No. 1.

ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE BILL.—

Clauses 1 to 3 having been dealt with—

1

PART II.

AMENDMENT OF LAW REFORM (MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS) ACT, 1965

5

Clause 4.—The Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1965, is amended—

Amendment
of Act No.
32, 1965.

(a) (i) by omitting from subsection one of section four the words "instituted after the commencement of this Act" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "or in a District Court";

Sec. 4.
(Application of Part.)

10

(ii) by omitting from subsection two of the same section the figures "1942-1963" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words and figures "1942, as amended by subsequent Acts";

15

(b) by omitting subsections one and two of section five and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsections:—

Sec. 5.
(Amendment of procedure as to trials
by jury.)

20

(1) In any action to which this Part applies the court or a judge may on the application of any party made not later than such time before the trial as may be limited by rules of court, upon being satisfied that circumstances exist which render it desirable to do so and shall, where both parties so apply, order that the action be tried with a jury; but, save as aforesaid, any action to which this Part applies shall, notwithstanding section twenty-nine of the Jury Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, or section ninety of the District Courts Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, be tried by a judge without a jury:

25

Provided that the provisions of this section shall be without prejudice to the power of the court or a judge to order, in accordance with rules of court, that different questions of fact arising in any action be tried by different modes of trial, and where any such order is made the provisions of this section shall have effect accordingly.

5 (2) Where an order has been made under subsection one of this section for the trial of an action with a jury any party to that action may apply under section thirty of the Jury Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, for an order that the trial be had by a jury consisting of twelve persons.

(c) by inserting next after section five the following new section:—

10 5A. (1) Where an action to which this Part applies was instituted before the commencement of Part II of the Administration of Justice Act, 1968, in the Supreme Court or in a District Court then—

15 (a) if such action is listed in the daily causes list for hearing within one month after such commencement such action may be continued and completed as if Part II of the Administration of Justice Act, 1968, had not been enacted;

20 (b) if such action is not listed for hearing within one month after such commencement then notwithstanding anything in any Act or in any rule of court relating to the mode of trial of actions, or any steps taken by the parties, the provisions of section five of this Act shall apply to the hearing and determination of such action.

25 (2) Where an action to which this Part applies is instituted after the commencement of Part II of the Administration of Justice Act, 1968, in the Supreme Court or in a District Court, then, notwithstanding anything in any Act or in any rule of court relating to the mode of trial of actions, the provisions of section five of this Act shall apply to the hearing and determination of such action.

30 (d) by omitting from section six the words "section five" wherever occurring and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "sections five and 5A";

35 (e) by omitting from subsection one of section ten the word, figures, letter and symbols "section 64 (a)" wherever occurring and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "paragraph (a) of subsection one of section sixty-four".

[Read.]

Question proposed—That the clause, as read, stand part of the Bill.

SAME BILL—

Clauses 5 to 12 having been dealt with—

Clause 13.

PART X.

AMENDMENT OF SMALL DEBTS RECOVERY ACT, 1912-1965.

13. The Small Debts Recovery Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, is amended—

Amendment
of Act No.
33, 1912.

(a) * * * * *

10

(h) (i) by inserting in subsection one of section fifty-six after the word "court" where firstly occurring the words "in which a creditor has obtained judgment";

Sec. 56.
(Garnishee orders.)

(ii) by omitting from the same subsection the words "residing or carrying on business within the jurisdiction of such court";

15

(iii) by omitting from subsection three of the same section the words "a person resident or carrying on business within the jurisdiction of the court to the registrar of which the application is made" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "any person";

- (iv) by inserting next after the same subsection the following new subsection:—

(3A) An order made under subsection one of this section shall require the garnishee to pay to the registrar of the court in which the order was made, for the judgment creditor, the debt due from the garnishee to the judgment debtor, or so much thereof as may be sufficient to satisfy the judgment debt, in accordance with this Act and general rules made for the purpose.

