

New South Wales

Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Bill 2003

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The objects of this Bill are:

- (a) to make minor amendments to various Acts (Schedule 1), and
- (b) to amend certain other Acts and instruments for the purpose of effecting statute law revision (Schedule 2), and
- (c) to repeal certain Acts and provisions of Acts and certain statutory rules (Schedule 3), and
- (d) to make other provisions of a consequential or ancillary nature (Schedule 4).

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 sets out the name (also called the short title) of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act.

Clauses 3–5 are machinery provisions that give effect to the Schedules to the proposed Act containing amendments, repeals, and savings, transitional and other provisions.

Clause 6 makes it clear that the explanatory notes contained in the Schedules do not form part of the proposed Act.

The amendments to each Act are explained in detail in the explanatory note relating to the Act concerned set out in Schedule 1.

Schedule 2 Amendments by way of statute law revision

Schedule 2 amends certain Acts and instruments for the purpose of effecting statute law revision. A number of other amendments are made relating to formal drafting matters and minor corrections.

The amendments to each Act and instrument are explained in detail in the explanatory note relating to the Act or instrument concerned set out in Schedule 2.

Schedule 3 Repeals

Schedule 3 repeals a number of Acts and provisions of Acts. The Schedule repeals amending Acts enacted in 2002 or earlier that contain no substantive provisions that need to be retained.

In each case, the Acts that were amended by the Acts or provisions being repealed are up-to-date on the Legislation Database maintained by the Parliamentary Counsel's Office and are available electronically.

The Schedule also repeals Acts that are no longer of practical utility, certain uncommenced provisions of Acts and certain statutory rules.

Schedule 4 General savings, transitional and other provisions

Schedule 4 contains savings, transitional and other provisions of a more general effect than those set out in Schedule 1.

The purpose of each provision is explained in detail in the explanatory note relating to the provision concerned set out in Schedule 4.

New South Wales

Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Bill 2003

No. , 2003

A Bill for

An Act to repeal certain Acts and provisions of Acts and certain statutory rules and to amend certain other Acts and instruments in various respects and for the purpose of effecting statute law revision; and to make certain savings.

The Legislature of New South Wales enacts:	1
1 Name of Act	2
This Act is the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2003 .	3
2 Commencement	4
(1) This Act commences on the date of assent, except as provided by this section.	5 6
(2) The amendments made by Schedules 1 and 2 commence on the day or days specified in those Schedules in relation to the amendments concerned. If a commencement day is not specified, the amendments commence on the date of assent.	7 8 9 10
3 Amendments	11
The Acts and instruments specified in Schedules 1 and 2 are amended as set out in those Schedules.	12 13
4 Repeals	14
Each Act and statutory rule specified in Schedule 3 is, to the extent indicated in that Schedule, repealed.	15 16
5 General savings, transitional and other provisions	17
Schedule 4 has effect.	18
6 Explanatory notes	19
The matter appearing under the heading “Explanatory note” in any of the Schedules does not form part of this Act.	20 21

Schedule 1	Minor amendments	1
	(Section 3)	2
1.1	Anzac Memorial (Building) Act 1923 No 27	3
[1]	Section 3 Trustees	4
	Omit “The president of The Limbless Soldiers’ Association of NSW (Inc.),” from section 3 (1).	5 6
[2]	Section 8 Use of memorial building	7
	Omit “The Limbless Soldiers’ Association of NSW (Inc.),” from section 8 (3).	8 9
	Explanatory note	10
	The proposed amendments omit from the Anzac Memorial (Building) Act 1923 references to an association that has been wound up.	11 12
1.2	Apprenticeship and Traineeship Act 2001 No 80	13
[1]	Section 15 Duties of employers to notify Commissioner of certain matters	14 15
	Omit “or trainee” from section 15 (1) (f).	16
[2]	Section 18 Extension of probationary period	17
	Insert at the end of the section:	18
	(2) As soon as practicable after an application is determined, the Commissioner must notify both the employer and the apprentice or trainee concerned of the determination.	19 20 21
[3]	Section 20 Transfer of apprenticeships and traineeships	22
	Insert after section 20 (6):	23
	(6A) As soon as practicable after an application is determined, the Commissioner must give notification of the determination to the following:	24 25 26
	(a) the prospective employer,	27
	(b) the apprentice or trainee concerned,	28
	(c) the apprentice’s or trainee’s existing employer.	29

[4] Section 21 Variation of training contracts and training plans	1
Insert after section 21 (6):	2
(6A) As soon as practicable after an application is determined, the Commissioner must give notification of the determination to the following:	3
(a) the employer,	4
(b) the apprentice or trainee concerned,	5
(c) in the case of an application to vary a training plan—the relevant registered training organisation.	6
[5] Schedule 4 Savings, transitional and other provisions	7
Insert after clause 25:	8
	9
Part 3 Provision consequent on enactment of Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2003	10
	11
	12
	13
	14
26 Notification of determinations	15
Sections 18 (2), 20 (6A) and 21 (6A), as inserted by the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2003 , extend to an application made, but not finally determined, under the section concerned before its amendment by that Act.	16
	17
	18
	19
Explanatory note	20
Item [1] of the proposed amendments omits unnecessary words.	21
Items [2]–[4] of the proposed amendments require the Commissioner for Vocational Training to notify applicants and other interested parties of the outcome of the following applications made under the Apprenticeship and Traineeship Act 2001 (the Act):	22
(a) applications for the extension of an apprentice’s or trainee’s probationary period,	23
(b) applications for approval to the transfer of an apprenticeship or traineeship,	24
(c) applications for the variation of a training contract or a training plan under the Act.	25
	26
	27
	28
	29
Item [5] of the proposed amendments inserts a transitional provision.	30

1.3 Art Gallery of New South Wales Act 1980 No 65	1
[1] Schedule 1 Provisions relating to trustees and procedure of the Trust	2 3
Insert after clause 4 (4):	4
(4A) For the purposes of subclause (3) only, an appointment under subclause (4) does not constitute (and is taken never to have constituted) an appointment for a term of office.	5 6 7
[2] Schedule 1, clause 4 (5)	8
Omit the subclause.	9
[3] Schedule 1, clause 7	10
Omit clause 7 (d). Insert instead:	11
(d) becomes a mentally incapacitated person,	12
Explanatory note	13
“Term” of office of a trustee	14
Clause 4 (4) of Schedule 1 to the Art Gallery of New South Wales Act 1980 (the Act) allows a person to be appointed as a trustee of the Art Gallery of New South Wales Trust (the Trust) to replace a trustee whose office has become vacant otherwise than by expiration of the term of that trustee’s office. The new trustee holds office for the balance of his or her predecessor’s term.	15 16 17 18 19
Trustees are eligible for re-appointment on expiration of their terms of office. However, clause 4 (3) prevents a trustee from holding office for four consecutive terms.	20 21
Item [1] of the proposed amendments amends clause 4 so as to provide that an appointment for the balance of the term of a trustee’s predecessor (during which time the trustee holds office in place of that predecessor) is taken not to be an appointment for a term of office of the trustee concerned (but only for the purposes of calculating the trustee’s consecutive terms of office).	22 23 24 25 26
Similar amendments are proposed to be made, elsewhere in this Schedule, to other legislation within the Arts portfolio.	27 28
Commencement of term of office	29
Clause 4 (5) of Schedule 1 to the Act provides that the appointment of a trustee, other than a trustee appointed under clause 4 (4) as referred to above (that is, a trustee appointed to fill a casual vacancy), takes effect on 1 January of the year following the year in which the appointment is made. Clause 4 (5) was intended to assist an orderly turnover or re-appointment of trustees at the same time each year, and so trustees are usually appointed for a term that expires on 31 December in their final year of office.	30 31 32 33 34 35
However, if a nominee declines appointment or re-appointment late in the year and another nominee is not appointed until (say) 3 January, that appointment will not take effect until 1 January in the year following. Consequently, the Trust will be one trustee short for the best part of a year, which could give rise to various difficulties (such as forming a quorum for meetings, since the Act provides that a specified number of trustees, and not a majority of the trustees for the time being, constitutes a quorum).	36 37 38 39 40 41

To overcome such difficulties, item [2] of the proposed amendments repeals clause 4 (5). It will still be possible for the trustees' terms to expire concurrently, as a trustee's term of office is specified in the trustee's instrument of appointment.	1 2 3
Similar amendments are proposed to be made, elsewhere in this Schedule, to such of the other legislation within the Arts portfolio as contains a provision to the effect of clause 4 (5).	4 5 6
Statute law revision	7
Item [3] of the proposed amendments updates outdated terminology.	8
1.4 Australian Museum Trust Act 1975 No 95	9
[1] Schedule 1 Composition and procedure of the Trust	10
Insert after clause 3 (3):	11
(3A) For the purposes of subclause (2) only, an appointment under subclause (3) does not constitute (and is taken never to have constituted) an appointment for a term of office.	12 13 14
[2] Schedule 1, clause 3 (4)	15
Omit the subclause.	16
[3] Schedule 1, clause 7	17
Omit clause 7 (d). Insert instead:	18
(d) becomes a mentally incapacitated person,	19
Explanatory note	20
"Term" of office of a trustee	21
Item [1] of the proposed amendments makes an amendment equivalent to that proposed to be made by item [1] of the proposed amendments to the Art Gallery of New South Wales Act 1980 elsewhere in this Schedule.	22 23 24
Commencement of term of office	25
Item [2] of the proposed amendments makes an amendment equivalent to that proposed to be made by item [2] of the proposed amendments to the Art Gallery of New South Wales Act 1980 elsewhere in this Schedule.	26 27 28
Statute law revision	29
Item [3] of the proposed amendments updates outdated terminology.	30
1.5 Banana Industry Act 1987 No 66	31
Schedule 1 Provisions relating to the members of the Committee	32
Insert after clause 1 (2):	33
(2A) For the purposes only of ensuring that there are at all times the requisite number of regional members on the Committee, the Minister may, at any time, by written notice given to a	34 35 36

	regional member, extend or reduce the period of the member's term of office.	1 2
	Explanatory note	3
	Currently, there are 6 regional members of the Banana Industry Committee (the Committee) constituted by the Banana Industry Act 1987 (the Act) . Regional members are elected to the Committee and, under clause 1 of Schedule 1 to the Act, hold office (subject to the Act) for a period of 3 years commencing on the date of their election.	4 5 6 7 8
	Elections for 2 of the 6 regional members are usually held on 29 September in each year. However, if an election is held late (for example, on 29 October), there will be a period during which the Committee will be short of 2 regional members.	9 10 11
	The proposed amendment permits the Minister, for the purpose only of rectifying such a situation, to extend or reduce a regional member's term of office.	12 13
1.6	Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998 No 157	14 15
[1]	Section 3 Definitions	16
	Omit the last sentence of the Note to the definition of care plan .	17
[2]	Section 13 Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Child and Young Person Placement Principles	18 19
	Omit "welfare" from section 13 (1) (d) (ii).	20
[3]	Sections 208 (3), 209 (b) and 220 (o)	21
	Omit "Minister" wherever occurring. Insert instead "Director-General".	22
[4]	Section 220 Regulations	23
	Omit "Minister's" from section 220 (n).	24
	Insert instead "Director-General's".	25
	Commencement	26
	Items [3] and [4] of the amendments to the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998 commence (or are taken to have commenced) on the commencement of Chapter 12 of that Act.	27 28 29
	Explanatory note	30
	Item [1] of the proposed amendments omits from a Note in the text of the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998 (the Act) a sentence that contains an inaccuracy and is, in any case, unnecessary.	31 32 33
	Section 13 (1) (d) (ii) of the Act requires the Director-General of the Department of Community Services (the Director-General), before placing in out-of-home care an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander child or young person who needs to be so placed, to consult (in certain circumstances) with "such Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander welfare organisations as are appropriate to the child or young person". Item [2] of the	34 35 36 37 38

