CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES (Assembly):

Australasian Naval Force Bill: Out of order to discuss the amendments of a clause on the question that it be postponed: the debate should be limited to the simple question of postponement, 1714, 1724, 1731, 1732, 1733, 1734, 1735, 1736. The name of the Sovereign or of her representative should not be used in order to influence the debate, and it should be mentioned with respect, 1745. DEPUTY-CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES (Assembly) :

- A member has a right to say that a statement is not true, 4551.
- Disorder : As to removing Mr. Fletcher from the Chamber for having assaulted Mr. Haynes, and reporting the disorder to the House, 3465, 3467, 3481 ; as to naming Mr. McElhone for being guilty of contempt, 5067, 5069.
- Estimates : Schedules A, B, and C, being provided for by act of Parliament, should not be discussed, 4534 ; an amendment to refer estimates back to the Government is out of order, 4720. Colonial Secretary's new estimates ought to be covered by a new message; 5834.
- Government Railways Bill : Council's amendment in clause 27, granting a free pass to the permanent heads of the parliamentary departments indirectly imposes a tax upon the people, 4056.

Land-tax Bill : Mr. Stokes' amendment is not irrelevant to the resolution before Committee of Ways and Means ; it is in order not only to propose amendments relevant to the question, but actually to substitute other taxes for those proposed, 4484. Mr. Neild's amendment in sub-clause iv of clause 2, subjecting certain reserves to taxation, is inadmissible unless proposed by a minister of the Crown, 5795. Mr. Neild's amendment to insert a new sub-clause in clause 2, being substantially the same as one which has already been decided, is not in order, 5798 ; new clause, to stand clause 60, proposed by Mr. Neild, is beyond the order of leave, 5805.

Perpetual Trustee Company's Bill : If Mr. Street should vote on the bill he would probably come within the exemption provided by the Constitution Act in respect of members who are members of trading or public companies, 3423.

Post Office Street : Mr. Dibbs' amendment is covered by the message from the Governor ; it would not be in order if the message mentioned any sum of money, 4281, 5066.

Unparliamentary Language : Out of order—to use, with regard to another member, the term "swindler," 3455 ; "low ruffian," 3464 ; "old woman," 3467 ; "ruffianly manner," "language of untruth," 3468 ; "sectarian monger," 3477 ; "political mosquito," 4117 ; "blackguard manner," "liar," 4121, 5162 ; "that young man," 4128 ; "body-snatcher," 4283 ; "political perjurer," 4389 ; "free-trade frog," 4409 ; "gross lie," 4665 ; "cabbage-gardener," 4825 ; "a creature," 4980 ; "that other person," 4980 ; "bottle-washer," 5605 ; "buttoner," 5964.

to speak of a member's speech as "blackguardly aspersions," 3404 ; "an outrage," 3471 ; "stonewalling," 4407, 5796.

to impute that a member's living depends on some action he may take in the House, 4131 ; "revenge," 4544 ; "untruth," 4653 ; "bribery and corruption," 4665, 4683.

to say that some members have acted the part of "Judases," 4132 ; "dare not vote conscientiously," 4826.

to reflect on the Chairman, 4133, 4134, 5730 ; on Mr. Speaker, 4544 ; on a vote of the Committee, 4410.

to criticise the vote of a member of the other House, 4393.

to make an allegation against a member of the legislature, 4410, 5067, 5164, 5765.

to discuss the main question on a motion to report progress, 5176.

to refer to the Minister of Public Instruction as the "member for half-chest," 5966.

PRESIDENT, The:

- Casting Vote of, 6435.
 Opinions and Rulings of:
 With reference to a petition presented in accordance with the 162nd standing order, praying for leave to introduce the Perpetual Trustee Company Bill, which had been passed by the House in the preceding session and forwarded to the Legislative Assembly, but had lapsed there at the close of the session:—On a former occasion the authorities in the Legislative Assembly interpreted their rule, which is identified with the 162nd standing order, so as to permit of a bill which had passed through all its stages in that House being again passed through all its stages without debate. It would be a hardship to deprive those persons who have succeeded in carrying through their bills, not only through a portion of their stages, but entirely through this House, of the remedy which was intended to be given by the rules; and it would hardly be right not to allow the same latitude in this House as was allowed in the other House, 129, 131, 132, 133.

Volumes 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34.

With reference to publication of notices in regard to private bills, 2444, 3014.

