

New South Wales

Courts and Other Miscellaneous Legislation Amendment Bill 2013

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The objects of this Bill are as follows:

- (a) to amend the Anti-Discrimination Act 1977 to make it clear that in the case of indirect discrimination there is no need to prove that a ground of discrimination under the Act is a reason for the discriminatory requirement or condition,
- (b) to amend the Civil Procedure Act 2005 to update the way in which the maximum total payment under a garnishee order is calculated,
- (c) to amend the Dust Diseases Tribunal Act 1989 to enable the President of the Tribunal to delegate to another member of the Tribunal functions relating to managing the proceedings list, namely, fixing the time, place and before whom proceedings are to be held,
- (d) to amend the Evidence (Audio and Audio Visual Links) Act 1998 to allow accused detainees to appear in first appearance bail proceedings via an audio or audio visual link during the Christmas/New Year period in each year and the Local Court Annual Conference in any year,

- (e) to amend the Fines Act 1996 to allow certain court registrars to authorise employees of the Department of Attorney General and Justice to consider applications for further time to pay a court-imposed fine,
- (f) to amend the Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009 to exclude information relating to the functions of the DNA Review Panel, other than its functions relating to reporting and making recommendations to the Minister, from being able to be accessed under that Act,
- (g) to amend the Local Court Act 2007 to provide for the appointment of a legally qualified and admitted police prosecutor as a member of the Local Court Rule Committee when the Committee is exercising its functions in respect of matters relating to the Court's criminal jurisdiction,
- (h) to amend the Young Offenders Act 1997 to authorise the exchange of information relating to early intervention and diversionary programs administered by the Department of Attorney General and Justice.

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 sets out the name (also called the short title) of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act on the date of assent to the proposed Act.

Explanatory note	15
The proposed amendments to the Anti-Discrimination Act 1977 make it clear that in the case of indirect discrimination (which involves a discriminatory requirement or condition) there is no need to prove that a particular ground of discrimination under the Act is a reason for the discriminatory requirement or condition. The amendments reflect the NSW Court of Appeal decision in Amery & Ors v State of New South Wales (Director-General NSW Department of Education and Training) [2004] NSWCA 404.	16 17 18 19 20 21
1.2 Civil Procedure Act 2005 No 28	22
[1] Section 122 Maximum total payment under all garnishee orders	23
Omit “the standard workers compensation weekly benefit” from section 122 (1).	24 25
Insert instead “$447.70 as adjusted under Division 6 of Part 3 of the Workers Compensation Act 1987 ”.	26 27
[2] Section 122 (1A)	28
Insert after section 122 (1):	29
(1A) The amount of $447.70 referred to in subsection (1) is an adjustable amount for the purposes of Division 6 of Part 3 of the Workers Compensation Act 1987 .	30 31 32

[3] Section 122 (2)	1
Omit the definition of standard workers compensation weekly benefit .	2
Explanatory note	3
The proposed amendments update the way in which the maximum total payment under a garnishee order is calculated.	4 5
1.3 Dust Diseases Tribunal Act 1989 No 63	6
Section 13 Proceedings before the Tribunal	7
Insert after section 13 (2):	8
(3) The President may delegate to a member the President's functions under subsection (2).	9 10
Explanatory note	11
The proposed amendment enables the President of the Dust Diseases Tribunal to delegate to another member of the Tribunal functions relating to managing the proceedings list, namely, fixing the time, place and before whom proceedings are to be held.	12 13 14 15

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to any bail proceedings that:	20
(a) occur during a weekend, or	21
(b) occur on a public holiday, or	22
(c) occur during each period commencing on 24 December and ending on the first Friday following 31 December, or	23 24
(d) occur on each of the days on which the Local Court Annual Conference is held in any year, or	25 26
(e) relate to an accused detainee who is being held in custody at a place prescribed by the regulations.	27 28
Explanatory note	29
The proposed amendment expands the occasions on which an accused detainee is permitted to appear in first appearance bail proceedings via an audio or audio visual link as an exception to the requirement in section 5BA (1) of the Evidence (Audio and Audio Visual Links) Act 1998 to appear physically in those proceedings. The further occasions are the Christmas/New Year period in each year and during the Local Court Annual Conference in any year.	30 31 32 33 34 35

1.5 Fines Act 1996 No 99	1
Section 11 Provisions relating to application for further time to pay fine	2
Insert after section 11 (7):	3
(8) Without limiting subsection (7), the principal registrar of the District Court, a registrar of the Local Court at the Downing Centre and a registrar of the Children’s Court may authorise, subject to any conditions specified in the authorisation, a person employed in the Department of Attorney General and Justice to deal with an application and to make, amend or revoke an order allowing further time to pay a fine.	4 5 6 7 8 9 10
Explanatory note	11
The proposed amendment allows specified registrars of the District Court, Local Court and Children’s Court to authorise employees of the Department of Attorney General and Justice to consider applications for further time to pay a court-imposed fine.	12 13 14