proposed amendments omits the word “welfare” from that provision so as to widen the scope of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander organisations with which the Director-General may consult.	1 2 3
Chapter 12 (sections 199–220) of the Act deals with children’s services, which are required to be licensed. Applications for licences, the granting or refusal of licences, the revocation of licences and the substitution of licensees on the death of a licensee are dealt with by the Director-General (see sections 206, 207, 211 and 212 of the Act). However, some provisions of Chapter 12 (for example, section 209, which deals with conditions to which licences are subject) incorrectly refer to the Minister, rather than the Director-General. Items [3] and [4] of the proposed amendments correct those incorrect references.	4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11
1.7 Chiropractors Act 2001 No 15	12
[1] Section 111 Conduct of proceedings	13
Omit section 111 (5). Insert instead:	14
(5) Schedule 5 has effect with respect to the conduct of any inquiry and the hearing of any appeal by the Tribunal.	15 16
[2] Schedule 1 Registration procedures	17
Omit “President” from clause 11. Insert instead “Registrar”.	18
Explanatory note	19
Clarification	20
Item [1] of the proposed amendments recasts a provision of the Chiropractors Act 2001 (the Act) so as to clarify its meaning. Similar amendments to other legislation dealing with health professionals are proposed to be made elsewhere in this Schedule.	21 22 23
Eligibility inquiries	24
Schedule 1 to the Act deals with the procedures for registration of a person as a chiropractor. Part 3 of that Schedule permits the Chiropractors Registration Board (the Board) to hold an inquiry into the eligibility of an applicant for registration. Clause 11 (in Part 3) requires the President of the Board to fix a time and place for the holding of such an inquiry and to cause the applicant to be given at least 14 days’ notice in writing of the time and place for the inquiry.	25 26 27 28 29 30
Item [2] of the proposed amendments provides for the duty imposed by clause 11 to be carried out by the Registrar of the Board, rather than the President. Similar amendments to other legislation dealing with health professionals are proposed to be made elsewhere in this Schedule.	31 32 33 34

1.8 Community Services (Complaints, Reviews and Monitoring) Act 1993 No 2	1
Section 24 Application of Ombudsman Act 1974 to complaints under this Act	3
Insert after section 24 (2):	5
(2A) However, the Ombudsman Act 1974 as applied by this section applies, in relation to a complaint made under this Act about the conduct of a service provider that is not a government agency (and in relation to any conduct of such a service provider), subject to any modifications prescribed by the regulations.	6
	10
	11
Explanatory note	12
Section 24 of the Community Services (Complaints, Reviews and Monitoring) Act 1993 (the Monitoring Act) applies the Ombudsman Act 1974 to and in respect of complaints made under the Monitoring Act about the conduct of service providers (within the meaning of that Act) and to and in respect of any conduct of a service provider.	13
	14
	16
The proposed amendment permits regulations made under the Monitoring Act to modify that application of the Ombudsman Act 1974 in relation to service providers that are not government agencies. A similar provision exists in respect of the application of certain provisions of the Ombudsman Act 1974 in relation to the exercise of certain functions, and the conduct of certain reviews, under that Act.	17
	18
	19
	20
	21
1.9 Crimes (Local Courts Appeal and Review) Act 2001 No 120	22
[1] Section 5 Applications to Minister	23
Insert after section 5 (1):	24
(1A) An application under this section may be made at any time after the relevant conviction or sentence is made or imposed.	25
	26
[2] Section 43 Appeals requiring leave	27
Insert “being an offence for which proceedings have been prosecuted by or on behalf of a public authority (other than the Environment Protection Authority),” before “but only” in section 43 (1).	28
	29
	30
[3] Section 43 (1A)	31
Insert after section 43 (1):	32
(1A) The Environment Protection Authority may appeal to the Land and Environment Court against:	33
	34

	(a) an order that has been made by a Magistrate in relation to a person in any committal proceedings with respect to an environmental offence, or	1 2 3
	(b) an interlocutory order that has been made by a Local Court in relation to a person in summary proceedings with respect to an environmental offence,	4 5 6
	being an offence for which proceedings have been prosecuted by or on behalf of the Environment Protection Authority, but only on a ground that involves a question of law alone, and only by leave of the Land and Environment Court.	7 8 9 10
[4]	Section 48 Determination of appeals	11
	Insert “or (1A) (a) or (b)” after “section 43 (1) (a) or (b)” in section 48 (2).	12
[5]	Section 49 Miscellaneous powers	13
	Insert “or (1A) (a) or (b)” after “section 43 (1) (a) or (b)” in section 49 (3).	14
	Commencement	15
	The amendments to the Crimes (Local Courts Appeal and Review) Act 2001 commence, or are taken to have commenced, on the commencement of that Act.	16 17
	Explanatory note	18
	Item [1] of the proposed amendments amends section 5 of the Crimes (Local Courts Appeal and Review) Act 2001 (the Act) so as to make it clear that an application for the annulment of a conviction or sentence made or imposed by a Local Court may be made to the Minister administering that Act at any time after the relevant conviction or sentence is made or imposed.	19 20 21 22 23
	Item [3] of the proposed amendments inserts a new subsection (1A) into section 43 of the Act so as to enable the Environment Protection Authority to appeal to the Land and Environment Court against certain orders made by a Local Court with respect to an environmental offence for which proceedings have been prosecuted by the Environment Protection Authority. This power parallels a similar power that is exercisable by the Director of Public Prosecutions. Item [2] restricts the power of the Director of Public Prosecutions to environmental offences for which proceedings have been prosecuted by or on behalf of a public authority other than the Environment Protection Authority. Items [4] and [5] are consequential amendments.	24 25 26 27 28 29 30 31 32
1.10	Criminal Procedure Act 1986 No 209 (as amended by the Criminal Procedure Amendment (Justices and Local Courts) Act 2001)	33 34 35
[1]	Section 16 Certain defects do not affect indictment	36
	Omit “summary criminal proceedings” from section 16 (2).	37
	Insert instead “criminal proceedings (including committal proceedings) in a Local Court or for any other offence that is to be dealt with summarily”.	38 39

[2] Section 20 Amendment of indictment	1
Omit “prosecuting authority” from section 20 (1).	2
Insert instead “prosecutor”.	3
[3] Section 91 Witness may be directed to attend	4
Insert after section 91 (6):	5
(7) If a person attends to give oral evidence because of a direction under this section, the Magistrate must not allow the person to be cross-examined in respect of matters that were not the basis of the reasons for giving the direction, unless the Magistrate is satisfied that there are substantial reasons why, in the interests of justice, the person should be cross-examined in respect of those matters.	6 7 8 9 10 11 12
[4] Section 182 Written pleas	13
Insert after section 182 (3):	14
(4) This section does not apply to an accused person who has been granted or refused bail or in relation to whom bail has been dispensed with.	15 16 17
[5] Section 194 Procedure if offence not admitted	18
Omit “pleads not guilty” from section 194 (1).	19
Insert instead “pleads not guilty or fails or refuses to make a plea”.	20
[6] Section 236 Form of arrest warrant	21
Omit “must be given under the seal of the person issuing it” from section 236 (3).	22 23
Insert instead “must be signed by the person issuing it and sealed with the seal of the court to which the person issuing it is attached”.	24 25
[7] Section 253 Court may order payment of costs	26
Omit section 253 (1) (b).	27

[8] Section 253 (1A)	1
Insert after section 253 (1):	2
(1A) A court may, if the court makes an order dismissing the charge for an offence, in and by that order, order the prosecutor to pay to the accused person such costs as the court specifies or, if the order directs, as may be determined under subsection (2).	3 4 5 6 7
[9] Section 260 Offences to be dealt with summarily unless election made to proceed on indictment	8 9
Omit “prosecuting authority” wherever occurring.	10
Insert instead “prosecutor”.	11
[10] Section 261 Procedure for dealing with offences summarily if no election made	12 13
Omit “this Act” where secondly occurring.	14
[11] Section 262 Procedure for dealing with offences if election made	15
Omit “this Act” where secondly occurring in section 262 (1).	16
[12] Section 270 No time limit for offences dealt with summarily under this Chapter	17 18
Omit “Section 187”. Insert instead “Section 179”.	19
[13] Section 273 Jurisdiction of Magistrates in respect of offences arising under Division 2 of Part 4 of Crimes Act 1900	20 21
Omit “Chapter” where secondly occurring. Insert instead “Part”.	22
[14] Schedule 1 Indictable offences triable summarily	23
Omit “ prosecuting authority ” wherever occurring in the headings to Table 1 and Table 2.	24 25
Insert instead “ prosecutor ”.	26
Commencement	27
The amendments to the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 commence, or are taken to have commenced, on the commencement of the Criminal Procedure Amendment (Justices and Local Courts) Act 2001 (Schedule 1 [17] to that Act excepted).	28 29 30

Explanatory noteGeneral

The Criminal Procedure Amendment (Justices and Local Courts) Act 2001 (the amending Act) revised and re-enacted the provisions of the Justices Act 1902 (the former Act) relating to criminal procedure in Local Courts. Generally, the effect of the provisions of the former Act was retained by the amending Act. The proposed amendments reinstate provisions of the former Act that were not intended to be omitted from the new provisions, clarify the effect of other amendments so as to retain the effect of the former Act, and make other amendments by way of pure statute law revision.

Former Act

Item [1] makes it clear that the provision preventing objections to indictments in summary criminal proceedings on grounds relating to defects of substance or form or other variances (being a re-enactment of sections under the former Act and the Supreme Court (Summary Jurisdiction) Act 1967) applies to all criminal proceedings in a Local Court and any other proceedings in which an offence is dealt with summarily. This preserves the effect of the re-enacted provisions.

Item [3] reinstates the effect of section 41 (10) of the former Act which prevented an accused person in committal proceedings who had been required to attend to give evidence at the proceedings from being cross-examined on matters that were not the basis of the reasons for the person being directed to give evidence unless the Magistrate was satisfied that there were substantial reasons why, in the interests of justice, the person should be so cross-examined.