Supply Bill (No. 2)—Hon. member is not in order in discussing the estimates for 1888 upon the motion for the second reading of this bill, 2947.

As to refreshment hour, 3015, 3017.

Registration of Births, Deaths, and Marriages Bill involves a direct appropriation of public revenue, and is improperly introduced, 3872.

Amendment by Sir William Manning, in clause 10 of the Bulli Fund Bill, is not irrelevant to the subject-matter of the bill, and may fairly be considered by the Committee, 3937.

Hon. member will not have the same latitude of discussion in dealing with a monthly supply bill, as in dealing with an appropriation bill, 4247.

In considering a monthly supply bill, it is not advisable that an hon. member should enter into matters of expenditure which may occur at some future period, 4250.

Clause 3 of the Criminal Law Amendment Bill is not foreign to the title of the bill, 4356.

As to irregularities in motion by Dr. Bowker, granting prayer of petition of Captain Rossi in connection with the Church of England Property Bill, 4420.

Silverton Tramway Bill presents an unusual appearance; but contains nothing to prevent question of second reading from being put, 4853.

It is not customary under ordinary circumstances to discuss the merits of a bill on a motion to postpone the second reading, 3269.

Amendment by Dr. Bowker, upon motion re Sydney Hospital, cannot be accepted until it has been determined that certain words of the motion be omitted, 3503.

Observations re management of refreshment-room, 5690.

Hon. member is in order in addressing himself to the principles of a bill on the motion that the House resolve itself into Committee to consider the bill in detail, 5699.

Clause 13 of Chinese Bill, as amended by the Assembly, can be considered in Committee, 5941.

As to busts in the Legislative Council, 6040, 6093.

As to practice of adjournment upon decease of a member, 6042, 6091, 6093.

With regard to matters of fact the Council is justified in accepting the published Votes and Proceedings of the other House, 6104.

Resolution by Mr. Jacob re the constitutional powers of the Council is properly before the House, 6104.

Hon. gentleman representing the Government is entitled to take charge of a private bill, 6444.

See HAY, The Hon. Sir JOHN.

SPEAKER, Mr.:

Opinions and Rulings of:

- As to the election of a member for Wentworth, 136.
- A member in reply should not introduce new matter, 162, 720.
- It is not out of order to designate the Council as useless, and, in its present composition, dangerous, 211; to say that members of the Opposition have shown by their action that they have no sympathy with the colony, 2072; to speak of a speech as being "full of drivelling and abominable nonsense," 1389; to accuse one's self of having told an untruth to get the Deputy-Chairman out of a difficulty, 4804.
- A member would not be considered disorderly in turning his back to the Chair for a short time under certain circumstances, 285.
- It is the custom when a member's conduct is impugned in specific terms for him to speak in explanation and then withdraw until a vote is arrived at, 320; Mr. Lyne should so withdraw, 329.
- The Chair has no control as to where members should sit, 509.
- As to transcription of evidence taken before select committees, 445.
- The remark, "the mask of sincerity which he wore so well just now," is not disorderly if it is not meant to offend another member, 319.
- Disorderly words should be taken down before other business is entertained, 540, 579.
- A message is not required to either reduce or repeal a tax, 1224.
- As to why a motion affecting the business of the House has not been placed first on the paper, 1934.
- As to the retirement of the Clerk of the House, 2379.
- The standing orders, or any portion of them, cannot be set aside except on notice, 2825.
- As to applause in the Strangers' Gallery, 3155.
- As to mode of appointing a Deputy-Chairman when the Chairman of Committees is too indisposed to discharge the duties of his office, 3891, 3982, 3985.

Opinions and Rulings of:

- Any message proposed to be sent to the Council is open to amendment, 4076.
- The Leader of the Government is entitled to make a statement at the beginning of any sitting, 4695.
- A member is entitled to vote against his own motion, 5136.
- Once the Chair has called on the orders of the day they cannot be intercepted, 5369.
- The jurisdiction of the refreshment committee does not extend to the smoking-room, 5562.
- As to invitation from Legislative Assembly of Victoria to attend the opening of the Centennial Exhibition, Melbourne, 6043; loan of pictures for the exhibition, 6121.
- Not out of order to move an amendment to a message forwarding a bill to the Council, 6352.
- As to the severe privations which the officers and servants of the House undergo during a long or continuous sitting, 6727.
- Albury Cattle Sale-yards Bill* is not improper before the House, although considerable irregularity took place before the select committee, 251.
- Appropriation Bill*: The debate on an appropriation bill should be relevant to the appropriations which it covers, 6770.
- Australasian Naval Force Bill*: A debate on the question that the House resolve itself into Committee to consider the expediency of bringing in the bill is almost unprecedented; it cannot be stopped by the Chair, 1335. Mr. T. Walker is named for disregarding the authority of the Chair, 1335; a motion to adjudge Mr. T. Walker guilty of a contempt cannot be put because the House is in division, 1336. Mr. Toohy is named for disorderly conduct, 1337; the motion in respect of Mr. Toohy is in order, 1338. The question before the House remains in abeyance until the motion arising out of the disorder is dealt with, 1340. As to the House accepting Mr. Toohy's explanation, 1355. The bill is properly before the House. Everything connected with the management of this country and the consolidated revenue fund is entirely in the power of the House, unless absolutely prohibited by the Constitution Act, 1332. Not out of order for a member to say that he will oppose the bill, 1521. Amendment of Mr. Haynes is not in order, 1570. Until the motion for the adjournment of the debate on the second reading is decided no speech should be delivered on the main question or the amendment, 1633. Before the adjournment of the debate can be moved a second time some business other than a speech and a division must intervene, 1640. The arguments which apply to the main question apply almost equally to the question that the bill be read a second time this day six months, 1642. No debate can be allowed on the motion that the bill do now pass, 1867. Notwithstanding a resolution that a certain debate should take precedence of all other business, the third reading of this bill as a formal matter was regular under the second sessional order, 1926.

Opinions and Rulings of:

Bankruptcy Bill is not unpunctuated in accordance with the usual practice of the House, 257. How far discussion is irregular on the question that the adoption of the report stand an order of the day for to-morrow, 746.

Bills: The first reading of a bill should be decided without amendment or debate, 463, 464. It is unusual to take the third reading of a bill on the same day as the adoption of the report, more especially of a bill that has been amended, 802. It is irregular to debate the merits of a bill on the motion that the second reading stand an order of the day for another day, 6328; but with general concurrence it may be done, as, for instance, in the case of the Land Bill, 861, 863, 864. No amendment can be moved on the motion—That the bill be printed, 862; nor can the question be debated, 2445. If a member wishes to move that the second reading be fixed for a particular date, some remarks with reference even to the merits of the bill may be in order; but not on the merits of the bill without reference to that date, 864. On the second reading, a bill, in regard to its principles, is open to the fullest debate; but it is irregular at this stage to enter into detail and discuss the measure, clause by clause, 3053. It is not the practice to throw out a bill on the third reading upon a point of order; the objection should be taken at the second reading, 4317. When a bill is an order of the day the bill becomes the property of the House, and it is competent for any member to move its further stage in the unavoidable absence of the member in charge of it, 4495. On the second reading of a bill its principles, and not the actual contents of a schedule to the bill should be discussed, 5223. The third reading of a bill can be taken with general, not with individual, concurrence, 6797.

Breach of Privilege: As to the disorderly conduct of Mr. Thomas Robertson in exclaiming, in the midst of a speech, "That is a lie," 584, 590. As to the acceptance of Mr. Robertson's apology, 596. The encounter between Mr. McElhone and Mr. Matheson in the smoking-room is a breach of privilege, 2576.

Centenary of the Colony: The motion in its amended form was put with concurrence; no objection can be taken afterwards, 865, 890. The resolutions, as reported from Committee, are properly before the House, 890. The motion—That the resolutions be now received—cannot be objected to, because it was taken with concurrence, 891, 892. It has been the practice that, after a motion has been proposed with concurrence, it is too late to take objection, 892. The motion for the reception of the resolutions cannot be amended; an amendment will be in order on the motion that they be read the second time, 893. Amendment of Mr. Garrard, which seeks merely to redistribute the money proposed to be appropriated, is in order, 894.

Opinions and Rulings of:

Centenary Celebration Bill: It is contrary to the usual practice to ask the Government for information about the designs for the State House on the motion for the second reading of the bill, 1675.

Chinese Restriction Bill is properly before the House; the order of leave was sufficiently comprehensive to cover the intention of clause 3, and also sufficiently explicit to define the general powers sought under the bill, 4792. The Council has exceeded its province in omitting clause 16, providing for the payment by the Chinese already residing in the colony of an annual license fee of 10s. each. The bill is a revenue-producing measure, though not strictly a money bill, 5640.

