S

SPEAKER, Mr. (The Hon. EDMUND BARTON) :

Rulings of :
Not in accordance with practice to ask questions before Governor's speech has been reported from the Chair, 9.
Privilege—Parliamentary rule as to proceedings in cases of privilege overrides rule as to reading of newspaper comments, 11 ; with reference to power of the House to deal with statements made by persons, not members of the House, Mr. Speaker will not limit jurisdiction of the House, extent of which rests entirely on its own decision, 11.
Imputation—that a large section of hon. members who vote against a motion ought to be in gaol is unparliamentary, and ought to be withdrawn, 32.
Charge of corruption can be made only upon a specific motion, 47.
As to informal petitions, 146, 177, 190, 447.
Customary to allow some latitude to an hon. member against whom a charge is made, 179.
As to withdrawal of notices, 179.
Question founded on report of debates in other House cannot be put, 266.
Notice cannot be taken of remarks made by hon. member who does not rise and address the Chair, 304.
As to personal explanations, 230, 301, 304, 305, 351, 400, 420.
If a bill has been introduced in another place, it is the practice of this House not to make any reference to the contents of that bill until it comes before us, and if a bill has been debated in the other Chamber it is equally out of the limits of parliamentary practice to refer to that debate, 317.
As to reception of notices of motion after orders of the day have been proceeded with, 418.

SPEAKER, Mr. (continued) :

Rulings of :
Hon. member cannot question veracity of another hon. member, 427.
In anticipation of sessional order questions and answers had been entered on Votes and Proceedings, 434.
Motion involving expenditure of money must be introduced in Committee, 482.
As to references to matters referred to select committee, 239, 508, 587 ; to previous debate, 508.
Question as to ministerial position not necessarily a legal or constitutional one, 516.
As to references to members private business, 545, 546, 585.
It would be a gross outrage on the Chair for an hon. member to assert that any hon. member had had the privilege of traducing and vilifying other hon. members in a manner contrary to the rules of Parliament, 586.
