41F Committees [NSW]

- (1) A Council may establish committees to assist it in connection with the exercise of any of its functions.
- (2) The members of a committee need not be members of the Council.
- (3) The procedure for the calling of meetings of a committee and for the conduct of business at the meetings is—
  - (a) as decided by the Council; or
  - (b) subject to a decision of the Council, as decided by the committee.

41G Councils' complaint functions may be exercised by 2 or more members [NSW]

- (1) A Council may appoint any 2 or more members of the Council to exercise the functions of the Council under Division 3 of Part 8.
- (2) The referral of a complaint by the members appointed is taken to be a referral by the Council.

41H Annual report [NSW]

- (1) An annual report prepared by a Council under the Annual Reports (Statutory Bodies) Act 1984 must include particulars of the following for the year to which it relates—
  - (a) all complaints received by the Council during the year or received by the Council before that year but which, in the Council's opinion had not, at the start of the year, been finally disposed of;
  - (b) the action taken during the year in relation to complaints received by the Council and the results of that action up to the end of that year;
  - (c) all matters referred to a Performance Review Panel for performance review during the year, or referred to a Panel before the year but which, in the Council's opinion had not, at the start of the year, been finally disposed of;
  - (d) the results of all performance reviews conducted by Performance Review Panels that were finally disposed of during the year.

- (2) Two or more Councils may decide to prepare a joint annual report under the Annual Reports (Statutory Bodies) Act 1984.
  - (3) This section does not require the identity of a complainant, a person who notifies a professional performance matter to a Council, a person about whom a complaint is made or who is the subject of a performance review or any other person to be disclosed in an annual report.

41I Information to be made available to public [NSW]

- (1) A Council for a health profession must ensure the following information, in relation to a registered health practitioner registered in the profession, is made available to the public on request—
  - (a) any conditions imposed on the registration of the practitioner;
  - (b) any other order made in respect of the practitioner under this Law.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Council is taken to have complied with that subsection if the information is available on the Register kept by the National Board for the health profession.
- (3) This section does not require a Council to disclose anything the Council considers relates solely or principally to the physical or mental capacity of a person to practise the person's profession.

41J Delegation by Council and Executive Officer [NSW]

- (1) A Council may delegate to a person the exercise of any of its functions, other than this power of delegation.
- (2) An Executive Officer of a Council may delegate to a person the exercise of—
  - (a) any of the functions of the Executive Officer under this Law, other than this power of delegation; or
  - (b) any functions delegated to the Executive Officer by the Council, unless the Council otherwise provides in its instrument of delegation to the Executive Officer.
- (3) In this section, a reference to a person includes a reference to a group of persons, including a committee.

41K Service of documents on Councils [NSW]

- (1) A document (other than a complaint made under Part 8) may be served on a Council by leaving it at or sending it by post to an office of the Council.
- (2) This does not affect the operation of any provision of a law or of the rules of a court authorising a document to be served on a Council in another way.

41L Authentication of certain documents [NSW]

A certificate, summons, process, demand, order, notice, statement, direction or other document requiring authentication by a Council may be sufficiently authenticated without the seal of the Council if signed by—

- (a) the President or the Executive Officer of the Council; or
- (b) an officer of the Council authorised to do so by the Executive Officer.

41M Recovery of charges, fines, fees and other money by Councils [NSW]

A charge, fine, fee or other money due to a Council may be recovered by the Council as a debt in a court of competent jurisdiction.

41N Proof of certain matters not required [NSW]

In any legal proceedings, proof is not required (until evidence is given to the contrary) of—

- (a) the establishment of a Council; or
- (b) any resolution of a Council; or
- (c) the appointment of, or the holding of office by, a member of a Council; or
- (d) the presence of a quorum at a meeting of a Council.

Division 3 Proceedings of Councils [NSW]

41O Other matters to be taken into account [NSW]

In the exercise of any of its functions under Subdivision 2 or 7 of Division 3 of Part 8 with respect to a complaint about a registered health practitioner or a student, a Council must have regard to any of the following matters, to the extent the Council reasonably considers the matter to be relevant to the complaint—

- (a) another complaint or notification about the practitioner or student made to the Council or the National Agency, or made to a former Board under a repealed Act, including a complaint—
  - (i) in respect of which the Council, the Commission or a National Board has decided no further action should be taken; and
  - (ii) that is not required to be referred, or that the Council or the Commission decides not to refer, under Division 3 of Part 8;
- (b) a previous finding or decision of a Council inquiry in relation to the practitioner or student;
- (c) a previous finding or decision of a board inquiry, professional standards committee or a tribunal established under a repealed Act in respect of the practitioner or student;
- (d) a written report made by an assessor following an assessment of the practitioner's professional performance;
- (e) a recommendation made, or written statement of decision on a performance review provided, by a Performance Review Panel in relation to the practitioner.

41P Exercise of functions with consent [NSW]

- (1) A Council may exercise any of its functions under this Law with respect to a registered health practitioner or student with the written consent of the practitioner or student.
- (2) A function exercised by the Council with the consent of the registered health practitioner or student may be exercised even though a condition otherwise required to be met or procedures otherwise required to be followed before its exercise have not been met or followed.
- (3) If the registered health practitioner or student withdraws the practitioner's or student's consent, the Council must take the action necessary to give effect to the withdrawal.

Division 4 Administration [NSW]

41Q Executive Officer [NSW]

- (1) There is an Executive Officer of each Council.
- (2) The Executive Officer—
  - (a) is responsible, as the chief executive officer of the Council, for the management of the affairs of the Council subject to any directions of the Council; and
  - (b) has and may exercise other functions conferred or imposed on the Executive Officer by or under this Law or any other Act.
- (3) The Executive Officer of a Council must keep a record of—
  - (a) all proceedings and decisions of Committees to which the Council refers matters; and
  - (b) all proceedings and decisions of the Tribunal established for the health profession for which the Council is established; and
  - (c) all inquiries held by the Council.

Division 5 Finance [NSW]

41R Financial provisions [NSW]

The Executive Officer of a Council must give to the Health Administration Corporation constituted under the Health Administration Act 1982, for payment into an account established under section 13A of that Act, all money received by the Council.

41S Education and Research Account [NSW]

- (1) A Council may establish an account named the '[name of Council] Education and Research Account'.
- (2) The Council must pay into its Education and Research Account the amounts decided by the Minister from time to time.
- (3) The Minister may not decide an amount under this section without first consulting with the Council.

- (4) Money in the Education and Research Account may be expended by the Council for or towards the following purposes—
- (a) any purpose relating to education and research about the health, performance and conduct of registered health practitioners or students registered in the health profession for which the Council is established;
  - (b) meeting administrative expenditure incurred with respect to the Education and Research Account and the purposes for which it is used.
- (5) An expenditure of money under this section must not be made unless it is authorised by a resolution of the Council supported by two-thirds of the members of the Council.

41T Medical Council to pay expenses of Medical Services Committee [NSW]

The reasonable expenses of the Medical Services Committee established under the Health Administration Act 1982 are to be paid out of the account established under section 13A of that Act for the Medical Council of New South Wales.

- (f) Accepting benefit for referral or recommendation to health service provider
Accepting from a health service provider (or from another person on behalf of the health service provider) a benefit as inducement, consideration or reward for—
- (i) referring another person to the health service provider; or
  - (ii) recommending another person use any health service provided by the health service provider or consult with the health service provider in relation to a health matter.
- (g) Accepting benefit for recommendation of health product
Accepting from a person who supplies a health product (or from another person on behalf of the supplier) a benefit as inducement, consideration or reward for recommending that another person use the health product, but does not include accepting a benefit that consists of ordinary retail conduct.
- (h) Offering a benefit for a referral or recommendation
Offering or giving a person a benefit as inducement, consideration or reward for the person—
- (i) referring another person to the registered health practitioner; or
  - (ii) recommending to another person that the person use a health service provided by the practitioner or consult the practitioner in relation to a health matter.

(i) Failure to disclose pecuniary interest in giving referral or recommendation

Referring a person to, or recommending that a person use or consult—

- (i) another health service provider; or
- (ii) a health service; or
- (iii) a health product;

if the practitioner has a pecuniary interest in giving that referral or recommendation, unless the practitioner discloses the nature of the interest to the person before or at the time of giving the referral or recommendation.

(j) Engaging in overservicing

Engaging in overservicing.

(k) Supervision of assistants

Permitting an assistant employed by the practitioner (in connection with the practitioner's professional practice) who is not a registered health practitioner to attend, treat or perform operations on patients in respect of matters requiring professional discretion or skill.

(l) Other improper or unethical conduct

Any other improper or unethical conduct relating to the practice or purported practice of the practitioner's profession.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(i), a registered health practitioner has a pecuniary interest in giving a referral or recommendation—

- (a) if the health service provider, or the supplier of the health product, to which the referral or recommendation relates is a public company and the practitioner holds 5% or more of the issued share capital of the company; or
- (b) if the health service provider, or the supplier of the health product, to which the referral or recommendation relates is a private company and the practitioner has any interest in the company; or
- (c) if the health service provider, or the supplier of the health product, to whom the referral or

- recommendation relates is a natural person who is a partner of the practitioner; or
- (d) in any circumstances prescribed by the NSW regulations.
- (3) For avoidance of doubt, a reference in this section to a referral or recommendation that is given to a person includes a referral or recommendation that is given to more than one person or to persons of a particular class.
- (4) In this section—
benefit means money, property or anything else of value.
recommend a health product includes supply or prescribe the health product.
supply includes sell.

139C Additional matters that constitute unsatisfactory professional conduct of medical practitioners [NSW]

In addition to the matters referred to in section 139B, unsatisfactory professional conduct of a medical practitioner also includes each of the following—

- (a) Criminal convictions and criminal findings
Conduct that results in the medical practitioner being convicted of or being made the subject of a criminal finding for any of the following offences—
- (i) an offence under section 102 of the Mental Health Act 2007;
  - (ii) an offence under section 175 of the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998;
  - (iii) an offence under section 35 of the Guardianship Act 1987;
  - (iv) an offence under section 128A, 128B, 129 or 129AA of the Health Insurance Act 1973 of the Commonwealth;
  - (v) an offence under section 58 of the Private Health Facilities Act 2007.
- (b) Assisting unregistered practitioners
By the medical practitioner's presence, countenance, advice, assistance or co-operation, knowingly enable a person who is not a medical practitioner (whether or not that person is described as an assistant) or is not otherwise authorised by a National Board to—

- (i) perform operative surgery (as distinct from manipulative surgery) on a patient in respect of any matter requiring professional discretion or skill; or
  - (ii) issue or procure the issue of a certificate, notification, report or other like document, or to engage in professional practice, as if the person were a medical practitioner.
- (c) Failing to render urgent attention
Refusing or failing, without reasonable cause, to attend (within a reasonable time after being requested to do so) on a person for the purpose of rendering professional services in the capacity of a medical practitioner if the practitioner has reasonable cause to believe the person is in need of urgent attention by a medical practitioner, unless the practitioner has taken all reasonable steps to ensure that another medical practitioner attends instead within a reasonable time.

139D Additional matters that constitute unsatisfactory professional conduct of pharmacists [NSW]

- (1) In addition to the matters referred to in section 139B, unsatisfactory professional conduct of a pharmacist also includes each of the following—
- (a) practising pharmacy for remuneration at a pharmacy in the course of employment by, or in association with, a non-pharmacist;
  - (b) the supply of precursor drugs, or preparations, admixtures, extracts or other substances containing a proportion of precursor drugs, by the pharmacist in circumstances in which the supply of the drugs, preparations, admixtures, extracts or other substances is unnecessary, not reasonably required, or excessive;
  - (c) if the pharmacist is the owner of, or otherwise has a pecuniary interest in, a pharmacy business, failing to display at or near the main entrance of each premises in which the business is carried on the owner's name;

- (d) if the pharmacist is the pharmacist in charge of a pharmacy, failing to display adjacent to the area where dispensing is carried on in the pharmacy the name of the pharmacist in charge followed by the words “PHARMACIST IN CHARGE”;
- (e) if the pharmacist is the owner of, or otherwise has a pecuniary interest in, a pharmacy business, failing to ensure drug price information displayed in premises in which the business is carried on does not contravene the Price Information Code of Practice (within the meaning of Schedule 5F).
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(c) and (e), the owner of a pharmacy business includes—
- (a) a pharmacist who has a pecuniary interest in the pharmacy business; and
- (b) a pharmacist who is nominated by the owner of the pharmacy business as being responsible for the matters referred to in clause 6(2)(c) or 7(2) of Schedule 5F.
- (3) In this section—
- non-pharmacist means an entity that is not a pharmacist, but does not include any of the following—
- (a) the Crown;
- (b) a public health organisation or a charitable or philanthropic institution;
- (c) a pharmacists’ partnership or pharmacists’ body corporate;
- (d) a friendly or other society that owns a pharmacy business as permitted by clause 6 of Schedule 5F;
- (e) a body corporate that owns or carries on a pharmacy business under clause 7 of Schedule 5F;
- (f) a person who has a pecuniary interest in a pharmacy business as referred to in clause 5(4) or (5) of Schedule 5F and who carries on that business;
- (g) a person who, in assuming the administration of the property of another person under a security interest granted in respect of that other person’s pharmacy business, carries on that pharmacy business.

precursor drug has the same meaning as precursor has in section 24A of the Drug Misuse and Trafficking Act 1985.

139E Meaning of “professional misconduct” [NSW]

For the purposes of this Law, professional misconduct of a registered health practitioner means—

- (a) unsatisfactory professional conduct of a sufficiently serious nature to justify suspension or cancellation of the practitioner’s registration; or
- (b) more than one instance of unsatisfactory professional conduct that, when the instances are considered together, amount to conduct of a sufficiently serious nature to justify suspension or cancellation of the practitioner’s registration.

139F References to “complaint” [NSW]

In Subdivisions 1–6 of Division 3 and in Subdivisions 1 and 2 of Division 6, a reference to a complaint includes a reference to a matter arising out of the investigation of a complaint in accordance with this Law or another Act.

139G Part applicable to persons formerly registered under this Law

- (1) This section applies if a person was, but is no longer, registered in a health profession under this Law.
- (2) A notification may be made, and proceedings may be taken, under this Part in relation to the person’s behaviour while registered as if the person were still registered under this Law by the National Board established for the health profession.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), this Part (other than Division 2) applies, with any necessary changes, to the person as if a reference to a registered health practitioner included that person.

Note. This section is a Health Practitioner Regulation National Law provision.

139H Part applicable to persons formerly registered under corresponding prior Act in certain circumstances

- (1) This section applies if a person—
  - (a) was registered in a health profession under a corresponding prior Act; and
  - (b) is not, and has not been, registered in the health profession under this Law.

- (2) A notification may be made, and proceedings may be taken, under this Part in relation to the person's behaviour while registered under the corresponding prior Act as if the person were registered under this Law by the National Board established for the health profession.
- (3) However, subsection (2) applies only to the extent—
- (a) a notification about the person's behaviour could have been made under the corresponding prior Act; and
- (b) proceedings of that type could have been taken under the corresponding prior Act.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (2), this Part (other than Division 2) applies, with any necessary changes, to the person as if a reference to a registered health practitioner included that person.

Note. This section is a Health Practitioner Regulation National Law provision.

Division 3 Complaints [NSW]

Subdivision 1 Making complaints [NSW]

144 Grounds for complaint about registered health practitioner [NSW]

The following complaints may be made about a registered health practitioner—

(a) Criminal conviction or criminal finding

A complaint the practitioner has, either in this jurisdiction or elsewhere, been convicted of or made the subject of a criminal finding for an offence.

(b) Unsatisfactory professional conduct or professional misconduct

A complaint the practitioner has been guilty of unsatisfactory professional conduct or professional misconduct.

(c) Lack of competence

A complaint the practitioner is not competent to practise the practitioner's profession.

(d) Impairment

A complaint the practitioner has an impairment.

(e) Suitable person

A complaint the practitioner is otherwise not a suitable person to hold registration in the practitioner's profession.

144A Grounds for complaint about student [NSW]

The following complaints may be made about a student—

(a) Offences

A complaint the student has, either in this jurisdiction or elsewhere, been charged with an offence, or has been convicted of or made the subject of a criminal finding for an offence, that is punishable by 12 months imprisonment or more.

(b) Impairment

A complaint the student has an impairment.

(c) Contravention of conditions

A complaint that the student has contravened a condition of the student's registration or an undertaking given by the student to a National Board.

144B Who can make complaint [NSW]

- (1) Any person can make a complaint.
- (2) A complaint may also be made by a Council or the Director-General.

144C Complaints may be made to Council or Health Care Complaints Commission [NSW]

A complaint may be made to a Council or the Commission.

144D Complaints to be in writing [NSW]

- (1) A complaint, other than a complaint made by a Council or the Director-General, must—
  - (a) be in writing; and
  - (b) contain particulars of the allegations on which it is founded.
- (2) A complaint need not be made in terms that are strictly consistent with the terminology of section 144 or 144A.
- (3) A Council or the Commission may consider and investigate a complaint that does not comply with the requirements of subsection (1) but must not refer the complaint under Subdivision 2 until the requirements are complied with.

144E Where to lodge complaints [NSW]

- (1) A complaint made to a Council must be lodged with the Executive Officer of the Council.
- (2) A complaint made to the Commission is, in accordance with section 9 of the Health Care Complaints Act 1993, to be lodged with the Commission.

144F Further particulars may be required from complainant [NSW]

A Council or the Commission may require the complainant to provide further particulars of a complaint.

144G Council to notify Commission and National Boards of complaints [NSW]

A Council must, as soon as practicable after a complaint is made to or by the Council about a registered health practitioner or student, notify the following persons about the complaint or matter—

- (a) the Commission;
- (b) the National Board for the health profession in which the registered health practitioner or student is registered.

Subdivision 2 How complaints are to be dealt with [NSW]

145 Complaints to be dealt with expeditiously [NSW]

All complaints are to be dealt with expeditiously.

145A Council and Commission to consult on complaint [NSW]

- (1) Before any action is taken on a complaint, a Council and the Commission must consult to see if agreement can be reached between them as to the course of action to be taken concerning the complaint.
- (2) Division 2 of Part 2 of the Health Care Complaints Act 1993 applies to the consultation, despite the other provisions of this Subdivision.

145B Courses of action available to Council on complaint [NSW]

- (1) The following courses of action are available to a Council in respect of a complaint—
  - (a) the Council may make any inquiries about the complaint the Council thinks appropriate;
  - (b) the Council may refer the complaint to the Commission for investigation;
  - (c) the Council may refer the complaint to a Tribunal;
  - (d) the Council may refer the complaint to a Committee;
  - (e) for a complaint about a health practitioner or student who is registered in a health profession other than the medical or nursing and midwifery profession, the Council may deal with the complaint by inquiry at a meeting of the Council;
  - (f) the Council may—
    - (i) refer the practitioner or student for a health assessment; or
    - (ii) refer the matter to an Impaired Registrants Panel; or
    - (iii) refer the professional performance of the practitioner concerned for a performance assessment;
  - (g) the Council may direct the practitioner or student concerned to attend counselling;
  - (h) the Council may refer the complaint to the Commission for conciliation or to be dealt with under Division 9 of Part 2 of the Health Care Complaints Act 1993;

- (i) the Council may refer the complaint to another entity, including, for example, a National Board;
  - (j) the Council may determine that no further action should be taken in respect of the complaint.
- (2) The Commission must, on receipt of a complaint referred by a Council for investigation, investigate the complaint or cause it to be investigated.
  - (3) If a Council makes a referral under subsection (1)(f), the matter ceases to be a complaint for the purposes of this Law and the Health Care Complaints Act 1993.
  - (4) Subsection (3) ceases to apply in respect of any matter that a Council subsequently deals with as a complaint.