Item [4] reinstates the effect of section 75 of the former Act. Under that provision, a defendant who was issued a summons or a court attendance notice was able to plead guilty or not guilty by lodging a notice in writing. This did not include defendants dealt with under the Bail Act 1978 who were dealt with by information or complaint. The proposed amendment excludes from the category of persons who may lodge written pleas a person who has been refused or granted bail or in relation to whom bail has been dispensed with.

Item [5] reinstates the effect of section 78 of the former Act. Under that provision, a Magistrate was required to proceed to hear and determine proceedings for an offence as if a person had pleaded not guilty if the person did not admit the truth of an information or complaint. The proposed amendment requires a court to proceed to hear and determine a matter if the person pleads not guilty or refuses or fails to make a plea.

Item [6] replaces the requirement to give an arrest warrant under the seal of the person issuing it with a requirement that the warrant be signed by the person issuing it and sealed with the seal of a court. This is necessary because not all persons issuing warrants have a seal.

Item [8] reinstates the right of an accused person in summary criminal proceedings in the Supreme Court, the Land and Environment Court, and other courts currently covered by the Supreme Court (Summary Jurisdiction) Act 1967 (see section 14 of that Act), to obtain an order for costs if the court makes an order dismissing the charge for an offence. In consequence, item [7] omits a paragraph incorrectly included in section 253 (1) of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986. (That paragraph would have permitted a court to make an order for costs against an accused person if the court makes an order dismissing the relevant charge against the person. In such a case, any cost order is properly for payment by the prosecutor to the accused, as now provided for by the amendment made by item [8].)

Statute law revision

The amending Act altered references to "prosecuting authority" to "prosecutor". For consistency, items [2], [9] and [14] make the same amendment to the remaining references to "prosecuting authority".

Items [10] and [11] omit duplicated words.	1
Item [12] corrects an incorrect cross-reference.	2
Item [13] reinstates a reference to a Part of the Crimes Act 1900 that was inadvertently changed to a reference to a Chapter.	3 4

Explanatory note

Commencement of environmental planning instruments

Section 34 (5) of the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979 (the Act) provides that an environmental planning instrument is to be published in the Gazette and that it takes effect “on and from the date of publication or a later date specified in the instrument”.

Item [1] of the proposed amendments inserts two further subsections in section 34. Section 34 (5A) permits different provisions of an environmental planning instrument to commence on different days. Section 34 (5B) makes it clear that publication in the Gazette after the date on which an environmental planning instrument is expressed to commence does not invalidate the instrument.

The new subsections generally parallel provisions of the Interpretation Act 1987 that apply to statutory rules.

Development control plans

Section 79C of the Act requires a consent authority, in determining an application for development consent, to take into consideration (among other things) the provisions of any development control plan (DCP) that applies to the land to which the application relates. While section 72 (3) of the Act requires a DCP prepared by a council to “generally conform to the provisions of” the local environmental plan (LEP) or the draft LEP which applies to the land to which the DCP applies, it is possible that a DCP could contain provisions that are inconsistent with the provisions of a State environmental planning policy (SEPP) or a regional environmental plan (REP).

Section 36 of the Act deals with inconsistencies between environmental planning instruments, which consist of LEPs, REPs and SEPPs (but not DCPs). To deal with any potential conflict between a council-prepared DCP and a SEPP or REP, item [2] of the proposed amendments inserts a provision in section 72 permitting those instruments to provide that a council-prepared DCP applying to land to which the SEPP or REP concerned applies is of no effect to the extent that it provides for specified matters for which the SEPP or REP concerned provides.

Modification of development consents

Section 96 of the Act provides for the modification of development consents by consent authorities generally, and section 96AA (which was inserted by the Land and Environment Court Amendment Act 2002 (the LEC Act)) provides for the modification by consent authorities of development consents granted by the Land and Environment Court (the Court). Sections 96 (1A) (b) and (2) (a) and 96AA (1) (a) all require that a consent authority, before modifying a development consent, be satisfied “that the development to which the consent as modified relates is substantially the same development as the development for which the consent was originally granted and before that consent as originally granted was modified (if at all) under this section”. As a result of the insertion of section 96AA, there are now two sections of the Act under which consent authorities may modify development consents.

Item [3] of the proposed amendments omits the words “under this section” from section 96 (1A) (b) and (2) (a), and item [7] omits those words from section 96AA (1) (a).

The provisions of section 96AA generally parallel those of section 96, but there is currently no equivalent in section 96AA of section 96 (3), (4) or (5).

For consistency in the provisions governing consent authorities’ modifications of development consents, item [8] of the proposed amendments inserts the equivalent of section 96 (3)–(5) in section 96AA.

Items [4] and [5] of the proposed amendments make minor changes to the wording of section 96 (4) and (5) by way of statute law revision.

The LEC Act also enacted section 96 (8), which extends the provisions of section 96 (subject to the regulations) so as to enable the Court to modify development consents granted by it. Section 96 (8) also provides that, in the extension of the other provisions of section 96, certain functions imposed on a consent authority are to be exercised, not by the Court, but by "the relevant council".

Item [6] of the proposed amendments amends section 96 (8) so as to provide that, in the extension of the other provisions of section 96, certain functions imposed on a consent authority are to be exercised, not by the Court, but by the relevant consent authority (which may or may not be the council).

Regulation-making powers

Section 157 of the Act contains the standard general power to make regulations "for or with respect to any matter.....that is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act". Section 157 also specifies certain particular matters "for or with respect to" which regulations may be made, as do various other sections of the Act, including section 105.

Items [9] and [11] of the proposed amendments add to the particulars in sections 105 and 157, respectively, to remove any doubt that the general regulation-making power extends to the matters so particularised.

Savings and transitional provisions

The use of buildings and temporary structures as places of public entertainment and the installation of temporary structures on land are both matters that require approvals under the Local Government Act 1993 and are subject to conditions imposed on such approvals by regulations made under that Act. The Local Government and Environmental Planning and Assessment Amendment (Transfer of Functions) Act 2001 removes the requirement for those approvals and, instead, permits the matters to be regulated under the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979. Transitional provisions preserve the conditions of existing approvals until 1 July 2003 (subject to the regulations under the latter Act).

As the Local Government and Environmental Planning and Assessment Amendment (Transfer of Functions) Act 2001 (or certain provisions of that Act) may not commence until after 1 July 2003, item [12] of the proposed amendments extends the operation of the transitional provisions until 1 July 2004.

Item [13] of the proposed amendments inserts savings and transitional provisions consequent on certain of the amendments referred to above.

Statute law revision

Item [10] of the proposed amendments corrects duplicated numbering.

1.14 Film and Television Office Act 1988 No 18

Schedule 2 Provisions relating to constitution and procedure of Board

Insert after clause 2 (2):

- (3) For the purposes of subclause (2) only, if:
 - (a) a person is appointed under clause 6 to fill the office of a member that has become vacant otherwise than by the expiration of the member's term of office, and
 - (b) the person is appointed for the balance of his or her predecessor's term of office,

the appointment does not constitute (and is taken never to have constituted) an appointment for a term of office.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment makes an amendment equivalent to that proposed to be made by item [1] of the proposed amendments to the Art Gallery of New South Wales Act 1980 elsewhere in this Schedule.

1.15 Fisheries Management Act 1994 No 38

[1] Section 217 Importation of live fish

Insert “, or class,” after “a species” in section 217 (1).

[2] Section 217 (3)

Insert “, or class,” after “any species”.

[3] Section 217 (3) (b)

Omit “fish of a species”. Insert instead “fish of a class or species”.

Commencement

The amendments to the Fisheries Management Act 1994 commence, or are taken to have commenced, on the commencement of Schedule 6.2 [12] and [13] to the Fisheries Management and Environmental Assessment Legislation Amendment Act 2000.

Explanatory note

When amended by certain uncommenced provisions of the Fisheries Management and Environmental Assessment Legislation Amendment Act 2000, section 217 of the Act will prohibit the importation into New South Wales of live fish of a species to which the section applies (unless the importation is authorised by a permit issued by the Minister). Section 217 (3) will provide that the section applies to any species of fish other than (among others) “fish of a species, or class of species,” exempted from the operation of the section by the regulations.

The proposed amendments amend section 217, with effect from the commencement of the amendments made to it by the Fisheries Management and Environmental Assessment Legislation Amendment Act 2000, so as to refer throughout to fish of a “class”, as well as fish of a species. This will permit the regulations to exempt from the operation of the section fish of a species whose live importation is prohibited if the fish, for example, are to be used for a particular purpose (such as to be displayed in an aquarium).

Section 21 Delegation	2
Omit section 21 (12). Insert instead:	3
(12) This section does not authorise the delegation of any of the following powers:	4
(a) the power to give an approval for the purposes of section 23 (3) (b) of this Act,	5
(b) the power to conduct an inquiry referred to in section 123 of the Health Services Act 1997 ,	6
(c) the power to make determinations under section 127 (3) of the Health Services Act 1997 .	7
Explanatory note	8
Section 21 of the Health Administration Act 1982 provides for the delegation of the functions of the Minister for Health, the Director-General of the Department of Health, and the Health Administration Corporation. Section 21 (12) currently provides that section 21 does not authorise the delegation of two powers (those set out in paragraphs (a) and (b) of the proposed amendment). The proposed amendment repeals and re-enacts section 21 (12) so as to provide that another power is non-delegable.	9
The power concerned is the Minister's power to determine (after considering any recommendations on the subject from the Director-General) what amounts of money (if any) should be paid out of money appropriated from the Consolidated Fund in any financial year to area health services, statutory health corporations and affiliated health organisations.	10

	(5) In subsection (4), local health professional means a person who is registered under a Health Registration Act and is not a visiting health professional.	14 15 16
	Explanatory note	17
	Items [1] and [2] of the proposed amendments update references to repealed Acts and insert references to two Acts that are to replace Acts that are not yet repealed.	18 19
	Item [3] of the proposed amendments inserts in the Health Professionals (Special Events Exemption) Act 1997 (the Act) the condition currently imposed by the Health Professionals (Special Events Exemption) Regulation 1998 (the Regulation) on the provision of health care services by a visiting health professional. The Regulation, which is repealed by Schedule 3 to this Act, would otherwise be repealed on 1 September 2003 by section 10 of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989 . As it is desired to preserve the substance of the Regulation (which has not been amended since it was made), the insertion of that substance in the Act obviates the necessity to remake the Regulation by 1 September 2003 and at subsequent five year intervals as it again becomes subject to repeal under the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989 .	20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29

Customer contracts	29
Section 35 (1) of the Hunter Water Act 1991 (the Act) requires the “initial” terms and conditions of a customer contract to be set out in the operating licence (within the meaning of the Act) of Hunter Water Corporation (the Corporation). Item [1] of the proposed amendments removes the word “initial”, so as to require all terms and conditions (including new terms and conditions and those that have been varied) to be set out in the operating licence.	30 31 32 33 34 35

At present, section 38 (1) of the Act provides that the terms and conditions of a customer contract may (subject to the approval of the Governor) be varied by the Corporation by publishing, in a daily newspaper circulating in the area of operations, a notice “setting out” the variation at least 6 months (or a shorter period to which the Minister agrees) before the variation becomes effective. Item [4] of the proposed amendments enables that notice to summarise the variation as an alternative to setting it out in full. Item [5] makes a consequential amendment.

