driver licence means a driver licence within the meaning of the Driver Licensing Act other than a driver licence issued under a law of another State or a Territory.

Driver Licensing Act means the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Act 1998.

graffiti licence order means an order under section 13C (1) (b).

learner licence period, in relation to a learner licence held by a person, means the minimum period for which the person is required by a condition imposed by the regulations under the Driver Licensing Act to hold the learner licence before a provisional licence may be issued.

provisional licence means a provisional licence within the meaning of the Driver Licensing Act other than a provisional licence issued under a law of another State or a Territory.

provisional licence period, in relation to a provisional licence held by a person, means the minimum period for which the person is required, pursuant to the regulations under the Driver Licensing Act, to hold the provisional licence before being eligible to apply for a provisional P2 licence or an unrestricted licence (as the case requires).

Note. The scheme under Subdivisions 1 and 2 of Division 2 of Part 3 of the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 2008 requires a person to hold a provisional licence (that is, a P1 licence followed by a P2 licence) for a total period of 36 months before the person can be issued with an unrestricted licence. If a court takes action under this Part, the total period will in effect be extended to up to 42 months.

unrestricted licence means a driver licence or driver licence receipt issued under the Driver Licensing Act that is not a learner licence or a provisional licence.

13B Alternative and additional actions to imposing penalty for graffiti offences under sections 4 and 5

- (1) A court may, instead of imposing a fine on a person for an offence under section 4 (Damaging or defacing property by means of graffiti implement) or 5 (Possession of graffiti implement), make a community service order under the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 or the Children (Community Service Orders) Act 1987 directing the person to perform community service work, as the case requires.

Note. Community service orders made under the Acts referred to in this subsection may also be made instead of imposing sentences of imprisonment. Community service orders under those Acts in relation to graffiti offences are generally required to be made subject to graffiti clean up conditions.

- (2) A court may, in addition to or instead of imposing a fine on a person, sentencing the person to imprisonment or imposing any other penalty on the person for an offence under section 4 or 5, make a driver licence order.

Note. For example, a driver licence order might be imposed in addition to graffiti clean up conditions in relation to community service orders imposed instead of imprisonment for graffiti offences under the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 or the Children (Community Service Orders) Act 1987.

13C Driver licence orders

- (1) A court may make any of the following orders (driver licence orders) under section 13B (2):
  - (a) if the person is the holder of a learner licence or provisional licence—an order extending the person's learner licence period or provisional licence period, respectively, for a period of 6 months, or a lesser period specified in the order, with effect from the day on which the learner licence period or provisional licence period would otherwise end,
  - (b) an order requiring the person not to incur the same or more than the threshold number of demerit points applying to the person under section 13E for a period of 6 months or a lesser period specified in the order, commencing on the day on which the order is made (the graffiti licence order period).
- (2) A court must not make an order under subsection (1) (b) if 10 or more demerit points have been recorded against the person in the demerit points register during the 3 year period immediately before the order is made.

13D Orders extending learner and provisional licence periods

- (1) The extension of a person's learner or provisional licence period by an order under section 13C, in the case of a person who holds more than one class of driver licence, applies only to those classes of licence specified by the court.
- (2) If, in the case of a learner licence or provisional licence that is subject to an extension under section 13C, the licence is cancelled at any time by operation of section 189 of the Road Transport (General) Act 2005, the learner licence period or provisional licence period in respect of any subsequent learner licence or provisional licence that is issued to the person is extended by operation of this subsection for a period that is equivalent to so much of the period by which the licence was extended as remained on the day the licence was cancelled.
- (3) The period for which a person's learner licence or provisional licence period may be extended by an order under section 13C does not include any period during which the person's learner licence or provisional licence is suspended by the Authority otherwise than on medical grounds.

13E Graffiti licence orders

- (1) A graffiti licence order made in relation to a person who is the holder of an unrestricted licence must specify the threshold number of demerit points to apply to the holder for the purposes of the Driver Licensing Act during the graffiti licence order period.

Note. See section 16AB of the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Act 1998 with respect to licence suspension when the threshold number of demerit points is incurred.

- (2) In subsection (1), threshold number of demerit points means 4 demerit points or such other number of demerit points as may be prescribed by the regulations.

13F Explanation of nature and effect of driver licence order

- (1) A court that makes a driver licence order in respect of a person must explain, or cause to be explained, to the offender (in language likely to be readily understood by the person):
- (a) the requirements to be complied with by the person under the order, and
  - (b) the consequences that may follow if the person fails to comply with those requirements.
- (2) A driver licence order is not invalidated by a failure to comply with this section.

13G Provisions relating to imposition of penalties for offences under sections 4 and 5

- (1) A court is to take into account a statement of the driving record of a person in making a driver licence order in relation to a licence held by the person.
- (2) A court is to notify the Authority of the making, and terms, of any driver licence order it makes under this Part as soon as practicable after the order is made.
- (3) If a finding of guilt, conviction or sentence in respect of an offence under section 4 or 5 is quashed, annulled or set aside, any driver licence order made in respect of the offence is revoked.
- (4) A driver licence order is not invalidated by a failure to comply with this section.
