CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES (G. R. CRAWFORD, ESQ., D.C.M.), RULINGS, OBSERVATIONS AND OPINIONS:

Amendments: It was the Chairman's intention to save the time of the Committee by allowing a Minister and the member leading for the Opposition to move amendments according to the numbers given to them on the Notices of Amendments sheet available to every member of the Committee. If a member wished it, in future the Minister or other member proposing an amendment would move it in its entirety, 2974. A member was asked whether he was moving a further amendment when he had already moved one, 4314.

Bills: A bill that originated in the Legislative Council cannot be amended in that Chamber after it has been passed by the Legislative Assembly, 1431.

Chair: Allocation of call, 1576, 2326. A member must refrain from commenting in Committee upon a ruling given in the House by Mr Speaker, 1562. The Chairman determines whether a member is in order or out of order, 1571. A member is in order in replying to a statement made and a letter read in Committee by another member. To say that a member is attempting to debate exactly the same matter that was ruled out of order when another member dealt with it, is, to put it bluntly, a reflection on the Chair, 1574.

A member must address the Chair, 908, 1565, and he will not invite interjections, 1782, 1928, 1963, 1990, which he should ignore, 4081. A member will resume his seat, 2972.

Closure: When the closure has been carried it is obligatory upon the Chairman to submit the main question to the Committee, even though the time for interruption under the sessional orders has passed, 1576. In Committee there is no reply after the closure, 1704. No point of order, 2813.

Division: When a question has been declared carried, it is too late to call for a division and no point of order is involved, 1703.

Interjections and Interruptions: A member will be heard in silence, 1717. A member was distracted by the constant stream of interjections from members on the Government side, who should remain silent, 2342. Too much noise in the Chamber, 2977.

Disorderly, 908, 911, 1198, 1225, 1278, 1279, 1282, 1311, 1359, 1375, 1564, 1565, 1566, 1574, 1711, 1712, 1717, 1771, 1773, 1855, 1916, 1917, 1918, 1919, 1920, 1960, 1963, 1969, 1988, 1992, 2006, 2012, 2124, 2125, 2126, 2140, 2152, 2153, 2244, 2314, 2341, 2558, 2793, 2798, 2807, 2810, 4515, 4529, 4532.

Members Removed: Mr Crabtree, 1717; Mr Jackson, 2091.

Members Warned: Mr Crabtree, 1208, 1711, 1712; Mr Earl, 1210; Mr Johnstone, 1574; Mr Mallam, 1771; Mr Sloss, 1712, 1722, 1970; Mr Waddy, 1282.

Offensive and Objectionable Remarks, Imputations and Aspersions: The Chairman is not concerned with what happened in the House, 1566. "If the honourable gentleman is so illiterate as to be unable to read" was withdrawn as it applied to the member to whom the Minister referred, and an apology made, but a point of order asserting that the words were offensive to everybody who shared the views of the member to whom the remarks were directed, was not upheld, 1566. When a member assumed that a remark about Hitler referred to the Chairman and found it offensive, no point of order was involved, 1576. Unless the member concerned finds remarks offensive, there is no need for withdrawal, 4081.

A member's reference to another as a parrot was withdrawn, 1843. References to anyone as being blind and incapable were completely offensive to a member who sought a withdrawal and the member who made the remark was removed, 2091, 2116. A reference to the conduct of a member and his removal from the Chamber was considered by him to be insulting and was withdrawn, 2160. The description of a member's action in taking a point of order as effrontery was withdrawn, 2565.

When a member objected to the remark, "I am staggered and lost for words as to how the honourable gentleman could have enough brains to get into Parliament", the Chairman observed that the fact that the member was present in the Chamber was enough to disprove the remark and it was withdrawn, 4516. When objection was taken to the words, "The honourable member . . . has been a standover merchant all his life", the Chairman stated that those remarks could not reasonably be construed as offensive, but in view of the member's insistence that they were offensive and insulting to him, they were withdrawn and an apology made. The member apologizing expressed regret that the other member was known as that type of man and this remark also was considered insulting and the Chairman required the withdrawal and apology to be unreserved, 4533.

The following expressions were withdrawn: "The Minister . . . has always read his speeches", 1791; "You have handled it (the truth) very carelessly since you have been a member of this Parliament", 1963; "Stick to the truth", 1963; "The honourable member has said that there are too many Italians in his electorate", 2798.

Personal Explanations: When the Chairman has announced that he will leave the Chair and report the bill, a member wishing to make a personal explanation must seek the call from Mr Speaker when he has entered the Chamber, 1577. A personal explanation may be made when the member having the floor has completed his contribution to the debate, 1772, 2116. When a member was removed from the Chamber he had no opportunity to correct any misinterpretation that might have been put on what he said: in a personal explanation he must confine himself to any misrepresentation or misconception that might be placed upon his statement and may not discuss any other aspect, 2116.

No personal explanation is involved when it is said that a member left the Chamber while the quorum bells were ringing, 1761. Personal explanation not involved, 1844, 2971.

Points of Order: A point of order must relate to an alleged breach of standing orders, 2340, or custom and tradition, 1864, and one based on Standing Order 204 (pecuniary interest) had no substance, 2976. A member was called on a point of order after a division had been completed but he was too late in responding, 2976. Point of order not involved, 1772, 1928, 2091, 2971, 4352.