Church of England Property Bill: The Chair cannot rule out of order any bill which has come from the Council, 6379.

Crown Lands Bill: Order of the day for the resumption of the debate on the motion for the second reading called; the Secretary for Lands cannot make any motion in reference to it, or make any speech on the motion, unless it is in reply after the debate is closed, 1109. The Premier is not entitled to a reply on the question that the bill be withdrawn, 1110. Mr. Garrett should not discuss its provisions on the question for leave to introduce the bill; the proper time to discuss the bill will be in Committee, 1273, 1285. It is contrary to usage for a debate to occur on the motion to go into Committee on a future day, 1290, 1294; the debate cannot be ruled out of order, 1294. Mr. Chanter has not discussed in detail on the second reading the several clauses of the bill, nor has he been guilty of continued irrelevance or tedious repetition, 3067. Mr. J. P. Abbott's motion as to forfeited selections within leasehold areas is not out of order, although it anticipates the consideration of a clause in the Land Bill, 3582.

Custody of Papers—Evans' Truck Patent: Although members may see all documents immediately they are laid upon the table, yet they should not take them out of the Chamber, but should return them as soon as possible to the clerk, 303, 305, 313, 656. It is not in order for Mr. Lyne to have exclusive possession of those papers, 312, 656. The removal of papers from the custody of the clerk cannot be condoned except by a vote of the House, although it might be allowed to drop, 317. The House having ordered that the documents be printed, it is no part of the Speaker's duty to intercept that order, or to prevent its being carried out, unless on a subsequent order, 331.

20 September, 1887, to 24 July, 1888.

Opinions and Rulings of :

Debates—References and Quotations : A member should not refer to or quote from a debate in the same session ; but he may speak in general terms of a motion that has been before the House in an early period of the sitting, 368. The statement of a stranger as to a debate cannot be repeated ; it may be referred to, 457, 460. A member, in a personal explanation, may quote from a speech in the same session, 1008, 4895. Not out of order to read an official letter on any subject before the House, as long as it does not refer to a previous debate ; a minister should not quote from an official document unless he has laid it, or is prepared to lay it, on the table, 1011. Not out of order to quote the written opinions of private persons in a discussion on a public matter ; but the name of the writer ought to be stated to the House, 1819. A general reference to a previous debate in the same session is not out of order, 2021, 2243 ; a distinct reference is not allowed, 4039, 4894.

Disorder : As to an assault on Mr. Haynes in Committee of Supply, by Mr. Fletcher, 3481, 3490. As to disorderly and offensive conduct of Mr. McElhone towards the Deputy-Chairman of Committees, 5069, 5070, 5073, 5074, 5077 ; arrest of Mr. McElhone, 5092, 5127 ; and release of Mr. McElhone, 5152.

Divisions : An irregularity in the taking of a division cannot be corrected, unless with general concurrence the division is taken again, 1042. It is unparliamentary for a member to call for a division, and not give effect to his voice, 1178.

Estimates are merely proposals by the Government for the consideration of the House, and preliminary to the introduction of the Appropriation Bill. It is for Parliament to grant, refuse, or reduce the amounts asked for therein. The Estimates are properly before the House, although the salaries therein shown are lower than those provided for by the Civil Service Act and the Civil Service Act Amendment Act, 4532. The salaries of civil servants are not fixed by act of Parliament, 4539. The items in the Schedules A, B, and C, are shown not for the purpose of being voted, but for the information of members, and are not open for discussion, 4539.

Formal Business : No motion to which any objection has been made should be afterwards taken as formal business during the sitting, 1251, 1528, 5044. A resolution that a certain debate should take precedence of all other business on the next sitting does not override the sessional order as to formal motions and orders of the day, 1926. Although the Government may decline to proceed with public business pending the decision of a certain motion, it is the duty of the Chair to go through the paper with a view to formal matters, 2786. As to inaudible objections to formal motions, 6124. Government Railways Bill : Council's amendment in clause 27 cannot properly be considered as an infringement of the rights of this House, 4411.

Opinions and Rulings of :

Hansard is a report of speeches almost exactly as they are delivered, without revision by members, 1026.

Imputation of Motives : A motion which imputes motives may be in order ; improper motives should not be imputed in debate, 706.

Inland Waters Fisheries Bill simply imposes a license fee, and therefore it did not require to be originated in Committee, 1665.