- (v) by omitting subsection five of the same section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection:—

(5) An order made under subsection one of this section for the attachment of the wage or salary of a servant or employee shall extend only—

- (a) where the wage or salary is payable for a period of one week, to that part of the wage or salary that is payable at a rate in excess of the prescribed rate; or
- (b) where the wage or salary is payable for a period greater than one week, to that part of the wage or salary payable for that period that is payable at a rate in excess of the prescribed rate.

In this subsection—

“prescribed rate” means—

- (a) where no part of the wage or salary is otherwise attached under this or any other Act—a rate equal to eight dollars per week less than the Sydney basic wage; or
- (b) where any part of the wage or salary is otherwise attached under this or any other Act—a rate equal to eight dollars per week less than the Sydney basic wage increased by the amount so attached, calculated on a weekly basis;

“Sydney basic wage” means the basic wage for the time being in force within the meaning of Part V of the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1940, as amended by subsequent Acts, and appropriate for the judgment debtor.

- (i) by omitting section fifty-seven and by inserting in lieu thereof the following section:—

57. (1) Where the garnishee resides or carries on business within the jurisdiction of the court that makes an order under subsection one of section fifty-six of this Act, the registrar may, by that order or by a subsequent order, summon the garnishee to appear before the court to show cause why he should not make payment in accordance with the order attaching the debt due from him to the judgment debtor.

(2) Where an order is made under subsection one of section fifty-six of this Act against a garnishee who does not reside or carry on business within the jurisdiction of the court, the judgment creditor may, upon failure of the garnishee to comply with the order, apply for a change of venue to the court for the district in which the garnishee resides or carries on business and, where such an order for change of venue is made, the attachment order shall be deemed to have been made in the court to which the venue is changed.

(3) Where a change of venue is ordered under subsection two of this section, the registrar of the court to which the venue is changed may summon the garnishee to appear before the court to show cause why he should not make payment in accordance with the order attaching the debt due from him to the judgment debtor.

Subst.
sec. 57.

Summons to garnishee
to show cause.

- (j) by inserting next after section fifty-eight the following new sections:—

New secs.
58A, 58B
and 58C.

5 58A. (1) This section shall apply to and in respect of an attachment order referred to in subsection five of section fifty-six of this Act if the registrar making that order so orders, and shall so apply subject to that subsection and sections 58B and 58C of this Act. Continuous operation of attachment order.

10 (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in section fifty-eight of this Act, an attachment order to which this section applies shall not take effect until it is served on the garnishee and, upon being so served, it shall, subject to this section, operate to attach any wage or salary payable by the garnishee to the judgment debtor from time to time until—

- 15 (a) a copy of an application made under subsection three of this section is served on the garnishee ;
(b) a copy of a statement filed under subsection five of this section is served on the garnishee ; or
(c) the expiration of a period of one month after the attachment order is served on the garnishee,

20 whichever first occurs, but shall not at any such time so operate to an extent greater than is necessary to satisfy the judgment debt.

25 (3) A judgment debtor in respect of whom an attachment order to which this section applies is in operation, or the spouse of that judgment debtor, may apply to the court in which the order attaching the debt was made for an order to pay the judgment debt by instalments specified in the application and, upon a copy of the application being served on the garnishee, the attachment order shall operate, to the extent necessary to secure payment of the instalments specified in the application, to attach any wage or salary payable from time to time by the garnishee to the judgment debtor until—

- 30 (a) a copy of a statement filed under subsection five of this section is served on the garnishee ; or 35 (b) an order made on the application to pay by instalments is served on the garnishee,

40 whichever first occurs, but shall not at any such time so operate to an extent greater than is necessary to satisfy the judgment debt.