Press: A member wishing to quote from a newspaper report must accept responsibility for the accuracy of the report, 2801.

Procedure: In the Committee stage members may not discuss or rebut arguments used during the second-reading debate; the Committee deals with the bill clause by clause and the matter in each clause which will be part of the machinery to put into effect the bill's principles, to which agreement has already been given, 832. It is not competent in Committee for a member to traverse the field of argument that occurred at the second-reading stage: when the schedule containing the Commonwealth-State housing agreement is before the Committee a member is permitted to discuss the aspects of the agreement but is reminded that it cannot be amended; the only course open is to vote either for it or against it, 901, 902, 903, 904, 905, 907. The second-reading debate will not be permitted to continue in Committee, 1548.

No point of order is involved in a member's quoting a letter, 1573, or in the list of members to speak in a debate, 1853. In Committee members have called other members by their names but in view of a point of order which is technically correct having been taken, a member must refer to others by their electorates, 2125. In Committee of Ways and Means the calling of the Minister who moved the motion does not close the debate, 2805. A point of order contending that the schedule in a bill had not been put to the Committee was not upheld; the schedule was part of a clause, 2817, 2819.

With the concurrence of the Committee the clauses of a bill were proposed according to the Parts of the bill, 3205, 3240. When a bill contained 123 clauses and one schedule, Mr Chairman put the clauses in one group and then the schedule separately, 3829.

Quorum: No point of order is involved when members leave the Chamber while the quorum bells are ringing, 1761, or in calling attention to the state of the Committee, 1844.

Reading of Speeches: A certain liberty is extended to members on both sides of the Chamber and a point of order was not upheld, 1789. Reference to copious notes is permitted, 1790, 1793.

Relevance: A member must speak to the amendment he has moved, but the Chairman must hear some part of what a member wishes to say before he can rule on it, 1563, 1565, and the member may quote only relevant matter, 1564. A member may comment in passing, but not at great length, on something that is outside the scope of the amendment, 1570, 2794. When the amendment is disposed of a member may deal with the remainder of the clause, 1572, 1573. The Chair cannot condone something that was out of order by permitting another member to reply to that matter, 1864. A point of order contesting the relevancy of a member's remarks had some substance but he was permitted to reply briefly to statements made by the member who led for the Opposition, 2794.

A member's remarks on the Commonwealth-State housing agreement would be appropriate when the schedule containing the agreement came before the Committee, 901. It was suggested to the Minister that he might deal with the specific amendment he had proposed, which would then be disposed of, and later when the Committee dealt with the substantive question he could reply to other matters apparently not relevant to the amendment that had been raised in debating the amendment, 1273. When the Committee is discussing a clause a member may not debate a later clause, 2556; he will be in order if he confines himself to the clause before the Committee, 2565, 2566. The possibility of including a new clause is of importance at the Committee stage, 3451. A member's remarks are within the Chairman's rulings, 1979, 1992, 1993.

In the Budget debate discussion of the Estimates or Loan Estimates items, is not permitted, 1766, 1769, discussion of a general situation throughout the State is in order, but reference to administrative details, which are more appropriately dealt with in the Estimates debate, is out of order, 1767, 1768, 1769, 1782, 1862, 1863, 1864. A Budget speech deals with the way in which the State raises money and spends it, but not with a particular item contained in the Estimates, 1792. The Budget debate concerns the Financial Statement and shall not extend beyond that, 1857, 1859.

The Estimates debate deals with administration and the expenditure of money within a department; the effect of taxation measures may be discussed only during the Budget debate, 1977. Discussion of policy is out of order in the Estimates debate, 1979, 2012. During the debate on the Estimates several speakers referred to a matter on which the Minister is entitled to reply, but only briefly, 2088. A member's remarks must relate to estimated expenditure or other items in the Estimate before the Committee, 2090. An aspect of education properly covered by the Loan Estimates may not be discussed in the Estimates debate, 2182, 2183.

A member will relate his speech to the Loan Estimates which are before the Committee, 2245, 2334. Wages and conditions in the railway service may not be discussed in the Loan Estimates debate, which deals with capital funds, 2340; neither may administrative decisions, 2341, or fares and other matters of revenue administration, 2342. An industrial stoppage at the State abattoirs cannot by any stretch of the imagination be related to the Loan Estimates, 2342.

The member speaking must keep to the question before the Committee, 835, 908, 1226, 1563, 1565, 1571, 1572, 1767, 1768, 1769, 1782, 1791, 1990, 1993, 3360, 4533, 4539. Points of order contesting relevancy were not upheld, 1793, 1808, 1866.

Time for Speeches: The Leader of the Opposition does not enjoy the unlimited time of a party leader when in fact one of his members has led for the Opposition in a debate: he should deal briefly with the points he wishes to emphasize regarding any aspect of the schedule that the Committee is considering, 911. Members may not have realized that the clock in the Chamber had stopped, 1778.

Chair: A member must address the Chair, 253 (Mr Darby), 435 (Mr Waddy), 2056, 2058 (Mr Crawford), 3660 (Mr Waddy).