145C Courses of action available to the Commission on complaint [NSW]

- (1) The following courses of action are available to the Commission in respect of a complaint made to the Commission, or that the Commission has decided to make, about a registered health practitioner or student—
  - (a) the Commission may refer the complaint to the Council for the health profession in which the practitioner or student is registered or, after consultation with a Council, to a Committee or the Tribunal;
  - (b) the Commission may refer the complaint for conciliation or deal with the complaint under Division 9 of Part 2 of the Health Care Complaints Act 1993;
  - (c) the Commission may refer the complaint to another entity, including, for example, a National Board;
  - (d) the Commission may determine that no further action should be taken in respect of the complaint;
  - (e) the Commission may take any other action that it can take under the Health Care Complaints Act 1993.
- (2) If the Commission refers a complaint to a Committee or the Tribunal, the Commission must inform the Council accordingly.

145D Serious complaints must be referred to Tribunal [NSW]

- (1) Both a Council for a health profession and the Commission are under a duty to refer a complaint to the Tribunal for the health profession if, at any time, either forms the opinion that it may, if substantiated, provide grounds for the suspension or cancellation of a registered health practitioner's or student's registration.
- (2) However, either the Council or the Commission may decide not to refer the complaint to the Tribunal if of the opinion the allegations on which the complaint is founded (and on which any other pending complaint against the registered health practitioner or student is founded) relate solely or principally to—
  - (a) for a practitioner, the physical or mental capacity of the practitioner to practise the practitioner's profession; or
  - (b) for a student, the physical or mental capacity of the student to undertake clinical training in the health profession in which the student is registered.
- (3) If the Council decides not to refer the complaint to the Tribunal, the Council must instead refer the complaint to a Committee or Impaired Registrants Panel.
- (4) If the Commission decides not to refer the complaint to the Tribunal, the Commission must instead refer the complaint to the Council.
- (5) This section does not require the Council or the Commission to refer a complaint the Council or Commission thinks is frivolous or vexatious.

145E Council may require health practitioner or student to undergo examination [NSW]

- (1) A Council may, by written notice given to a registered health practitioner or student against whom a complaint has been made, direct the practitioner or student to undergo an examination by a specified registered health practitioner at a specified reasonable time and place.
- (2) A registered health practitioner or student must not be directed to undergo an examination under subsection (1) unless it is reasonable to require the examination, given the nature of the complaint against the practitioner or student.

- (3) The fee charged by the specified registered health practitioner for the examination is at the expense of the Council.

145F Result of failure to attend counselling or examination [NSW]

A failure by a registered health practitioner or student, without reasonable excuse, to comply with a direction under section 145B to attend counselling or under section 145E to undergo an examination is, for the purposes of this Law and any inquiry or appeal under this Law, evidence that the practitioner or student—

- (a) for a registered health practitioner, does not have sufficient physical and mental capacity to practise the health profession in which the practitioner is registered; or
- (b) for a student, does not have sufficient physical and mental capacity to undertake clinical training in the health profession in which the student is registered.

145G Inquiries etc not prevented by other proceedings [NSW]

A complaint can be referred to a Committee or the Tribunal, and dealt with by the Committee or Tribunal, even though the practitioner or student concerned is the subject of proposed or current criminal or civil proceedings relating to the subject-matter of the complaint.

145H Complaint not to be referred if health practitioner or student dead [NSW]

A complaint is not to be referred under this Subdivision if the registered health practitioner or student concerned is dead.

145I Complaint need not be referred if health practitioner or student no longer registered [NSW]

A Council or the Commission may decide not to refer a complaint under this Subdivision if the registered health practitioner or student concerned has ceased to be registered.

145J Complaint need not be referred if complainant fails to provide further particulars [NSW]

A Council or the Commission may decide not to refer a complaint under this Subdivision if the complainant has failed to provide further particulars in response to a request by the Council or the Commission.

146 Definitions [NSW]

In this Subdivision—

Committee means a Professional Standards Committee.

relevant health practitioner means a health practitioner registered under this Law in the—

- (a) medical profession; or
- (b) nursing and midwifery profession.

146A Powers may be exercised if complaint proved or admitted [NSW]

A Committee may exercise any power conferred on it by this Subdivision if it finds the subject-matter of a complaint against a relevant health practitioner to have been proved or the relevant health practitioner who is the subject of the complaint admits to it in writing to the Committee.

146B General powers to caution, reprimand, counsel etc [NSW]

- (1) A Committee may do one or more of the following in relation to a relevant health practitioner the subject of a complaint referred to it—
  - (a) caution or reprimand the practitioner;
  - (b) direct that the conditions, relating to the practitioner's practising of the practitioner's profession, it considers appropriate be imposed on the practitioner's registration;
  - (c) order that the practitioner seek and undergo medical or psychiatric treatment or counselling;
  - (d) order that the practitioner complete an educational course specified by the Committee;
  - (e) order that the practitioner report on the practitioner's practice at the times, in the way and to the persons specified by the Committee;
  - (f) order that the practitioner seek and take advice, in relation to the management of the practitioner's practice, from the persons specified by the Committee.

- (2) If the relevant health practitioner is not registered, a direction may still be given under this section but has effect only so as to require the conditions concerned to be imposed when the health practitioner is registered.
- (3) If a Committee acting under this section makes an order or directs that any condition be imposed on a health practitioner's registration, the Committee may order that a contravention of the order or condition will result in the health practitioner's registration in the health profession being cancelled.
- (4) The order or condition concerned is then a critical compliance order or condition.

146C Power to fine in certain cases [NSW]

- (1) A Committee may by order impose a fine of an amount of not more than 50 penalty units on a relevant health practitioner the subject of a complaint referred to the committee.
- (2) A fine is not to be imposed unless—
  - (a) the Committee finds the relevant health practitioner to have been guilty of unsatisfactory professional conduct; and
  - (b) the Committee is satisfied there is no other order, or combination of orders, that is appropriate in the public interest.
- (3) A fine is not to be imposed if a fine or other penalty has already been imposed by a court in respect of the conduct.
- (4) A fine must be paid within the time specified in the order imposing the fine and must be paid to the Council.

146D Committee can recommend suspension or cancellation on grounds of lack of physical or mental capacity [NSW]

- (1) A Committee may recommend that a relevant health practitioner's registration be suspended for a specified period or that the practitioner's registration be cancelled if the Committee is satisfied the practitioner does not have sufficient physical and mental capacity to practise the practitioner's profession.

- (2) If the relevant health practitioner is no longer registered, a recommendation may be made under this section that the person be disqualified from being registered.
- (3) The Committee makes its recommendation by referring the matter, with its recommendation and the material on which it relied in making its recommendation, to the Chairperson of the Tribunal or to a Deputy Chairperson nominated by the Chairperson.
- (4) The Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson may—
  - (a) make an order in the terms recommended; or
  - (b) may make another order about the suspension or cancellation of the registration of the relevant health practitioner as the Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson thinks proper based on the findings of the Committee.
- (5) An order under this section may also provide that an application for review of the order under Division 8 may not be made until after a specified time.
- (6) Instead of making an order under this section, the Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson may exercise any power of a Committee under this Subdivision.

146E Council may refer contravention of conditions to Tribunal [NSW]

- (1) If a Council for a health profession reasonably believes a relevant health practitioner has contravened any conditions imposed under a direction made by a Committee under this Subdivision, it may refer the matter to the Tribunal for the profession.
- (2) If the Tribunal finds the failure proved, it may exercise any power conferred on it or a Committee by this Subdivision.

Subdivision 4 Dealing with complaints by Assessment Committee [NSW]

147 Definitions [NSW]

In this Subdivision—

Committee means an Assessment Committee.

relevant health practitioner means a health practitioner registered under this Law other than a health practitioner registered in the—

- (a) medical profession; or
- (b) nursing and midwifery profession.

147A Complaints that may be referred to Committee [NSW]

- (1) A Council may refer a complaint to a Committee only if—
  - (a) the complaint is about a relevant health practitioner; and
  - (b) the Commission has decided not to investigate the complaint or following an investigation has decided not to refer the complaint to a Tribunal.
- (2) A complaint may not be referred to a Committee if it is a complaint that—
  - (a) the relevant health practitioner is not of good character; or
  - (b) the relevant health practitioner has been convicted of or made the subject of a criminal finding for an offence.
- (3) This section does not limit the Committee in the exercise of its functions under this Subdivision in relation to any matter that arises in the course of the Committee's investigation of a complaint.

147B How complaints are dealt with [NSW]

- (1) If a complaint is referred to a Committee, the Committee must—
  - (a) investigate the complaint; and
  - (b) encourage the complainant and the relevant health practitioner the subject of the complaint to settle the complaint by consent.
- (2) A Committee may obtain the medical, legal, financial or other advice it thinks necessary or desirable to enable it to exercise its functions.
- (3) Advice obtained by a Committee under subsection (2) may not, unless otherwise ordered by the Council, be admitted or used in civil proceedings before a court and a person may not be compelled to produce the advice or to give evidence in relation to the advice in civil proceedings.

- (4) A Committee may not decide a complaint referred to it other than by settlement by consent.
- (5) A Committee must give to the Council a written report about whether or not it is able to effect settlement of the complaint by consent.

147C Skills testing of relevant health practitioner [NSW]

- (1) A Council may direct a Committee to require the relevant health practitioner the subject of the complaint referred to the Committee to undergo skills testing.
- (2) The Committee must, by written notice given to the relevant health practitioner, require the health practitioner to undergo skills testing by an appropriately qualified person specified in the notice, at the reasonable time and place specified in the notice.
- (3) A failure by the relevant health practitioner, without reasonable excuse, to comply with the notice is, for the purposes of this Part or any inquiry or appeal under this Law, evidence the health practitioner does not have sufficient skill to practise the health profession in which the health practitioner is registered.
- (4) A person who conducts skills testing for the purposes of this section must report to the Committee on the results of the testing.
- (5) The Committee must give a copy of the report to the relevant health practitioner.
- (6) A person must not, directly or indirectly, make a record of or divulge to any person any information contained in a report to a Committee under this section that has come to the person's notice in the exercise of the person's functions under this Law, other than for the purpose of exercising the person's functions under this Law.
Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.
- (7) A person cannot be required in civil proceedings in any court to produce or permit access to a report made to a Committee under this section or to divulge the contents of the report.
- (8) In this section—
report includes a copy, reproduction and duplicate of the report or any part of the report, copy, reproduction or duplicate.

147D Recommendations of Committee [NSW]

- (1) A Committee's report to a Council may include the recommendations about the complaint the Committee considers appropriate, including any of the following—
  - (a) a recommendation that the Council deal with the complaint by inquiry at a meeting of the Council as a complaint of unsatisfactory professional conduct;
  - (b) a recommendation that the Council direct the relevant health practitioner to attend counselling;
  - (c) a recommendation that the Council dismiss the complaint.
- (2) The Council must give the relevant health practitioner and the Commission a copy of the Committee's report as soon as practicable after the report is made.
- (3) The Council must—
  - (a) if the Committee recommends that the Council deal with the complaint by inquiry at a meeting of the Council as a complaint of unsatisfactory professional conduct, comply with the recommendation; or
  - (b) otherwise, allow the Commission and the relevant health practitioner, not less than 21 days after they have been given a copy of the Committee's report and recommendations, to make submissions about the report and recommendations.
- (4) After considering the Committee's report and recommendations and any submissions made by the Commission or relevant health practitioner, the Council must proceed to deal with the complaint as provided by section 145B.

Note. See section 145D which provides that both Council and the Commission have a duty to refer a complaint to the Tribunal if, at any time, either of them is of the opinion that the complaint, if substantiated, would provide grounds for the suspension or cancellation of the relevant health practitioner's registration.

147E No representation for parties appearing before Committee [NSW]

A complainant and the relevant health practitioner the subject of the complaint are not entitled to be legally represented at an appearance before a Committee.

Subdivision 5 Dealing with complaint by inquiry at meeting of Council [NSW]

148 Application of Subdivision [NSW]

This Subdivision does not apply to a complaint about a health practitioner or student registered in—

- (a) the medical profession; or
- (b) the nursing and midwifery profession.

148A Procedures for dealing with complaint at meeting [NSW]

- (1) If a Council decides to deal with a complaint about a registered health practitioner or student by inquiry at a meeting of the Council, the meeting must be held in accordance with Part 3 of Schedule 5C and this Subdivision.
- (2) The Council may be assisted by a legal practitioner when dealing with the complaint at a meeting of the Council.
- (3) The Council must give the Commission a copy of any submission made to the Council by the registered health practitioner or student in respect of the complaint or in respect of any recommendation of the Committee concerning the complaint.

148B General procedure [NSW]

The procedure for the calling of a meeting to deal with a complaint and for the conduct of the meeting is, subject to this Law and the NSW regulations, to be decided by the Council.

148C Conduct of meeting [NSW]

At the meeting to deal with the complaint, the Council—

- (a) may inform itself on any matter in the way it thinks fit; and
- (b) may receive written or oral submissions; and
- (c) must proceed with as little formality and technicality, and as much expedition, as the requirements of this Law and the proper consideration of the complaint permit; and

- (d) is not bound by rules of evidence; and
  - (e) may proceed to deal with the complaint in the absence of the registered health practitioner or student.

148D Making submissions to inquiry [NSW]

- (1) The registered health practitioner or student is entitled to attend the meeting at which the complaint is dealt with and to make submissions to the Council.
- (2) The Committee may, if the Council so requires, make a submission to the Council with respect to the complaint and may for that purpose attend the meeting at which the complaint is dealt with.
- (3) The Council must give the Commission the opportunity to make a submission to the Council with respect to the complaint and the Commission may for that purpose attend the meeting at which the complaint is dealt with.
- (4) The Committee or the Commission may not be present at the meeting except while actually making a submission, unless the Council otherwise decides.
- (5) Despite subsection (4), the Commission may be present throughout the Council's inquiry if the complaint is the subject of a recommendation of the Commission that it be dealt with by inquiry at a meeting of the Council under this Subdivision.
- (6) The registered health practitioner or student is not entitled to be legally represented at the inquiry but may be accompanied by a support person. The support person can be an Australian lawyer.
- (7) The Commission is not entitled to be legally represented at the inquiry.

148E General powers of Council [NSW]

- (1) The Council may do any one or more of the following in relation to the health practitioner the subject of the inquiry—
  - (a) caution or reprimand the practitioner;
  - (b) make an order for the withholding or refunding of part or all of the payment with respect to the fees to be charged or paid for the services that are the subject of the complaint;

- (c) direct that specified conditions relating to the practitioner's practice of the health profession be imposed on the practitioner's registration;
  - (d) order that the practitioner seek and undergo medical or psychiatric treatment or counselling;
  - (e) order that the practitioner complete an educational course specified by the Council;
  - (f) order that the practitioner report on his or her practice at the times, in the way and to the persons specified by the Council;
  - (g) order that the practitioner seek and take advice, in relation to the management of his or her practice, from persons specified by the Council.
- (2) The Council may do any one or more of the following in relation to the student the subject of the inquiry—
- (a) caution or reprimand the student;
  - (b) direct that specified conditions be imposed on the student's registration;
  - (c) order that the student seek and undergo medical or psychiatric treatment or counselling;
  - (d) order that the student complete an educational course specified by the Council.
- (3) If the person is not registered, an order or direction can still be given under this section but has effect only so as to prevent the person being registered unless the order is complied with or to require the conditions concerned to be imposed when the person is registered, as appropriate.

148F Power to fine in certain cases [NSW]

- (1) The Council may by order impose a fine, of an amount of not more than 50 penalty units, on the health practitioner the subject of the inquiry.
- (2) A fine is not to be imposed unless—
- (a) the Council finds the health practitioner to have been guilty of unsatisfactory professional conduct; and
  - (b) the Council is satisfied there is no other order, or combination of orders, that is appropriate in the public interest.

- (3) A fine is not to be imposed if a fine or other penalty has already been imposed by a court in respect of the conduct.
  - (4) A fine must be paid within the time specified in the order imposing the fine and must be paid to the Council.

148G Power of Council to recommend suspension or cancellation of registration [NSW]

- (1) The Council may recommend that the registration of the registered health practitioner or student be suspended for a specified period or cancelled if the Council is satisfied the health practitioner or student—
  - (a) for a health practitioner, does not have sufficient physical and mental capacity to practise the practitioner's profession; or
  - (b) for a student, has an impairment.
- (2) If the health practitioner is not registered, a recommendation can be made under this section that the health practitioner not be registered.
- (3) The Council makes its recommendation by referring the matter with its recommendation to the Chairperson or to a Deputy Chairperson nominated by the Chairperson.
- (4) The Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson may—
  - (a) make an order in the terms recommended; or
  - (b) make another order about the suspension or cancellation of the health practitioner's or student's registration as the Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson thinks proper based on the Council's findings.
- (5) An order may also provide that an application for review of the order under Division 8 may not be made until after a specified time.
- (6) Instead of making an order under this section, the Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson may exercise any power or combination of powers of the Council under this Subdivision.

148H Decision of the Council [NSW]

- (1) The Council must, within 30 days of making its decision on the complaint, make available to the complainant, the registered health practitioner or student concerned, the National Board and any other persons it thinks fit, a written statement of the decision.

- (2) If the Commission made a submission to the Council with respect to the complaint, the Council must provide the Commission with a copy of the written statement of the decision.
- (3) The written statement of a decision must give the reasons for the decision.
- (4) The Council is not required to include confidential information in the statement.
- (5) If the statement would be false or misleading if it did not include the confidential information, the Council is not required to provide the statement.
- (6) If confidential information is not included in the statement given to a person or the statement is not given to a person because of subsection (5), the Council must give a confidential information notice to the person.
- (7) A confidential information notice must be given within one month after the decision is made.
- (8) This section does not affect the power of a court to make an order for the discovery of documents or to require the giving of evidence or the production of documents to a court.

148I Admissibility of Council's findings [NSW]

A finding of a Council under this Subdivision is admissible as evidence in any legal proceedings.

Subdivision 6 Disciplinary powers of Tribunals [NSW]

149 Powers may be exercised if complaint proved or admitted [NSW]

A Tribunal may exercise any power conferred on it by this Subdivision in relation to a registered health practitioner or student if—

- (a) it finds the subject-matter of a complaint against the practitioner or student to have been proved; or
- (b) the practitioner or student admits to it in writing to the Tribunal.

149A General powers to caution, reprimand, counsel etc [NSW]

- (1) The Tribunal may do any one or more of the following in relation to the registered health practitioner—
  - (a) caution or reprimand the practitioner;
  - (b) impose the conditions it considers appropriate on the practitioner's registration;
  - (c) order the practitioner to seek and undergo medical or psychiatric treatment or counselling;
  - (d) order the practitioner to complete an educational course specified by the Tribunal;
  - (e) order the practitioner to report on the practitioner's practice at the times, in the way and to the persons specified by the Tribunal;
  - (f) order the practitioner to seek and take advice, in relation to the management of the practitioner's practice, from persons specified by the Tribunal.
- (2) The Tribunal may do any one or more of the following in relation to the student—
  - (a) caution or reprimand the student;
  - (b) impose the conditions it considers appropriate on the student's registration;
  - (c) order the student to seek and undergo medical or psychiatric treatment or counselling;
  - (d) order the student to complete an educational course specified by the Tribunal.
- (3) If the health practitioner is no longer registered, an order or direction may still be given under this section but has effect only—
  - (a) to prevent the practitioner being registered unless the order is complied with; or
  - (b) to require the conditions concerned to be imposed when the practitioner is registered.
- (4) If the Tribunal makes an order or imposes a condition on the registered health practitioner's or student's registration, the Tribunal may order that a contravention of the order or condition will result in the practitioner's or student's registration being cancelled.
- (5) The order or condition concerned is then a critical compliance order or condition.

149B Power to fine registered health practitioner in certain cases [NSW]

- (1) The Tribunal may by order impose a fine on the registered health practitioner of an amount of not more than 250 penalty units.
- (2) A fine is not to be imposed unless—
  - (a) the Tribunal finds the registered health practitioner to have been guilty of unsatisfactory professional conduct or professional misconduct; and
  - (b) the Tribunal is satisfied there is no other order, or combination of orders, that is appropriate in the public interest.
- (3) A fine is not to be imposed if a fine or other penalty has already been imposed by a court in respect of the conduct.
- (4) A fine must be paid within the time specified in the order imposing the fine and must be paid to the Council for the health profession.

