b)	on application by the close associate.	39
42F	Substantial changes in state of affairs of associates	40
(1)	A close associate of a casino operator must, as soon as practicable after a substantial change occurs in the close associate's state of affairs, give the NICC written notice about the change.	41 42 43

(2)	After receiving a notice under subsection (1), the NICC may, by written notice given to the close associate, require the close associate to do any of the following—	1 2 3
(a)	give the NICC further information about the substantial change,	4
(b)	take, or refrain from taking, specified action in relation to the substantial change within the time specified in the notice.	5 6
(3)	The close associate must comply with the notice. Maximum penalty—	7 8
(a)	for an individual—100 penalty units, or	9
(b)	for a corporation—1,000 penalty units.	10
(4)	In this section— substantial change , in the state of affairs existing in relation to a close associate of a casino operator, means any change in the state of affairs that is of a class or description prescribed as substantial for the purposes of this section.	11 12 13 14 15
42G	Cost of investigations or inquiries	16
(1)	This section applies to an investigation or inquiry conducted under this Division to determine the suitability of a person to become or remain a close associate of a casino operator.	17 18 19
(2)	The reasonable costs incurred by the NICC in conducting the investigation or inquiry are payable by the person to the NICC.	20 21
(3)	The costs may include—	22
(a)	travel, whether within or outside the State, and	23
(b)	expenses involved in engaging external legal, financial or other expert advice or assistance.	24 25
(4)	The NICC may require part or full payment in advance of the amount of costs it estimates will be payable by the person and may refuse to deal with the application until the required payment is made.	26 27 28
42H	Disciplinary action against close associate	29
(1)	The NICC may take disciplinary action under section 23 against a close associate as if the person were a casino operator.	30 31
(2)	For subsection (1), sections 23–27 apply, with the following changes, to taking disciplinary action against the close associate as if the person were a licensee—	32 33 34
(a)	the reference in section 23(1), definition of disciplinary action , paragraph (b), to “$100 million” were a reference to “$100 million for a corporation and $1,000,000 for an individual”, and	35 36 37
(b)	any other necessary changes.	38
42I	Duration of close associate approval	39
	A close associate approval continues until the earlier of the following occurs—	40
(a)	the approval is revoked by the NICC,	41
(b)	the holder of the approval or the casino operator advises the NICC the person is no longer a close associate of the casino operator.	42 43

42J	Notice to show cause	1
(1)	This section applies if the NICC reasonably believes there may be grounds for revoking a close associate approval.	2 3
(2)	The NICC may, by written notice (a show cause notice) given to the close associate, invite the close associate to show cause why the close associate's approval should not be revoked.	4 5 6
(3)	The show cause notice must state—	7
(a)	the grounds the NICC reasonably believes may exist for revoking the close associate approval, and	8 9
(b)	that the close associate may make submissions to the NICC, in the way specified in the show cause notice, about why the close associate approval should not be revoked, and	10 11 12
(c)	the period, not less than 21 days, in which the close associate may make the submissions.	13 14
(4)	The close associate may, in accordance with the show cause notice, make submissions to the NICC.	15 16
(5)	After considering any submissions made by the close associate in accordance with the show cause notice, the NICC must decide to—	17 18
(a)	revoke the close associate approval, or	19
(b)	continue the close associate approval.	20
42K	Requirement for exempt close associate to notify NICC of change in circumstances	21 22
(1)	It is a condition of an exemption granted under this Division to a close associate of a casino operator that the close associate must, by written notice given to the NICC, notify the NICC of the following—	23 24 25
(a)	a change in the close associate's circumstances which may affect the close associate's control or influence over the casino operations, or	26 27
(b)	another change in the close associate's circumstances that may affect the close associate's eligibility for the exemption, including a change prescribed by the regulations.	28 29 30
(2)	A notice under subsection (1) must be given to the NICC as soon as practicable, but not later than 5 days, after the close associate becomes aware of the change in the close associate's circumstances.	31 32 33
42L	Revocation of exemption of close associate	34
(1)	This section applies if, after the NICC grants a close associate of a casino operator an exemption under this Division, the NICC proposes, after having regard to the matters prescribed by the regulations, to revoke the exemption.	35 36 37
(2)	The NICC may, by written notice given to the casino operator and close associate—	38 39
(a)	advise the casino operator and close associate that the NICC proposes to revoke the exemption, and	40 41
(b)	invite the casino operator and close associate to provide written submissions to the NICC within the period specified in the notice, not less than 14 days after the day the notice is given to the operator and associate, about why the exemption should not be revoked.	42 43 44 45

(3)	After considering any written submissions made under subsection (2)(b), the NICC must decide—	1
	(a) to revoke the exemption, or	2
	(b) not to revoke the exemption.	3
(4)	As soon as practicable after making its decision under subsection (3), the NICC must give written notice of the decision to the casino operator and close associate.	4