Item [6] of the proposed amendments inserts two new subsections in section 38. The new subsection (4) is equivalent to section 59 (4) of the Sydney Water Act 1994, which provides that section 59 (which is otherwise equivalent to section 38) does not apply to a variation of a customer contract to the extent that the variation relates to alteration of the level of fees or charges and the alteration is in accordance with a determination of the Independent Pricing and Regulatory Tribunal. The new subsection (5) requires copies of a customer contract that has been varied (including one varied in accordance with a determination of the Independent Pricing and Regulatory Tribunal), together with explanatory material concerning the contract, to be made available to the public in such manner as the operating licence may provide.

Similar amendments are proposed to be made, elsewhere in this Schedule, to the Sydney Water Act 1994 (apart from the insertion of a provision equivalent to the new section 38 (4)).

Repeal

Section 35 (2) of the Act requires the Corporation, before the commencement of section 36 (Owner of land taken to have entered into customer contract), to publish in a daily newspaper circulating in the area of operations (as specified in the Act) a notice setting out the terms and conditions on which the Corporation will provide water supply and sewerage services to customers pursuant to the operating licence.

Section 35 (3) of the Act requires the terms and conditions set out in the notice to include specified particulars, and section 35 (4) provides that the terms and conditions set out in the notice must be in a form specified by or authorised under the operating licence.

Section 35 (2) is spent and may be repealed. Consequently, section 35 (4) may also be repealed. Item [2] of the proposed amendments effects those repeals.

However, rather than repealing section 35 (3), item [3] of the proposed amendments merely omits the words “set out in the notice” from that subsection. The effect of this is that section 35 (3) now relates to the terms and conditions set out in the customer contract referred to in section 35 (1). This renders section 35 consistent with the equivalent section (section 54) of the Sydney Water Act 1994.

Regulations

Item [7] of the proposed amendments inserts a provision to permit the making of regulations for or with respect to the restriction or regulation of the supply and use of water in the area of Hunter Water’s operations in the case of drought or accident or if the Minister is for some other reason of the opinion that there is a necessity for such regulations in the public interest and for the purpose of maintaining water supply. There is an identical provision in the Sydney Water Act 1994.

16A Accrued benefit multiples for family law superannuation purposes	4
(1) For the purposes of the family law superannuation legislation, the accrued benefit multiple of a judge or retired judge is the period (in years and parts of years) that the judge or retired judge served as a judge in his or her judicial office.	5 6 7 8 9
(2) In this section:	10
family law superannuation legislation means Part VIIIIB of the Family Law Act 1975 of the Commonwealth and the Family Law (Superannuation) Regulations 2001 of the Commonwealth.	11 12 13 14
Explanatory note	15
Under Part VIIIIB of the Family Law Act 1975 of the Commonwealth, provision is made for the splitting of superannuation entitlements as part of the division of property associated with family law proceedings. A split may occur as a result of a court order or an agreement. That Part applies to State statutory superannuation schemes, and to the trustees and administrators of those schemes, as well as to other superannuation schemes regulated under Commonwealth legislation.	16 17 18 19 20 21
The superannuation scheme established under the Judges' Pensions Act 1953 is classified as a percentage-only scheme for the purposes of the Commonwealth legislation. The result of this is that payments of superannuation entitlements to spouses or former spouses of judges or former judges resulting from family law proceedings can only take place when a pension is payable to a judge or retired judge and also that the amount payable to a spouse or former spouse is determined with respect to a specified percentage of the relevant proportion of the superannuation interest of the judge or retired judge. The Family Law (Superannuation) Regulations 2001 of the Commonwealth set out the methods for calculating individual payments. The method requires the governing rules of each percentage-only scheme to specify the accrued benefit multiple. The purpose of the amendment is to specify the judge or retired judge's period of service as the accrued benefit multiple so as to enable calculation of payments under those Regulations.	22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30 31 32 33 34

Item [1] of the amendments to the Justices Legislation Repeal and Amendment Act 2001 commences, or is taken to have commenced, immediately before the commencement of Schedule 2.72 [47] to that Act.	7 8 9
Item [2] of the amendments to the Justices Legislation Repeal and Amendment Act 2001 commences, or is taken to have commenced, immediately before the commencement of Schedule 2.72 [52] to that Act.	10 11 12
Explanatory note	13
The Justices Legislation Repeal and Amendment Act 2001 contains amendments to Acts consequential on the repeal and re-enactment of the Justices Act 1902 . Schedule 2.72 of that Act amends the Crimes Act 1900 . Among other things, those amendments replace references to “justices” (defined, by a provision in the Crimes Act 1900 that is to be repealed, as meaning “a Justice of the Peace”) and “authorised justices” with references to “authorised officers” (within the meaning of the new definition of that term to be inserted in the Criminal Procedure Act 1986). That category of officers is more restrictive than the current category of officers exercising functions in relation to apprehended domestic violence orders.	14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22
Item [1] of the proposed amendments removes an amendment that would have replaced a reference to “a justice of the peace who is employed in the Attorney General’s Department” with a reference to “an authorised officer”.	23 24 25
Item [2] of the proposed amendments replaces an amendment that would have replaced a reference to a “Justice” with a reference to a “Magistrate or authorised officer” and, instead, replaces it with a reference to a “justice of the peace”.	26 27 28
In so doing, the proposed amendments maintain the current position in relation to persons who have functions in relation to apprehended domestic violence orders.	29 30

(5) The report:	38
(a) is, on presentation and for all purposes, taken to have been laid before the House, and	39 40

(b)	may be printed by authority of the Clerk of the House, and	1 2
(c)	if so printed, is for all purposes taken to be a document published by or under the authority of the House, and	3 4
(d)	is to be recorded:	5

(ii)	in the case of the Legislative Assembly, in the Votes and Proceedings of the Legislative Assembly,	9 10 11
	on the first sitting day of the House after receipt of the report by the Clerk.	12 13
	Explanatory note	14
	Section 19 of the Law and Justice Foundation Act 2000 requires the Attorney General to lay the annual report of the Law and Justice Foundation of New South Wales before both Houses of Parliament as soon as practicable after receiving it.	15 16 17
	The proposed amendment amends section 19 so as to permit the Attorney General to table the annual report even if a House of Parliament is not sitting when the Attorney General seeks to do so.	18 19 20

[8] Section 64 (5)	20
Insert after section 64 (4):	21
(5) In this section, a reference to an order includes a reference to any determination that a Local Court has jurisdiction to make, and any penalty that a Local Court has jurisdiction to impose, as referred to in section 35.	22 23 24 25
Commencement	26
Items [1]–[4], [7] and [8] of the amendments to the Local Courts Act 1982 commence, or are taken to have commenced, on the commencement of Schedule 2.140 to the Justices Legislation Repeal and Amendment Act 2001 .	27 28 29
Explanatory note	30
Registrar’s authority to make consent orders	31
Item [2] of the proposed amendments removes an anomaly by omitting one of two paragraphs in section 10B (2) of the Local Courts Act 1982 (the Act) (inserted by the Justices Legislation Repeal and Amendment Act 2001 (the amending Act)) that	32 33 34

authorise a registrar to make consent orders. The omitted paragraph allows a registrar to make consent orders only if they are of a kind prescribed by the regulations, while the retained paragraph allows a registrar to make any consent orders except as provided by rules of court.	1 2 3 4
Item [1] makes a consequential amendment to the retained paragraph.	5
Fees	6
Schedule 1.5 [1] to the Courts Legislation Miscellaneous Amendments Act 2002 inserted section 28 (2) in the Act to reinstate a provision relating to fees payable in respect of certain proceedings and applications in a Local Court.	7 8 9
Item [3] of the proposed amendments confers on the registrar the function of remitting or postponing payment of any such fees.	10 11
Item [4] repeals and re-enacts section 10D (1) (a) of the Act to ensure that guidelines that may be made under section 10D (1) extend to all fees contemplated by section 28 (2).	12 13 14
Retirement age of Magistrates	15
The Judicial Officers Act 1986 was amended by the Courts Legislation Further Amendment Act 2001 to increase the retirement age for Magistrates to 72 years.	16 17
For consistency, items [5] and [6] of the proposed amendments amend sections 13 and 21 of the Act so as to provide that a Magistrate appointed for a limited tenure may be appointed for a term that does not continue past the date on which the Magistrate will attain the age of 72 years, and that certain Magistrates who have retired may be reinstated for a similar term. At present, neither term may continue past the date on which the Magistrate attains the age of 70 years.	18 19 20 21 22 23
Appeals	24
Item [7] of the proposed amendments inserts a new subsection (1A) into section 64 of the Act so as to ensure that the rights of appeal and review conferred by that section do not override the provisions of any other Acts that restrict rights of appeal or review in relation to particular matters.	25 26 27 28
Item [8] of the proposed amendments inserts a new subsection (5) into section 64 of the Act so as to ensure that references in that section to an order include references to the determinations that a Local Court can make, and the penalties that a Local Court can impose, under Part 6 of the Act.	29 30 31 32
1.27 Local Government Act 1993 No 30	33
Section 429A Complaints about councils, councillors, delegates and staff	34 35
Omit section 429A (1). Insert instead:	36
(1) A public official within the meaning of the Protected Disclosures Act 1994 may complain to the Director-General about the conduct of any one or more of the following:	37 38 39
(a) a council,	40
(b) a delegate of a council,	41
(c) a councillor,	42
(d) a member of staff of a council.	43

Explanatory note	1
At present, section 429A of the Local Government Act 1993 (the Act) provides for a public official (within the meaning of the Protected Disclosures Act 1994) to complain to the Director-General of the Department of Local Government about the conduct of a council or an officer of a council.	2 3 4 5
The proposed amendment elucidates the meaning of “officer of a council” to make it clear that complaints may be made about the conduct of councillors, delegates of councils and members of staff of councils. A similar amendment is proposed to be made to the Protected Disclosures Act 1994 elsewhere in this Schedule.	6 7 8 9
By operation of section 400 of the Act, section 429A extends to cover county councils and their members, delegates and staff.	10 11

76 Proceedings for offences	17
(1) Proceedings for an offence against this Act may be dealt with before a Local Court or before the Supreme Court in its summary jurisdiction.	18 19 20
(2) Proceedings for an offence against the regulations are to be disposed of in a summary manner before a Local Court.	21 22
(3) The maximum pecuniary penalty that may be imposed by a Local Court in proceedings for an offence against this Act is 50 penalty units or the maximum penalty provided by this Act in respect of the offence, whichever is the lesser.	23 24 25 26
(4) If proceedings for an offence against this Act are brought before the Supreme Court in its summary jurisdiction, the Court may impose a penalty not exceeding the maximum penalty provided by this Act in respect of the offence.	27 28 29 30
Branding of meat	32
The Meat Industry Act 1978 (the Act) has been largely superseded by the Food Production (Safety) Act 1998 (the Safety Act). Section 6B (1) of the Act provides that regulations under the Safety Act may include provisions requiring the branding of meat to identify whether it is lamb or hogget, regardless of whether the purpose of those provisions relates to the safety of the meat for human consumption. Section 6B (2) provides that any such provisions cease to have effect on and from 1 August 2003 (unless sooner repealed). Such a provision is currently in force (clause 60 of the Food Production (Meat Food Safety Scheme) Regulation 2000).	33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40