149C Tribunals may suspend or cancel registration in certain cases [NSW]

- (1) A Tribunal may suspend a registered health practitioner's registration for a specified period or cancel the registered health practitioner's registration if the Tribunal is satisfied—
  - (a) the practitioner is not competent to practise the practitioner's profession; or
  - (b) the practitioner is guilty of professional misconduct; or
  - (c) the practitioner has been convicted of or made the subject of a criminal finding for an offence, either in or outside this jurisdiction, and the circumstances of the offence render the practitioner unfit in the public interest to practise the practitioner's profession; or
  - (d) the practitioner is not a suitable person for registration in the practitioner's profession.
- (2) A Tribunal may suspend a student's registration for a specified period or cancel the student's registration if the Tribunal is satisfied—
  - (a) the student has been convicted of or made the subject of a criminal finding for an offence, either in or outside this jurisdiction, and the circumstances of

- the offence render the student unfit in the public interest to undertake clinical training in the health profession; or
- (b) the student is otherwise not a suitable person to undertake clinical training in the health profession.
- (3) The Tribunal must cancel a registered health practitioner's or student's registration if the Tribunal is satisfied the practitioner or student has contravened a critical compliance order or condition.
- (4) If the person is no longer registered, the Tribunal may—
- (a) decide that if the person were still registered the Tribunal would have suspended or cancelled the person's registration; and
- (b) if the Tribunal would have cancelled the person's registration, decide that the person is disqualified from being registered in the health profession for a specified period or until specified conditions have been complied with; and
- (c) require the National Board with which the person was registered to record the fact that the Tribunal would have suspended or cancelled the person's registration in the National Register kept by the Board.
- (5) If the Tribunal suspends or cancels a registered health practitioner's or student's registration and it is satisfied the person poses a substantial risk to the health of members of the public, it may by order (a prohibition order) do any one or more of the following—
- (a) prohibit the person from providing health services or specified health services for the period specified in the order or permanently;
- (b) place specified conditions on the provision of health services or specified health services by the person for the period specified in the order or permanently.
- Note. Section 10AK(1) of the Public Health Act 1991 provides that it is an offence for a person to provide a health service in contravention of a prohibition order.
- (6) If the Tribunal is aware a registered health practitioner or student in respect of whom it is proposing to make a prohibition order is registered in a health profession other than the health profession in respect of which the Tribunal is making the order, the Tribunal must, before making the prohibition order—

- (a) notify the Council and the National Board for that health profession, and the Commission, of the proposed order; and
  - (b) give the Council, National Board and Commission an opportunity to make a submission.
- (7) An order may also provide that an application for review of the order under Division 8 may not be made until after a specified time.

149D Council may refer contravention of disciplinary order to Tribunal [NSW]

- (1) If a Council for a health profession reasonably believes a person has failed to comply with an order (or conditions imposed under an order) made by the Tribunal for the profession under this Subdivision, it may refer the matter to the Tribunal.
- (2) If the Tribunal finds the failure proved, it may exercise any power conferred on it by this Subdivision.

Subdivision 7 Powers of a Council for protection of public [NSW]

150 Suspension or conditions of registration to protect public [NSW]

- (1) A Council must, if at any time it is satisfied it is appropriate to do so for the protection of the health or safety of any person or persons (whether or not a particular person or persons) or if satisfied the action is otherwise in the public interest—
  - (a) by order suspend a registered health practitioner's or student's registration; or
  - (b) by order impose on a registered health practitioner's registration the conditions relating to the practitioner's practising the health profession the Council considers appropriate; or
  - (c) by order impose on a student's registration the conditions the Council considers appropriate.

- (2) A suspension of a registered health practitioner's or student's registration under subsection (1) has effect until the first of the following happens—
    - (a) the complaint about the practitioner or student is disposed of;
    - (b) the suspension is ended by the Council.
  - (3) If a Council for a health profession is satisfied a health practitioner or student registered in the profession has contravened a critical compliance order or condition, the Council must—
    - (a) suspend the practitioner's or student's registration until a complaint concerning the matter is dealt with by the Tribunal for the health profession for which the Council is established; and
    - (b) refer the matter to the Tribunal as a complaint.
  - (4) A Council for a health profession may take action under this section—
    - (a) whether or not a complaint has been made or referred to the Council about the practitioner or student; and
    - (b) whether or not proceedings in respect of a complaint about the practitioner or student are before a Committee or the Tribunal for the profession.
  - (5) Without limiting the conditions that may be imposed under subsection (1)(b), a Council may impose a condition requiring the registered health practitioner to undergo a performance assessment, but the condition has no effect unless the Commission agrees with the imposition of the condition.
  - (6) A Council must give written notice of action taken under this section to the registered health practitioner or student concerned.
  - (7) If a Council delegates any function of the Council under this section to a group of 2 or more persons, at least one of those persons must be a person who is not a registered health practitioner or student.

150A Review of certain decisions [NSW]

- (1) A registered health practitioner or student may apply to a Council for the review of a decision of the Council under section 150 to—
  - (a) suspend the practitioner's or student's registration; or
  - (b) impose conditions on the practitioner's or student's registration or alter conditions imposed on the practitioner's or student's registration.
- (2) On receiving an application for review, a Council—
  - (a) may refuse to reconsider its decision if, in the Council's opinion, the application is frivolous or vexatious; or
  - (b) must otherwise reconsider its decision, and in so doing must consider any new evidence or material submitted by the practitioner or student that the Council reasonably considers is relevant.
- (3) Following its reconsideration of a decision, a Council may—
  - (a) affirm or vary the decision; or
  - (b) set it aside and take any action the Council has the power to take under section 150.
- (4) A Council may vary or set aside a decision only if the Council is satisfied there has been a change in the registered health practitioner's or student's circumstances that justifies the variation or setting aside of the decision.

150B Audio recording of meeting [NSW]

- (1) A Council must cause an audio recording to be made of any proceedings of the Council in connection with the consideration by the Council of the exercise or proposed exercise of a function under this Subdivision in respect of a registered health practitioner or student—
  - (a) during which the practitioner or student, or the practitioner's or student's adviser, is present; or
  - (b) during which a person other than a member of the Council or a staff member of the Council is present and gives the Council oral information relevant to the Council's consideration.

- (2) A recording under this section is not admissible in evidence in—
- (a) civil or criminal proceedings in a court of law (other than proceedings under this Law); or
  - (b) an inquest or inquiry under the Coroners Act 2009.

150C Power to remove or alter conditions or end suspension [NSW]

- (1) A Council may, at any time—
  - (a) end a period of suspension imposed by the Council under this Subdivision; or
  - (b) alter or remove conditions imposed under this Subdivision.
- (2) A Council may, at any time after taking action under section 150 with respect to a registered health practitioner or student (the original action), take any other action it could have taken under that section at the time of taking the original action.
- (3) The Council must give written notice of the action it takes under this section to the registered health practitioner or student concerned.

150D Referral of matter to Commission [NSW]

- (1) A Council must, as soon as practicable but no later than 7 days after taking action under section 150, refer the matter to the Commission for investigation.
- (2) The Council may (despite any other Act or law) give to the Commission information obtained by the Council in connection with the exercise of functions under section 150 (including information, copies of documents or evidence obtained under section 150J and a copy of a recording made under section 150B) in respect of the matter.
- (3) The matter must be dealt with by the Commission as a complaint made to the Commission against the registered health practitioner or student concerned.
- (4) The Commission must investigate the complaint or cause it to be investigated and, as soon as practicable after it has completed its investigation and if it considers it appropriate to do so, refer the complaint to the Tribunal or a Committee for the health profession in which the health practitioner or student is registered.

Note. See section 145D which provides that both Council and the Commission have a duty to refer a complaint to the Tribunal if, at any time, either of them is of the opinion that the complaint, if substantiated, would provide grounds for the suspension or cancellation of the registered health practitioner's or student's registration.

- (5) This section does not apply if a Council takes action against a registered health practitioner or student under section 150—
- (a) because, in the Council's opinion, the practitioner or student has an impairment; or
  - (b) that is action of a kind referred to in section 150(5).

150E Special provision—performance assessment [NSW]

- (1) If the Commission agrees with the proposed imposition by a Council under section 150 of a condition on a registered health practitioner's registration requiring the practitioner to take part in a performance assessment, the matter giving rise to the proposal—
- (a) must be dealt with by way of a performance assessment; and
  - (b) may, if the Council and the Commission agree, also be dealt with by the Commission as a complaint against the practitioner.
- (2) If the Commission does not agree with the imposition of the condition, the matter must be dealt with by the Commission as a complaint against the registered health practitioner.
- (3) The Council may (despite any other Act or law) provide to the Commission any information obtained by the Council in connection with the exercise of functions under section 150 (including any information, copies of documents or evidence obtained under section 150J and a copy of any recording made under section 150B) in respect of the matter.
- (4) If a matter is to be dealt with under this section by way of a performance assessment, it may be so dealt with despite anything to the contrary in section 154A.

- (5) If the matter is to be dealt with as a complaint, the Council must refer the matter to the Commission and the matter must be dealt with by the Commission as a complaint made to the Commission against the practitioner concerned.
  - (6) The Commission must investigate the complaint or cause it to be investigated and, as soon as practicable after the investigation is completed, refer the complaint to a Committee or the Tribunal for the health profession.

Note. See section 145D which provides that both Council and the Commission have a duty to refer a complaint to the Tribunal if, at any time, either of them is of the opinion the complaint, if substantiated, would provide grounds for the suspension or cancellation of the health practitioner's registration.

150F Special provisions—impairment [NSW]

- (1) This section applies if a Council takes action against a registered health practitioner or student under section 150 because, in the Council's opinion, the practitioner or student has an impairment.
- (2) The Council must, as soon as practicable after taking that action and, in any event, within 7 days after taking that action, notify the Commission that it has taken that action.
- (3) The Council must consult with the Commission to see if agreement can be reached as to whether the matter should be—
  - (a) dealt with as a complaint against the registered health practitioner or student; or
  - (b) referred to an Impaired Registrants Panel.
- (4) The matter is to be dealt with as a complaint against the registered health practitioner or student only if, following the consultation—
  - (a) the Council and the Commission agree it should be dealt with as a complaint; or
  - (b) either the Council or the Commission is of the opinion the matter should be dealt with as a complaint.
- (5) If the matter is to be dealt with as a complaint, the Council must refer the matter to the Commission and the matter must be dealt with by the Commission as a complaint made to the Commission against the registered health practitioner or student.

- (6) The Commission must investigate the complaint or cause it to be investigated and, as soon as practicable after the investigation is completed, consult with the Council about how the matter is to be dealt with, including, for example, by referring the complaint to the Tribunal or a Committee for the health profession in which the health practitioner or student is registered.

Note. See section 145D which provides that both Council and the Commission have a duty to refer a complaint to the Tribunal if, at any time, either of them is of the opinion the complaint, if substantiated, would provide grounds for the suspension or cancellation of the health practitioner's or student's registration.

- (7) If the matter is not to be dealt with as a complaint, the Council must refer the matter to an Impaired Registrants Panel.

150G Ending suspension [NSW]

When a suspension imposed under this Subdivision ends, the person's rights and privileges as a registered health practitioner or student in the health profession are revived, subject to—

- (a) any other action taken by the Council for the profession under this Subdivision; or
- (b) any order of the Tribunal for the health profession on a complaint referred to the Tribunal.

150H Duration of conditions—complaint matters [NSW]

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) a Council for a health profession imposes conditions on the registration of a registered health practitioner or student under section 150; and
  - (b) the matter is dealt with as a complaint against the practitioner or student.
- (2) The conditions imposed by the Council have effect until the first of the following happens—
- (a) the complaint about the registered health practitioner or student is disposed of;
  - (b) the conditions are removed by the Council.

- (3) This section—
- (a) does not prevent conditions being imposed under another provision of this Law; and
  - (b) is subject to anything done by the Tribunal for the health profession on an appeal.

150I Duration of conditions—impairment matters [NSW]

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) a Council for a health profession imposes conditions on the registration of a registered health practitioner or student under section 150; and
  - (b) the matter is referred to an Impaired Registrants Panel.
- (2) The conditions imposed by the Council have effect until the first of the following happens—
- (a) if the matter is subsequently dealt with by the Council as a complaint, the complaint about the registered health practitioner or student is disposed of;
  - (b) the conditions are removed by the Council.
- (3) The Council is not required to alter or remove the conditions merely because the registered health practitioner or student agrees to conditions being imposed on the practitioner's or student's registration in accordance with the recommendations of an Impaired Registrants Panel.
- (4) If the registered health practitioner or student agrees to conditions being imposed on the practitioner's or student's registration in accordance with the recommendations of an Impaired Registrants Panel, the practitioner or student may, by written notice to the Council, ask for the conditions imposed under this Subdivision to be altered or removed.
- (5) On receipt of the request, the Council must review the matter, and may—
- (a) refuse to alter or remove the conditions; or
  - (b) alter or remove the conditions.
- (6) The Council must give the registered health practitioner or student written notice of its decision.

- (7) The Council may specify in the notice a period during which a further request by the registered health practitioner or student for the conditions to be altered or removed is not permitted.
- (8) The Council may reject a request that the conditions be altered or removed if it is made during that period.
- (9) This section—
  - (a) does not prevent conditions being imposed under another provision of this Law; and
  - (b) is subject to anything done by the Tribunal for the health profession on an appeal.

150J Powers of Council to obtain information, records and evidence [NSW]

- (1) If, in a Council's opinion, a person is capable of giving information, documents (including medical records) or evidence that would assist the Council in making a decision about action taken or proposed to be taken by the Council under this Subdivision, the Council may, by written notice given to the person, require the person to do one or more of the following—
  - (a) to give the Council, in writing signed by the person (or, in the case of a corporation, by a competent officer of the corporation), within the time and in the way specified in the notice, information of which the person has knowledge;
  - (b) to produce to the Council, in accordance with the notice, documents;
  - (c) to appear before the Council or a member of staff of the Council authorised by the President or Deputy President of the Council at a specified reasonable time and place and give evidence, either orally or in writing, and produce documents.
- (2) Information and documents may be given to a Council in compliance with this section despite any other Act or law.
- (3) A person who is subject to a requirement made under subsection (1) must not—
  - (a) without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with the requirement; or

- (b) in purported compliance with the requirement, provide information, documents or evidence knowing the information, documents or evidence to be false or misleading in a material particular.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

Subdivision 8 Duty of courts etc to refer matters to Executive Officer [NSW]

151 Referral of mental health matters to Executive Officer [NSW]

- (1) If a registered health practitioner or student becomes a mentally incapacitated person or is involuntarily admitted to a mental health facility, the person prescribed by the NSW regulations must cause notice of that fact to be given to—
- (a) the Executive Officer of the Council for the health profession in which the registered health practitioner or student is registered; and
- (b) the National Board for the health profession in which the registered health practitioner or student is registered.
- (2) The notice, and the way in which the notice is given, must comply with any requirements prescribed by the NSW regulations.

151A Referral of matters by courts [NSW]

- (1) A court in this jurisdiction before which a person is convicted of an offence, or is made the subject of a criminal finding for a sex or violence offence or a drug related offence, must cause notice of the conviction or criminal finding, and of any penalty imposed on the person, to be given to the Executive Officer of a Council for a health profession if the court has reasonable grounds to believe that the person is or was, at the time the offence was committed, registered in the health profession.
- (2) If a coroner has reasonable grounds to believe the evidence given or to be given in proceedings conducted or to be conducted before the coroner may indicate a complaint could be made about a person who is or was registered in a health profession, the coroner may give a transcript of that evidence to the Executive Officer of the Council for the health profession.

- (3) If a notice or a transcript of evidence is given to the Executive Officer under this section—
  - (a) a complaint is taken to have been made to a Council about the person to whom the notice or transcript relates; and
  - (b) the Executive Officer must give written notice of the notice or transcript of evidence to the National Board for the health profession in which the person is or was registered.
- (4) The coroner is not the complainant in relation to a complaint taken to have been made under subsection (3) and sections 144D(1), 144E and 144F do not apply to the complaint.

Division 4 Impairment [NSW]

152 Persons may notify Council of impairment matters concerning practitioners or students [NSW]

A person may notify a Council of a matter the person thinks indicates a registered health practitioner or student has or may have an impairment.

152A Commission may refer impairment matters to Council [NSW]

- (1) If the Commission becomes aware of a matter the Commission considers indicates a registered health practitioner or student has or may have an impairment, the Commission may refer the matter to the Council for the health profession in which the practitioner or student is registered.
- (2) This section does not affect the functions of a Council in relation to a complaint made to the Commission or a matter referred to the Commission for investigation.

152B Council may require registered health practitioner to undergo examination [NSW]

- (1) If a Council reasonably believes a registered health practitioner has or may have an impairment, the Council may, by written notice given to the practitioner, require the practitioner to undergo an examination by another registered health practitioner.

- (2) The notice must state—
    - (a) that the registered health practitioner is required to undergo an examination by a registered health practitioner; and
    - (b) the name of the registered health practitioner who is to conduct the examination; and
    - (c) if the examination is to be conducted at a particular time and place, the time and the place at which the examination is to be conducted; and
    - (d) that if the registered health practitioner fails to undergo the examination as required by the notice, the failure may constitute evidence that the practitioner does not have sufficient physical and mental capacity to practise the practitioner's health profession.
  - (3) The fee charged by the registered health practitioner for conducting the examination must be at the expense of the Council.
  - (4) If the registered health practitioner fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with the notice, the failure is evidence the practitioner does not have sufficient physical and mental capacity to practise the practitioner's health profession.

152C Council may require student to undergo examination [NSW]

- (1) If a Council reasonably believes a student has or may have an impairment, the Council may, by written notice given to the student, require the student to undergo an examination by a registered health practitioner.
- (2) The notice must state—
  - (a) that the student is required to undergo an examination by a registered health practitioner; and
  - (b) the name of the registered health practitioner who is to conduct the examination; and
  - (c) if the examination is to be conducted at a particular time and place, the time and the place at which the examination is to be conducted; and
  - (d) that if the student fails to undergo the examination as required by the notice the Council may suspend the student's registration until the student undergoes the examination.

- (3) The fee charged by the registered health practitioner for conducting the examination is at the expense of the Council.
- (4) If the student fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with the notice, the Council may suspend the student's registration until the student undergoes the examination.
- (5) The suspension takes effect when written notice of it is served on the educational provider with which the student is undertaking the approved program of study or that arranged the clinical training for the student.

152D Referral of impairment matters concerning practitioners or students [NSW]

- (1) A Council may decide to refer a matter to an Impaired Registrants Panel if the Council considers the matter indicates a registered health practitioner or student has or may have an impairment.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies whether or not the matter is the subject of a complaint to the Council.
- (3) If the Council is aware a complaint has been made to the Commission about a registered health practitioner or student who is the subject of a referral to an Impaired Registrants Panel, the Council must notify the Commission of the referral.

152E Panel must inquire into matters referred to it [NSW]

- (1) An Impaired Registrants Panel must inquire into any matter referred to it and may obtain reports and other information concerning the matter from any source it considers appropriate.
- (2) The Panel may ask the registered health practitioner or student who is the subject of the referral, to attend before the Panel for the purpose of enabling the Panel to obtain information on the matter and make an assessment.

152F Panel not to take action while Commission investigating [NSW]

An Impaired Registrants Panel is not to investigate or take any other action in relation to a matter if the Panel is aware the matter is the subject of an investigation by the Commission, while the investigation is being conducted.

152G Council to give notice of proposed inquiry [NSW]

- (1) A Council must give notice to a registered health practitioner or student of any proposed inquiry by an Impaired Registrants Panel concerning the practitioner or student.
- (2) The notice must include sufficient details of the matters to which the inquiry is to relate.