Judgment Creditors Bill : Mr. Carruthers, if he has been so requested by the introducer, Mr. Trickett, who is now a member of the Council, may take charge of the bill, 5432.

Land Purchase, Circular Quay : There is no rule by which the motion of Sir Henry Parkes can be taken off the business-paper, because the subject-matter of it is before a select committee, 780. There is no machinery at the command of the House to serve a summons personally on a witness in an adjoining colony ; the committee must await the return of Mr. Gorman, 828. Mr. McElhone may report that the proceedings of the committee have been improperly divulged ; but he should not repeat his own evidence or even a statement, 1112. Mr. O'Sullivan should not canvass the proceedings of the committee, 1114. Mr. Slattery should not discuss the question under the consideration of the committee, 2037.

Land-tax Bill : In order for members to state, on the second reading of a bill of this kind what in their opinion would be perhaps a better way of providing for the wants of the country, 5377 ; Mr. Neild's amendment in sub-clause III of clause 2 only makes more plain the original intention of the bill, 3286.

Milburn Creek Case—Votes and Proceedings :

Although it is not permissible to impute motives in debate, yet it may be done by motion, 706, 713. Amendment of Mr. Garrett to omit Mr. O'Mara's motion from Votes and Proceedings is in order, 716. There will be no record of the original motion or of the amendment, or of any division on one or the other, unless the House otherwise orders, 716, 721, 723. It is not the Chair's duty of his own motion to take any action on the resolution, 722. Mr. Garrett's amendment, as it appears in the Votes and Proceedings, is exactly as it was put when the House voted on it ; the record is in accordance with precedent, 735. The Votes should show what actually occurred, rather than written notices which were not acted upon, 736. The only object in prefixing the words, "Mr. Thomas Garrett, M.P.," to the entry is for the sake of reference, 736.

Volumes: 28; 29; 30; 31, 32, 33; 34.

Opinions and Rulings of:

Motions and Amendments: It is not the custom in a motion of dissent to embody the ruling, 40. The mover of a resolution in Committee has no special right of reply, 82. A member who moves the adjournment of the debate, which has been negatived, cannot speak to the main question; 49. On an amendment, the main question cannot be discussed, 83. A member may debate the main question when an amendment is before the House, 84. A second amendment cannot be moved until the previous one is disposed of, 87. It is not the practice to intercept a notice of motion with a similar motion, 94. A motion cannot be moved by one member for another unless it is opposed, 215. An amendment should always be relevant to the original motion, 405. A member may object to a motion being moved in an amended form; he cannot state his reasons, 868. A motion of an abstract nature need not be moved in the first instance in Committee, 1043, 2190. Until the motion for the adjournment of a debate is decided no speech can be delivered on the main question or the amendment, 1633. It is not in the power of the House to compel a member to move a motion of which he has given notice, 2223. A motion which the House has allowed one member to move for another as a formal matter cannot be debated, 2225. Not in order to replace or to proceed with a notice of motion which appears on the paper for a future day, 2326; 6364. No reply is allowed on the motion that a resolution of Committee of Supply be read the second time, 2862. There is no rule to prevent the discussion on a motion, of any question to be dealt with in a bill, 3582. A motion with regard to the business of the House takes precedence of all other business, 6195.

Motions for Adjournment: The delivery of a statement which was interrupted by Black Rod cannot be resumed on a motion for adjournment, 13. It is not in order on such a motion to dispute a ruling which was given previously; 595; to accuse the Government of corrupt practices, 1947; or a minister of bribery, 5226; to make a charge of any kind, 2064, 2460, 2827, 2829; 3264, 3265, 5182; to challenge the conduct of the Speaker, 2098, 2101; to reflect upon the public character of a minister, 2766; 6429; to make any imputation; 3171.

Mr. Speaker: It is in the power of the House by a resolution to remove the Speaker. Mr. Toohy's notice of motion for the rescission of Mr. Speaker's appointment is in order, but it is not a matter of privilege; and the Premier's motion that such notice be not entered on the records is not admissible, 2388. As to leaving the chair during the discussion of Mr. Buchanan's motion, 6171; 6176; and resuming the chair.