Item [1] of the proposed amendments repeals section 6B (2) so as to permit the branding requirements to be retained indefinitely.	1 2
Proceedings for offences	3
One of the provisions of the Act repealed by the Safety Act was section 76, which, among other things, specified the forum in which proceedings for offences against the Act or the regulations made under the Act might be taken.	4 5 6
As the Act still creates certain offences (and the regulations are capable of doing so), item [2] of the proposed amendments re-enacts so much of the repealed section 76 as is necessary to permit proceedings for the offences to be taken.	7 8 9

Explanatory note	21
Clarification	22
Items [1] and [2] of the proposed amendments recast certain provisions of the Medical Practice Act 1992 (the Act) so as to clarify their meaning. Similar amendments to other legislation dealing with health professionals are proposed to be made elsewhere in this Schedule.	23 24 25 26
Eligibility inquiries	27
Item [3] of the proposed amendments makes the same amendment in relation to the President and Registrar of the New South Wales Medical Board in respect of the holding of an inquiry into the eligibility of an applicant for registration as a medical practitioner as is proposed to be made by item [2] of the amendments to the Chiropractors Act 2001 elsewhere in this Schedule in relation to the holding of an inquiry into eligibility for registration under that Act.	28 29 30 31 32 33

1.30 Mental Health Act 1990 No 9	1
Section 228 Appointment of official visitors	2
Insert at the end of section 228 (4):	3
, or	4
(c) The Royal Alexandra Hospital for Children.	5
Explanatory note	6
Section 228 of the Mental Health Act 1990 requires the appointment of official visitors to each area health service . That term is defined in section 228 (4) to mean an area health service constituted under the Health Services Act 1997 and the Corrections Health Service (a statutory health corporation under that Act).	7 8 9 10
The proposed amendment adds The Royal Alexandra Hospital for Children (also a statutory health corporation) to the meaning of area health service for the purposes of section 228 as it is intended that an acute mental health ward will be opened at that hospital in the future. The proposed amendment will ensure that official visitors will be appointed to that facility.	11 12 13 14 15

(4) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence against this section if the accused proves that the act constituting the alleged offence:	17 18 19
(a) was authorised to be done, and was done in accordance with, a general licence under section 120, a licence under section 131, 132 or 132A, a scientific licence under section 132C or a licence granted under Part 6 of the Threatened Species Conservation Act 1995 , or	20 21 22 23 24
(b) was the subject of a certificate issued under section 95 (2) of the Threatened Species Conservation Act 1995 .	25 26
[4] Section 153B Easements, rights of way and licences for landlocked areas (as inserted by the National Parks and Wildlife Amendment Act 2001)	27 28 29
Renumber the section as section 153C.	30
Explanatory note	31
Item [1] of the proposed amendments corrects incorrect indefinite articles arising from the replacement of words by previous amendments.	32 33
Item [2] of the proposed amendments repeals and re-enacts section 72 (1) (c) of the National Parks and Wildlife Act 1974 (the Act) so as to remove obsolete references to nature reserves and karst conservation reserves “dedicated” under the Act. All land is now “reserved” under the Act.	34 35 36 37

Item [3] of the proposed amendments repeals and re-enacts section 118B (4) of the Act so as to afford a person accused of an offence under section 118B (Buying, selling or possessing threatened species or endangered population) an additional defence to those already available. The defence concerned is currently available to persons accused of offences under sections 118A (Harming or picking threatened species, endangered populations or endangered ecological communities), 118C (Damage critical habitat) and 118D (Damage habitat of threatened species, endangered population or endangered ecological community) of the Act.	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8
The additional defence is that the act constituting the alleged offence was the subject of a certificate issued under section 95 (2) of the Threatened Species Conservation Act 1995 —that is, a certificate to the effect that a licence under the latter Act is not required in respect of a particular action.	9 10 11 12
Item [4] of the proposed amendments corrects duplicated numbering.	13

Explanatory note 24

Furnishing of certain information to public authorities 25

At present, section 31AC of the Ombudsman Act 1974 (the Act) permits the Ombudsman to furnish to a public authority information obtained by the Ombudsman in discharging functions with respect to a complaint against or relating to the public authority. It also permits the Ombudsman to make comments to the public authority regarding the complaint. 26
27
28
29
30

Item [2] of the proposed amendments extends section 31AC so as to permit the Ombudsman to furnish to any other public authority such of that information as is relevant to the functions, policies, procedures or practices of that other public authority, provided that the information does not disclose any personal information (as defined in the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998). The proposed amendment also permits the Ombudsman to make any comments to the other public authority as the Ombudsman considers appropriate. 31

Disclosure of certain information 38

Section 34 of the Act prohibits the disclosure by the Ombudsman or an officer of the Ombudsman of any information obtained in the course of office unless the disclosure is made in the circumstances set out in that section. Item [4] of the proposed 39
40

amendments specifies two further circumstances (as section 34 (1) (b1) and (b2)) in which such a disclosure may be made. Item [3] renumbers the existing section 34 (1) (b1) as section 34 (1) (b3) to permit the insertion of the new paragraphs.	1 2 3
The first circumstance concerns information relating to the safety, welfare or well-being of a particular child or young person (or a class of children or young persons). In that case, the information may be disclosed to a police officer, the Department of Community Services or any other public authority that the Ombudsman considers appropriate in the circumstances. In consequence of this authorisation to disclose that information, item [1] of the proposed amendments repeals section 25D (2), which currently authorises the disclosure to police officers, other relevant investigative agencies and the Commission for Children and Young People of information about child abuse obtained under Part 3A of the Act.	4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12
The second circumstance arises when the Ombudsman believes on reasonable grounds that the disclosure to a particular person (for example, a police officer or the governor of a correctional centre) is necessary to prevent or lessen the likelihood of harm being done to any person, but only if the Ombudsman also believes on reasonable grounds that there is a risk of harm (including self-harm) being done to any person. In that case, the disclosure may be made to the particular person.	13 14 15 16 17 18

Clarification	27
Item [1] of the proposed amendments recasts a provision of the Optometrists Act 2002 (the Act) so as to clarify its meaning. Similar amendments to other legislation dealing with health professionals are proposed to be made elsewhere in this Schedule.	28 29 30
Eligibility inquiries	31
Item [2] of the proposed amendments makes the same amendment in relation to the President and Registrar of the Optometrists Registration Board in respect of the holding of an inquiry into the eligibility of an applicant for registration as an optometrist as is proposed to be made by item [2] of the amendments to the Chiropractors Act 2001 elsewhere in this Schedule in relation to the holding of an inquiry into eligibility for registration under that Act.	32 33 34 35 36 37

(5) Schedule 5 has effect with respect to the conduct of any inquiry and the hearing of any appeal by the Tribunal.	4 5
[2] Schedule 1 Registration procedures	6
Omit “President” from clause 11. Insert instead “Registrar”.	7
Explanatory note	8
Clarification	9
Item [1] of the proposed amendments recasts a provision of the Osteopaths Act 2001 (the Act) so as to clarify its meaning. Similar amendments to other legislation dealing with health professionals are proposed to be made elsewhere in this Schedule.	10 11 12
Eligibility inquiries	13
Item [2] of the proposed amendments makes the same amendment in relation to the President and Registrar of the Osteopaths Registration Board in respect of the holding of an inquiry into the eligibility of an applicant for registration as an osteopath as is proposed to be made by item [2] of the amendments to the Chiropractors Act 2001 elsewhere in this Schedule in relation to the holding of an inquiry into eligibility for registration under that Act.	14 15 16 17 18 19
1.37 Pawnbrokers and Second-hand Dealers Act 1996 No 13	20
Section 9 Application to licences of Licensing and Registration (Uniform Procedures) Act 2002	21 22
Insert after section 9 (1) (b):	23
(c) combined pawnbrokers’ and second-hand dealers’ licences.	24 25
Explanatory note	26
Section 10 (3) of the Pawnbrokers and Second-hand Dealers Act 1996 (the 1996 Act) , before the consequential repeal of section 10 (Determination of applications) by the Licensing and Registration (Uniform Procedures) Act 2002 (the 2002 Act) , provided that a licence under the 1996 Act “may authorise its holder to carry on the business of a second-hand dealer or pawnbroker, or both”.	27 28 29 30 31
The 2002 Act also repealed section 9 (Licence applications) of the 1996 Act and re-enacted it to provide (among other things) for the issue of the following:	32 33
(a) pawnbrokers’ licences,	34
(b) second-hand dealers’ licences.	35
However, the re-enacted section omitted to make provision for a combined licence.	36
The proposed amendment repairs that omission.	37

1.38 Physiotherapists Act 2001 No 67	1
[1] Section 112 Conduct of proceedings	2
Omit section 112 (5). Insert instead:	3
(5) Schedule 5 has effect with respect to the conduct of any inquiry and the hearing of any appeal by the Tribunal.	4 5
[2] Schedule 1 Registration procedures	6
Omit “President” from clause 11. Insert instead “Registrar”.	7
Explanatory note	8
Clarification	9
Item [1] of the proposed amendments recasts a provision of the Physiotherapists Act 2001 (the Act) so as to clarify its meaning. Similar amendments to other legislation dealing with health professionals are proposed to be made elsewhere in this Schedule.	10 11 12
Eligibility inquiries	13
Item [2] of the proposed amendments makes the same amendment in relation to the President and Registrar of the Physiotherapists Registration Board in respect of the holding of an inquiry into the eligibility of an applicant for registration as a physiotherapist as is proposed to be made by item [2] of the amendments to the Chiropractors Act 2001 elsewhere in this Schedule in relation to the holding of an inquiry into eligibility for registration under that Act.	14 15 16 17 18 19
1.39 Property, Stock and Business Agents Act 2002 No 66	20
[1] Section 68 Bidders Record	21
Insert “or stock and station agent” after “real estate agent” in section 68 (3).	22 23
[2] Section 71 Approved consumer education guide for bidders at auctions	24 25
Insert “or stock and station agent” after “real estate agent” in section 71 (2).	26 27
Explanatory note	28
Section 68 of the Property, Stock and Business Agents Act 2002 (the Act) provides that, before residential property or rural land is offered for sale by auction, a record (the Bidders Record) must be made of the persons who will be entitled to bid at the auction. Section 68 (3) requires a “real estate agent” engaged to act in respect of the sale to make the Bidders Record for the auction (unless some other specified agent has done so).	29 30 31 32 33 34
Section 71 (2) of the Act requires a “real estate agent” engaged to act in respect of the sale to take all reasonable steps to ensure that a person who bids at the auction has been provided before the auction with a copy of the current consumer education guide for prospective bidders at such auctions approved by the Director-General of the Department of Fair Trading under section 71 (1).	35 36 37 38 39