45 (4) Where application is made under subsection three of this section, the court to which the application is made may, unless a statement relating to the judgment debt referred to in the application has been filed under subsection five of this section, order that the judgment debt so referred to be paid by such instalments as the court thinks fit, or may order that the application be dismissed, and upon the service on the garnishee of the order so made—

- 50 (a) in the case of an order for payment of the judgment debt by instalments, the attachment order relating to the judgment debtor shall operate, to the extent necessary to secure payment of the instalments so ordered to be paid, to attach any wage or salary payable by the garnishee to the judgment debtor from time to time, but shall not at any such time so operate to an extent greater than is necessary to satisfy the judgment debt ; or 55 (b) in the case of an order for dismissal of the application the attachment order relating to the judgment debtor shall operate to attach any wage or salary payable by the garnishee to the judgment debtor from time to time until the expiration of a period after being so served that, together with the period that elapsed between service of the attachment order and service of the application, totals one month, but shall not so operate to an extent greater than is necessary to satisfy the judgment debt.

5 (5) A judgment debtor in respect of whom an attachment order to which this section applies is in operation, and the judgment creditor may, whether or not an applica-
 10 tion under subsection three or an order under subsection four of this section has been made, sign and date before a person prescribed by general rules for the purpose, a statement setting forth that for the purposes of this section, they have agreed upon payment of the judgment debt by instalments, and setting forth particulars of those instalments and the 15 judgment debt, or so much thereof as remains unsatisfied, and where such a statement is filed in the court that made the attachment order it shall, upon a copy thereof being served on the garnishee, operate as an order made under subsection four of this section for payment of the judgment debt by the instalment set forth therein and—

(a) where an undetermined application has previously been made under subsection four of this section, it shall so operate as if it were an order made on that application ; or 20 (b) where an order has previously been made under subsection four of this section for payment of the judgment debt by instalments, it shall so operate as if it were a variation, made under subsection six of this section, of that order.

25 (6) The court in which an order attaching a wage or salary was made may, upon application made for the purpose, vary an order made under subsection four of this section, or a statement operating as such an order, and an order or statement as so varied shall, upon a copy thereof
 30 being served upon the garnishee, operate as an order under subsection three of this section to the exclusion of the order or statement so varied.

35 (7) No order shall be made under this Act for the attachment of a wage or salary to answer a judgment debt in respect of which an order to which this section applies has been made and, notwithstanding anything contained in section fifty-eight of this Act, where a wage or salary is attached by an order to which this section applies, no other order
 40 made under this Act for the attachment of that wage or salary to answer some other judgment debt shall take effect until it is served on the garnishee.

58B. (1) This section shall apply to and in respect of Payment under certain attachment orders.
 payments required to be made by a garnishee under an attachment order to which section 58A of this Act applies.

45 (2) Subject to this section, a payment to which this section applies may, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, be made to the judgment creditor in lieu of to the registrar if the garnishee notifies the registrar of the court in which the attachment order was made that he proposes so
 50 to do, and a payment so made in accordance with this section shall discharge the garnishee to the same extent as it would have discharged him had he made the payment to that registrar.

55 (3) Subject to compliance with subsection four of this section, a garnishee from whom is due to the registrar or the judgment creditor a payment to which this section applies may deduct therefrom for his own use an amount equal to ten per centum thereof.

5 (4) Where a garnishee makes a deduction in accordance with subsection three of this section, he shall forward to the judgment creditor, when making payment to the registrar or the judgment creditor of the balance of the payment due, a statement showing—

- (a) the amount deducted under the attachment order from the wage or salary of the judgment debtor ;
- (b) the amount deducted by the garnishee for his own use under subsection three of this section ; and
- 10 (c) the amount of the payment to the registrar or the judgment creditor, as the case may be.

15 (5) Where a garnishee makes a deduction in accordance with subsection three, and forwards a statement in accordance with subsection four, of this section, payment to the registrar, or in accordance with subsection two of this section, of the amount specified in the statement in accordance with paragraph (c) of subsection four of this section shall be deemed—

- (a) to have satisfied the judgment debt ; and
- 20 (b) to be a valid discharge to the garnishee as against the person entitled to receive the payment and the judgment debtor,

25 to the extent of the amount specified in the statement in accordance with paragraph (a) of subsection four of this section.