Documents: A member stated clearly the source of a document from which he quoted and no point of order was involved, 4116. It is for the member to decide whether he will state the date of the document and a point of order was entirely frivolous, 4117 (Mr Southee).

Hansard: Incorporation of figures was not approved, 3322 (Mr Waddy).

Interjections and Interruptions: A member should be heard in some degree of silence, 437, 1184 (Mr Waddy). If members of the Opposition stop arguing among themselves the Minister might get on with his speech, 1030. Loud conversation in the Chamber is disorderly, 1054. If a member wishes to make a speech he is entitled to seek the call, but the member who has the Member Warned: Mr Lewis, 4117 (Mr Southee).

Offensive and Objectionable Remarks, Imputations and Aspersions: The use of the expression, "What a lot of poppycock" is hardly parliamentary or fit for an interjection, 438. It is not enough for a member to take exception to the words used by another; all members take exception on occasions. When a member regards comments as offensive and asks for a withdrawal, it is customary for them to be withdrawn, 1176. When the member intimated after a quorum had been formed that he regarded the remarks said earlier as offensive and asked that the other member concerned be instructed to withdraw and apologize, he was informed that he did not seek the call before it was given to another member, that in the Chair's opinion he was trifling with the House, and that he should resume his seat, 1176 (Mr Waddy).

The allegation that the Liberal Party has paid its polling day workers or that any supporters of any party were paid was regarded as personally offensive to a member and withdrawn, 2055 (Mr Crawford).

Points of Order: No point of order is involved in the number of members of the Government parties and the Opposition party present in the Chamber and a member should restrain his opinions, 434 (Mr Waddy).

No point of order involved, 3664 (Mr Waddy), 3695, 4116 (Mr Southee).

Reading of Speeches: The allegation that a member was reading his speech could not be sustained, 803 (Mr Crawford). It has long been the practice for members to refer to copious notes, 1175; traditionally a member will not read a speech, 1179 (Mr Waddy). A point of order had no substance whatever; reference to notes is common in the House, 4116 (Mr Southee).

Relevance: A point of order contesting the relevance of a member's remarks was not upheld and Mr Speaker's ruling earlier the same day (page 780) was applied, 803. It is in order for a member contributing to a debate to reply to points put by the mover of the motion, 2056. There are no ascertainable precedents on what may be discussed upon the motion for the adoption of the Report. A point of order could not be upheld until it could be proved to the satisfaction of the Chair that what the member was saying was not relevant, 3963, 3964 (Mr Crawford).

A member strayed somewhat from the terms of the motion but probably would link his remarks to it, 1182, and though he might have difficulty in linking his remarks with the motion, the House would be delighted to listen, 1184, 1185. Though leniency had been shown to members on both sides of the House, a member must link up his comments with the matter under discussion, 1187 (Mr Waddy).

A member must keep to the point, 890, 893, 3187 (Mr Crawford); 2939 (Mr Waddy); 3353 (Mr Southee).

SPEAKER, MR (THE HON. KEVIN ELLIS, LL.B., B.Ec.), RULINGS, OBSERVATIONS AND OPINIONS:

Address in Reply: Governor's Opening Speech to be recorded in Votes and Proceedings, 59. Presentation to Governor of Address in Reply, 647, and His Excellency's reply, 692.

Adjournment: A member's remarks will not, on the sole ground that they might give rise to debate, be stopped; but he must not reflect on or canvass a vote of the House, 746, 3700. Almost all matters raised on the adjournment could be said to be capable of promoting or likely to promote general debate and this is not a satisfactory test in limiting subjects that may be raised. Although a matter might not be out of order on that ground alone, so far as possible general debate will be prevented; and a member must confine himself briefly to salient points, 597, 915, 1640, 1810, 1930, 1931, 4133.

It is in order for a member to express on behalf of his constituents their fears that unless something be done a situation will develop to their detriment, 1640. A member was allowed to debate a matter at length when he should have been directed to confine his remarks to salient points, but having been allowed to do so, Mr Speaker had no alternative to allowing the Minister to answer similarly, 668, 669. The rules governing the adjournment debate are well known, 3700; a member is not confined except by those rules, 3701, and in special circumstances a member was given more latitude than he would ordinarily receive, 3703.

When the adjournment under Standing Order 49 is moved, the debate must be strictly relevant to the subject matter in the notice and must not become general, 1946, 1948. As a member develops his argument Mr Speaker will determine whether the matter is of recent occurrence, 391, 394, and a matter that is not of recent occurrence does not come within the provisions of the standing order, 2178. Principles governing determination of "recent occurrence", 3579, 3581.

Points of order contesting the eligibility of matters for discussion in the adjournment debate were not upheld, 596, 914, 3924.

Anticipation of Debate: A question seeking information, though the subject matter may be debated in a current Budget debate, has never been held to be subject to the rule on anticipation of debate. If it were so, it would not be possible for members to obtain information to assist them in their discussion of the Budget and Estimates, 1348.

When Mr Speaker is not satisfied that a motion of which notice has been given will be brought before the House within a reasonable time (S.O. 110A), a question on the same subject does not breach the rule against anticipation of debate, 2435; neither does a motion of urgency, 2512. A point of order founded on the rule against anticipation of debate was not upheld, 751.