152H Practitioner or student entitled to make representations [NSW]

- (1) A registered health practitioner or student who is the subject of an inquiry by an Impaired Registrants Panel is entitled to make oral or written representations to the Panel about the matters being or to be the subject of the inquiry.
- (2) This section does not prevent the Panel from conducting an inquiry in the absence of the registered health practitioner or student to whom it relates, if the practitioner or student has been given notice of the inquiry.

152I Assessment, report and recommendations by Panel [NSW]

- (1) An Impaired Registrants Panel must make an assessment about a matter referred to it, based on the results of its inquiry into the matter.
- (2) On the basis of its assessment, the Panel may do any one or more of the following—
  - (a) counsel the practitioner or student concerned or recommend the practitioner or student undertake specified counselling;
  - (b) recommend the practitioner or student concerned to agree to conditions being placed on the practitioner's or student's registration or to having the practitioner's or student's registration suspended for a specified period;
  - (c) make recommendations to the Council that referred the matter to it as to action that the Panel considers should be taken in relation to the matter.
- (3) The Panel must give a written report about the matter to the Council that referred the matter to it.

- (4) The report must detail—
  - (a) the results of the Panel's inquiries and assessment in respect of the referral; and
  - (b) any action taken by the Panel in relation to it.

152J Voluntary suspension or conditions on registration [NSW]

A Council may impose conditions on a registered health practitioner's or student's registration, or suspend the practitioner's or student's registration, if—

- (a) an Impaired Registrants Panel has recommended the Council do so; and
- (b) the Council is satisfied the practitioner or student has voluntarily agreed to the conditions.

152K Review of conditions [NSW]

- (1) A registered health practitioner or student who agrees to conditions being imposed on the practitioner's or student's registration, or to have the registration suspended, may by written notice to the Council ask—
  - (a) that the conditions be altered or removed; or
  - (b) that the suspension be terminated or shortened.
- (2) On receipt of the request, the Council must require an Impaired Registrants Panel to review the matter and give a written report to the Council on the results of its review.
- (3) If the Panel recommends that the Council refuse to alter or remove any of the conditions, or refuse to terminate or shorten the suspension, the Council may do so.
- (4) The Council must give the health practitioner or student written notice of its decision.
- (5) The Council may specify in the notice a period in which a further request by the practitioner or student under this section is not permitted.
- (6) The Council may refuse a request that the conditions be altered or removed, or that the suspension be terminated or shortened, if it is made during that period.

152L Some matters to be dealt with as complaints [NSW]

- (1) If an Impaired Registrants Panel recommends that a registered health practitioner or student agree to conditions being imposed on the practitioner's or student's registration or to having the practitioner's or student's registration suspended and the practitioner or student fails to agree with the recommendation, the Council must deal with the matter that was the subject of the referral to the Panel as a complaint against the practitioner or student.

- (2) If the Panel recommends that a matter referred to it be dealt with as a complaint, the Council must deal with the matter as a complaint against the health practitioner or student concerned.
- (3) In any other case that the Council thinks it appropriate to do so, the Council may treat a matter that has been referred to an Impaired Registrants Panel as grounds for a complaint under this Law and may deal with the matter accordingly.

152M Prohibition or conditions on student [NSW]

- (1) An Impaired Registrants Panel that investigates a matter about a student may recommend to the Council that referred the matter to the Panel that it is in the public interest for the Council—
  - (a) to suspend the student's registration; or
  - (b) to impose specified conditions on the student's registration.
- (2) If the Council is satisfied it is in the public interest to do so, the Council may by written order take the action recommended by the Panel.
- (3) The order takes effect when notice of it is served on the education provider with which the student is undertaking the approved program of study or who arranged clinical training for the student.
- (4) An order remains in force for the period, not more than 2 years, specified in the order unless it is sooner revoked by the Council.
- (5) The Council may issue further orders in respect of a student but only on the recommendation of an Impaired Registrants Panel.

Division 5 Performance assessment [NSW]

Subdivision 1 Preliminary [NSW]

153 Meaning of “professional performance” [NSW]

For the purposes of this Division, a reference to the professional performance of a registered health practitioner is a reference to the knowledge, skill or judgment possessed and applied by the practitioner in the practice of the practitioner’s health profession.

153A Meaning of “unsatisfactory” in relation to professional performance [NSW]

For the purposes of this Division, the professional performance of a registered health practitioner is unsatisfactory if it is below the standard reasonably expected of a practitioner of an equivalent level of training or experience.

Subdivision 2 Council may obtain performance assessment [NSW]

154 Power to obtain assessment [NSW]

- (1) A Council may decide to have the professional performance of a registered health practitioner assessed under this Division if a matter comes to its attention that indicates the professional performance of the registered health practitioner, or any aspect of the practitioner’s professional performance, is or may be unsatisfactory.
- (2) Subsection (1) is not limited to matters that are the subject of a complaint or notification to the Council and may include a pattern of complaints about a registered health practitioner’s practice.

154A Serious matters not to be referred for assessment [NSW]

- (1) A Council must not have the professional performance of a registered health practitioner assessed if a matter giving rise to the proposed assessment—
  - (a) raises a significant issue of public health or safety that, in the Council’s opinion, requires investigation by the Commission; or
  - (b) raises a prima facie case of professional misconduct by the registered health practitioner, or unsatisfactory professional conduct by the registered health practitioner.

- (2) The matter must be dealt with as a complaint.

154B Persons may notify Council of professional performance matters [NSW]

- (1) A person may notify the Council for a health profession of a matter the person thinks indicates the professional performance of a health practitioner registered in the profession is unsatisfactory.
- (2) The Council must not have the professional performance of the practitioner assessed on the basis of a notification if it is made anonymously.

154C Commission may refer professional performance matters to Council [NSW]

- (1) If the Commission becomes aware of a matter the Commission considers indicates the professional performance of a health practitioner registered in a health profession is unsatisfactory, the Commission may refer the matter to a Council for the profession.
- (2) This section does not affect the functions of a Council in relation to a complaint made to the Commission or a matter referred to the Commission for investigation.

Subdivision 3 Assessment of professional performance by assessor [NSW]

155 How Council obtains an assessment [NSW]

A Council has the professional performance of a registered health practitioner assessed by having one or more assessors conduct an assessment of the practitioner's professional performance, or of any particular aspect or aspects of the practitioner's professional performance.

155A Information to be given to health practitioner [NSW]

- (1) As soon as practicable after deciding to have the professional performance of a registered health practitioner assessed, a Council must give the practitioner written notice of the decision.

- (2) The notice must include the following—
  - (a) details of the matter that gave rise to the assessment;
  - (b) information about how the performance assessment process works.

155B Report and recommendations by assessor [NSW]

- (1) An assessor who is required by a Council to conduct a performance assessment in relation to a registered health practitioner must—
  - (a) conduct an assessment of the practitioner's professional performance; and
  - (b) give a written report about the assessment to the Council.
- (2) The report must include the recommendations the assessor considers appropriate.
- (3) If more than one assessor is appointed to conduct a performance assessment in relation to a registered health practitioner, the report may be made jointly or separately, but in any case must be made in the way directed by the Council.

155C Action that may be taken by Council [NSW]

- (1) After receiving the report of an assessor about a performance assessment, a Council may—
  - (a) decide that no further action should be taken in respect of the registered health practitioner the subject of the report; or
  - (b) require a Performance Review Panel to conduct a performance review in relation to the practitioner; or
  - (c) make a complaint against the practitioner; or
  - (d) refer the matter to an Impaired Registrants Panel; or
  - (e) counsel the practitioner or direct the practitioner to attend counselling.
- (2) A Council must make a complaint against the practitioner concerned if the assessment—
  - (a) raises a significant issue of public health or safety that, in the opinion of the Council, requires investigation by the Commission; or
  - (b) raises a prima facie case of professional misconduct by a registered health practitioner, or unsatisfactory professional conduct by a registered health practitioner.

- (3) This section does not limit a Council's powers under section 150.

Subdivision 4 Performance review by Performance Review Panel [NSW]

156 Panel to conduct performance review [NSW]

- (1) If required by a Council, a Performance Review Panel must conduct a review of the professional performance of a registered health practitioner.
- (2) The chairperson of the Panel must inform the registered health practitioner in writing that a performance review will be conducted not less than 14 days before the time and place appointed for the performance review.

156A Panel not to take action while Commission investigating [NSW]

- (1) The Performance Review Panel is not to take any action in relation to the registered health practitioner if the Panel becomes aware the practitioner is the subject of a complaint that is being investigated by the Commission.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the Commission agrees to the continuation of the performance review.

156B Panel must refer certain matters to Council [NSW]

- (1) The Performance Review Panel must terminate the performance review if, before or during the performance review, the Panel forms the opinion that—
- (a) the performance review raises a significant issue of public health or safety that, in the Panel's opinion, requires investigation by the Commission; or
  - (b) the performance review raises a prima facie case of professional misconduct by the registered health practitioner, or unsatisfactory professional conduct by the registered health practitioner.
- (2) If the Panel terminates the performance review, it must refer the issue or case back to the Council with a recommendation that a complaint be made against the registered health practitioner.

- (3) The Council must deal with the matter in accordance with the recommendation.

156C Actions by Panel [NSW]

- (1) At the completion of the performance review, the Performance Review Panel may make the recommendations to the Council about the registered health practitioner the Panel considers appropriate.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), if the Panel finds the professional performance of the registered health practitioner, or a particular aspect of the professional performance of the practitioner, is unsatisfactory, the Panel may do any one or more of the following things—
  - (a) impose the conditions, relating to the practitioner's practise of the health profession, it considers appropriate on the practitioner's registration;
  - (b) order the practitioner to complete an educational course specified by the Panel;
  - (c) order the practitioner to report on the practitioner's practise of the health profession at the times, in the way and to the persons specified by the Panel;
  - (d) order the practitioner to seek and take advice, in relation to the management of the practitioner's practice, from the persons specified by the Panel.
- (3) The Panel must recommend to the Council that a complaint be made against the registered health practitioner if the Panel finds the matter—
  - (a) raises a significant issue of public health or safety that requires investigation by the Commission; or
  - (b) raises a prima facie case of professional misconduct by the practitioner, or unsatisfactory professional conduct by the health practitioner.
- (4) If the Panel makes a recommendation that a complaint be made against the registered health practitioner, the Council must act in accordance with the recommendation.
- (5) In any other case that the Council thinks it appropriate to do so, the Council may make a complaint in respect of a matter that has been considered by a Performance Review Panel, after consulting with the Commission.

156D Re-assessment [NSW]

- (1) Without limiting section 156C, a Performance Review Panel may direct that a registered health practitioner's professional performance be re-assessed at a future date.
- (2) A Council must have one or more assessors conduct that assessment, when it is required, and report to the Council on the assessment.
- (3) The Council may take any action in respect of that assessment that is available to the Council under section 155C, including requiring a Performance Review Panel to conduct a further performance review in relation to the practitioner.

156E Decision [NSW]

- (1) A Performance Review Panel must give a written statement of a decision on a performance review of a registered health practitioner to—
  - (a) the registered health practitioner; and
  - (b) the Council.
- (2) The statement of the decision must—
  - (a) include reasons for the decision; and
  - (b) be given to the registered health practitioner and the Council within one month after the decision is made.
- (3) The Council may provide a copy of the statement of decision to the persons the Council or Panel thinks fit.

156F Statement need not contain confidential information [NSW]

- (1) A Performance Review Panel is not required to include confidential information in the statement of a decision.
- (2) If the statement would be false or misleading if it did not include the confidential information, the Panel is not required to provide the statement.
- (3) If confidential information is not included in the statement given to a person or the statement is not given to a person because of subsection (2), the Panel must give a confidential information notice to the person.
- (4) A confidential information notice must be given within one month after the decision is made.

- (5) This section does not affect the power of a court to make an order for the discovery of documents or to require the giving of evidence or the production of documents to a court, subject to the provisions of this Law relating to protected reports.

Subdivision 5 Miscellaneous [NSW]

157 Monitoring by Council [NSW]

- (1) Following a performance review, the Council must—
- (a) monitor compliance with any decisions or orders made by the Performance Review Panel; and
  - (b) from time to time, evaluate the effectiveness of those orders in improving the professional performance of the registered health practitioner concerned to a standard that is commensurate with other practitioners of an equivalent level of training or experience.
- (2) The Council may take any action under this Law in respect of a registered health practitioner that it considers appropriate as a result of the exercise of its functions under subsection (1).

Division 6 Appeals to Tribunal [NSW]

Subdivision 1 Appeals against actions of Committee [NSW]

158 Appeals against decisions of Committee [NSW]

- (1) If a complaint about a registered health practitioner or student is referred to a Committee, the practitioner or student or the complainant, may appeal against any of the following to the Tribunal for the health profession—
- (a) a finding of the Committee;
  - (b) the exercise of a power by the Committee under Subdivision 3 of Division 3;
  - (c) the exercise by the Chairperson or a Deputy Chairperson of the Tribunal of a power under that Subdivision.
- (2) The appeal is to be dealt with by way of rehearing and fresh evidence, or evidence in addition to or in substitution for the evidence received at the inquiry, may be given.

- (3) The Tribunal may—
  - (a) dismiss the appeal; or
  - (b) make any finding or exercise any power the Tribunal could have made or exercised if the complaint had been originally referred to the Tribunal.
- (4) An appeal under this section does not affect any finding or exercise of power with respect to which it has been made until the Tribunal makes an order on the appeal.

158A Appeals on points of law [NSW]

- (1) A registered health practitioner or student about whom a complaint is referred to a Committee or the complainant may appeal with respect to a point of law to the Chairperson of the Tribunal or a Deputy Chairperson nominated by the Chairperson.
- (2) An appeal may be made—
  - (a) during an inquiry—within 28 days after the date of the Committee's decision on the point of law which is the subject of the appeal; or
  - (b) before the commencement of an inquiry but after the date of giving notice of the inquiry.
- (3) If an inquiry conducted by a Committee has not been completed when an appeal is made, the inquiry must not continue until the appeal has been disposed of.
- (4) The Committee must not make any decision that is inconsistent with the Chairperson's or Deputy Chairperson's determination with respect to the point of law.

Subdivision 2 Appeal against actions by Council [NSW]

159 Right of appeal [NSW]

- (1) A person may appeal to the Tribunal for a health profession—
  - (a) against a suspension by the Council for the health profession under Division 3 or a refusal to end a suspension; or
  - (b) against conditions imposed by the Council for the health profession on the person's registration under

- Division 3 or 4 or the alteration of the conditions by the Council; or
- (c) against a refusal by the Council for the health profession to alter or remove conditions imposed by the Council under Division 3 in accordance with a request made by the person under section 150I; or
  - (d) against a decision by the Council for the health profession to give a direction or make an order in relation to the person under section 148E; or
  - (e) against a refusal by the Council for the health profession to alter or remove conditions imposed on the person's registration, or to end a suspension, imposed under Division 4 in accordance with a request made by the person under section 152K.
- (2) An appeal may not be made in respect of a request by a person that is rejected by a Council because it was made during a period in which the request was not permitted under section 150I or 152K.

159A Appeal by student against order [NSW]

- (1) A student may appeal to the Tribunal for a health profession against a decision of the Council for the health profession to issue an order—
  - (a) suspending the student's registration; or
  - (b) imposing conditions on the student's registration.
- (2) The appeal must be lodged with the Executive Officer who must refer it to the Tribunal.
- (3) The appeal must be made within 28 days, or the longer period as the Executive Officer may allow in a particular case, after notice of the Council's decision is given to the student.
- (4) On an appeal, the Tribunal may by order terminate, vary or confirm the order, as it thinks proper.

159B Appeal on point of law [NSW]

- (1) A registered health practitioner or student who is the subject of action taken by the Council for the health profession under section 150, 150A or 150C may appeal, with respect to a point of law, to the Chairperson or a Deputy Chairperson of the Tribunal for the health profession.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not limit a right of appeal under section 159.
  - (3) The Council must not make a decision that is inconsistent with the Tribunal's decision with respect to a point of law under this section.
  - (4) A registered health practitioner or student may not make an application to the Supreme Court for judicial review of action taken by a Council under section 150, 150A or 150C, being an application alleging any error of law, until an appeal under this section in respect of the point of law concerned has been made and disposed of.

159C Tribunal's powers on appeal [NSW]

- (1) On an appeal, a Tribunal may by order terminate, vary or confirm a period of suspension or revoke, vary or confirm the conditions, as it thinks proper.
- (2) A Tribunal's order must not cause a suspension or conditions imposed by a Council to have effect beyond the day on which a related complaint about the person is disposed of.

Subdivision 3 Appeal against actions of Performance Review Panel [NSW]

160 Appeals against decisions of Panel [NSW]

- (1) A registered health practitioner who is the subject of a performance review may appeal to the Tribunal against a decision of the Performance Review Panel or any order or direction made by the Panel under Division 5.
- (2) The appeal is to be dealt with by way of rehearing and fresh evidence, or evidence in addition to or in substitution for the evidence received at the performance review, may be given.
- (3) The Tribunal may, as it thinks appropriate—
  - (a) dismiss the appeal; or
  - (b) make any finding or exercise any power or combination of powers that the Performance Review Panel could have made or exercised.

160A Appeals on points of law [NSW]

- (1) A registered health practitioner who is the subject of a performance review may appeal with respect to a point of law to the Tribunal for the health profession in which the practitioner is registered.
- (2) An appeal may be made—
  - (a) during a performance review—within 28 days after the date of the Performance Review Panel's decision on the point of law that is the subject of the appeal; or
  - (b) before the commencement of a performance review but after the date the practitioner is informed of the performance review.
- (3) If a performance review has not been completed when an appeal is made, the Performance Review Panel must not continue with the performance review until the appeal has been disposed of.
- (4) The Performance Review Panel must not make any decision that is inconsistent with the Tribunal's determination with respect to the point of law.

Subdivision 4 Miscellaneous [NSW]

161 When appeal must be made [NSW]

An appeal under this Division or Division 13, other than an appeal on a point of law, must be made—

- (a) within 28 days after the day the person making the appeal was given notice of the decision being appealed against; or
- (b) within the longer period allowed by the Executive Officer.

161A Lodgment of appeal [NSW]

The appeal must be lodged with the Executive Officer who must refer it to the Tribunal.

161B Appeal does not stay decision [NSW]

An appeal under this Division does not operate to stay the effect of the decision being appealed against unless the Chairperson or a Deputy Chairperson of the Tribunal otherwise orders.

Division 7 Appeals to Supreme Court [NSW]

162 Appeal against Tribunal's decisions and actions [NSW]

- (1) A person about whom a complaint is referred to the Tribunal, or the complainant, may appeal to the Supreme Court against—
  - (a) a decision of the Tribunal with respect to a point of law; or
  - (b) the exercise of a power by the Tribunal under Subdivision 6 of Division 3.
- (2) A person who is a party to an appeal to the Tribunal against the exercise by the Chairperson or a Deputy Chairperson of the Tribunal of any power under Subdivision 6 of Division 3 (including the complainant in respect of the matter), may appeal to the Supreme Court against—
  - (a) a decision of the Tribunal with respect to a point of law; or
  - (b) the exercise of any power by the Tribunal under section 158.
- (3) An appeal under this section must be made within 28 days (or the longer period allowed by the Supreme Court in a particular case) after the handing down of the decision or the exercise of power against which the appeal is made.
- (4) The Supreme Court may stay any order made by the Tribunal, on the terms the Court sees fit, until the time the Court decides the appeal.

162A Powers of Supreme Court on appeal [NSW]

- (1) In deciding the appeal, the Supreme Court may—
  - (a) dismiss the appeal; or
  - (b) make the order it thinks proper having regard to the merits of the case and the public welfare, and in doing so may exercise any one or more of the powers of the Tribunal under this Law.
- (2) If the Supreme Court dismisses an appeal against an order of the Tribunal, the Court may by order direct that the Tribunal's order is to be taken to include provision that an application for its review under Subdivision 3 of Division 6 may not be made until after a specified time.

