135A Dangerous goods—extension of Act

- (1) In this section:

dangerous goods means:

- (a) substances or articles subject to a national standard declared by the National Occupational Health and Safety Commission under section 38 of the National Occupational Health and Safety Commission Act 1985 of the Commonwealth, and
- (b) any other substances or articles that are a risk to public safety.

handling, in relation to dangerous goods, includes conveying, manufacturing, processing, possessing, using, preparing for use, treating, dispensing, packing, selling, offering for sale, supplying, transferring, loading and unloading, rendering harmless, abandoning, destroying and disposing of dangerous goods.

storing includes storing as a bailee or in any other capacity.

- (2) The regulations may declare that specified dangerous goods (whether or not at a place of work) are dangerous goods to which this section applies. Any such declaration may provide that those substances or articles are not dangerous goods to which this section applies at premises that are not a place of work unless the quantity of those goods at those premises exceeds a minimum quantity prescribed by the regulations.

- (3) The following provisions of this Act extend to dangerous goods to which this section applies even though the goods are not at a place of work or are not for use at work:
 - (a) Division 4 (Ancillary provisions) of Part 2,
 - (b) Part 3 (Regulations) and Part 4 (Industry codes of practice),
 - (c) Divisions 1, 2 and 4 of Part 5 (Investigations) and Part 6 (Investigation, improvement and prohibition notices).
- (4) For the purposes of the application of those provisions:
 - (a) a reference to work includes a reference to storing or handling dangerous goods to which this section applies, and
 - (b) a reference to a place of work includes a reference to the premises at or in which the dangerous goods to which this section applies are stored or handled, and
 - (c) a reference to occupational health and safety (however expressed) includes a reference to public health and safety.
- (5) This section does not affect the application of this Act to dangerous goods apart from the operation of this section.