(3)	The Minister may remove an Assistant Commissioner from office at any time.	16
8	Filling of vacancy in office of Commissioner	17
	If the office of a Commissioner, other than an Assistant Commissioner, becomes vacant, a person is, subject to this Act, to be appointed to fill the vacancy.	18 19 20
	Note — See Part 9A, Division 3 for how a vacancy in the office of Commissioner is to be filled.	21 22
9	Disclosure of pecuniary interests	23
(1)	This clause applies if—	24
(a)	a Commissioner has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in a matter being considered or about to be considered at a meeting of the NICC, and	25 26 27
(b)	the interest appears to raise a conflict with the proper performance of the Commissioner's duties in relation to the consideration of the matter.	28 29
(2)	The Commissioner must, as soon as possible after the relevant facts have come to the Commissioner's knowledge, disclose the nature of the interest at a meeting of the NICC.	30 31 32
(3)	A disclosure by a Commissioner at a meeting of the NICC of any of the following is a sufficient disclosure of the nature of the interest in any matter relating to the company or other body or to the person that may arise after the date of the disclosure and that is required to be disclosed under subclause (2)—	33 34 35 36
(a)	the Commissioner is a member, or is in the employment, of a specified company or other body,	37 38
(b)	the Commissioner is a partner, or is in the employment, of a specified person,	39 40
(c)	the Commissioner has some other specified interest relating to a specified company or other body or to a specified person.	41 42
(4)	Particulars of a disclosure made under this clause must be recorded by the NICC in a book kept for the purpose and that book must be open at all reasonable hours for inspection by a person on payment of the fee decided by the NICC.	43 44 45 46

(5)	After a Commissioner has disclosed the nature of an interest in a matter, the Commissioner must not, unless the Minister or the NICC otherwise decides—	1 2
(a)	be present during any deliberation of the NICC in relation to the matter, or	3 4
(b)	take part in a decision of the NICC in relation to the matter.	5
(6)	For the purposes of the making of a decision by the NICC under subclause (5), a Commissioner who has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in a matter to which the disclosure relates must not—	6 7 8
(a)	be present during any deliberation of the NICC for the purpose of making the decision, or	9 10
(b)	take part in the making by the NICC of the decision.	11
(7)	A contravention of this clause does not invalidate a decision of the NICC.	12
(8)	This clause applies to a member of a committee of the NICC and the committee in the same way as it applies to a Commissioner and the NICC.	13 14
10	Government Sector Employment Act 2013 does not apply to Commissioners	15
	The provisions of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 relating to the employment of Public Service employees do not apply to a Commissioner.	16 17
11	Effect of certain other Acts	18
(1)	This clause applies if by or under any Act provision is made—	19
(a)	requiring a person who is the holder of a stated office to devote the whole of the person’s time to the duties of the office, or	20 21
(b)	prohibiting the person from engaging in employment outside the duties of the office.	22 23
(2)	The provision does not operate to disqualify the person from—	24
(a)	holding the office and also the office of a Commissioner, or	25
(b)	accepting and retaining remuneration payable to the person under this Act as a Commissioner.	26 27
12	Personal liability	28
	A matter or thing done or omitted to be done by any of the following does not, if the matter or thing was done or omitted to be done in good faith for the purpose of executing this Act, subject a Commissioner or a person acting under the direction of the NICC personally to any action, liability, claim or demand—	29 30 31 32 33
(a)	the NICC,	34
(b)	a Commissioner,	35
(c)	a person acting under the direction of the NICC.	36
Part 3	Procedure	37
13	General procedure	38
	The procedure for the calling of meetings of the NICC and for the conduct of business at those meetings is, subject to this Act and the regulations, to be decided by the NICC.	39 40 41

14	Quorum	1
	The quorum for a meeting of the NICC is a majority of the Commissioners for the time being.	2 3
15	Presiding member	4
(1)	The Chief Commissioner or, in the absence of the Chief Commissioner, a person elected by the Commissioners who are present at a meeting of the NICC, is to preside at a meeting of the NICC.	5 6 7
(2)	The presiding Commissioner has a deliberative vote and, in the event of an equality of votes, has a second or casting vote.	8 9
16	Voting	10
	A decision supported by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting of the NICC at which a quorum is present is the decision of the NICC.	11 12
17	Transaction of business outside meetings or by telephone etc	13
(1)	The NICC may, if it thinks fit, transact any of its business by the circulation of papers among all the Commissioners for the time being, and a resolution in writing approved in writing by a majority of those Commissioners is taken to be a decision of the NICC made at a meeting of the NICC.	14 15 16 17
(2)	The NICC may, if it thinks fit, transact any of its business at a meeting at which Commissioners, or some Commissioners, participate by telephone or other electronic means, but only if any Commissioner who speaks on a matter before the meeting can be heard by the other Commissioners.	18 19 20 21
(3)	For the purposes of the approval of a resolution under subclause (2) or a meeting held under subclause (2), the Chief Commissioner and each other Commissioner have the same voting rights as they have at an ordinary meeting of the NICC.	22 23 24 25
(4)	A resolution approved under subclause (1) is, subject to the regulations, to be recorded in the minutes of the meetings of the NICC.	26 27
(5)	Papers may be circulated among the Commissioners for the purposes of subclause (1) by electronic means.	28 29
18	First meeting	30
	The Chief Commissioner may call the first meeting of the NICC in the way the Chief Commissioner thinks appropriate.	31 32
Part 4	Miscellaneous	33