The proposed amendments amend sections 68 (3) and 71 (2) to make it clear that the requirements of those sections extend to stock and station agents.	1 2
1.40 Protected Disclosures Act 1994 No 92	3
[1] Section 12B Disclosure to Director-General of Department of Local Government concerning serious and substantial waste in local government	4 5 6
Omit section 12B (1) (b). Insert instead:	7
(b) be a disclosure of information that shows or tends to show serious and substantial waste of local government money by any one or more of the following:	8 9 10
(i) a local government authority,	11
(ii) a delegate of a local government authority,	12
(iii) a councillor (within the meaning of the Local Government Act 1993),	13 14
(iv) a member of a county council (within the meaning of the Local Government Act 1993),	15 16
(v) a member of staff of a local government authority.	17 18
[2] Schedule 2 Savings, transitional and other provisions	19
Insert at the end of clause 1 (1):	20
Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2003 (but only in so far as Schedule 1 to that Act amends this Act and the Local Government Act 1993)	21 22 23
[3] Schedule 2, clause 5	24
Insert at the end of the clause:	25
(2) A disclosure referred to in section 12B as amended by Schedule 1.40 [1] to the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2003 is protected by this Act even if it relates to conduct or activities engaged in, or matters arising, before the commencement of that amendment.	26 27 28 29 30
Explanatory note	31
At present, section 12B of the Protected Disclosures Act 1994 (the Act) provides for a public official (within the meaning of the Act) to complain to the Director-General of the Department of Local Government about serious and substantial waste of local government money by a "local government authority" (that is, a council or a county council) or an officer of a local government authority.	32 33 34 35 36

Item [1] of the proposed amendments elucidates the meaning of “officer of a local government authority” to make it clear that complaints may be made about such waste by councillors, members of county councils, delegates of councils and county councils and members of staff of councils and county councils. A similar amendment is proposed to be made to the Local Government Act 1993 elsewhere in this Schedule.	1 2 3 4 5
Item [2] of the proposed amendments permits the making of savings and transitional regulations in consequence of item [1] of the proposed amendments and of the proposed amendment to the Local Government Act 1993 .	6 7 8
Item [3] of the proposed amendments inserts a transitional provision.	9
1.41 Psychologists Act 2001 No 69	10
[1] Section 3 Object of Act	11
Omit “practice”. Insert instead “practise”.	12
[2] Section 111 Conduct of proceedings	13
Omit section 111 (5). Insert instead:	14
(5) Schedule 5 has effect with respect to the conduct of any inquiry and the hearing of any appeal by the Tribunal.	15 16
[3] Schedule 1 Registration procedures	17
Omit “President” from clause 11. Insert instead “Registrar”.	18
Explanatory note	19
Statute law revision	20
Item [1] of the proposed amendments corrects a spelling error.	21
Clarification	22
Item [2] of the proposed amendments recasts a provision of the Psychologists Act 2001 (the Act) so as to clarify its meaning. Similar amendments to other legislation dealing with health professionals are proposed to be made elsewhere in this Schedule.	23 24 25
Eligibility inquiries	26
Item [3] of the proposed amendments makes the same amendment in relation to the President and Registrar of the Psychologists Registration Board in respect of the holding of an inquiry into the eligibility of an applicant for registration as a psychologist as is proposed to be made by item [2] of the amendments to the Chiropractors Act 2001 elsewhere in this Schedule in relation to the holding of an inquiry into eligibility for registration under that Act.	27 28 29 30 31 32
1.42 Public Finance and Audit Act 1983 No 152	33
Schedule 2 Statutory bodies	34
Omit “Board of Surveyors of New South Wales”.	35
Insert instead “Board of Surveying and Spatial Information”.	36
Commencement	37
The amendment to the Public Finance and Audit Act 1983 commences, or is taken to have commenced, on the commencement of Part 6 of the Surveying Act 2002 .	38 39

Explanatory note	1
The Surveying Act 2002 repeals the Surveyors Act 1929 , which constituted the Board of Surveyors of New South Wales. Part 6 of the Surveying Act 2002 constitutes the Board of Surveying and Spatial Information.	2 3 4
The proposed amendment makes the necessary consequential amendment to the Public Finance and Audit Act 1983 .	5 6
1.43 Real Property Act 1900 No 25	7
[1] Section 36 Lodgment and registration of documents	8
Omit section 36 (1D) (c). Insert instead:	9
(c) that is not lodged in a manner approved for the time being by the Registrar-General.	10 11
[2] Section 36 (6) (a)	12
Omit “in the prescribed manner”.	13
Insert instead “in a manner approved for the time being by the Registrar-General”.	14 15
[3] Sections 74I, 74J and 74JA	16
Omit “date of service of that notice” wherever occurring in sections 74I (4) (b), 74J (3) (b) and 74JA (5) (b).	17 18
Insert instead “date of issue of that notice”.	19
Explanatory note	20
Lodgment and relodgment of documents	21
At present, section 36 (1D) of the Real Property Act 1900 (the Act) provides that the Registrar-General may refuse to accept certain dealings and caveats for lodgment, including (as provided by paragraph (c) of that subsection) any dealing or caveat “that is not lodged in such a manner, or is not accompanied by such number of complete copies thereof, as may be prescribed”.	22 23 24 25 26
Section 36 (6) of the Act provides (in part) that, for the purposes of section 36 (Lodgment and registration of documents), a dealing that is lodged in registrable form and is subsequently uplifted is to be deemed not to be in registrable form until relodged “in the prescribed manner” (and in registrable form).	27 28 29 30
Items [1] and [2] of the proposed amendments omit the requirements that the manner of lodging and relodging dealings and caveats be prescribed by the regulations. They provide, instead, for lodging and relodging in a manner “approved for the time being by the Registrar-General”.	31 32 33 34
Lapsing of caveats	35
Sections 74I, 74J and 74JA of the Act provide that caveats to which those sections relate lapse at the expiry of the period of 21 days after the date of service on the caveator of a notice warning the caveator that the caveat will lapse unless, within that period, the caveator obtains and lodges with the Registrar-General an order from the Supreme Court extending the operation of the caveat.	36 37 38 39 40

The sections require the person seeking the lapsing of the caveat (the applicant) to lodge with the Registrar-General evidence of service of the warning notice on the caveator within 4 weeks after the issue of the notice. The sections permit the Registrar-General to refuse to take any further action in the matter if the applicant does not do so. However, the Registrar-General may (but need not) allow an extension of time for service of the warning notice. At present, the additional time (if any) runs for 4 weeks from the date of service on the applicant of a notice allowing the extension. 1

Item [3] of the proposed amendments amends sections 74I, 74J and 74JA so as to provide that the extension of time runs, instead, for 4 weeks from the date of issue of the notice to the applicant. 8

1.44 Shops and Industries Act 1962 No 43 11

Section 152A Performance of Director-General’s functions 12

Omit “Part 4 or 6” from section 152A (1). Insert instead “Part 2, 4 or 6”. 13

Explanatory note 14

Section 152A of the Shops and Industries Act 1962 (the Act) permits the delegation of the functions of the Director-General of the Department of Industrial Relations under Parts 4 and 6 of the Act to officers of that Department. (The Department of Industrial Relations was abolished by the Public Sector Employment and Management (General) Order 2003. However, clause 33 (3) of that Order provides that in any document, a reference to the Department of Industrial Relations is to be construed as a reference to the Department of Commerce.) 15

26

Under Part 6 of the Act, the Director-General determines applications for hairdressers’ licences. The Director-General may cancel or suspend any licence granted, vary the terms and conditions (if any) of a licence and impose additional terms and conditions on a licence. 27
28
30

Schedule 1 to the Bank Holidays Legislation Amendment Act 2002 recently inserted Part 2 (Opening of banks on weekends) in the Act. That Part provides, among other things, for the Director-General to determine banks’ applications for approval to open on weekends, and it permits the Director-General, in certain circumstances, to vary the conditions of, or suspend or cancel, any such approval. 31

Insert at the end of clause 2: 42

- (2) For the purposes of the calculation of a member’s consecutive terms of office only, if: 43
44

(a) a person is appointed under clause 6 to fill the office of a member that has become vacant otherwise than by the expiration of the member's term of office, and	1 2 3
(b) the person is appointed for the balance of his or her predecessor's term of office,	4 5
the appointment does not constitute (and is taken never to have constituted) an appointment for a term of office.	6 7
Explanatory note	8
The proposed amendment makes an amendment equivalent to that proposed to be made by item [1] of the proposed amendments to the Art Gallery of New South Wales Act 1980 elsewhere in this Schedule.	9 10 11
1.46 Stock (Chemical Residues) Act 1975 No 26	12
Section 7 Temporary notice for detention of chemically affected stock	13 14
Omit "a random" from section 7 (2). Insert instead "from a".	15
Explanatory note	16
Section 7 of the Stock (Chemical Residues) Act 1975 (the Act) permits an inspector under the Act to give a notice requiring the detention, at a specified place for a specified period, of stock that are chemically affected or that the inspector suspects are chemically affected. Section 7 (2) provides that, if the inspector only suspects that the stock are chemically affected, the inspector must take for analysis "specimens from those stock or [from] a random sample of those stock" or exercise any other power conferred by the Act for the purpose of ascertaining whether the stock are chemically affected.	17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24
In practice, it would be preferable to take a selected sample of the stock (for example, stock exhibiting any signs that gave rise to the inspector's suspicions), rather than a "random" sample, to increase the probability of ascertaining whether the stock are chemically affected. To permit this, the proposed amendment omits the word "random" from section 7 (2). The proposed amendment also inserts an additional "from" to clarify the meaning of the subsection.	25 26 27 28 29 30
1.47 Strata Schemes (Freehold Development) Act 1973 No 68	31
Section 5 Definitions	32
Omit the definition of special resolution from section 5 (1).	33
Insert instead:	34
special resolution has the same meaning as it has in the Strata Schemes Management Act 1996 .	35 36
Commencement	37
The amendment to the Strata Schemes (Freehold Development) Act 1973 is taken to have commenced on 1 July 1997.	38 39