New Standing Orders: It is not the duty of the Chair to express an opinion whether these rules are legal or not, 91. No extraneous matter should be introduced on a motion for adjournment under these rules, 310, 501, 504, 659, 784, 786, 914, 916, 6052. It is not in order to speak on general topics on such a motion, 462. A member can only exceed the time allowed by the standing order with general consent, 507, 978, 2752, 2771. Any interruptions for which a member himself is responsible will not have the effect of extending the time, 3112. It is the duty of the Chair under new rule No. 5 to declare the question—That the question be now put—carried if no voices are given in the negative, and there are forty members present; it is not necessary to take a division, 119, 121, 2060. No debate is allowed on the motion that the House resolve into Committee of Supply or Ways and Means; 3426. As to the interpretation of the first additional standing order, 6743. North Shore, Manly, and Pittwater Tramway Bill does not contravene section 54 of Constitution Act, inasmuch as it does not contain any question of appropriation. The provisions do not exceed the order of leave sufficiently to enable the Chair to rule the bill out of order; 1230.

Opinions and Rulings of:

Perpetual Trustee Company Bill: As to its introduction under the 65th standing order, 193, 195. The second reading must be taken without debate in accordance with that rule, 747.

Personal Explanation: As to what constitutes a ground for a personal explanation; a member should not discuss a subject under cover of a personal explanation, 1767, 3158, 5812. The personal explanation of one member cannot be debated by another member, 1301. Only the member who is in possession of the Chair can object to another member making an explanation, 2447. Not in order under cover of a personal explanation to make or re-state charges against some person outside, 3381, 3382, 3383.

Petition: As to informal petition, 782, 959, 1984, 3075, 3169, 4254, 4504, 6171. As to the procedure in regard to the reading of petitions; 959, 5566. It is not the practice to take a vote on the question that a petition be read, 2266; or to refuse to receive a petition on account of a mere formal interlineation, 2840.

Press Comments—Select Committees: If Mr. Melville feels that the publication of certain paragraphs in the Evening News is calculated to bring the proceedings of a committee of which he is chairman into contempt he might submit a motion to the House calling the publishers of it to its bar in order to inquire into the matter, 1766.

Privilege: If one member assume to himself the right to keep within his possession a paper which is the equal right of all; it is a matter of privilege; 314, 315, and may be considered without previous notice; 322. Under ordinary circumstances it is disorderly to impute motives; but on a motion of privilege it is in order to say that another member is designedly keeping back certain information, 320. As to what constitutes a question of privilege, 165, 168. The publication or circulation of "The First Legislative Assembly" by the Government Printer cannot be considered as a matter of privilege; it should be made the subject of an ordinary motion, 166, 168. It is a question for the House to decide whether its privileges are being interfered with or abrogated by the Government proposing to carry on business when the Premier has resigned his seat, 553. A matter of privilege should be discussed only upon a motion, 548, 549, 2571, 2742, 3036, 3159, 3289, 4296, 6016. As to procedure in calling attention to the published words of another member, 3792. Not in order to move a vote of censure with respect to any words that Mr. O'Sullivan may have uttered in a previous debate; exception should have been taken when the matter was fresh in the recollection of the House, 4693. An infraction of the law by a member does not constitute a question of privilege, 6345.

Opinions and Rulings of:

Property-tax Bill is properly before the House, 6168.

Public Works Bill is within the order of leave. It is not absolutely necessary that every individual power in a bill should be included in the order of leave and in the title of the bill, 2441.

Public Works Committee: Any member may claim that the committee shall be chosen by ballot; but before it can be taken the motion must be passed that the committee shall be appointed, 5436, 5441.

Questions: Notices of motion and questions may be given; but questions should not be put or answered before the speech from the throne is read, 15. The reading of notices and questions is a matter of practice, and not of rule; notices may be handed to the clerk until the orders of the day are called on, 67, 69. As to irregular questions, 256, 4868, 5720. Great latitude is allowed to ministers in answering questions, 446. Question of Mr. McElhone as to Montpellier: Estate is not in order, 781. A member should not put a question of a private nature to another member, 2823; or make a charge when asking a question, 2896. As to questioning another member through the Chair, 3709. No power in the Chair to compel a minister to answer a question, 3874.

Quorum: It is most disorderly for a member to call attention to the state of the House without having satisfied himself that there is not a quorum present, 1629, 4152.

