PRIVILEGE (See also "SPEAKER").

Mr Ferguson drew attention of House to a question he had asked Premier earlier in week concerning allegations of illegal gambling at Strathfield. He said his wife had received a telephone call, the caller stating that "If he (Mr Ferguson) mentions baccarat there will be a bomb in his home". Mr Ferguson stated that this was intimidatory and was an infringement of the rights and privileges of Members.

The Speaker ruled that prima facie the matter affected the privileges of Members.

Mr Ferguson moved, That this House re-affirms the traditional right of its Members to speak freely and without fear on all matters of public interest, agreed to, 109.

Mr Bannon drew attention to a matter of Privilege concerning what he claimed was a threat by the Deputy-Premier, Minister for Education and Minister for Science, to the Honourable Member for Kembla.

The Speaker said he could not take notice of Committee proceedings not reported to him. However, in relation to the complaint he expressed the view that the matter was not one of Privilege but rather one of Order and could have been dealt with under Standing Order 165 which provided that the House "will interfere to prevent the prosecution of any quarrel", 284.

Upon further examination of the Question Mr Speaker stated that the matter could be best resolved by adopting the practice that a contempt which takes place in Committee must immediately, briefly and without debate be brought to the attention of the Chairman and, following the Chairman's report to the House, raised before the Speaker, 295.

RULINGS:

ADJOURNMENT UNDER 49TH STANDING ORDER:

Ruled out of order on ground that matter complained of was not of recent occurrence 282.

S

SPEAKER (continued):

RULINGS:

Authenticity:

In the absence of an unequivocal assurance by an Hon. Member that a Minister did, in fact, make a recommendation as alleged the Speaker ruled the motion out of order, 216.

Upon receiving assurances from an Hon. Member that the Minister did make the statement, that the statement was accurately published and further that he accepted responsibility for the authenticity of both statements, the Speaker ruled the motion in order, 224.

Closure under S.O. 175:

The Speaker stated that he would interpret "any Member" in S.O. 175 as being a Member who had not already spoken to the question at issue, 48.

Motions:

The Speaker stated that, as the Motion was merely in the form of stating a matter for discussion, the House would be unable to reach a conclusion or express an opinion. He therefore ruled the Motion out of order, 531.

Papers:

Inspection of document restricted to Members of this House under the provisions of S.O. 57, 471.

Privilege:

The Speaker ruled that prima facie the matter affected the privileges of Members of the House, 109.

Mr Bannon drew attention to a matter of Privilege concerning what he claimed was a threat by the Deputy-Premier, Minister for Education and Minister for Science to the Honourable Member for Kembla.

The Speaker said he could not take notice of Committee proceedings not reported to him. However, in relation to the complaint he expressed the view that the matter was not one of Privilege but rather one of Order and could have been dealt with under Standing Order 165 which provided that the House "will interfere to prevent the prosecution of any quarrel", 284.

Upon further examination of the Question Mr Speaker stated that the matter could be best resolved by adopting the practice that a contempt which takes place in Committee must immediately, briefly and without debate be brought to the attention of the Chairman and, following the Chairman's report to the House, raised before the Speaker, 295.

Sub Judice:

The Speaker said that in his view any discussion upon the Motion (which related to wages, working conditions, training procedures and a log of claims before the Industrial Commission) would inevitably impinge upon the matters before the Industrial Commission. Therefore, he was bound to rule so as to prevent a mischief which the sub judice rule was intended to obviate. Accordingly, he ruled the motion out of order, 247.

The Speaker stated that it was reasonable to assume that the petition (for the winding up of an insurance company) was based on the grounds that the Company was unable to pay its debts and as on that assumption, the issue before the court was precisely the issue the Hon. Member wished to raise the matter was sub judice. He therefore ruled the motion out of order, 434.

DEPUTY-SPEAKER:

Rulings:

Amendments: Upon an amendment being moved to motion for second reading of a Bill to postpone the Bill for certain reasons the Acting-Speaker ruled the amendment out of order on the grounds that amendments to the motion for the 2^o were strictly set down in S.O. 253, 300.