Explanatory note	1
At present, special resolution is defined in the Strata Schemes (Freehold Development) Act 1973 by reference to certain other provisions of that Act that have now been repealed.	2 3 4
The proposed amendment repeals the definition and re-enacts it in terms of the definition in the Strata Schemes Management Act 1996 .	5 6
1.48 Strata Schemes (Leasehold Development) Act 1986 No 219	7
Section 4 Definitions	8
Omit the definition of special resolution from section 4 (1).	9
Insert instead:	10
special resolution has the same meaning as it has in the Strata Schemes Management Act 1996 .	11 12
Commencement	13
The amendment to the Strata Schemes (Leasehold Development) Act 1986 is taken to have commenced on 1 July 1997.	14 15
Explanatory note	16
At present, special resolution is defined in the Strata Schemes (Leasehold Development) Act 1986 by reference to certain other provisions of that Act that have now been repealed.	17 18 19
The proposed amendment repeals the definition and re-enacts it in terms of the definition in the Strata Schemes Management Act 1996 .	20 21
1.49 Strata Schemes Management Act 1996 No 138	22
Section 21 Executive committee’s decisions to be decisions of owners corporation	23 24
Omit “this Act or the by-laws requires” from section 21 (2) (a).	25
Insert instead “is required by or under any Act”.	26
Explanatory note	27
Section 21 of the Strata Schemes Management Act 1996 (the Act) provides that a decision of an executive committee of an owners corporation is taken to be the decision of the owners corporation. The section also provides that certain decisions may not be made by the executive committee, including a decision that “this Act or the by-laws” requires to be made by the owners corporation by unanimous resolution or special resolution or in a general meeting.	28 29 30 31 32 33
However, the Act is not the only Act that requires decisions to be made by any such method (see section 19 (2) of the Strata Schemes (Freehold Development) Act 1973 , for example). Accordingly, the proposed amendment amends section 21 so as to provide that the executive committee may not make a decision that is required by or under any Act to be made by such a method.	34 35 36 37 38

1.50 Sydney Opera House Trust Act 1961 No 9	1
[1] Section 6 Trustees	2

[1] Section 54 Publication of terms and conditions of customer contracts	19 20
Omit “initial” from section 54 (1).	21
[2] Section 54 (5)	22
Omit the subsection.	23
[3] Section 59 Variation of customer contracts	24
Insert “or summarising” after “setting out” in section 59 (1).	25
[4] Section 59 (3)	26
Insert “or summarised” after “set out”.	27
[5] Section 59 (4)	28
Omit “This section does”. Insert instead “Subsections (1)–(3) do”.	29
[6] Section 59 (5)	30
Insert after section 59 (4):	31

- (5) Following variation of a customer contract, copies of the contract and explanatory material concerning the contract are to be made available to the public in such manner as the operating licence may provide.

Explanatory note

Customer contracts

Section 54 (1) of the Sydney Water Act 1994 (the Act) requires the “initial” terms and conditions of a customer contract to be set out in the operating licence (within the meaning of the Act) of Sydney Water Corporation (the Corporation). Item [1] of the proposed amendments removes the word “initial”, so as to require all terms and conditions (including new terms and conditions and those that have been varied) to be set out in the operating licence.

At present, section 59 of the Act provides that the terms and conditions of a customer contract may (subject to the approval of the Governor) be varied by the Corporation by a notice “setting out” the variation and published in a daily newspaper circulating in the area of operations. The notice must be published at least 6 months before the variation becomes effective (or within a shorter period approved by the Minister). Item [3] of the proposed amendments enables that notice to summarise the variation as an alternative to setting it out in full. Item [4] makes a consequential amendment.

Item [6] of the proposed amendments inserts a new subsection in section 59. The new subsection requires copies of a customer contract that has been varied (together with explanatory material concerning the contract) to be made available to the public in such manner as the operating licence may provide.

Section 59 (4) currently provides that section 59 does not apply to a variation of a customer contract to the extent that the variation relates to alteration of the level of fees or charges and the alteration is in accordance with a determination of the Independent Pricing and Regulatory Tribunal. Item [5] of the proposed amendments amends section 59 (4) to ensure that the new subsection (5) will apply in relation to such variations.

Similar amendments (including the insertion of a provision equivalent to section 59 (4)) are proposed to be made, elsewhere in this Schedule, to the Hunter Water Act 1991.

Repeal

Section 54 (2) of the Act required the Corporation, before the commencement of section 55 (Owner of land taken to have entered into customer contract), to publish in a daily newspaper circulating in the area of operations (as specified in the Act) a notice setting out the initial terms and conditions of customer contracts or a summary of them.

Section 54 (5) of the Act provides that, if an operating licence so provides, the terms and conditions set out in “the notice or the summary” must be in a form specified by or authorised under the operating licence or licences.

Section 54 (2) is spent and has been repealed. Consequently, section 54 (5) may also be repealed. Item [2] of the proposed amendments effects that repeal.

Omit “An person” from section 145 (3). Insert instead “A person”.	6
[3] Section 185 Purpose of industry codes of practice	7
Omit “Part 5” where secondly occurring. Insert instead “Part 2”.	8
Explanatory note	9
Item [1] of the proposed amendments omits a term that is not used elsewhere in the Coal Mine Health and Safety Act 2002 and replaces it with the correct term.	10
Item [2] of the proposed amendments replaces an incorrect indefinite article.	11
Item [3] of the proposed amendments corrects an incorrect cross-reference.	12
2.6 Community Land Development Act 1989 No 201	13
Section 26 Development contract	14
Omit “section 91” from section 26 (4). Insert instead “section 80”.	15
Explanatory note	16
The proposed amendment updates a reference to a section of the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979 that was repealed and then renumbered when subsequently re-enacted.	17
2.7 Confiscation of Proceeds of Crime Act 1989 No 90	18

Insert “or the regulations” after “this Act” in section 102 (2).	18
[2] Section 102 (5)	19
Insert “or the regulations” after “this Act”.	20
[3] Section 102 (5)	21
Insert “of this Act, or relevant clause of the regulations,” after “relevant section”.	22
Explanatory note	23
At present, section 102 of the Electricity Supply Act 1995 (the Act) provides that proceedings for an offence against the Act or the regulations made under it are to be dealt with summarily before a Local Court. Alternatively, proceedings for an offence against the Act (but not the regulations) may be dealt with summarily before the Supreme Court in its summary jurisdiction.	24
In any such proceeding before it, a Local Court cannot impose a penalty exceeding 100 penalty units in the case of a corporation and 50 penalty units in any other case (section 102 (4)). The Supreme Court may impose the maximum penalty specified by the relevant section of the Act (section 102 (5)).	25
Section 106 of the Act (the general regulation-making power) was recently amended to allow the regulations to create offences punishable by penalties of up to 250 penalty units in the case of a corporation and 100 penalty units in any other case (previously	26

100 and 25 penalty units, respectively). However, if proceedings for offences against the regulations may be taken only in a Local Court, it is clear that the higher penalties contemplated by section 106 as amended cannot be imposed.	1 2 3
In consequence of the amendment to section 106, the proposed amendments amend section 102 so as to permit proceedings for offences against the regulations (as well as against the Act) to be dealt with by the Supreme Court.	4 5 6
2.11 Environmental Planning and Assessment Regulation 2000	7
Part 11 Insurance, Division 2, heading	8
Omit “Automatic run-off contracts”.	9
Insert instead “Approved professional indemnity contracts”.	10
Explanatory note	11
The proposed amendment updates terminology.	12
2.12 Fair Trading Act 1987 No 68	13
Section 8 Delegation by Director-General	14
Omit section 8 (1) (f).	15
Commencement	16
The amendment to the Fair Trading Act 1987 commences, or is taken to have commenced, on the commencement of section 222 of the Property, Stock and Business Agents Act 2002 .	17 18 19
Explanatory note	20
The proposed amendment omits a reference to an Act that is repealed by the Property, Stock and Business Agents Act 2002 . Section 8 (1) (f) is superseded by section 222 of the latter Act.	21 22 23
2.13 Fines Act 1996 No 99	24
[1] Section 52 Provisions relating to annulment of enforcement orders	25 26
Insert “application for the” before “order” in section 52 (2).	27

Sydney Water Act 1994 , section 50	6
[5] Schedule 1	7
Omit “ Water Board (Corporatisation) Act 1994 , section 50”.	8
Explanatory note	9
Missing words	10
Section 51 (4) of the Fines Act 1996 provides (among other things) that, for certain purposes, an application for a court fine enforcement order or a penalty notice enforcement order is taken to be an information in relation to the alleged offence for which the relevant fine was imposed. Section 52 (2) refers to “the order taken under this Division to be an information”, instead of to “the application for the order taken under this Division to be an information”.	11
	13
	14
	15
	16
Item [1] of the proposed amendments inserts the missing words in section 52 (2).	17
Updates of names of Acts	18
Item [2] of the proposed amendments updates a reference to an Act that has been repealed and item [3] omits an outdated Note referring to another repealed Act.	19
	20
The Sydney Water Act 1994 was previously the Water Board (Corporatisation) Act 1994 . Schedule 1 to the Fines Act 1996 refers to that Act by its previous name.	21
	22
Item [4] of the proposed amendments inserts a reference (in alphabetical order) to the current name of the Act, and item [5] removes the outdated reference.	23
	24
2.14 First State Superannuation Act 1992 No 100	25
[1] Part 4A Death or incapacity benefits for firefighters	26
Renumber sections 20A, 20B and 20C where occurring in Part 4A as sections 20C, 20D and 20E, respectively.	27
	28
[2] Section 20E Provision to be made with respect to death or incapacity benefits for firefighters (as renumbered by item [1])	29
	30
Omit “section 20B” from section 20E (3). Insert instead “section 20D”.	31
Explanatory note	32
Item [1] of the proposed amendments corrects duplicated numbering.	33
Item [2] of the proposed amendments makes a consequential amendment.	34

Omit Schedule 3 [24]. Insert instead:	4
[24] Schedule 4 Savings, transitional and other provisions	5
Insert at the end of clause 1 (1):	6
Health Records and Information Privacy Act 2002 , but	7
only to the extent that it amends this Act	8
Explanatory note	9
The proposed amendment repeals and re-enacts in incorporable form an amendment that has become unincorporable because of an intervening amendment.	10
	11
2.16 Home Building Regulation 1997	12
Schedule 4, Penalty notice offences	13
Omit “ and short descriptions ” from the heading to the Schedule.	14
Explanatory note	15
The proposed amendment updates the heading to a Schedule to reflect the fact that the Schedule no longer contains short descriptions of offences.	16
	17
2.17 Industrial Relations Act 1996 No 17	18
[1] Section 210 Freedom from victimisation	19
Omit the full stop at the end of section 210 (1) (ia). Insert instead “, or”.	20
[2] Section 210 (1) (j)	21
Insert “or” at the end of the paragraph.	22
Explanatory note	23
The proposed amendments insert missing conjunctions.	24
2.18 Local Government (Orders) Regulation 1999	25
Schedule 1 Standards for places of shared accommodation	26
Omit “clause 83 of the Public Health Regulation 1991 ” from clause 1 (2).	27
Insert instead “clause 22 of the Public Health (General) Regulation 2002 ”.	28
	29

The proposed amendment updates a reference to a regulation that has been repealed and replaced.	31
	32