Removal of Members: Mr. Slattery, Mr. Garvan, Mr. Melville, Mr. T. Walker, Mr. Hassall, Mr. O'Mara, Mr. Chanter, Mr. Dibbs, Mr. Greer, Mr. Vaughn, Mr. O'Sullivan, Mr. Lyne, Mr. Leviën, and Mr. Wall are severally removed from the Chamber for being guilty of persistent disorder and so interfering with the orderly business of the House, 2054-57, 2081. The members were not committed to the custody of the Serjeant-at-Arms; they were removed from the Chamber until the close of the debate, or until they should severally agree not to further interrupt the proceedings; and the action was taken under the inherent right of the Chair, 2092. The action of the Speaker cannot be challenged except on a specific motion, 2098. Immediately after the proceedings the question of privilege could have been raised, 2102. As to the issue of a writ in the Supreme Court against the Speaker at the instance of Mr. Slattery, 2134. It is not advisable to discuss the merits of the case, as it is sub judice, 2137, 2143. Mr. Hawken's motion with regard to the Speaker's action, not having been moved, may be withdrawn without reference to the House, 2223.

Registered Medical Practitioners' Bill exceeds the order of leave; an order of leave should incorporate all the independent powers taken in a bill, 1683.

Resignation of Sir Henry Parkes: It is not the duty of the Chair to decide the legal question as to whether Sir Henry Parkes has vacated his seat or not within the meaning of section 26 of the Constitution Act, 536, 538. The whole course of his conduct or his previous life cannot be discussed on the motion that his seat be declared vacant, 543.

Rulings: The Chair may decide a point of order with or without debate, 168, 735. Not in order, in moving dissent from a ruling, to question a previous ruling which was allowed to pass without dissent, 1172; he may quote the words which have been ruled out of order, 1174. As to why some rulings are inconsistent with others, 1686, 1687. On a motion of dissent from the ruling that it is disorderly to say indirectly that which a member cannot say directly, the statement should not be repeated, 1165.

Select Committees: There is no rule to prevent a member from discussing a matter which is before a select committee; it is not expedient to debate matters which are sub judice, or which have been referred to another tribunal, 551, 552. Any member may demand that a committee be elected by ballot, 146. It should not be made until the conclusion of the debate, 156. Members should be allowed to vote entirely unbiassed; the ballot may remain open until the clerks have almost finished their labours, 165. A member should not debate a question under the consideration of a select committee, 2037; or the proceedings of a committee, 4023.

Statements and Denials: The denial of a member should be accepted, 38, 465, 905, 1168, 2022, 2861. A member should not say indirectly that which he may not say directly, 31, 1168; or repeat allegations which have been denied, 1168, 1176. It is out of order, when a statement is made by a member on his own responsibility, for another member to say it is untrue; but if it is made on the authority of some one else, without the speaker implying that the fact is within his own knowledge, then it is quite parliamentary to say that such a statement is untrue, and the denial should be accepted, 325. Not out of order to say that the public will not believe the statement of a member, 1577, 1578. Mr. Melville is named for not withdrawing the expression that Mr. Abigail has stated "a lie," 1578. "Inconsistent with fact" is not disorderly in the same sense as is "a lie," 1782. Not out of order to deny the truth of a member's statement; but the denial should not carry with it an imputation of untruth, 1903, 2022. Not disorderly to say that a member's remembrance is not in accordance with truth, 2022.

Opinions and Rulings of:

Supply Bill: A resolution should be passed that the introduction of the bill is a case of urgent and pressing necessity before the standing orders can be suspended without previous notice, 2269.

Supreme Court Judges: The conduct of a judge of a superior court should not be impugned except upon a direct motion, 276, 278, 280, 297, 299, 300, 1655. It is a dry question of law whether members are entitled in ordinary debate to refer in other than decorous terms to the judges of the Supreme Court, 282. A motion of dissent from the ruling of the Chair should be discussed in the freest way without saying anything detrimental to the character or conduct of the judges, 283. Not in order on a motion of adjournment to impute partiality or prejudice to a judge of the Supreme Court, 1655. A member may speak of and criticise the Supreme Court in any way he thinks fit, 5235.

Sveering a New Member: As to procedure when a new member enters the Chamber while the House is in Committee, 3412, 3418.

Trades Conciliation Bill does not entail any charge on the public revenue, and is properly before the House, 4020.