Chair: It would be a reflection on the Chair for a member, by interjecting "You could have found out from the Speaker", to imply that Mr Speaker would convey his knowledge of a pending motion to a member; but in fact the interjection was misunderstood, 169. The remarks of a member open only to the inference that he is casting a reflection on the Chair shall be withdrawn, 3461, 3462. A member denied that his remark was addressed to the Chair, and no action was taken, 3523. It was made clear that no reflection was meant to be cast on the Chair and an apology was made if any reflection on the Chair could be inferred from the remark that it took a long time to find that a member was out of order, 3776. A remark addressed to a colleague made no reflection on the Chair, 3782.

Allocation of call, 506, 3459, 3460, 3461, 3494, 3496, 3521, 3776, 4124. A member will resume his seat, 4274.

A member must address the Chair, 445, 1640, 2489, 2512, 3496, 4132, and ignore interjections, 505, 506, 507, 1750, 1751, 2003, 2042, 2066, 2648, 3459, 4133, 4504.

Christmas Felicitations: Response, 3391.

Clerk of Legislative Assembly: Retirement of Mr A. Pickering, C.B.E., M.Ec., 3298, 3301. Appointment of Mr I. P. K. Vidler, 3315, 3394.

Closure: Under the standing orders it is competent for any member to move at any time, That the question be now put, 900.

Dissent: It is not competent for a member to move dissent from the decision of Mr Speaker under Standing Order 158 that Mr Speaker is not satisfied that a prima facie case of privilege has been made out, 4387.

Hansard: It is expressly permissible under the standing orders for a member to make brief quotations from speeches made in a debate that is before the House, 562. A member may not move that photographs be incorporated in Hansard, 190, 193. Practice does not allow the Leader of the Opposition to have a document incorporated in Hansard as part of his speech, 3221; and the incorporation of figures is contrary to practice, 3545. Place of Hansard in expression of intention of the Legislature, 3347. Deferral of printing, 2670.

Interjections and Interruptions: Requiring a member to restate his question without notice, 239. Members who wish to leave the Chamber at the end of question time must do so without disturbance and without shouting, 335. If members persist in noisy interruptions during question time, apart from other measures that may be taken, Mr Speaker will refrain from giving them the call during question time, 474. Mr Speaker insists that a member who has an earnest and sincere interest in the Sydney Opera House be allowed to use his time without interruption from the Government side, 579. The Opposition extended courtesy to the Minister and refrained almost entirely from interjecting during the whole of his long speech: it is fair and proper that Government supporters extend the same courtesy to the member who leads for the Opposition, 1305.

Backchat during question time must stop and disorderly interjections from either side will not be tolerated, 1750, 1751. Mass interjections will not be tolerated and appropriate action will be taken against leading offenders, 2102. When fifteen minutes only remain before a debate is adjourned, to remove any persistent injector is not a sufficient punishment and he will be named, 2490. A member does not have to answer questions directed at him during his speech, 2953.

A member should contain himself, 276, 277, 279. No point of order was involved but a member was asked to restrain himself and to allow the Minister to complete his reply, 669. The Opposition must conduct itself properly, without shouting, 691. Members on both sides will subside and allow the Minister to answer, 879. Decorum must be maintained, 1662.

A member must be heard in silence, 751, 1520, 1717, 2632, 3401, 3427, 4132. The calling of Ministers to lay papers upon the table is not the signal for members to embark upon noisy conversation, 2110. Members must refrain from audible conversation, 938, 1101, 2439, 2965, 3876.

Members asked to cease interjecting—Mr Earl, 851; Mr Healey, 1366; Mr Lewis, 510; Mr Mason, 510; Mr Sloss, 851; Mr K. J. Stewart, 2379; and members invited to add their names to the list of debaters—Mr Bannon, Mr Maddison, 874. (See also Members Named and Members Warned.) deal with matters of administration so long as they are related to the matter of policy that he is enunciating to the House, 2204. Three concurrent points of order were not upheld, 2204.

Motions: A member was asked to move his motion again so that it could be checked with the notice of motion, 1880. Standing Order 109 permits a notice of motion to be amended, 2512.

Mr Speaker will discuss irregularities of form with the member presenting the notice of motion, 3405. Mr Speaker's amendment of notice of motion before printing on Business Paper, 3460, 3469, 3717.

Standing Order 101 applies to notices of motion given by members but does not apply to a Minister's giving notice on behalf of a ministerial colleague, 3882. Withdrawal of adjournment motion under Standing Order 49, 1952.

Offensive and Objectionable Remarks, Imputations and Aspersions: It was understood that a member did not use an expression that another complained of, 1306. Mr Speaker did not know that a member used the words attributed to him but even if he did, they could not be offensive to Mr Speaker, who is able to look after himself, 2203. If language is capable of giving offence and objection is taken to it, the Chair will order that it be withdrawn, and in a serious case will direct an apology, but the rule also is that the member using the language may explain it away and make it clear that he did not intend to offend, 2438. A member cannot be directed to define words with possibly a sinister meaning; it is a matter of what appeals to the member as good or bad taste, 2485.