Division 8      Reviews [NSW]

163    Appropriate review body [NSW]

- (1) For the purposes of this Division, the appropriate review body is—
  - (a) if the order being reviewed provides that it may be reviewed by a Council, the Council; or
  - (b) if the Chairperson of the Tribunal decides, on application by the person the subject of the review, that a National Board is the appropriate review body, the National Board; or
  - (c) otherwise, the Tribunal.
- (2) An application for review by a person must be lodged with the Executive Officer of the Council for the health profession in which the person is or was registered.
- (3) The Executive Officer must refer the application to the appropriate review body.

163A    Right of review [NSW]

- (1) A person may apply to the appropriate review body for a review of—
  - (a) a prohibition order made in relation to the person; or
  - (b) a relevant order made in relation to the person.
- (2) A person may also apply to the appropriate review body for a review of an order made under this Division.
- (3) An application for review of an order may not be made—
  - (a) while the terms of the order provide that an application for review may not be made; or
  - (b) while an appeal to a Tribunal or the Supreme Court in respect of the same matter is pending.
- (4) In this section—

decision-making entity means the following—

  - (a) a Committee;
  - (b) a Performance Review Panel;
  - (c) the Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson of a Tribunal;
  - (d) a Tribunal;
  - (e) the Supreme Court.

relevant order, in relation to a person, means any of the following orders made by a decision-making entity—

- (a) an order that the person's registration as a registered health practitioner or student is suspended; or
- (b) an order that the person's registration be cancelled or that the person is disqualified from being registered in a particular health profession; or
- (c) an order that conditions be imposed on the person's registration in a health profession.

163B Powers on review [NSW]

- (1) The appropriate review body must conduct an inquiry into an application for review and may then do any of the following—
  - (a) dismiss the application;
  - (b) make an order ending or shortening the period of the suspension concerned;
  - (c) make a reinstatement order;
  - (d) make an order altering or removing the conditions to which the person's registration is subject, including by imposing new conditions;
  - (e) make an order—
    - (i) ending or shortening the period of a prohibition order; or
    - (ii) altering or removing the conditions to which the person is subject under a prohibition order, including by imposing new conditions.
- (2) If the appropriate review body makes an order altering a critical compliance condition, or removing a critical compliance condition and imposing a new condition, the altered condition or new condition is a critical compliance condition unless the body orders otherwise.
- (3) A reinstatement order is an order that the person be registered subject to the same conditions and limitations (if any) to which the person's registration was subject immediately before the person ceased to be registered.
- (4) The appropriate review body may also impose conditions on the person's registration or alter the conditions to which the person's registration is to be subject under the reinstatement order.

- (5) The order on a review under this section may also provide that the order is not to be reviewed under this Division until after a specified time.

163C Inquiry into review application [NSW]

- (1) A review under this Division is a review to determine the appropriateness, at the time of the review, of the order concerned.
- (2) The review is not to review the decision to make the order, or any findings made in connection with the making of that decision.
- (3) In addition to any other matter the review may take into account, the review must take into account any complaint made or notified to a Council or a National Board, or a former Board under a repealed Act, about the person, whether the complaint was made or notified before or after the making of the order that is the subject of the review and whether or not the complaint was referred under Subdivision 2 of Division 3 or any other action was taken on the complaint.

Division 9 Enforcement powers [NSW]

164 Appointment of authorised persons [NSW]

- (1) The Director-General may appoint a person as an authorised person for the purposes of this Division.
- (2) The Director-General must provide an authorised person with a certificate of authority.

164A Powers of authorised persons [NSW]

- (1) An authorised person may exercise the powers conferred by this section for the purpose of—
  - (a) ascertaining whether the NSW provisions or the NSW regulations are being complied with or have been contravened; or
  - (b) investigating a complaint made or intended to be made under Division 3.
- (2) An authorised person may, with the approval of the Council for a health profession, given on the particular occasion, enter and inspect at any reasonable time premises that the authorised person believes on reasonable grounds are being used for the carrying on of the practice of the health profession.

- (3) While on premises entered under this section or under the authority of a search warrant under section 164B, an authorised person may do any one or more of the following—
- (a) require any person on the premises to produce any records in the possession or under the control of that person relating to the carrying on of the practice of the health profession;
  - (b) inspect, take copies of, or extracts or notes from, the records and, if the authorised person considers it necessary to do so for the purpose of obtaining evidence, seize the records;
  - (c) examine and inspect any apparatus or equipment used or apparently used in the course of the practice of the health profession;
  - (d) take photographs, films and audio, video and other recordings as the authorised person considers necessary;
  - (e) require any person on the premises to answer questions or otherwise furnish information in relation to the carrying on of the practice of a health profession or a contravention of a NSW provision or the NSW regulations;
  - (f) require the owner or occupier of the premises to give the authorised person the assistance and facilities as is or are reasonably necessary to enable the authorised person to exercise the functions of an authorised person under this section.
- (4) An authorised person is not entitled to enter a part of premises used for residential purposes, except—
- (a) with the consent of the occupier of the part; or
  - (b) under the authority of a search warrant.
- (5) An authorised person must, when exercising on any premises any function of the authorised person under this section, produce the authorised person's certificate of authority to any person apparently in charge of the premises who requests its production.

- (6) If an authorised person seizes any records under this section, they may be kept by the authorised person until the completion of any proceedings (including proceedings on appeal) in which they may be evidence but only if the person from whom the records were seized is given, within a reasonable time after the seizure, a copy of the records certified by an authorised person as a true copy.
- (7) A copy of a record given under subsection (6) is, as evidence, of equal validity to the record of which it is certified to be a copy.

164B Search warrants [NSW]

- (1) A person appointed under this Division as an authorised person may apply to an authorised officer for the issue of a search warrant for premises if the authorised person believes on reasonable grounds—
  - (a) a NSW provision or the NSW regulations is being contravened on the premises; or
  - (b) there is on the premises evidence of a contravention of a provision of this Law or the NSW regulations.
- (2) The authorised officer may, if satisfied there are reasonable grounds for doing so, issue a search warrant authorising an authorised person named in the warrant—
  - (a) to enter and inspect the premises; and
  - (b) to exercise on the premises any function of an authorised person under section 164A.
- (3) Division 4 of Part 5 of the Law Enforcement (Powers and Responsibilities) Act 2002 applies to a search warrant issued under this section.
- (4) In this section—

164C Offences [NSW]

- (1) A person must not—
  - (a) prevent an authorised person from exercising any function conferred or imposed on the authorised person under this Division; or
  - (b) hinder or obstruct an authorised person in the exercise of a function conferred or imposed on the authorised person under this Division; or

- (c) without reasonable excuse, refuse or fail to comply with any requirement made or to answer any question asked by an authorised person under this Division; or
  - (d) give an authorised person information knowing it to be false or misleading in a material particular.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) for an offence under paragraph (a) or (b)— 50 penalty units; or
  - (b) for an offence under paragraph (c) or (d)— 20 penalty units.
- (2) It is a sufficient defence to a prosecution for the offence under paragraph (c) of failing to answer a question asked by an authorised person if the defendant satisfies the court that the defendant did not know, and could not with reasonable diligence have ascertained, the answer to the question.

164D Self-incrimination [NSW]

- (1) A person is not excused from answering a question asked by an authorised person under this Division on the ground the answer might tend to incriminate the person.
- (2) However, information furnished by an individual in answering a question asked by an authorised person under this Division is not admissible against the individual in criminal proceedings (except proceedings for an offence against section 164C) if—
  - (a) the individual objected at the time of doing so on the ground it might incriminate the individual; or
  - (b) the individual was not warned on that occasion that the individual may object to furnishing the information on the ground it might incriminate the individual.
- (3) A person is not excused from producing a record to an authorised person under this Division on the ground the record might tend to incriminate the person, and the record is not inadmissible in evidence against the person in criminal proceedings on the ground the record might incriminate the person.

Note. Section 187 of the Evidence Act 1995 provides that the privilege against self-incrimination does not apply to bodies corporate.

- (2) The Governor may, by order published on the NSW legislation website, amend the Table to subsection (1) by inserting, altering or omitting the name of a Tribunal or health profession.
- (3) A Tribunal is to be constituted in accordance with this Law to deal with a matter referred to it or an appeal or application made to it under this Law.
- (4) A Tribunal has and may exercise the jurisdiction and functions conferred or imposed on it by or under this Law or any other Act.

165A Tribunal to be constituted to deal with complaints, applications and appeals [NSW]

- (1) If a complaint is referred to a Tribunal for a health profession or an application or appeal is made to the Tribunal, the Council for the health profession must—
  - (a) inform the Chairperson of the Tribunal of the referral, application or appeal; and
  - (b) appoint 3 other persons to sit on the Tribunal.
- (2) For the purpose of conducting an inquiry or hearing an appeal, the Tribunal is to consist of—
  - (a) the Chairperson or a Deputy Chairperson, as nominated by the Chairperson; and
  - (b) 2 health practitioners registered in the same health profession as the health practitioner or student the subject of the inquiry or appeal and having the qualifications prescribed by the NSW regulations; and
  - (c) one lay person (that is, a person who is not registered in the health profession) appointed by the Council from among a panel of lay persons for the time being nominated by the Minister.
- (3) If the health profession has divisions, at least one and, if practicable, both, of the members appointed under subsection (2)(b) must be registered in the same division of the health profession as the health practitioner or student the subject of the inquiry or hearing.
- (4) A person is not to be appointed to sit on the Tribunal if the person is a member of the Council.
- (5) A Tribunal, as constituted by different persons or the same persons, may conduct or hear more than one inquiry or appeal at the same time.
- (6) An inquiry or appeal conducted or heard by a Tribunal may relate to more than one health practitioner or student if the complaint or complaints the subject of the inquiry or appeal arise from the same conduct.

165B Chairperson and Deputy Chairpersons of Tribunals [NSW]

- (1) The Governor may appoint—
  - (a) a qualified person as Chairperson of a Tribunal; and
  - (b) one or more qualified persons as Deputy Chairpersons of a Tribunal.
- (2) The Chairperson and each Deputy Chairperson hold office for the period, not more than 7 years, specified in the instrument of appointment as Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson, but is eligible (if otherwise qualified) for re-appointment.
- (3) A Deputy Chairperson may be appointed by the Governor for the purpose only of conducting or hearing a particular inquiry or appeal described in the instrument of appointment of the Deputy Chairperson.
- (4) A Deputy Chairperson, while sitting on a Tribunal, has and may exercise all the functions conferred or imposed on a Chairperson by this Law.
- (5) If the period of a person's appointment as Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson expires while the person is sitting on a Tribunal for the purposes of an inquiry or an appeal, the person may, despite that expiry, continue to sit on the Tribunal for the purpose of that inquiry or appeal (the continuing inquiry or appeal).
- (6) For the purposes of the conduct or hearing of the continuing inquiry or appeal (and any provision of this Law or the regulations with respect to the inquiry or appeal), the person referred to in subsection (5)—
  - (a) is taken to be a Deputy Chairperson; and
  - (b) has and may exercise only the functions conferred or imposed on a Deputy Chairperson under this Law; and
  - (c) may exercise the functions only in respect of the continuing inquiry or appeal.
- (7) A Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson sitting on a Tribunal is entitled to be paid the remuneration (including travelling and subsistence allowances) decided by the Minister from time to time.
- (8) The Governor may appoint a Deputy Chairperson to act in the office of Chairperson during the illness or absence of a Chairperson and the Deputy Chairperson, while so acting, has and may exercise all the functions of the Chairperson and is taken to be the Chairperson.

- (9) If a person who is a Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson ceases to be a qualified person, the person also ceases to hold office as Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson.
- (10) In this section, qualified person means—
  - (a) for the Medical Tribunal of New South Wales, a Judge of the Supreme Court (or a Judge or other person having the same status as a Judge of the Supreme Court) or a Judge of the District Court; and
  - (b) for another Tribunal, an Australian lawyer of at least 7 years' standing.

165C Effect of vacancy on Tribunal [NSW]

- (1) If one of the members (other than a Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson) constituting a Tribunal for the purpose of conducting a hearing vacates office for any reason before an inquiry or appeal is completed or a decision is made in respect of an inquiry or appeal, the inquiry or appeal may be continued and a determination made by the remaining members of the Tribunal.
- (2) If more than one of the members vacate office or the Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson vacates office for any reason before a Tribunal has completed an inquiry or appeal or made a determination in respect of an inquiry or appeal, the inquiry or appeal is terminated.
- (3) When an inquiry or appeal is terminated, a Tribunal may be reconstituted in accordance with this Division for the purposes of conducting a new inquiry or appeal in respect of the matter concerned.

165D Payment of non-judicial and non-legal Tribunal members [NSW]

A member of a Tribunal (other than a Chairperson or a Deputy Chairperson) is, while sitting on the Tribunal, entitled to be paid by the Council at a rate decided by the Minister in consultation with the Council.

165E Protections and immunities of judicial members [NSW]

A judicial member of a Tribunal has, in the exercise of his or her functions under this Division, the same protection and immunity as a Judge of the Supreme Court.

165F Seal of Tribunal [NSW]

A Tribunal is to have a seal of which all courts and persons acting judicially are to take judicial notice.

165G Medical Tribunal Registry [NSW]

There is to be established in the Registry of the District Court at Sydney a Registry for the Medical Tribunal of New South Wales to provide registry services for the Tribunal.

Subdivision 2 Proceedings of Tribunals [NSW]

166 Decisions of Tribunals [NSW]

- (1) The decision of a Chairperson or a Deputy Chairperson of a Tribunal on a question of law or procedure arising during an inquiry or appeal at which the Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson presides is the decision of the Tribunal for the purposes of the inquiry or appeal.
- (2) A decision supported by at least 3 members of a Tribunal with respect to a question (other than with respect to a point of law or procedure) arising during an inquiry or appeal before the Tribunal is the decision of the Tribunal.
- (3) If 2 members of a Tribunal support a decision and 2 members oppose the decision, the decision of the Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson presiding is the decision of the Tribunal.

166A Time when orders take effect [NSW]

An order of a Tribunal takes effect on—

- (a) the day on which the order is made; or
- (b) the later day specified in the order.

166B Powers of Tribunal exercised by Supreme Court [NSW]

A power of a Tribunal exercised under this Law by the Supreme Court is, except for the purposes of an appeal, taken to have been exercised by the Tribunal.

166C Executive Officer to be informed of disciplinary action
[NSW]

A Tribunal for a health profession must inform the Executive Officer of the Council for the health profession of the exercise of any power under this Part by the Tribunal.

166D Rules of practice and procedure for the Medical Tribunal
[NSW]

A rule committee consisting of the Chairperson and Deputy Chairperson of the Medical Tribunal of New South Wales may make rules, not inconsistent with this Law, governing the practice and procedure of the Tribunal.

Subdivision 3 Inquiries and appeals before Tribunal
[NSW]

167 Jurisdiction [NSW]

- (1) A Tribunal must—
  - (a) conduct an inquiry into a complaint, matter or application referred to it; and
  - (b) hear any appeal referred to it.
- (2) No inquiry need be conducted into a complaint referred to a Tribunal if the registered health practitioner or student who is the subject of the complaint admits the subject-matter of the complaint in writing to the Tribunal.

167A Notice of time and place of inquiry or appeal [NSW]

- (1) A Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson nominated to sit on a Tribunal for a health profession must fix a time and place for the conducting of the inquiry or the hearing of the appeal by the Tribunal.
- (2) The Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson must give not less than 14 days' notice of the inquiry or appeal to each of the following—
  - (a) the registered health practitioner or student the subject of the inquiry or appeal;
  - (b) the complainant, if any;
  - (c) the Director-General;
  - (d) the Council for the health profession;

- (e) for an inquiry into a complaint, the Commission;
  - (f) the Chairperson of the relevant Committee, if appropriate.

167B Conduct of proceedings [NSW]

- (1) A Tribunal may conduct proceedings on an inquiry or appeal as it thinks fit.
- (2) Proceedings of a Tribunal are to be open to the public except when the Tribunal otherwise directs.
- (3) A Tribunal is not to direct that proceedings are to be closed to the public unless satisfied that it is desirable to do so in the public interest for reasons connected with the subject-matter of the inquiry or appeal or the nature of the evidence to be given.

167C Representation before Tribunals [NSW]

- (1) At an inquiry conducted or appeal heard by a Tribunal, the registered health practitioner or student and any complainant concerned are entitled to attend and to be represented by—
  - (a) an Australian legal practitioner; or
  - (b) with the leave of the Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson presiding, another adviser.
- (2) A Tribunal may grant leave for another person to appear (whether in person or by an Australian legal practitioner or another adviser) at an inquiry or appeal if the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate for the person to appear.
- (3) This section does not prevent a Tribunal from proceeding in the absence of the registered health practitioner or student concerned, as long as the practitioner or student has been given notice of the inquiry or appeal.

167D Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson not to review own decisions [NSW]

A Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson must not sit on a Tribunal for the purpose of conducting any inquiry or hearing any appeal relating to a particular matter before the Tribunal if a decision has been made by the Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson in relation to the matter.

167E Adjournments and interlocutory orders [NSW]

- (1) A Tribunal may adjourn proceedings for any reason it thinks fit.
- (2) A Tribunal may, during any proceedings, exercise any power or combination of powers conferred on the Tribunal by section 149A, except the power to caution or reprimand.
- (3) A Tribunal may, in respect of an appeal under section 159B, make an order staying the decision of the Council appealed against until the appeal has been disposed of.

167F Tribunals to provide details of decisions [NSW]

- (1) As soon as practicable after making a decision on an inquiry or an appeal (bearing in mind the public welfare and seriousness of the matter), a Tribunal must give a written statement of the decision to—
  - (a) the complainant; and
  - (b) the registered health practitioner or student the subject of the inquiry or appeal; and
  - (c) the Council for the health profession in which the practitioner or student is registered.
- (2) The statement of a decision must—
  - (a) set out any findings on material questions of fact; and
  - (b) refer to any evidence or other material on which the findings were based; and
  - (c) give the reasons for the decision.
- (3) The Tribunal may also provide the statement of a decision to the persons the Tribunal thinks fit.
- (4) Unless the Tribunal has ordered otherwise, a Council—
  - (a) must make publicly available a statement of a decision given to it under this section if the decision is in respect of a complaint that has been proved or admitted in whole or in part; and
  - (b) may disseminate any other statement of a decision as the Council thinks fit.

167G Statement need not contain confidential information [NSW]

- (1) A Tribunal is not required to include confidential information in the statement of a decision.
- (2) If the statement would be false or misleading if it did not include the confidential information, the Tribunal is not required to provide the statement.
- (3) If confidential information is not included in the statement given to a person or the statement is not given to a person because of subsection (2), the Tribunal must give a confidential information notice to the person.
- (4) A confidential information notice must be given within one month after the decision is made.
- (5) This section does not affect the power of a court to make an order for the discovery of documents or to require the giving of evidence or the production of documents to a court, subject to the provisions of this Law relating to protected reports.

  - (b) one person who is an Australian lawyer and not a registered health practitioner and who is to be appointed by the Council as Chairperson of the Committee; and
  - (c) one person who is not a registered health practitioner appointed from among a panel of persons for the time being nominated by the Minister.
- (2) A person who is a member of the Council may not be appointed to sit on a Committee.
- (3) A member of a Committee, while sitting on the Committee, is entitled to be paid by the Council at a rate decided by the Minister.
- (4) The rate must be decided by the Minister in consultation with the Council.

Subdivision 3 Proceedings of Committees [NSW]

170 Multiple inquiries [NSW]

One or more Committees may conduct more than one inquiry at the same time.

170A How a Committee decides [NSW]

A decision supported by at least 3 members of a Committee on any question arising during an inquiry is the decision of the Committee.

170B Time when orders take effect [NSW]

An order of a Committee takes effect on—

- (a) the day the order is made; or
- (b) if a later day is specified in the order, that day.

170C Committee to inform Executive Officer of its actions under disciplinary provisions [NSW]

A Committee must inform the Executive Officer of the exercise of any power by the Committee under Subdivision 3 of Division 3.