Unparliamentary Language: Not in order—to refer to the private transactions of either a minister or a member with a private individual, except on specific motion, 30, 39, 44, 46.

to say that a resolution of the House is a disgrace to it, 86; that the lives or the honor of some ministers would not be safe in the hands of some members of the Opposition in an inquiry, 152; that the author of a paragraph reflecting on members of the Government is sitting on the Opposition benches, 372;

to cast an imputation on the Chair, 43, 45, 1347, 2144, 2676, 2828, 3297, 4949, or an aspersion, 1294, 2829, 5130; to threaten the Chair, 3111, 5142; to impute partiality to the Chair, 5864;

to impute untruthfulness, 148, 465, 1576, 1978, 2021, 3800; motives, 287, 1838, 2066; dishonorable conduct, 372, 705, 784; unmanly and contemptible conduct, 658; falsehood, 786, 1946, 5874; want of straightforwardness, 1456; disloyalty, 2072, 4794; drunkenness, 3132; obstruction, 4523, 5057; dishonesty, 4780; blackmailing, 5233; misrepresentation, 5514; disgraceful conduct, 5560;

to apply to another member or a section of the House the term "criminals," 144; disreputable quibble, 146; unscrupulousness of conduct, 151; fool, 386; hold your own tongue, 459; impenetrable jackass, 166; chucker-out, 569; these men, 571; moral coward, 662; a coward, 585, 2064, 2789, 2811, 2824, 6200; notorious creatures, 746; an excited, bellicose, belching blatherskite, 785; a liar, 786, 2829; a contemptible and notorious character, 787; dumb-driven beasts of governmental burden, 975; brutal majority, 977, 2074; this West Sydney Demosthenes, 1262; political parasite, 1346; a calf, 1594; mean and contemptible tactics, 1647; a lie, 1577, 1781, 2860; a deliberate misstatement, 1686; shameless mendacity, 1947; interminable chatterer, 2064; escaped monk from Mudjee, 2065; an adventurer, 2071; a corrupt man, 2460; a tool, 2568, 5662; this man, 2574; shut up, 2762; cowardice, 2829; dodges, artful dodger, 3068; the mere tool—the paid agent of the squatter, 3599; political scorpion, 3801; dishonest charges, 4780; miserable reptile, 4951; vulgar buffoonery, 5090; a cad, 5560; subservient following, 6753.

to speak of a judge of a superior court in disrespectful terms, except on specific motion, 276, 278, 280, 297, 299, 300;

to level an accusation at another member across the table, 324;

to utter a threat to a member, 512, 5213;

to charge the Government with a "repetition of the blackguardly attack of the other night," 540;

to tell a member that he had better go and sell his rum, 541; that he is not fit to black another person's boots, 1693; to impute motives which are disavowed, 705;

to carry on a conversation when the Chair has risen, 868, 1353; to address the House while the Chair is speaking, 2841; to argue with the Chair, 5130, 5573; to speak of the Chair in a disrespectful way, 6054; to threaten the Chair, 6188;

to characterise an action of the Opposition as a dodge, 1036; to describe them as a "paltry ragamuffin set," 1148;

to make counter charges in explaining that he has been misrepresented, 1397, 2893, 3037;

to call the Chairman of Committees "the paid servant of the Government," 1632; to say that a member received £1,000 for his support to the Government, 1937; has 20 September, 1887, to 24 July, 1888.

Opinions and Rulings of:

been "drunk for weeks," 2858; is prepared to vote against his conscience, 3259; dare not vote independently, 4812; might have "a finger in the pie," 4036; is the representative of the importing classes, 5373; is acting as a paid agent, 5870.

to use the term "the Chair be damned," 2824; "I don't care for fifty speakers," 3899; to cast a reflection on the House, 5136; or on a section of the House, 5136;

to speak of another member's honor in doubtful terms, 3117; of the Secretary for Lands as the Attorney-General, 5891; in disrespectful terms of a member of the Council, 5850;

to refer specifically to what took place in a Committee of the Whole, 5847.

to interject that a member is stating what he knows is not a fact, 5378.

Vote of Censure: Out of order to discuss the whole policy of the Government on a motion of censure which embraces merely their financial policy, 1882. The debate on a motion of censure should be relevant to the subject-matter of it, 1882, 2003, 2019. Strong terms may be used on such a motion to describe the actions of a minister, 1940. In order to refer to the administration of the Land Act or the land question in so far as it affects the condition of the finances, 1980, 2041, 2044. Not regular on such a motion to allude to an officer in the public service, 1989. The same latitude is not allowed on a motion which specifically censures the financial policy as is allowed on a motion of want of confidence, 2003, 2019. It is a question of taste whether a member should use this opportunity to refer to the salary of the Speaker, 2049. A motion of censure can only take precedence of private business with general consent, 3169.