No action was taken on a point of order objecting to remarks by another member that were also used by the objector, 2645. A Minister was not suggesting that the Leader of the Opposition was falsifying anything; he was merely suggesting that the Leader of the Opposition was putting a false construction on something, and a point of order was dismissed, 3237. A point of order contending that it is not competent for a Minister to make a demand that a member withdraw an assertion or substantiate it, cannot be upheld: whether the member complies with the demand is a matter for him, 3785. The words that a member was not interested in what was being said and that he wanted someone who was interested to come into the Chamber, are not reasonably capable of giving offence, 3787. A facetious statement about a non-existent lady involves no point of order, 4032.

A member should be a little more temperate in his remarks, 3417, 3418. A resolution of the House may not be reflected upon, 2647, 2648; and a member will not be allowed to impute improper motives to the Minister or the Government, but he may speculate upon what is or will be the attitude of the Government, 3224.

The following expressions were not required to be withdrawn: "You said you did not intend to pursue this matter" which was asserted to be erroneous and a complete misrepresentation, 398; "A political stunt", 618, 4508; "This motion will stop people being led along to the polling booths like sheep", 1194; "I want to know how this gentleman got hold of the report", which involved no point of order, 1750; "His coward's castle", 3719, 4033; "The only organization that has attempted by subterfuge and similar means to circumvent the new regulations is the one in question", 3722; "A member who was noted . . . for the time-wasting frivolity that he went on with", 4510.

In the context in which it was used the term "trickster" was unparliamentary, 52.

The following expressions were withdrawn: "Irresponsible" when a member said it was offensive to him, though considered a borderline case, 104; the adjective "deliberate" in the phrase, "A deliberate lie", 583; "The Minister . . . is not interested in the rights of tenants", 618; the imputation that the motives of a member were improper, 1612; "You are the greatest dill that ever lived", 1667, followed by "I appreciate that retraction because, coming from that source, the observation was almost a personal tribute", 1668; "Mug lair", 1668; the suggestion that a member's word cannot be accepted, 1843; "Rantings, ravings and inanities", 2066; if a Minister meant to imply that a member had been pilfering anything from anywhere he must withdraw, and confine himself to a simple withdrawal, 2108; "As I was saying when I was rudely interrupted" after a member had taken a point of order and found the comment offensive, 2380; "You cannot tell the truth", 2672; "You have not got any bloody time", for which specific apology was made, 2999; an expression not recorded but heard by Mr Speaker, 3235; the imputation that action was taken for some reason altogether different from the one that prompted the member, 3409; an implication that Mr Speaker was using his position for political purposes, 3461, 3462; "A better side-step than Reg Gasnier", 3724; the statement that the Government, which includes the Minister for Local Government, was seeking to intimidate a member, at which offence was taken, 3775.

Parliament House: House Secretary and Accountant summoned in common law action, 3645.

Screening of films in Parliamentary Library, 245, 3779.

Personal Explanations: These are made only with the indulgence of the House and must explain matters of a personal nature: the member must state briefly the way in which he has been misrepresented or reflected upon and clarify that, but he must not debate the matter, 885, 886, 2439. When a member has denied the inference he has drawn from a Minister's reply to a question, he cannot carry the matter further unless he can show a proper basis for a personal explanation, 1356. A personal explanation may not be made when nothing personal to a member is involved and he is only trying to clarify or explain something that was raised at question time, 1809.

It is not permissible under the guise of a personal explanation to debate a matter, 161, and a personal explanation may not be taken until the matter of procedure before the House has been completed, 1577, or while the motion is being debated, 3884. It is most desirable that personal explanations be left until after question time and that this period be not used for personal explanations unless there is a special reason, 876.

Points of Order: A member may not get the call by seeking a ruling without taking a point of order, 611. A decision on a point of order was reserved at 4.20 p.m., when the debate was interrupted under the sessional order, 744. Discussion interrupted by adjournment of the House, 1578. A member had not indicated the slightest basis for a point of order but was simply making statements and giving information that the Minister might give in reply to the question without notice, 2437; a member was debating a statement by the Minister and there was no valid point of order, 2641. A point of order was without substance, 4124.

No point of order was involved, 560, 900, 1663, 1949, 2042, 2059, 2435, 2516, 2994, 3034, 3239, 3402, 3495, 3521, 4033, 4035.

Press: A member was asked whether he proposed to read a whole article from a newspaper, 514.

Privilege: The forms and practice of the House do not permit acceptance of a newspaper report as evidence of statements made; this would be hearsay, 611, and such hearsay would not justify Mr Speaker in permitting the House to embark on a privilege debate, 613. When a member accepted responsibility for the accuracy of the press reports that the statements were in fact made, 615, it was ruled that he had made out a prima facie case of privilege and he was called upon to move his substantive motion, 616. When Mr Speaker was asked to explain the consequences if the statement for which the member accepted responsibility were denied, he intimated that he is not called upon to point out to any member the responsibilities of that member in the House, 616. As at least three paragraphs of the motion were out of order under Standing Order 106 and it had previously been emphasized that amendment of motions containing argument or unbecoming expressions would not be permitted, the motion was ruled out of order, 619.

Mr Speaker's amendment of a notice of motion before it appeared on the Business Paper did not involve any of five elements—disobedience to general orders of the House; disobedience to particular orders; indignities to the character or proceedings of Parliament; assaults, insults, or reflections upon members; or interference with officers of the House in the discharge of their duties—one of which must be present in a breach of privilege; order only was involved, 3460. No point of privilege was involved, 3885.

