- Casting Vote of, 544.
- Rulings of :
- A division having been called for there is nothing to prevent an hon. member from 23 October, 1888, to 16 January, 1889.

SPEAKER, Mr. (continued):Rulings of (continued):

leaving the Chamber until the question has been actually put from the Chair, 908.

A question having been thoroughly answered by a minister, must not be repeated, 285.

Amendment by the hon. member for The Murrumbidgee (Mr. Dibbs) upon resolution in Committee of Ways and Means is inadmissible, 774.

Amendment by Mr. McMillan to motion by Mr. Burns to suspend standing orders for supply is relevant, 1586.

Amendment by the hon. member for Queanbeyan upon motion by Mr. Lakeman re payment of members, cannot be entertained, 1498.

Amendment to refer report back to select committee can be moved on motion that report of the committee be printed, 1418, 1419. An amendment being moved to a motion, the practice of the House is to regard both motion and amendment before the House, 796.

As to precedence on election of Chairman of Committees, 78.

As to proceedings in case of charge of bribing a member of the House, 1223, 1225, 1226, 1227, 1229.

As to alteration of answer to question, 506. Bill cannot be withdrawn until dealt with by the House after the motion for the second reading has been stated from the Chair, 519. Chair having declared a motion carried such declaration cannot be held to be final if an hon. member has risen unobserved in time to speak upon the question, 865.

Chairman of Committees for present session is the proper person to certify that a bill about to be passed is in accordance with the bill as passed through its previous stages, even though those previous stages have occurred in a previous session with acting chairman in the chair, 876.

Charges of corruption cannot be made upon a motion of adjournment, 1548, 1552.

Explanation by Mr. Frank Farnell with reference to Totalisator Bill is not a matter of privilege entitling him to be heard without notice of motion, 186.

Hon. member may not quote from a speech made during the present session, 239.

Hon. member is not entitled to reflect upon the action of the House, 302.

Hon. member must not refer to details of a previous debate when making a personal explanation, 395.

Hon. member (Mr. Tonkin) cannot attack the Chair indirectly, but must do so by specific motion, 680.

Hon. member may with general concurrence give notice of motion after orders of the day have been called on, 777.

Hon. member is not entitled in putting a question to make charges, 1107.

Hon. member is at liberty to quote from a document laid upon the table a copy of which is not in possession of other members, 1421.

Informal petitions are returned after motion for reception of same has been carried; the motion being held to be null and void on subsequent discovery of the informality, 1165.

It is objectionable to allude to the religious convictions of any hon. member, 858.

It is not in order to discuss the conduct of the Governor upon a motion to postpone business, 1556.

Matter of privilege can be raised in the House before Governor's opening speech has been read, 12.

Merits of the appointment of railway inspectors must not be debated on motion for printing papers in reference thereto, 1104.

Merits of a question referred to a select committee cannot be discussed, 1540.

Ministers of the Crown can take what course they please as to adjournment when notice of a motion of censure is given, 789.

Motion that a document quoted by a minister be laid upon the table may be entertained as a matter of privilege, 334.

Motion for select committee to inquire into the claims of Miss Brenning cannot be taken as formal business, even with concurrence, 929.

Notice of motion may be given before Governor's speech has been read, 12.

Ordinary reference to labours of the Public Service Inquiry Commission on vote of £24,470 for Treasury in Committee of Supply would be in order, 995.

Petition may be received from a member of the House, but the hon. member signing it must not present it, 286.

Prosecution under Chinese Restriction Act is not a matter of parliamentary privilege, 145.

Public document quoted by a minister should be laid upon the table if possible without injury to the public interest, 332.

Publication of report of select committee before it has been presented to the House is a breach of privilege, 1432.

Question raised by the hon. and learned member, Mr. Buchanan, as to alleged comments by Mr. Speaker upon members of the House is not one of privilege demanding instant consideration, 12.

Question as to alteration of refreshment hour is not one of privilege, 103.

Question of which notice has been given cannot be discussed on a motion of adjournment, 315.

Recent practice in the House of Commons and in this House has been in all cases to give the business of the House precedence over any other kind of business, 76.

Resolution re improvements to Circular Quay need not be introduced in Committee, inasmuch as in itself it is only an expression of opinion that does not involve expenditure, 289.

The only motion which can be made in reference to a petition is that it be received, 1105.

The hon. gentleman at the head of the Government having merely stated the view taken by the Government of an amendment upon a motion cannot be held to have spoken in reply, 1233.

The 4th standing order restrains to some extent the liberty of hon. members, but it cannot be contended that it gives the Speaker the power to judge of the spirit and intention of a speech, 795.

Though no direct reference can be made to a previous debate in the same session, reference can be made to charges which have become matter of history, 822.

Observations:

As to reported comments by Mr. Speaker upon hon. members, 103.

As to change in the refreshment hour, 109, 110, 145.