170D Chairperson may exercise certain powers of Committee [NSW]

- (1) The Chairperson of a Committee may exercise the following powers of the Committee—
  - (a) the power to terminate an inquiry;
  - (b) the power to hand down a decision of the Committee on an inquiry.
- (2) A power of the Committee exercised by the Chairperson of the Committee is taken to have been exercised by the Committee.

Subdivision 4 Inquiries before Committees [NSW]

171 Committee to hold inquiry into complaint [NSW]

- (1) A Committee must hold an inquiry into a complaint about a relevant health practitioner that is referred to it.
- (2) No inquiry need be held into the complaint if the relevant health practitioner admits the subject-matter of the complaint in writing to the Committee.
- (3) On appointment, the Chairperson of the Committee must fix a time and place for the holding of an inquiry by the Committee into the complaint.

- (4) The Chairperson must give not less than 14 days' notice of the inquiry to—
  - (a) the relevant health practitioner; and
  - (b) the complainant, if any; and
  - (c) the Director-General; and
  - (d) the Council for the health profession in which the practitioner is registered; and
  - (e) the Commission.

- (1) Subject to this section, the Committee may conduct proceedings on the inquiry as it thinks fit.
- (2) Proceedings of the Committee are to be open to the public unless the Committee directs otherwise.
- (3) The Committee is not to direct that proceedings are to be closed to the public unless satisfied it is desirable to do so in the public interest because of—
  - (a) the subject-matter of the inquiry; or
  - (b) the nature of the evidence to be given.
- (4) The Committee may be assisted by an Australian lawyer appointed, at the request of the Committee, by the Executive Officer of the Council.

171B Representation at inquiry [NSW]

- (1) At the inquiry held by the Committee, the relevant health practitioner and any complainant are entitled to attend and to be represented by—
  - (a) an Australian legal practitioner; or
  - (b) with the leave of the Chairperson of the Committee, another adviser.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not prevent the Committee from addressing questions directly to the relevant health practitioner.
- (3) The Committee may grant leave for any other person to appear at the inquiry if the Committee is satisfied it is appropriate for the person to appear.

- (4) This section does not prevent the Committee from proceeding in the absence of the relevant health practitioner or the complainant, if the practitioner or complainant has been given notice of the inquiry.

171C Adjournments and interlocutory orders [NSW]

- (1) The Committee may adjourn proceedings for any reason it thinks fit.
- (2) The Committee may, during any proceedings, exercise any power or combination of powers conferred on a Committee by section 146B, except the power to caution or reprimand.

171D Committee must refer certain matters to Tribunal [NSW]

- (1) The Committee must immediately terminate the inquiry if, before or during the inquiry, the Committee—
    - (a) forms the opinion the complaint, if substantiated, may provide grounds for the suspension or cancellation of the registration of the relevant health practitioner; or
    - (b) becomes aware the Council or the Commission has referred the complaint or another complaint about the practitioner to the Tribunal.
  - (2) Subsection (1)(a) does not apply to a complaint that the Council decided not to refer to the Tribunal because the allegations on which it, and any other pending complaint against the practitioner, was founded related solely or principally to the practitioner's physical or mental capacity to practise the practitioner's profession.
  - (3) If the Committee terminates an inquiry, it must refer the complaint to the Tribunal unless it has already been referred to the Tribunal.
  - (4) The Tribunal to which the complaint is referred may be the Tribunal as already constituted to deal with another complaint or the Tribunal as constituted to deal with the referred complaint.
  - (5) The Committee must inform the Council when it takes any action under this section.

171E Committee to provide details of decision [NSW]

- (1) The Committee must give a written statement of its decision on the inquiry to the following within one month after the decision is made—
  - (a) the complainant;
  - (b) the relevant health practitioner;
  - (c) the Council.
- (2) The statement of decision must—
  - (a) set out any findings on material questions of fact; and
  - (b) refer to any evidence or other material on which the findings were based; and
  - (c) give reasons for the decision.
- (3) The Committee may also give the statement of decision to any other person the Committee thinks fit.
- (4) The Council—
  - (a) must make publicly available the statement of decision if the decision is in respect of a complaint that has been proved or admitted in whole or in part; and
  - (b) may disseminate any other statement of decision as the Council thinks fit.
- (5) Subsection (4) does not apply if the Committee has ordered that the statement is not to be made publicly available.

171F Statement need not contain confidential information [NSW]

- (1) A Committee is not required to include confidential information in a statement of a decision given to a person.
- (2) If the statement would be false or misleading if it did not include the confidential information, the Committee is not required to provide the statement.
- (3) If confidential information is not included in the statement of a decision given to a person, or a statement is not given to a person because of subsection (2), the Committee must give the person a confidential information notice.
- (4) A confidential information notice must be given within one month of the decision.

- (5) This section does not affect the power of a court to make an order for the discovery of documents or to require the giving of evidence or the production of documents to a court, subject to the provisions of this Law relating to protected reports.

Division 14A Appeals [NSW]

175 Appellable decisions [NSW]

- (1) A person who is the subject of any of the following decisions (an appellable decision) may appeal against the decision to the appropriate responsible tribunal for the appellable decision—
  - (a) a decision by a National Board to refuse to register the person;
  - (b) a decision by a National Board to refuse to endorse the person's registration;
  - (c) a decision by a National Board to refuse to renew the person's registration;
  - (d) a decision by a National Board to refuse to renew the endorsement of the person's registration;
  - (e) a decision by a National Board to impose or change a condition on a person's registration or the endorsement of the person's registration, other than—
    - (i) a condition relating to the person's qualification for general registration in the health profession; and
    - (ii) a condition imposed by section 112(3)(a);
  - (f) a decision by a National Board to refuse to change or remove a condition imposed on the person's registration or the endorsement of the person's registration;
  - (g) a decision by a National Board to refuse to change or revoke an undertaking given by the person to the Board.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the appropriate responsible tribunal for an appellable decision is—
  - (a) for a decision in relation to a registered health practitioner, the responsible tribunal for the participating jurisdiction in which the practitioner's principal place of practice is located; or
  - (b) for a decision in relation to a student, the responsible tribunal for the participating jurisdiction in which the student is undertaking the approved program of study or clinical training; or

- (c) for a decision in relation to another person—
  - (i) the responsible tribunal for the participating jurisdiction in which the person lives; or
  - (ii) if the person does not live in a participating jurisdiction, the responsible tribunal for the participating jurisdiction nominated by the National Board that made the appellable decision and specified in the notice given to the person of the appellable decision.

Note. This section is a substituted New South Wales provision.

175A Parties to the proceedings [NSW]

The parties to proceedings relating to an appellable decision being heard by a responsible tribunal are—

- (a) the person who is the subject of the appellable decision; and
- (b) the National Board that made the appellable decision.

Note. This section is a substituted New South Wales provision.

175B Costs

The responsible tribunal may make any order about costs it considers appropriate for the proceedings.

Note. This section is a Health Practitioner Regulation National Law provision (see section 201 of the National Law).

175C Decision

- (1) After hearing the matter, the responsible tribunal may—
  - (a) confirm the appellable decision; or
  - (b) amend the appellable decision; or
  - (c) substitute another decision for the appellable decision.
- (2) In substituting another decision for the appellable decision, the responsible tribunal has the same powers as the entity that made the appellable decision.

Note. This section is a Health Practitioner Regulation National Law provision (see section 202 of the National Law).

Note. Section 203 of the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law is not applicable to New South Wales.

Division 14B Miscellaneous [NSW]

176 Notice from adjudication body [NSW]

- (1) If an adjudication body, other than a court, makes a decision in relation to a health practitioner or student registered in a health profession, it must give written notice of the decision to the National Board for the profession.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), in this jurisdiction a decision by an adjudication body is any of the following—
  - (a) a decision by the adjudication body to impose or agree to conditions on a registered health practitioner's or student's registration;
  - (b) a decision by the adjudication body to suspend a registered health practitioner's or student's registration;
  - (c) a decision by the adjudication body to cancel a registered health practitioner's or student's registration.

Note. This subsection is an additional New South Wales provision.

- (3) The notice must state—
  - (a) the decision made by the adjudication body; and
  - (b) the reasons for the decision; and
  - (c) the date the decision takes effect; and
  - (d) any action the National Board must take to give effect to the decision.

176A Implementation of decisions

- (1) A National Board must give effect to a decision of an adjudication body unless the decision is stayed on appeal.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the National Board must, if the notice given to the Board states that a health practitioner's or student's registration is cancelled, remove the practitioner's or student's name from the appropriate register kept by the Board.

Note. This section is a Health Practitioner Regulation National Law provision (see section 205 of the National Law).

176B National Board to give notice to registered health practitioner's employer

- (1) This section applies if—
  - (a) a National Board—
    - (i) decides to take health, conduct or performance action against a registered health practitioner; or
    - (ii) receives notice from an adjudication body that the adjudication body has decided to take health, conduct or performance action against a registered health practitioner; or
    - (iii) receives notice from a co-regulatory authority that an adjudication body in the co-regulatory jurisdiction has decided to take health, conduct or performance action against a registered health practitioner; and
  - (b) the National Board has been advised by the registered health practitioner that the practitioner is employed by another entity.

Note. Under section 132, a National Board may ask a registered health practitioner to give the Board information about whether or not the practitioner is employed by another entity and, if so, for the employer's details.

- (2) The National Board must, as soon as practicable after making the decision or receiving the notice, give written notice of the decision to take health, conduct or performance action against the registered health practitioner to the practitioner's employer.

Note. This section is a Health Practitioner Regulation National Law provision (see section 206 of the National Law).

176C Adjudication body to consider impact of decision on third parties [NSW]

- (1) If an adjudication body proposes to make a decision that, in the body's opinion, will impose an appreciable burden on an identifiable third party in connection with a registered health practitioner's practice or clinical training undertaken by a student, the body—
  - (a) must give the third party an opportunity to make submission to the body with respect to the decision; and
  - (b) must take the submission into account before giving the direction or making the order.

- (2) If an adjudication body makes a decision that will, in the body's opinion, impose an appreciable burden on an identifiable third party in connection with a registered health practitioner's practice or clinical training undertaken by a student, the body must give the third party notice of the decision as soon as practicable after it is made.
  - (3) An example of a decision that may impose an appreciable burden on an identifiable third party in connection with a registered health practitioner's practice is a decision that has the effect of requiring the practice of a registered health practitioner to be supervised by an identified third party.
  - (4) In this section—
adjudication body means—
    - (a) a Committee;
    - (b) a Council;
    - (c) a Panel;
    - (d) a Tribunal.

third party means a health service provider other than the registered health practitioner to whom an inquiry relates, but does not include a person or body exercising functions conferred by this Law or the Health Care Complaints Act 1993.

Note. This section is a New South Wales provision.

176D Effect of suspension

If a person's registration as a health practitioner or student is suspended under this Law the person is taken during the period of suspension not to be registered under this Law, other than for the purposes of this Part.

Note. This section is a Health Practitioner Regulation National Law provision (see section 207 of the National Law).

176E Protection from liability for certain publications [NSW]

- (1) A publication in good faith of a written statement of a decision made by a Council, a Committee, a Panel or a Tribunal does not subject a protected person to any liability (including liability in defamation).

- (2) In this section—
protected person means—
- (a) a Council, a Committee, a Panel or a Tribunal or a member of a Council, a Committee, a Panel or a Tribunal; or
  - (b) the proprietor, editor or publisher of a newspaper; or
  - (c) the proprietor or broadcaster of a radio or television station or the producer of a radio or television show; or
  - (d) an Internet service provider or Internet content host; or
  - (e) a member of staff of, or a person acting at the direction of, a person or entity referred to in this definition; or
  - (f) a person, or a person belonging to a class of persons, prescribed by the NSW regulations for the purposes of this section.

Note. This section is a New South Wales provision.

176F Confidentiality of protected reports

- (1) A person must not, directly or indirectly—
- (a) disclose a protected report to another person that the person has obtained in the exercise of the person's functions under this Law; or
  - (b) make a record of, or disclose to another person, information contained in a protected report that the person has obtained in the exercise of the person's functions under this Law

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the disclosure by a person of a protected report or information contained in a protected report—
- (a) for the purpose of exercising functions under this Law; or
  - (b) to the Commission.

- (3) A protected report may not be admitted or used in civil proceedings before a court other than with the consent of—
- (a) the person giving the report; and
  - (b) the person the subject of the report.
- (4) A person may not be compelled to produce a protected report, or to give evidence in relation to the report or its contents, in civil proceedings before a court.

Part 2 Provisions consequent on enactment of Health Practitioner Regulation Amendment Act 2010 [NSW]

Division 1 Preliminary [NSW]

2 Definitions [NSW]

In this Part—

commencement means commencement of this Part.

Division 2 Complaints and disciplinary proceedings [NSW]

3 Complaints made but not being dealt with on commencement [NSW]

- (1) This clause applies if, immediately before the commencement, a former Board had received but not started dealing with a complaint about a person registered in a health profession by the Board.
- (2) From the commencement, the complaint is taken to have been made to the Council established for the profession.

4 Relevant matters still being dealt with on participation day [NSW]

- (1) This clause applies if, immediately before the commencement, any of the following referrals, actions, applications or appeals (relevant matters) had been started but not completed under a repealed Act—
  - (a) the referral of a matter to an Impaired Registrants Panel;
  - (b) the referral of the professional performance of a health practitioner for assessment;
  - (c) the referral of a complaint to a Committee;
  - (d) the referral of a matter to a Performance Review Panel;
  - (e) an application for a review;
  - (f) action by a former Board to suspend, or impose conditions on, a registered health practitioner's registration under public protection provision;

- (g) the referral of a complaint or another matter to a Tribunal;
  - (h) an appeal or application to a Tribunal;
  - (i) an appeal to the Supreme Court.
- (2) From the commencement, the relevant matter is to continue to be dealt with under the repealed Act under which it was made.
- (3) After the relevant matter has been decided under the repealed Act, any further proceedings or appeal in relation to the matter the subject of the relevant matter is to be dealt with under this Law as if the relevant matter had been decided under this Law.
- (4) For the purposes of this clause, the repealed Act applies—
- (a) as if a reference to the former Board were a reference to the Council; and
  - (b) with any other changes that are necessary or convenient.
- (5) The National Board for the health profession must give effect to a decision made in relation to a relevant matter under a repealed Act, and the decision continues to apply, as if it were a decision made under this Law.
- (6) In this clause—
- public protection provision means any of the following provisions—
- (a) section 54 of the Chiropractors Act 2001;

- (2) Without limiting subclause (1), the approval, authorisation or consent continues subject to any conditions that applied to it immediately before the commencement.

23 Application for approval, authorisation or consent [NSW]

An application for an approval, authorisation or consent made under Part 3 of the Pharmacy Practice Act 2006 but not decided immediately before the commencement is taken, after the commencement, to be an application made to the Pharmacy Council of New South Wales under Schedule 5F.

24 Appointment of responsible pharmacist continues [NSW]

An appointment under clause 9 of the Pharmacy Practice Regulation 2008 in force immediately before the commencement continues after the commencement as if it had been made under this Law.

25 Register of Pharmacies [NSW]

The Register of Pharmacies kept under the Pharmacy Practice Act 2006 immediately before the commencement is taken, from the commencement, to be the Register of Pharmacies kept by the Pharmacy Council of New South Wales under this Law.

26 Inspectors [NSW]

A person who immediately before the commencement was an inspector under the Pharmacy Practice Act 2006 is taken, from the commencement, to be an authorised person appointed under this Law.

Division 7 Miscellaneous [NSW]

27 Principal place of practice [NSW]

A person who was, immediately before the commencement, registered as a health practitioner under a repealed Act is taken on the commencement to have declared the address recorded for the person in the Register kept under that Act as being the person's principal place of practice.

28 References to former Boards in conditions [NSW]

- (1) This clause applies if—
  - (a) a registered health practitioner's or student's registration is subject to a condition under section 279; and
  - (b) the condition includes a reference to a former Board.
- (2) From the commencement, the reference to the former Board is taken to be a reference to—
  - (a) the Council established for the same health profession as the profession for which the former Board was established; or
  - (b) if the Council gives the registered health practitioner or student written notice that the reference is taken to be a reference to the National Board for the profession, the National Board.

Schedule 5B Provisions relating to performance assessments [NSW]

Note. This Schedule is an additional New South Wales provision.

Part 1 Provisions relating to assessors [NSW]

1 General [NSW]

- (1) An assessor may exercise the powers conferred by this Part only for the purpose of conducting a performance assessment when required by a Council or a Performance Review Panel.
- (2) The performance assessment must be conducted in accordance with any directions given by the Council or the Performance Review Panel.
- (3) If the Council or the Panel instructs the assessor to limit the performance assessment to a particular aspect or aspects of the registered health practitioner's professional performance, the assessment must be limited to that aspect or those aspects.
- (4) However, the assessor may assess other aspects of the professional performance of the registered health practitioner if during the course of the performance assessment the assessor forms the opinion that other aspects of the professional performance of the practitioner may be unsatisfactory and should be assessed.

2 Entry to premises [NSW]

- (1) An assessor may at any reasonable time enter and inspect—
  - (a) any premises that the assessor reasonably believes are used by a registered health practitioner in connection with his or her professional practice; and
  - (b) any premises in or on which the assessor reasonably believes records relating to the carrying out of a professional practice by a registered health practitioner are kept.

- (2) An assessor may enter premises only—
- (a) with the consent of the occupier and the health practitioner to whom the performance assessment relates; or
  - (b) after having given the occupier of the premises, and the health practitioner to whom the performance assessment relates, at least 14 days notice of the assessor's intention to enter the premises.
- (3) On premises entered on the basis that they are used by a registered health practitioner in connection with his or her professional practice, an assessor has the following powers—
- (a) power to examine any equipment that the assessor reasonably believes is, has or may be used in connection with the professional practice;
  - (b) power to take photographs of the premises, or of any equipment on the premises (being equipment that the assessor reasonably believes is, has or may be used in connection with the professional practice);
  - (c) power to require the production of and inspect any stocks of any substance or drugs in or about those premises;
  - (d) power to require any person on those premises to produce any records in the possession or under the control of that person relating to the carrying out of that professional practice;
  - (e) power to take copies of, or extracts or notes from, the records;
  - (f) power to ask questions of any person on those premises;
  - (g) power to require the owner or occupier of those premises to provide the assessor with the assistance and facilities reasonably necessary to enable the assessor to exercise the functions of an assessor under this clause.
- (4) On premises entered on the basis that records relating to the carrying out of professional practice by a registered health practitioner are kept there, an assessor has the following powers—
- (a) power to require any person on those premises to produce any records in the possession or under the control of that person and relating to the carrying out of that professional practice;

- (b) power to take copies of, or extracts or notes from, the records.
- (5) This clause does not authorise an assessor to enter any part of premises that is being used for residential purposes except with the consent of the occupier.
- (6) This clause does not authorise an assessor to require a person to answer any question, and a failure or refusal by a person to answer any question does not constitute an offence against clause 5.
- (7) However, a failure or refusal by a registered health practitioner, without reasonable excuse, to answer any question asked by an assessor is evidence that the professional performance of the registered health practitioner is unsatisfactory.

3 Power to conduct assessment exercise [NSW]

- (1) A Council may, by notice given to a registered health practitioner who is the subject of a performance assessment, require the practitioner to take part in an assessment exercise.
- (2) An assessment exercise is an exercise during which the assessor observes and assesses the professional performance of the registered health practitioner.
- (3) If practicable an assessment exercise must be based on an actual clinical situation (that is, an actual consultation or examination or the giving or performance of any other treatment, by a registered health practitioner).
- (4) However, an assessment exercise may be based on a simulated clinical situation (for example, a mock consultation) if an actual clinical situation is not practicable in the circumstances.
- (5) The time and place for, and the length of, the assessment exercise must be reasonable.
- (6) A failure or refusal by a registered health practitioner to take part in, or to continue with, an assessment exercise does not constitute an offence against clause 5.
- (7) However, a failure or refusal by a registered health practitioner, without reasonable excuse, to take part in or to continue with an assessment exercise is evidence that the professional conduct of the registered health practitioner is unsatisfactory.