A point of privilege could not reasonably arise in comments about the relevancy of points of order taken by members on both sides of the Chamber, 3786. A point of order contending that a member was, under privilege, attacking a member of the Legislative Council, was not upheld, 2379.

For a member to take advantage of the procedure under Standing Order 158 there must be involved a question of privilege suddenly arising, which did not apply when a member raised the contents of a publication dated four days before. In any event, the matter complained of did not affect the authority, immunity or dignity of the House and its members, so it did not involve privilege; but of course, the member was at liberty to give notice of motion, if he wished,

9th August, 1966, to 21st March, 1967

SPEAKER, MR (THE HON. KEVIN ELLIS, LL.B., B.EC.), RULINGS, OBSERVATIONS AND OPINIONS (continued):

4273. Mr Speaker was at a complete loss to understand how any breach of privilege under Standing Order 158 was involved in a Minister's answer to a question without notice when he defended his own administration or the Government from the attacks made by an outside company; it is unduly repressive to suggest that he may not do that, 4274, but this does not prevent a member from canvassing his point of privilege by motion on notice, 4388.

Procedure: A member is not permitted "to table" documents but he may place them on the table so that other members may view them if they wish, 190.

Correct expressions will be used when referring to public leaders, 282, and it is disorderly to refer to a Minister by name, 2999.

There is no substance in a point of order that the House should continue with the business that it was conducting at 10.30 p.m. the night before when there was no motion for the adjournment. The House automatically adjourned pursuant to the sessional order upon the declaration of Mr Speaker to that effect, 1607.

A member who has spoken may not conclude his speech by moving that the debate be adjourned, 2645.

In reply to the debate the Minister is in order so long as he confines himself to replying and does not introduce new matter, 1561, 2649, 2650, 3451; and his reply closes the debate, 2650.

A point of order asserting that a bill was not available when the motion, That the bill be now read a second time, was proposed, was not upheld, 2816. A member who took a point of order was informed that a message from the Crown recommending a bill for granting money was on the table of the Chamber, 2819.

Questions Without Notice: It is desirable that nothing should occur that would deprive members of the opportunity of asking as many questions as possible during the time allotted. Accordingly, unless there was some special reason for doing otherwise, a Minister was asked to defer to the end of question time his reply to a question asked two days earlier, 878. It is for the Minister to say whether he will answer the question at the end of question time today, tomorrow, or next week, 884. Behaviour at question time inconsistent with decorum penalises members themselves. Unseemly conduct of some members on both sides, and in some measure unduly lengthy replies by Ministers, restricted the number of questions that could be asked, 1832.

It was directed that questions be placed on the Questions and Answers paper when the information sought was more than the Minister could be expected to provide without notice, 627, 733, 1254, 2107. Unless the Minister could assure the House that he was able to answer briefly a long question asked of him, it would be placed on the Questions and Answers paper, 1834, 2109, 2110. In view of a question's length and multiple character the Leader of the Opposition was asked to put it on the Questions and Answers paper, or he could have another call as soon as he cared to rise and perhaps could reframe the question in a shorter form, 1014. A member will not assume that because a lengthy question was allowed, the same thing will be allowed in the future, 1172. A question far too long to be asked without notice was directed to be placed on the Questions and Answers paper, 3782; a point of order about the length of a question was not upheld, 3783; and a point of order contending that a Minister's answer was unduly long was not upheld, 1103. The Minister was asked whether he was able to answer a question briefly, 54, 157, 1835, 1876, 2037, 3521, and it was hoped he would not take up too much time, 4383.

Principles applicable to the asking of questions without notice and in the Questions and Answers paper naming individuals outside Parliament, suggesting directly or by innuendo that they are guilty of improper conduct, 3724. This does not mean that members may not cast reflections upon outside persons, if their sense of responsibility tells them that they must do so; they shall use the proper forms of the House which will allow some answer or some refutation to be made on the floor of the Chamber, 3725.

Ministers are free to answer questions in such manner as they think fit, 1351, 1665; it has been the practice to allow considerable latitude in the way Ministers answer questions, 1666. It has never been the function of the Chair to dictate to a Minister how he is to reply to a question, 2380; and nothing prevents a Minister from bringing a file into the House in anticipation of a question without notice, 4032.

Mr Speaker declined to rule that an answer was a ministerial statement, 1666, 4383; it followed normal practice, 3783, 3785. The practice of amplifying an answer to a previous question could cause concern if it got out of hand, and a matter should be dealt with briefly, not debated, 3784.

It is not in order to ask a Minister whether he can confirm or deny a rumour, 386. The part of a question that alludes to a debate of the same session upon a matter not being then under discussion, is out of order, 1021. The point of order that a question referred to a matter before the House by way of a debate which was to proceed at a later hour was well taken, 4269. The facts on which a question is based may be set out briefly, provided the member makes himself responsible for their accuracy, and in broad generality, extracts from newspapers and quotations from speeches are not admissible, 1021. A member who was giving information in his question received another call and reframed the question, 1106. Technically it is out of order to frame a question in the words, "Is the Minister aware of," and members should note the point of order taken on this ground, 1173, 3169. A member was permitted to reframe his question, omitting portion that was out of order, 1753. A question was out of order as trivial, vague and meaningless, 2040.