30 (6) Where, in the case of an attachment order to which section 58A of this Act applies, the judgment creditor fails to notify the registrar of the court in which the order attaching the debt was made, and the garnishee, at least seven days before a payment to be made under the order should be limited to an amount, specified in the notification, required to satisfy the amount of the judgment debt, the judgment creditor shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred dollars, recoverable summarily.

40 (7) Where an amount in excess of the amount required to satisfy the judgment debt is paid by a garnishee under an attachment order to which this section applies, the excess amount so paid shall be recoverable by the judgment debtor from the judgment creditor in any court of competent jurisdiction.

45 (8) Any sums received by the registrar from the garnishee under an attachment order to which section 58A of this Act applies may be by him paid to the judgment creditor without further order.

50 58c. (1) In this section "instalment order" means an attachment order, made under this Act, in respect of which an application under subsection three, an order for payment by instalments under subsection four or a statement filed under subsection five, of section 58A of this Act has been served on the garnishee and includes an attachment order, made under an Act other than this Act, that has a like operation. Limitation of payment under certain concurrent attachment orders.

55 (2) This section shall apply where a wage or salary is attached by more than one order, including at least one order made under this Act, whether or not the other orders were so made, and, of the orders attaching the wage or salary, at least one is, and one is not, an instalment order.

60 (3) Subject to subsection five of section fifty-six of this Act, and except to the extent that, in the case of an order made under an Act other than this Act, that other Act otherwise provides, where this section applies the amount payable by the garnishee under any of the orders that is not an instalment order shall not, in respect of any payment of that wage or salary, exceed—

- 5 (a) where only one of the orders is an instalment order, the amount payable by the garnishee under that instalment order in respect of that payment of wage or salary; or
- 10 (b) where more than one of the orders is an instalment order, the greater, or greatest, of the amounts payable by the garnishee under the instalment orders in respect of that payment of wage or salary.
- 15 (k) (i) by inserting in section fifty-nine after the word "creditor" the words "or, where the garnishee has notified the registrar in accordance with subsection two of section 58B of this Act, to the judgment creditor"; (Sec. 59. Proceedings to levy amounts due from garnishee to judgment debtor.)
- (ii) by omitting from the same section the word "dispute" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "notify the registrar that he disputes";
- 20 (l) by inserting in section sixty-four after the word "costs" the words "(other than court fees)". (Sec. 64. (Costs in garnishee proceedings.)

SYDNEY FARM PRODUCE MARKET AUTHORITY BILL.—

Clauses 1 to 17 having been dealt with—

1 Clause 18. (1) * * * * *

5 (5) (a) This subsection applies to and in respect of persons transferred from the service of the Council pursuant to this section, being persons referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection two of section twelve of the Local Government (Areas) Act, 1948, as subsequently amended, who, pursuant to paragraph (b) of that subsection, elected to retain the rights and privileges referred to in that paragraph. Transfer of staff.

10 (b) Any person to whom this subsection applies, and who becomes entitled to receive a gratuity by virtue of the application of subsection five of section 20c of the Local Government Act, 1919, as subsequently amended, shall not be entitled to receive any compassionate or retiring allowance under any award or industrial agreement referred to in subsection two of the said section 20c:

Provided that the amount payable to any such person as a gratuity to which he becomes entitled as aforesaid shall not in any case be less than the amount which would have been payable to such person as a compassionate or retiring allowance under any such award or industrial agreement if this paragraph had not been enacted.

(c) For the purposes of paragraph (b) of subsection two of section twelve of the Local Government (Areas) Act, 1948, as subsequently amended, the services of any person to whom this subsection applies with the Authority to which he is transferred pursuant to this section shall be deemed to be service with the Council of the City of Sydney.