- (8) This clause does not authorise an assessor to be present during any examination of a person, or at the giving or performance of any other health service or treatment by a registered health practitioner in respect of a person, without the consent of the person.

4 Answers to questions [NSW]

- (1) Any information furnished by a person in answering a question asked by an assessor for the purposes of a performance assessment is not admissible against the person in civil proceedings before a court except with the consent of the person.
- (2) Subclause (1) does not extend to any information furnished by a person that is a record required to be kept by or under this Law or any other Act.

5 Offences [NSW]

A person must not—

- (a) prevent an assessor from exercising a function conferred or imposed on the assessor under this Schedule; or
- (b) hinder or obstruct an assessor in the exercise of a function conferred or imposed on the assessor under this Schedule; or
- (c) furnish an assessor with information knowing it to be false or misleading in a material particular.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) for an offence under paragraph (a) or (b)—50 penalty units; or
- (b) for an offence under paragraph (c)—20 penalty units.

6 Offence of impersonating assessor [NSW]

A person must not impersonate or falsely represent that the person is an assessor.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

7 Certificates of authority [NSW]

- (1) An assessor must be provided with a certificate of authority in a form approved by the Council that appointed the assessor.
- (2) An assessor must, on exercising in any place any function of the assessor under this Schedule, produce the assessor's certificate of authority to any person apparently in charge of the place who requests its production.

Part 2 Provisions relating to performance reviews [NSW]

8 Conduct of performance review [NSW]

- (1) A performance review must be conducted in the way decided by the Performance Review Panel.
- (2) The performance review must be conducted—
  - (a) with as little formality and technicality, and as much expedition, as the requirements of this Law and the proper consideration of the matter permit; and
  - (b) in the absence of the public.
- (3) In conducting a performance review a Performance Review Panel is not bound by the rules of evidence but may inform itself on any matter in any way it thinks appropriate.

9 Power to summon witnesses and take evidence [NSW]

- (1) The Chairperson of a Performance Review Panel may summon a person to appear at a performance review and to produce the documents (if any) referred to in the summons.
- (2) The Chairperson of the Panel may require a person appearing at the performance review to produce a document.
- (3) A person served with a summons to appear at a performance review to give evidence must not, without reasonable excuse—
  - (a) fail to attend as required by the summons; or

- (b) fail to attend from day to day unless excused, or released from further attendance, by a member of the Panel.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

- (4) A person appearing at a performance review to give evidence must not, without reasonable excuse—
  - (a) fail to answer a question that the person is required to answer by the Chairperson of the Panel; or
  - (b) fail to produce a document that the person is required to produce by this clause.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

10 Power to obtain documents [NSW]

- (1) A member of a Performance Review Panel may, by notice in writing served on a person, require the person—
  - (a) to attend, at a time and place specified in the notice, before a person specified in the notice, being a member of the Performance Review Panel or a person authorised by the Panel in that behalf; and
  - (b) to produce, at that time and place, to the person so specified a document specified in the notice.
- (2) A person who fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with a notice served on the person under this clause is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

11 Practitioner entitled to make representations [NSW]

- (1) A registered health practitioner who is the subject of a performance review is entitled to attend at the performance review and make oral or written representations to the Performance Review Panel with respect to the subject matter of the performance review.
- (2) The registered health practitioner is entitled to be accompanied by an Australian legal practitioner or other adviser, but is not entitled to be represented by the Australian legal practitioner or other adviser.
- (3) This clause does not prevent a Performance Review Panel from conducting a performance review in the absence of the registered health practitioner, as long as the practitioner has been informed of the performance review.

12 Panel may obtain reports [NSW]

A Performance Review Panel may, for the purpose of conducting a performance review, obtain a report from a person who, in the Panel's opinion, is sufficiently qualified or experienced to give expert advice on the matter that is the subject of the performance review.

13 Assessors may assist Panel [NSW]

- (1) The Council that established a Performance Review Panel may appoint one or more assessors to assist the Panel with the performance review.
- (2) The Panel may direct an assessor—
  - (a) to conduct an assessment of the professional performance of a registered health practitioner, and report on that assessment to the Panel; and
  - (b) to provide the other assistance in connection with the performance review the Panel directs.

14 Release of information [NSW]

- (1) The Chairperson of a Performance Review Panel may, if the Chairperson thinks it appropriate in the particular circumstances of the case (and whether or not on the request of the practitioner concerned or any other person)—
  - (a) direct that the name of any witness is not to be disclosed in the performance review; or
  - (b) direct that all or any of the following matters are not to be published—
    - (i) the name and address of any witness;
    - (ii) the name and address of a registered health practitioner;
    - (iii) any specified evidence;
    - (iv) the subject-matter of the performance review.
- (2) A direction may be amended or revoked at any time by the Chairperson of the Panel.
- (3) A direction may be given before or during a performance review, but must not be given before the performance review unless notice is given of the time and place appointed by the Chairperson of the Panel for consideration of the matter to the following persons—

- (a) a person who requested the direction;
  - (b) the practitioner concerned;
  - (c) another person the person presiding thinks fit.
- (4) A person who contravenes a direction given under this clause is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) in the case of a corporation, 150 penalty units; or
- (b) in any other case, 20 penalty units.

Part 2 Members of Councils [NSW]

10 President and Deputy President of Council [NSW]

- (1) Of the members of a Council—
  - (a) one who is registered in the health profession for which the Council is established must be appointed as President of the Council; and
  - (b) one must be appointed as Deputy President of the Council.
- (2) The appointments are to be made in and by the relevant instrument of appointment as a member of the Council, or by another instrument executed by the Governor.
- (3) A person who is the President or Deputy President vacates office as President or Deputy President if the person—
  - (a) is removed from that office by the Governor under subclause (4); or
  - (b) resigns that office by instrument in writing addressed to the Minister; or
  - (c) ceases to be a member.
- (4) The Governor may remove a member from the office of President or Deputy President.

11 Acting members and acting President [NSW]

- (1) The Governor may, from time to time, appoint a person to act in the office of a member of a Council during the illness or absence of the member, and the person, while so acting, has and may exercise all the functions of the member and is taken to be a member.
- (2) The Deputy President may act in the office of President during the illness or absence of the President, and while so acting has and may exercise all the functions of the President and is taken to be the President.
- (3) The Governor may, from time to time, appoint a member to act in the office of President during the illness or absence of both the President and Deputy President, and the member, while so acting, has and may exercise all the functions of the President and is taken to be the President.

- (4) A person is not eligible to be appointed under subclause (1) to act in the office of a member of the Council required to be a registered health practitioner nominated by a particular body unless the person is a member of that body.
- (5) The Governor may remove any person from any office to which the person was appointed under this clause.
- (6) A person while acting in the office of a member is entitled to be paid the remuneration (including travelling and subsistence allowances) decided by the Minister from time to time.
- (7) For the purposes of this clause, a vacancy in the office of a member, the President or the Deputy President is taken to be an absence from office of the member, President or Deputy President.

12 Terms of office [NSW]

- (1) Subject to this Schedule, a member of a Council holds office for the period, not exceeding 3 years, specified in the instrument of appointment of the member, but is eligible (if otherwise qualified) for re-appointment.
- (2) A person may not hold office as a member of a Council for consecutive terms of office totalling more than 9 years.

13 Remuneration [NSW]

- (1) A member of a Council is entitled to be paid the remuneration (including travelling and subsistence allowances) decided by the Minister from time to time.
- (2) A member of a Council is, while sitting on an inquiry, entitled to be paid at a rate decided by the Minister.
- (3) A Council may pay a member of the Council who performs any service for the Council the amount the Minister considers appropriate.

14 Filling of vacancy in office of member [NSW]

If the office of any member of a Council becomes vacant, a person must be nominated by the Minister to fill the vacancy.

15 Casual vacancies [NSW]

- (1) A member of a Council vacates office if the member—
- (a) dies; or
  - (b) absents himself or herself from 4 consecutive meetings of the Council of which reasonable notice has been given to the member personally or in the ordinary course of post, except on leave granted by the Minister or unless, before the expiration of 4 weeks after the last of those meetings, the member is excused by the Minister for being absent from those meetings; or
  - (c) becomes bankrupt, applies to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, compounds with his or her creditors or makes an assignment of his or her remuneration for their benefit; or
  - (d) becomes a mentally incapacitated person; or
  - (e) is convicted in this jurisdiction of an offence that is punishable by imprisonment for 12 months or more or is convicted elsewhere than in this jurisdiction of an offence that, if committed in this jurisdiction, would be an offence so punishable; or
  - (f) ceases to have any qualification necessary for his or her appointment as a member, other than the nomination of a particular person or body; or
  - (g) resigns the office by instrument in writing addressed to the Minister; or
  - (h) is removed from office by the Governor under subclause (2) or (3).
- (2) The Governor may remove a member from office.
- (3) Without limiting subclause (2), the Governor may remove from office a member who contravenes the provisions of clause 16.

16 Disclosure of pecuniary interests [NSW]

- (1) A member of a Council who has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest—
- (a) in a matter that is being considered, or is about to be considered, at a meeting of the Council; or must, as soon as possible after the relevant facts have come to the member's knowledge, disclose the nature of the interest at a meeting of the Council.

(b) in a thing being done or about to be done by the Council;

(2) A disclosure by a member at a meeting of a Council that the member—

(a) is a member, or is in the employment, of a specified company or other body; or

(b) is a partner, or is in the employment, of a specified person; or

(c) has some other specified interest relating to a specified company or other body or a specified person; is taken to be a sufficient disclosure of the nature of the interest in any matter or thing relating to that company or other body or to that person which may arise after the date of the disclosure.

(3) A Council must cause particulars of any disclosure made under this clause to be recorded in a book kept for the purpose and that book must be open at all reasonable hours for inspection by any person on payment of the fee decided by the Council from time to time.

(4) After a member has, or is taken to have, disclosed the nature of an interest in any matter or thing pursuant to this clause, the member must not, unless the Council otherwise determines—

(a) be present during any deliberation of the Council, or take part in any decision of the Council, with respect to that matter; or

(b) exercise any functions under this Law with respect to that thing.

(5) Even if a member contravenes the provisions of this clause, the contravention does not invalidate any decision of the Council or the exercise of any function under this Law.

(6) This clause does not apply to or in respect of an interest of a member in a matter or thing which arises merely because the member is a registered health practitioner.

- (7) A reference in this clause to a meeting of the Council includes a reference to a meeting of a committee of the Council.

17 Effect of certain other Acts [NSW]

- (1) Chapter 2 of the Public Sector Employment and Management Act 2002 does not apply to or in respect of the appointment of a member of a Council and a member is not, as a member, subject to that Act.
- (2) If by or under any other Act provision is made—
- (a) requiring a person who is the holder of a specified office to devote the whole of his or her time to the duties of that office; or
- (b) prohibiting the person from engaging in employment outside the duties of that office;
- that provision does not operate to disqualify the person from holding that office and also the office of a member or from accepting and retaining any remuneration payable to the person under this Law as a member.
- (3) The office of a member is not for the purposes of any Act, an office or place of profit under the Crown.

Part 3 Procedure of Councils [NSW]

18 General procedure [NSW]

The procedure for the calling of meetings of a Council and for the conduct of business at those meetings is, subject to this Law, as decided by the Council.

19 Quorum [NSW]

Except as otherwise provided by this Law, the quorum for a meeting of the Council is the number equal to half of the number of its members or, if half is not a whole number, the next highest whole number.

20 Presiding member [NSW]

- (1) The President or, in the absence of the President, the Deputy President or in the absence of both of them, another member of a Council elected to chair the meeting by the members present, must preside at a meeting of the Council.

- (2) The person presiding at any meeting of a Council has a deliberative vote and, in the event of an equality of votes, has a second or casting vote.

21 Voting [NSW]

A decision supported by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting of a Council at which a quorum is present is the decision of the Council.

22 Minutes [NSW]

A Council must cause full and accurate minutes to be kept of the proceedings of each meeting of the Council.

Schedule 5D Proceedings before Professional Standards
Committees or Tribunals [NSW]

Note. This Schedule is an additional New South Wales provision.

1 Definition [NSW]

In this Schedule—

Committee means a Professional Standards Committee.

2 Proceedings generally [NSW]

In proceedings before it, a Committee or Tribunal is not bound to observe the rules of law governing the admission of evidence, but may inform itself of any matter in the way it thinks fit.

3 Power to summon witnesses and take evidence [NSW]

- (1) The Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson of a Committee or Tribunal may summon a person to appear in proceedings before the Committee or Tribunal to give evidence and to produce the documents (if any) referred to in the summons.
- (2) The person presiding at the proceedings may require a person appearing in the proceedings to produce a document.
- (3) A Committee or Tribunal may, in proceedings before it, take evidence on oath or affirmation and, for that purpose a member of the Committee or Tribunal—
  - (a) may require a person appearing in the proceedings to give evidence either to take an oath or to make an

- affirmation in a form approved by the person presiding; and
- (b) may administer an oath to or take an affirmation from a person so appearing in the proceedings.
- (4) A person served with a summons to appear in proceedings before a Committee or Tribunal proceedings and to give evidence must not, without reasonable excuse—
- (a) fail to attend as required by the summons; or
  - (b) fail to attend from day to day unless excused, or released from further attendance, by a member of the Committee or Tribunal.
- (5) A person appearing in proceedings to give evidence must not, without reasonable excuse—
- (a) when required to be sworn or affirm—fail to comply with the requirement; or
  - (b) fail to answer a question that the person is required to answer by the person presiding; or
  - (c) fail to produce a document that the person is required to produce by this clause.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

4 Power to obtain documents [NSW]

- (1) A member of a Committee or Tribunal may, by notice in writing served on a person, require the person—
  - (a) to attend, at a time and place specified in the notice, before a person specified in the notice, being a member of the Committee or Tribunal or a person authorised by the Committee or Tribunal in that behalf; and
  - (b) to produce, at that time and place, to the person so specified a document specified in the notice.
- (2) A person who fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with a notice served on the person under this clause is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

5 Evidence of other proceedings [NSW]

- (1) A Committee or Tribunal may receive and admit on production any of the following, as evidence in any proceedings—
- (a) the judgment and findings of a court (whether civil or criminal and whether or not of this jurisdiction);
  - (b) the verdict or findings of a jury of a court (whether civil or criminal and whether or not of this jurisdiction);
  - (c) the judgment and findings of a tribunal (whether or not of this jurisdiction);
  - (d) a finding, decision or determination of a Professional Standards Committee established under this Law or a corresponding prior Act;
  - (e) a decision of a performance and professional standards panel established under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law;
  - (f) a certificate of the conviction of or the making of a criminal finding in respect of any person;
  - (g) a transcript of the depositions or of shorthand notes, duly certified by the Registrar or clerk of the court or tribunal as correct, of the evidence of witnesses taken in a court or tribunal referred to in paragraphs (a)–(c);
- where the Committee or Tribunal is of the opinion that the judgment, findings, verdict, certificate, decision, determination or evidence is relevant to the proceedings.
- (2) If the Committee or Tribunal is of the opinion that evidence so admitted is capable of establishing that a registered health practitioner has engaged in conduct that is sufficiently similar to the conduct alleged against the practitioner in the proceedings, it may rely on the evidence in—
- (a) making a finding that a registered health practitioner is guilty of unsatisfactory professional conduct or professional misconduct; or
  - (b) exercising any of its powers under Subdivision 3 or 6 of Division 3 of Part 8.

6 Additional complaints [NSW]

- (1) A Committee or Tribunal may in proceedings before it deal with one or more complaints about a registered health practitioner or student.
- (2) If, during the proceedings, it appears to the Committee or Tribunal that, having regard to any matters that have arisen, another complaint could have been made against the practitioner or student concerned—
  - (a) whether instead of or in addition to the complaint which was made; and
  - (b) whether or not by the same complainant;the Committee or Tribunal may take that other complaint to have been referred to it and may deal with it in the same proceedings.
- (3) In proceedings in which a Committee or Tribunal is dealing with more than one complaint about a registered health practitioner or student, the Committee or Tribunal may have regard to all the evidence before it (whether the evidence arose in relation to a complaint in respect of which the Committee or Tribunal is making a finding or any other complaint or complaints in the proceedings) when making any of the following findings—
  - (a) a finding on a question of fact in relation to the conduct of a registered health practitioner or student;
  - (b) a finding that a registered health practitioner is guilty of unsatisfactory professional conduct or professional misconduct.
- (4) If another complaint is taken to have been referred to a Committee or Tribunal under subclause (2), the complaint may be dealt with the adjournment (if any) that, in the Committee's or Tribunal's opinion, is just and equitable in the circumstances.

7 Release of information [NSW]

- (1) The person presiding in proceedings before a Committee or Tribunal may, if the person presiding thinks it appropriate in the particular circumstances of the case (and whether or not on the request of a complainant, the registered health practitioner or student concerned or any other person)—

- (a) direct that the name of any witness is not to be disclosed in the proceedings; or
  - (b) direct that all or any of the following matters are not to be published—
    - (i) the name and address of any witness;
    - (ii) the name and address of a complainant;
    - (iii) the name and address of a registered health practitioner or student;
    - (iv) any specified evidence;
    - (v) the subject-matter of a complaint.
- (2) A direction may be amended or revoked at any time by the person presiding.
- (3) A direction may be given before or during proceedings, but must not be given before the proceedings unless notice is given of the time and place appointed by the person presiding for consideration of the matter to—
- (a) a person who requested the direction; and
  - (b) the complainant or the registered health practitioner or student concerned, as appropriate; and
  - (c) another person the person presiding thinks fit.
- (4) For the purposes of this clause, a reference to the name of any person includes a reference to any information, picture or other material that identifies the person or is likely to lead to the identification of the person.
- (5) A person who contravenes a direction given under this clause is guilty of an offence.
- Maximum penalty—
- (a) in the case of a corporation, 150 penalty units; or
  - (b) in any other case, 20 penalty units.

8 Authentication of documents by Committee or Tribunal [NSW]

Every document requiring authentication by a Committee or Tribunal may be sufficiently authenticated if signed by the Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson of that Committee or Tribunal or by a member of that Committee or Tribunal authorised to do so by the Chairperson.

9 Nominal complainant [NSW]

- (1) In any proceedings before a Committee or Tribunal, a person appointed by the Commission—
  - (a) may act as nominal complainant in place of the actual complainant; and
  - (b) when so acting, is, for the purposes of this Law and the NSW regulations, to be taken to be the person who made the complaint.
- (2) A reference in this Law to a complainant includes a reference to a nominal complainant.

10 Intervention by Director-General and Commission [NSW]

Without limiting the operation of clause 9, the Director-General personally (or an officer of the Department of Health appointed by the Director-General) or a person appointed by the Commission may intervene, and has a right to be heard, in any proceedings before a Committee or Tribunal.

11 Expedition of inquiries and appeals [NSW]

- (1) It is the duty of a Committee or Tribunal to hear inquiries and appeals under this Law and to determine those inquiries and appeals expeditiously.
- (2) Without limiting subclause (1)—
  - (a) an inquiry or appeal related to action taken by the Council under section 150 must be listed for hearing by a Committee or Tribunal as soon as practicable; and
  - (b) a Committee or Tribunal may postpone or adjourn proceedings before it as it thinks fit.

12 Certain complaints may not be heard [NSW]

- (1) A Committee or Tribunal may decide not to conduct an inquiry, or at any time to terminate an inquiry or appeal, if—
  - (a) any of the following circumstances apply—
    - (i) a complainant fails to comply with a requirement made of the complainant by the Committee or Tribunal;

- (ii) the person about whom the complaint is made ceases to be a registered health practitioner or student;
    - (iii) the complaint before the Committee or Tribunal is withdrawn; and
  - (b) in the opinion of the Committee or Tribunal it is not in the public interest for the inquiry or appeal to continue.
- (2) A Committee or Tribunal must not conduct or continue any inquiry or any appeal if the registered health practitioner or student concerned dies.
  - (3) The power conferred on a Committee or Tribunal by this clause may be exercised by the Chairperson of the Committee or Tribunal and, if exercised by the Chairperson, is taken to have been exercised by the Committee or Tribunal.