Though there were some technical objections to a question, the substantial information sought was clear and a lot that were worse have been allowed, 2289. A question that makes no direct reference to the Legislative Council and does not directly involve it is in order: the prohibition is against the Legislative Assembly's becoming involved in a debate with the other Chamber, 2379. A Minister is in order when he answers that he has seen the report of an attack upon a gentleman undertaking an assignment on behalf of the Minister's department, and he deprecates the attack and defends the gentleman concerned, 2379. When a question that concerned a statement by the Leader of the Opposition was asked while he was out of the Chamber on official business, Mr Speaker intimated that he would call the Minister to reply later, 2432, and permitted the question to be asked, 2437. A question that is substantially directed to a specific subject is competent, 2438.

The Minister will ignore parts of a question which ask, "Does the Minister agree?", 2767; and parts that seek an opinion, 3307. A member must ask his question without preamble, 3724. Questions repeating in substance a question already replied to, or to which an answer has been refused, are out of order, 3724, 3725. Mr Speaker would hear a question before considering a point of order that the material in it had been completely covered by questions already asked, 4269. A question that had nothing to do with the administration of the Minister to whom the question was directed, was not allowed, 1834. When a Minister intimates that a matter is within his administration, he may answer a question upon it, 3574. Points of order were not upheld, 2102, 3305.

Relevance: A member's speech will be listened to carefully and he will keep within the ambit of the bill, 716. A very strict ruling on the scope of debate would enable much more business to be dealt with; it can safely be assumed at an early stage of a member's remarks that he will soon link up with the bill, 720. In debating a bill for the building of a particular dam, reference may be made to the general water conservation programme of the State, but the observations should not be extensive and should link up with the discussion of the specific proposal in the bill, 744, 780. A member strayed a little but he had probably been provoked by interjections, 869. The economics of the fishing industry are relevant to debate on a bill for the development of a fishing port, 3495.

The introduction of a bill into the New Zealand Parliament by the New Zealand Minister for Health would not be helpful in determining a point of order, 1554. Discussion of the activities and rights, or absence of rights, of persons completely unaffected by a measure is entirely irrelevant to the debate on that measure, 1554. A member contributing to a debate should reply briefly to statements made by a previous participant in the debate and then return to the motion before the House, 2066. A member may not refer to a debate that was concluded the night before (S.O. 143), 2956. A member should deal briefly with a subject that is at best only remotely connected with the bill and then get on with the real substance of the measure, 2963.

The argument that the normal client's absolute ignorance of solicitors' costs is an incentive to many solicitors to overcharge had no relevance to the bill being considered and the member was asked not to pursue that line, 4310. When a member had been allowed to deal with certain matters and no point of order had been taken, his successor in the debate was permitted to refer to the same matters in the same way, 4505. The next succeeding speaker went a lot further than the two before him and Mr Speaker intimated that he would confine the debate to discussion of the select committees referred to in the schedule to the bill, 4507, 4508, 4509, 4510.

Debate on the third reading of a bill is not as wide as debate on the second reading, and must be confined to the principles of the measure, 1616. The Chair decides whether a member's remarks are relevant; it is not the function of the Chair to decide whether they are more appropriate to the second-reading debate than to the introductory debate, 3470.

A member must keep to the point, 1189, 1195, 1437, 2404, 2648, 3418, 3459, 3461, 3495, 3722, 3784, 3885, 3889, 3905, 4100, 4498, 4510. Points of order contesting relevance were not upheld, 3419, 3496.

Repetition: When a point of order invited attention to the standing order dealing with tedious repetition, Mr Speaker intimated that he had been somewhat over-generous with members on both sides but was sure that the member speaking was drawing to the close of his speech, 516.

Select Committees: A private member, irrespective of his being the chairman of the select committee, may move that a select committee be dissolved, and does not need the authority of anybody, 686, 687. The House is in complete control of its own select committees, can direct them in any way it sees fit and also dissolve them at any time in any way it sees fit, 690.

Sub Judice: A point of order asserting that it is most important not only that justice should be done, but also that justice should appear to be done, cannot be upheld to the degree that the sub judice rule applies to stifle discussion on a matter that might well never be before a court, 1612. Points of order based on this rule were not upheld, 578, 916, 1100, 2773, 2774, and one was without substance, 1867.

Temporary Chairmen of Committees: Nomination of Mr Darby, Mr Punch, Mr Southee, Mr Waddy, and Mr Wattison, 15.

Time for Speeches: It is not competent to move that a member's time for speaking to a motion of urgency be extended, 3776. There being no objection, a Minister was given leave to continue for a further ten minutes his speech on a motion for the disallowance of a regulation, 113.

Urgency: The Premier is in order in replying to the remarks of the Leader of the Opposition on urgency, 752. A member may not go into extraneous matters that happened the week before, 3776.

A member must confine himself to urgency, 750, 2514, 3777. Points of order were not upheld, 3775, 3777.

Member Warned: Mr Sloss, 3505 (Mr Waddy).