2.19 Marine Parks Regulation 1999	1
Schedule 1 Zoning plans for marine parks	2
Insert “16.” after “shown on map” in the matter relating to Shark Net Beach designated anchoring area in Table D of Division 10 of Part 2.	3 4
Explanatory note	5
The proposed amendment inserts missing matter.	6
2.20 Motor Dealers Act 1974 No 52	7
Section 17 Change of address of holder of licence	8
Omit “a place of business specified in accordance with section 10 (4) (d) or, where a place of business has been varied or added under subsection (3), at the place of business as so varied or added” from section 17 (5).	9 10 11 12
Insert instead “a place of business authorised by the licence”.	13
Explanatory note	14
The proposed amendment gives effect to an amendment made by the Licensing and Registration (Uniform Procedures) Act 2002 that was unincorporable on commencement because of an intervening amendment.	15 16 17
2.21 National Parks and Wildlife Regulation 2002	18
Clause 92 Terms of interim protection orders	19
Omit “relic” from clause 92 (2) (f). Insert instead “Aboriginal object”.	20
Explanatory note	21
The proposed amendment updates terminology.	22
2.22 Pawnbrokers and Second-hand Dealers Regulation 1997	23
[1] Clause 21 Penalty notice offences and demerit points	24
Omit “Column 3” from clause 21 (3). Insert instead “Column 2”.	25
[2] Clause 21 (4)	26
Omit “Column 4”. Insert instead “Column 3”.	27
[3] Schedule 2, heading	28
Omit the heading. Insert instead:	29

Schedule 2 Penalty notice offences and demerit points	1 2
[4] Schedule 2	3
Renumber Column 3 and Column 4 as Column 2 and Column 3 respectively.	4 5
Explanatory note	6
Before the repeal of section 145B of the Justices Act 1902 (which authorised the making of regulations prescribing short descriptions of offences), Column 2 of Schedule 2 to the Pawnbrokers and Second-hand Dealers Regulation 1997 contained (among other things) short descriptions of offences under that Act. Column 2 no longer appears in that Schedule.	7 8 9 10 11
Item [3] of the proposed amendments updates the heading to Schedule 2 to reflect the fact that the Schedule no longer contains short descriptions of offences.	12 13
Item [4] renumbers Columns 3 and 4 of Schedule 2 in consequence of the omission of Column 2. Items [1] and [2] make consequential amendments.	14 15
2.23 Police Integrity Commission Act 1996 No 28	16
Section 79 Further action by Commission	17
Omit “section 98” from section 79 (3). Insert instead “section 100”.	18
Explanatory note	19
The proposed amendment corrects an incorrect cross-reference.	20
2.24 Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 No 133	21 22
[1] Section 6 Courts, tribunals and Royal Commissions not affected	23
Omit “is” from section 6 (1). Insert instead “in”.	24
[2] Section 55 Review of conduct by Tribunal	25
Omit “restrain” from section 55 (2) (b). Insert instead “refrain”.	26
Explanatory note	27
The proposed amendments correct typographical errors.	28
2.25 Public Health Act 1991 No 10	29
Section 59 Sale of tobacco and non-tobacco smoking products to minors	30 31
Omit section 59 (5).	32

Explanatory note	1
Section 59 (5) of the Public Health Act 1991 (the Act) is as follows:	2
(5) Section 61R does not apply to an offence under subsection (1A).	3
The subsection was inserted at a time when the Public Health Amendment (Tobacco Control) Bill 1999 (which would have inserted section 61R, among other provisions, in the Act) was before Parliament. However, that Bill was not enacted. There is no section 61R in the Act.	4 5 6 7
The proposed amendment repeals the subsection containing the cross-reference to section 61R.	8 9
2.26 Randwick Local Environmental Plan 1998	10
Clause 42B Kensington Town Centre (as inserted by Randwick Local Environmental Plan 1998 (Amendment No 27))	11 12
Renumber the clause as clause 42C.	13

3 Amendment of Road Transport (General) (Penalty Notice Offences) Regulation 2002	20 21
The Road Transport (General) (Penalty Notice Offences) Regulation 2002 is amended as set out in Schedule 1.	22 23
Commencement	24
The amendment to the Road Transport (General) (Penalty Notice Offences) Amendment (Level Crossing Offences) Regulation 2002 is taken to have commenced on 1 January 2003.	25 26 27
Explanatory note	28
The proposed amendment corrects the incorrect citations of a statutory instrument.	29
2.28 Terrorism (Commonwealth Powers) Act 2002 No 114	30
[1] Schedule 1 Part 5.3 of Commonwealth Criminal Code	31
Insert “or” after “Australia;” in paragraph (a) of the definition of organisation in section 100.1 (1).	32 33

[2] Schedule 1, Section 100.4	1
Omit “terrorists acts” from subsection (1) (a).	2
Insert instead “terrorist acts”.	3
[3] Schedule 1, Section 100.6	4
Omit “Act” from subsection (4). Insert instead “Part”.	5
Explanatory note	6
Item [1] of the proposed amendments inserts a missing conjunction.	7
Item [2] of the proposed amendments corrects an incorrect reference to a defined term.	8
Item [3] of the proposed amendments corrects a reference to an Act as the reference should be to a Part of the Act.	9
2.29 Travel Agents Regulation 2001	11
[1] Clause 7 Fees	12
Omit “Schedule 1” from clause 7 (4). Insert instead “Schedule 2”.	13
[2] Clause 7 (5)	14
Omit “an licence”. Insert instead “a licence”.	15
Explanatory note	16
Item [1] of the proposed amendments corrects an incorrect cross-reference.	17
Item [2] of the proposed amendments replaces a form of the indefinite article that is inappropriate for the context with the appropriate form.	18
2.30 Water Management Act 2000 No 92	20
[1] Section 20 Core provisions	21
Omit “or water source” from section 20 (1) (b).	22
[2] Section 178 Discontinuance or reduction of supply of water	23
Omit the subsection number.	24
[3] Section 213 Lessees of land owned by the Crown	25
Omit “the” where secondly occurring in section 213 (2) (d).	26

[4] Section 398 Exclusion of Crown liability	1
Insert “of” before “any functions” in section 398 (2).	2
Explanatory note	3
Item [1] of the proposed amendment omits duplicated words that were inserted by two simultaneous amendments (see Schedule 1 [4] and [5] to the Water Management Amendment Act 2002).	4
Item [2] of the proposed amendments omits a superfluous subsection number.	5
Item [3] of the proposed amendments omits a superfluous word.	6
Item [4] of the proposed amendments inserts a missing word.	7
2.31 Water Management Amendment Act 2002 No 138	8
[1] Schedule 4 Amendment of Water Management Act 2000 in relation to other matters	9
Omit “clause 9 (7) (e)” from Schedule 4 [35].	10
Insert instead “clause 9 (7) (f)”.	11
[2] Schedule 4 [35]	12
Renumber paragraph (f) as paragraph (g).	13
Commencement	14
The amendments to the Water Management Amendment Act 2002 are taken to have commenced on the commencement of Schedule 4 [35] to that Act.	15
Explanatory note	16
Item [1] of the proposed amendments corrects an unincorporable incorporating direction.	17
Item [2] of the proposed amendments corrects duplicated numbering.	18

Explanatory note

The repeals are explained in detail in the Explanatory note relating to this Act. In relation to the repeal of amending Acts, it should be noted that the Acts are repealed simply to rationalise the legislation in force and that the repeals have no substantive effect on the amendments made by the Acts or any associated provisions. The Acts that were amended by the Acts or provisions being repealed are up-to-date on the Legislation Database maintained by the Parliamentary Counsel's Office and are available electronically.

Section 30 (2) of the Interpretation Act 1987 ensures that, when an Act is amended or repealed, no amendment made by the Act is affected. Section 30 (2) also ensures that the following matters are not affected:

- (a) the proof of any past act or thing,
- (b) any right, privilege, obligation or liability saved by the operation of the Act,
- (c) any amendment or validation made by the Act,
- (d) the operation of any savings or transitional provision contained in the Act.

Schedule 4 General savings, transitional and other provisions

(Section 5)

1 Effect of amendment of amending provisions

- (1) An amendment made by Schedule 1 or 2 to an amending provision contained in an Act is, if the amending provision has commenced before the date of assent to this Act, taken to have effect as from the commencement of the amending provision.

- (2) In this clause:

amending provision means a provision of an Act that makes a direct amendment to an Act by:

- (a) the repeal or omission of matter contained in the amended Act without the insertion of any matter instead of the repealed or omitted matter, or
- (b) the omission of matter contained in the amended Act and the insertion of matter instead of the omitted matter, or
- (c) the insertion into the amended Act of matter, not being matter inserted instead of matter omitted from the Act, whether the provision was enacted before or after the commencement of the Reprints Act 1972.

Explanatory note

This clause ensures that certain amendments, including amendments correcting errors in technical provisions (for example, headings indicating the section to be amended or directions as to where a new section is to be inserted) and rectifying minor drafting errors (for example, corrections in numbering of provisions, correction or insertion of cross-references, omission of unnecessary matter or insertion of omitted matter), will commence on the date the amendments to which they relate commenced.

2 Effect of amendment or repeal on acts done or decisions made

Except where it is expressly provided to the contrary, if this Act:

- (a) amends a provision of an Act or an instrument, or
- (b) repeals and re-enacts (with or without modification) a provision of an Act or an instrument, any act done or decision made under the provision amended or repealed has effect after the amendment or repeal as if it had been done or made under the provision as so amended or repealed.

Explanatory note	1
This clause ensures that the amendment or repeal of a provision will not, unless expressly provided, vitiate any act done or decision made under the provision as in force before the amendment or repeal.	2 3 4
3 Application of Interpretation Act 1987 to amendments to statutory rules	5 6
Sections 39, 40 and 41 of the Interpretation Act 1987 do not apply to any amendments to statutory rules made by this Act.	7 8
Explanatory note	9
This clause makes it clear that certain provisions concerning the making, tabling and disallowance of statutory rules do not apply to amendments to statutory rules made by the proposed Act.	10 11 12
4 Effect of amendment on regulations	13
Except where expressly provided to the contrary, any regulation made under an Act amended by this Act, that is in force immediately before the commencement of the amendment, is taken to have been made under the Act as amended.	14 15 16 17
Explanatory note	18
This clause ensures that, unless expressly provided, any regulation made under an Act amended by the proposed Act, and in force immediately before the commencement of the amendment, will be taken to have been made under the amended Act.	19 20 21
5 Effect of amendment on environmental planning instruments	22
The amendment of an environmental planning instrument by this Act does not prevent its later amendment or repeal by another environmental planning instrument.	23 24 25
Explanatory note	26
This clause ensures that the amendment of a local environmental plan or other environmental planning instrument does not prevent its amendment or repeal by an environmental planning instrument.	27 28 29
6 Regulations	30
(1) The Governor may make regulations containing provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of this Act.	31 32 33
(2) Any such provision may, if the regulations so provide, take effect from the date of assent to this Act or a later date.	34 35
(3) To the extent to which any such provision takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication in the Gazette, the provision does not operate so as:	36 37 38

Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Bill 2003

Schedule 4 General savings, transitional and other provisions

- (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication, or 1
- (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication. 4

Explanatory note 7

This clause enables the making of regulations of a savings or transitional nature having a short term effect and relating to incidental matters arising out of the proposed Act with regard to which no specific, or sufficient, provision has been made in the Act. 8