13 Tribunal may award costs [NSW]

- (1) A Tribunal may order the complainant (if any), the registered health practitioner or student concerned, or any other person entitled to appear (whether as of right or because leave to appear has been granted) at an inquiry or appeal before the Tribunal to pay costs to another person as decided by the Tribunal.
- (2) When an order for costs has taken effect, the Tribunal is, on application by the person to whom the costs have been awarded, to issue a certificate setting out the terms of the order and stating that the order has taken effect.
- (3) The person in whose favour costs are awarded may file the certificate in the District Court, together with an affidavit by the person as to the amount of the costs unpaid, and the Registrar of the District Court must enter judgment for the amount unpaid together with any fees paid for filing the certificate.

2 Meaning of “pecuniary interest” [NSW]

- (1) A pecuniary interest means a direct or indirect monetary or financial interest and includes—
- (a) a proprietary interest, including a proprietary interest as a sole proprietor, partner, director, member or shareholder, or trustee or beneficiary; and
  - (b) an interest, whether proprietary or otherwise, in a pharmacy business that a person has because the person is a member or shareholder of—
    - (i) an exempted body corporate; or
    - (ii) a holding company, whether a listed corporation or not, of an exempted body corporate that is not a listed corporation; and
  - (c) an interest, whether proprietary or otherwise, in a pharmacy business that a person has because the person is a trustee or beneficiary of a trust, the trust property of which includes shares in—
    - (i) an exempted body corporate; or
    - (ii) a holding company, whether a listed corporation or not, of an exempted body corporate that is not a listed corporation; and
  - (d) an interest, whether proprietary or otherwise, in a pharmacy business that a person has because the person is a trustee or beneficiary of a trust, being a trust the trustees of which, in their capacity as the trustees of that trust, carry on or have a pecuniary interest in the business.
- (2) However, a pecuniary interest does not include—
- (a) an interest in a pharmacy business that a person has because the person is—
    - (i) a member of a friendly or other society that has a pecuniary interest in a pharmacy business permitted by clause 6; or
    - (ii) a member of a listed corporation that is an exempted body corporate; or
  - (b) an interest in a pharmacy business that a person has because the person is a member of an exempted body corporate (other than a listed corporation referred to in subclause (1)(b)(ii)), but only if the person was a member of the body corporate before the commencement of Schedule 7.12 to the Pharmacy Practice Act 2006; or

- (c) an interest a person has in the profits of a pharmacy business because the person is an employee employed in that business, other than an interest constituted by legal or beneficial ownership of shares or other securities of a body corporate (issued as part of an employee share scheme or otherwise); or
- (d) an interest that is prescribed by the NSW regulations as not constituting a pecuniary interest for the purposes of this Schedule.

Part 2 Control of pharmacies [NSW]

3 Pharmacies to be approved and holders of pecuniary interests registered [NSW]

- (1) A person must not carry on a pharmacy business unless—
  - (a) the premises on which the pharmacy business is carried on are the subject of a current approval of the Council; and
  - (b) all holders of a pecuniary interest in the pharmacy business are registered in the Register of Pharmacies.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

- (2) Despite subclause (1)(b), a person who has lodged an application under clause 12(1)(b) may carry on the pharmacy business to which the application relates until the Council decides the application if—
  - (a) the premises at which the business is carried on are the subject of a current approval of the Council; and
  - (b) a holder of a pecuniary interest in the business who is not the subject of the application is registered in the Register of Pharmacies.

4 Notification of pecuniary interests in pharmacy businesses [NSW]

- (1) A person who intends to acquire a pecuniary interest in a pharmacy business (other than an interest referred to in clause 5(4)) must, at least 14 days before acquiring the interest, give written notice to the Council of the following matters—

- (a) the nature of the interest and the date on which it is intended to be acquired;
- (b) the basis on which the person is entitled to hold the interest under this Schedule (for example, as a pharmacist, a pharmacists' body corporate or a friendly or other society);
- (c) a copy of any bill of sale in relation to the acquisition;
- (d) a copy of any sale agreement for the business;
- (e) a copy of any partnership agreement for the business;
- (f) a copy of any lease for the pharmacy;
- (g) a copy of any agreement under which any other person has a pecuniary interest in the business;
- (h) a copy of any agreement, between persons who have pecuniary interests in the business, that makes provision for any rights the persons possess because of having the pecuniary interests;
- (i) a copy of any agreement for the provision of management services to the business or to any pharmacists' body corporate that owns an interest in the business;
- (j) a copy of any agreement (except a contract of employment) between any person who has a pecuniary interest in the business and any entity in respect of the provision of accounting, information technology, human resources or other support services to the business;
- (k) if a pharmacists' body corporate or a pharmacist is acting as a trustee (whether of a fixed trust, unit trust, discretionary trust or other kind of trust), a copy of any relevant trust deed;
- (l) a copy of any security interest in respect of the business.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

- (2) A person who acquires a pecuniary interest in a pharmacy business as referred to in clause 5(4) must, within 28 days after acquiring the interest, give written notice to the Council of that fact, the nature of the interest concerned and the date on which it was acquired.
Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.
- (3) A person who ceases to have a pecuniary interest in a pharmacy business must, within 14 days after doing so, give written notice to the Council of that fact and the nature of the interest concerned.
Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.
- (4) The NSW regulations may prescribe additional matters to be included in a notice under this clause.

5 Restrictions on who may have pecuniary interest in pharmacy business [NSW]

- (1) A person must not own or otherwise have a pecuniary interest in a pharmacy business (including as a partner or member of a firm) unless as one of the following—
  - (a) a pharmacist;
  - (b) a partner in a pharmacists' partnership;
  - (c) a pharmacists' body corporate or a member of a pharmacists' body corporate.Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.
- (2) Subclause (1) does not prevent a person from having a pecuniary interest in a pharmacy business—
  - (a) if the person—
    - (i) comes into possession of the business or any assets of the business as a result of a default on an obligation secured by a security interest; and
    - (ii) does not have the pecuniary interest for more than 6 months (or the longer period specified by the Council by written notice given to the person) from the date the person comes into possession of the pharmacy business or assets; or
  - (b) if the person has the interest for a period of not more than 6 months (or the longer period specified by the

- Council by written notice given to the person) and the person has the interest because the person—
- (i) is the executor, administrator or trustee of the estate of a deceased person who carried on the pharmacy business on the day of his or her death; or
  - (ii) is appointed or authorised under the laws relating to bankruptcy to administer the property of the person who carried on a pharmacy business and who has become bankrupt; or
- (c) if the person—
- (i) is a pharmacist whose registration is cancelled or suspended; and
  - (ii) owned or otherwise had a pecuniary interest in a pharmacy business immediately before the cancellation or suspension took effect; and
  - (iii) does not have the pecuniary interest for a period of more than 6 months immediately following the day on which the cancellation or suspension took effect; or
- (d) in circumstances prescribed by the NSW regulations.
- (3) Despite subclause (2)(b) and (c), a person may have a pecuniary interest in a pharmacy business under those paragraphs only if the business is in the charge of a pharmacist who personally supervises the carrying on of that business.
- (4) A person who has a pecuniary interest in a pharmacy business under subclause (2)(c) must not, during the period during which the person holds the interest, enter or be in premises in which that business is carried on unless the person—
- (a) has the Council's consent; and
  - (b) complies with any conditions imposed by the Council in giving its consent.
- (5) The Council may, at any time—
- (a) vary or revoke a consent; or
  - (b) vary or revoke a condition imposed on a consent.

- (6) A person who holds provisional, limited or non-practising registration in the pharmacy profession is taken not to be a pharmacist for the purposes of subclause (1) during the period of that registration.

Note. Clauses 6 and 7 provide for the exemption from subclause (1) of friendly and other societies and certain bodies corporate, respectively, in the circumstances set out in those clauses.

6 Exemption for friendly societies [NSW]

- (1) Clause 5 does not prevent a friendly society from owning or otherwise having a pecuniary interest in a pharmacy business in accordance with a written approval given by the Minister.
- (2) An approval must not be given unless—
- (a) the Minister is satisfied the net profits arising from the operation of the pharmacy business will be applied solely to the provision of benefits (other than benefits in the form of dividends or shares) to members of the friendly society; and
  - (b) the Minister is satisfied the operation of the pharmacy business is justified in the interests of members of the friendly society or of members of the public, or both; and
  - (c) the friendly society has nominated a pharmacist to be responsible for—
    - (i) ensuring there is displayed at or near the main entrance of each premises in which the business is carried on the owner's name; and
    - (ii) ensuring drug price information displayed in premises in which the business is carried on does not contravene the Price Information Code of Practice.
- (3) The Minister may—
- (a) give an approval unconditionally or subject to conditions; or
  - (b) at any time, vary or revoke an approval.
- (4) The Minister must revoke an approval given to a friendly society if the Minister is satisfied.
- (a) the net profits arising from the operation of the pharmacy business will no longer be applied solely to the provision of benefits to members of the friendly society in accordance with subclause (2)(a);

or

- (b) there is no longer a pharmacist nominated as being responsible for the matters specified in subclause (2)(c).
- (5) Clause 5 does not prevent a friendly or other society that was, immediately before the repeal of section 27A(1) of the Pharmacy Act 1964, lawfully carrying on a pharmacy business under that provision, from owning or otherwise having a pecuniary interest in a pharmacy business.
- (6) An approval granted to a friendly or other society under section 27A(2) of the Pharmacy Act 1964 and in force immediately before the repeal of that Act is taken to be an approval granted to the friendly society or other society (as if it were a friendly society), and in force, under subclause (1).
- (7) Subclause (4) does not apply in relation to a society referred to in subclause (6) that, immediately before the repeal of section 27A of the Pharmacy Act 1964, no longer satisfied the criteria referred to in section 27A(3)(a) of that Act.
- (8) A friendly or other society to which subclause (1), (5) or (6) applies must not own or otherwise have a pecuniary interest in more than 6 pharmacy businesses.
Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.
- (9) A pharmacy business and an associated professional services room are counted as one pharmacy business for the purposes of subclause (8).

7 Exemption for certain bodies corporate [NSW]

- (1) Clause 5 does not prevent an existing body corporate from continuing to carry on a pharmacy business or continuing to have a pecuniary interest in a pharmacy business in accordance with—
- (a) clause 21 of the Pharmacy (General) Regulation 1998 as in force immediately before its repeal; and
- (b) subclause (2).

- (2) The existing body corporate must nominate a pharmacist to be responsible for—
- (a) ensuring there is displayed at or near the main entrance of each premises in which the business is carried on the owner's name; and
  - (b) ensuring drug price information displayed in premises in which the business is carried on does not contravene the Price Information Code of Practice.

- (3) In this clause—

existing body corporate means a body corporate that, immediately before the repeal of the Pharmacy (General) Regulation 1998, lawfully carried on a pharmacy business or had a pecuniary interest in a pharmacy business under clause 21 of that Regulation.

Note. The definition of pecuniary interest in clause 2 operates to prohibit a person (other than a pharmacist, a partner in a pharmacists' partnership or a pharmacists' body corporate or a member of a pharmacists' body corporate) from having a pecuniary interest (including as a shareholder) in a body corporate to which this clause applies (other than a listed corporation). That prohibition, however, does not apply where the person was a member of the body corporate before the commencement of Schedule 7.12 to the Pharmacy Practice Act 2006.

8 Indicating a corporation or firm to be a pharmacy business [NSW]

- (1) A corporation must not indicate it is a pharmacy business unless it is—
- (a) a pharmacists' body corporate that carries on a pharmacy business; or
  - (b) a friendly or other society that has a pecuniary interest in a pharmacy business permitted by clause 6 and that carries on that business; or
  - (c) an exempted body corporate that carries on a pharmacy business.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

- (2) A person must not indicate a corporation is a pharmacy business if the person knows, or ought reasonably to know, an indication by the corporation itself would be a contravention of subclause (1).

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

- (3) A partner or member of a firm must not indicate the firm is a pharmacy business unless the firm is a pharmacists' partnership that carries on a pharmacy business.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

- (4) This clause does not apply to a person who has a pecuniary interest in a pharmacy business as referred to in clause 5(5), but only in relation to indications made in the course of, and in relation to, carrying on that business.

9 Restriction on number of pharmacy businesses in which pharmacists may have a pecuniary interest [NSW]

- (1) A pharmacist must not (whether as an individual or as a partner in a pharmacists' partnership or a member of a body corporate) own or otherwise have a pecuniary interest in more than 5 pharmacy businesses in this jurisdiction.

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.

- (2) A pharmacy business and an associated professional services room are counted as one pharmacy business for the purposes of subclause (1).

10 Certain provisions in certain instruments to be void [NSW]

- (1) Any of the following provisions in a lease or a licence, or an arrangement that creates a security interest, in respect of a pharmacy business is void—

- (a) a provision that requires the lessee or the licensee, or the grantor of the security interest (as the case may be), to purchase or otherwise obtain goods or services in connection with the business from the lessor or the licensor, or the grantee of the security interest;
- (b) a provision that gives to the lessor, the licensor or the grantee power to control the way in which the business is to be carried on (including power to decide whether or not the pharmacy may participate in any public health programs);
- (c) a provision that gives to the lessor, the licensor or the grantee access to the books of account kept for the business, other than for the purposes of determining whether or not the lessee, the licensee or grantor is complying with the terms and conditions of the lease, licence or arrangement;

(d) a provision that provides that the lessor, the licensor or the grantee is to receive consideration that varies according to the profits or takings of the business.

(2) Subclause (1)(b) does not affect a provision relating to the opening or closing hours of a pharmacy business that is located in a retail shopping centre.

11 Pharmacist to be in charge of every pharmacy business [NSW]

(1) A pharmacy business carried on in approved premises must be in the charge of a pharmacist who must personally supervise the carrying on of the business.

(2) If a pharmacy business is carried on in approved premises in contravention of subclause (1), the following persons are guilty of an offence—

(a) the owner of the pharmacy business;

(b) the pharmacist in charge of the approved premises, if the pharmacist is required under the terms of the pharmacist's employment to be in charge of the approved premises at the time of the contravention.

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.

(3) It is a defence in proceedings against an owner for a contravention of subclause (1) if the owner proves to the satisfaction of the court that the owner used all due diligence to prevent the contravention.

(4) To avoid doubt, during a period in which a pharmacy business carried on in an associated professional services room, and the pharmacy business with which the premises are associated, operate simultaneously, subclause (1) requires each business to be in the charge of a separate pharmacist who must personally supervise the carrying on of each business.

(5) A person who holds provisional, limited or non-practising registration in the pharmacy profession is taken not to be a pharmacist for the purposes of this clause during the period of that registration.

Part 3 Approval of premises and registration of pecuniary interests [NSW]

12 Application for approval of premises or registration of pecuniary interest [NSW]

- (1) An application for either of the following may be made to the Executive Officer of the Council—
  - (a) an approval of premises as suitable for carrying on a pharmacy business by a pharmacist;
  - (b) registration of the holder of a pecuniary interest in a pharmacy business.
- (2) An application for an approval of premises must be made—
  - (a) in the form approved by the Council; and
  - (b) by the owner, or one of the owners, of the pharmacy business.
- (3) An application for registration of the holder of a pecuniary interest must be made—
  - (a) in the form approved by the Council; and
  - (b) by the following person—
    - (i) the owner, or one of the owners, of the pharmacy business;
    - (ii) if required to be made during any period in which a person referred to in clause 5(4)(a) or (b) assumes the administration of the pharmacy business, that person;
    - (iii) if required to be made during a period in which a person assumes the administration of the pharmacy business under a security interest granted in respect of the pharmacy business, that person.
- (4) A person who is the owner of a pharmacy business to be carried on in a professional services room may apply for approval of the premises only if—
  - (a) the person is the owner of a pharmacy business that is carried on in approved premises other than a professional services room; and
  - (b) in the application, the person nominates the pharmacy business (or, if the owner of more than one such pharmacy business, nominates one of the

- businesses) as the business with which the professional services room is associated.
- (5) The application must be accompanied by the fee decided by the Council.
  - (6) The Council may require the application to be verified by a statutory declaration.
  - (7) The Council may decide to—
    - (a) refuse the application; or
    - (b) approve the premises or register the holder of the pecuniary interest.
  - (8) The Council must not approve premises—
    - (a) that fail to comply with a standard prescribed for the premises by the NSW regulations; or
    - (b) that are within or partly within, or adjacent or connected to, a supermarket and that the public can directly access from within the premises of the supermarket.
  - (9) The NSW regulations may prescribe standards for the purposes of subclause (8)(a) only for or with respect to the safe and competent delivery of pharmacy services.
  - (10) The Council may revoke an approval of premises if—
    - (a) the premises do not comply with a standard prescribed for the premises by the NSW regulations; or
    - (b) the premises become premises of a type described in subclause (8)(b); or
    - (c) the Council becomes aware the premises are no longer being used for the purposes of carrying on a pharmacy business.
  - (11) In this clause—

supermarket means any retail store, or market, selling food and other domestic goods, whether or not by self-service operation and regardless of size, but does not include a retail store or market—

    - (a) commonly known as a department store; or
    - (b) in which food or produce is sold only in a cafe, coffee shop, restaurant or other prepared food or beverage counter.

13 Appeals against refusal to approve pharmacy or to register holder of pecuniary interest [NSW]

- (1) A person aggrieved by any of the following decisions of the Council may apply to the Administrative Decisions Tribunal for a review of the decision—
  - (a) a decision relating to an application for the approval of premises;
  - (b) a decision relating to an application for the approval of the registration of the holder of a pecuniary interest;
  - (c) a decision to revoke an approval of premises.
- (2) For the purposes of a review, an application for an approval or for registration that has not been dealt with by the Council is taken to have been refused on—
  - (a) the day that is one month after the application was lodged; or
  - (b) if a later day was decided by the Council and notified to the applicant before the day referred to in paragraph (a), that day.

14 Council to keep register [NSW]

- (1) The Council must keep a register (a Register of Pharmacies) containing particulars of—
  - (a) approved premises; and
  - (b) registered holders of pecuniary interests.
- (2) The Register of Pharmacies must be kept in the form decided by the Council.
- (3) The Register of Pharmacies must be available for inspection—
  - (a) at the office of the Council at all reasonable times; and
  - (b) in the other ways (for example, by Internet access) and at the times decided by the Council.
- (4) The Council may charge a fee for an inspection of the Register of Pharmacies, not exceeding the amount prescribed by the NSW regulations.
- (5) The Council may make the alterations and additions to the Register of Pharmacies that are necessary to ensure the information recorded in the Register is accurate.

Part 4 Returns and information [NSW]

15 Annual return to be submitted [NSW]

- (1) A person who holds a pecuniary interest in a pharmacy business must, on or before the return date in each year, give to the Council, in the form approved by the Council, a return for the return period specifying the following information—
  - (a) the nature of the interest;
  - (b) the basis on which the person is entitled to hold the interest under this Law (for example, as a pharmacist, a member of a pharmacists' body corporate, a friendly or other society under clause 6 or a body corporate under clause 7);
  - (c) the number of pharmacy businesses in which the person has a pecuniary interest;
  - (d) in relation to each pharmacy business the person owns, a description of the policies or systems in place to ensure safe and competent delivery of pharmacy services;
  - (e) any other information prescribed by the NSW regulations.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

- (2) The Council may require the return to be verified by statutory declaration.
- (3) In this clause—

return date means a date notified to pharmacy owners by the Council in writing at least one month in advance.

16 Direction to supply information about pecuniary interests [NSW]

- (1) The Council may, by written notice given to a person, require the person to give the Council, within the time specified in the notice, specified information or a specified document relating to a pecuniary interest the person has in a pharmacy business.

- (2) The person must not—
- (a) fail or refuse to comply with the notice to the extent the person is capable of complying with it; or
  - (b) in purported compliance with the notice, knowingly give information or produce a document that is false or misleading.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.