Offensive and Objectionable Remarks: A member was reminded of Standing Order 149 prohibiting the use of words offensive against any statute unless for the purpose of moving for its repeal: he could criticize the action of a government but he must be careful not to refer specifically and in a derogatory fashion to an Act of Parliament recently passed, 1924 (Mr Darby).

Procedure: In Committee a certain amount of relaxation is allowed and many Chairmen have allowed a member to refer to another by name, notwithstanding Standing Order 150, 1926 (Mr Darby).

Hansard: Availability of proofs of a member's speech, 551.

Interjections and Interruptions: The Minister should be permitted to proceed without interruption, 1347.

Offensive and Objectionable Remarks, Imputations and Aspersions: A member sought the withdrawal of the remark, "I believe that this proposal should be passed and that every decent person in this House with any thought for the young and old people . . . will support it", describing the statement as a reflection upon his decency, and two other members supported the point of order. In reply to the Chairman the member using the words intimated that she certainly did not intend the remark as a direct reflection on the three members who objected, and she withdrew her further remark that she meant that if members were free they would like to vote against the amendment, 4438. When a member took objection to the statement that she had signed a false declaration, the Chairman intimated that he was not in a position to say whether the statement was correct or otherwise, 4441. and the point of order was not upheld, 4442.

Points of Order: The Minister will take notice of what the Leader of the Opposition said about quoting as fact allegations in a report, 3714.

Hansard: Permission granted for incorporation of statistical tables, 2360.

Interjections and Interruptions: A member must be heard in silence, 602, 2421. Standing Orders 73 and 84 deal with interruptions: speaking generally, all interjections are disorderly, 919; but they are like pepper and salt to the debate and a certain amount of latitude has been allowed and will be continued, though not to the point where interjections interfere with a member's speech, 920. Disorderly, 2887.

Legislative Council: Clerk Assistant, Usher of the Black Rod and House Secretary summoned in common law action, 3549.

Motions: Standing Order 113 precludes a member from proceeding with a motion in similar terms to one resolved earlier in the same session, 4368.

Northcott, Lieutenant-General Sir John, K.C.M.G., K.C.V.O., C.B., K. St J.: Receipt of letter from Mrs R. Nash expressing appreciation of the resolution of sympathy passed by the House, 916.

Oath of Allegiance: The President's receipt of commission authorising him to administer oath, 302.

PRESIDENT, THE (THE HON. H. V. BUDD), RULINGS, OBSERVATIONS AND OPINIONS (continued):

Offensive and Objectionable Remarks, Imputations and Aspersions: The remarks, "I do not accept what the Hon. . . . claimed . . . when he said that he rose to speak in this debate only because of the remarks of the Hon. . . . It was a well-prepared brief" were found offensive by the member referred to and were withdrawn, 601.

Standing Order 81 deals with the imputation of improper motives and personal reflections but only as they relate to members of the House; reflections upon persons outside Parliament cannot substantiate a point of order, 2886.

A point of order was taken that the Minister was reflecting upon members of the Legislative Assembly and the President observed that it was a matter of a choice of words. The Minister was answering a question and was justified in explaining certain happenings: whether he could use the word repudiation was another matter, and he was permitted to proceed, 4350.

Parliament House: Committees of the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly to consider the construction of a new Parliament House, 2840.

Dining Room services, 3264, 3557.

Playfair, Brigadier the Hon. T. A. J., D.S.O., O.B.E., V.D.: Death, 33, 38.

Points of Order: No point of order involved, 2687.

Private Members' Day: When the President was asked to have the Standing Orders Committee examine the practice of speakers' monopolising the limited time available on private members' day, he suggested that the member move a motion, 4350.

Privilege: The forms of the House should not be abused through questions or any other forms of speech which charge criminal activities or contain accusations of criminal acts on anybody's part, 2496.

Procedure: The President will not discuss a ruling given by the Deputy President: the standing orders provide that dissent may be moved immediately to a ruling, but it must be done at once, 919.

When a member wishes to make an explanation of his reasons for seeking leave to withdraw a motion standing in his name, the motion should be moved. Otherwise no question is before the House to which he may speak, 1324. Two notices of motion on the business paper had the same object—the appointment of a representative of the Legislative Council on the Council of the

PRESIDENT, THE (THE HON. H. V. BUDD),
RULINGS, OBSERVATIONS AND OPINIONS

Macquarie University—and the President called on the movers to propose their motions in the order in which they appeared on the business paper and intimated that he would put the motions to the House in that order, 2842. A member did not wish to reply to the debate on his motion, 4368.

Formal business, 3704.

Questions Without Notice: A member must ask a question, 2577, and must not make a speech, 1322, 1730, 3631; Standing Order 30 stipulates the limits imposed, 2261. When a member was asked whether he was asking a question he intimated that he was explaining something to make his question clear, 3001. A member might amend her question by withdrawing portion imputing criminal motive and alleging facts, 2496.

Relevance: A member is in order when he refers to an alternative which he considers is preferable to something provided in the bill before the House, but he should not go into lengthy argument or debate on an entirely new principle that is not embodied in the measure, 1660.

Temporary Chairman of Committees: Nomination of the Hon. F. W. Spicer, the Hon. J. A. Weir, and the Hon. H. D. Ahern, 33.

Usher of the Black Rod: Swearing of Oaths of Office and Allegiance before the Governor, 41.
