ADMINISTRATIVE ARRANGEMENTS:

Mr Whelan moved, "That this House"—

- (1) Views with deep and grave concern:
 - (a) correspondence, dated 20 October, 1994, addressed to the Premier and the Presiding Officers from Royal Commissioner Wood and Acting Commissioner Holland of the Independent Commission Against Corruption concerning administrative arrangements agreed between themselves concerning their respective terms of reference relating to investigations into activities of paedophiles contrary to the express intention of the Parliament.
 - (b) that the will of both Houses of Parliament has been thwarted.
- (2) Expresses its dissatisfaction with the Commissioners' intention to publicly announce their proposal despite Parliament's intention and before the Parliament has expressed any further opinion on the matters.
- (3) Calls upon the Government to take all necessary steps to ensure that the Royal Commission into the New South Wales Police Service and the Independent Commission Against Corruption comply, in all respects, with the will of the Parliament, as expressed.
- (4) Calls upon the Royal Commissioner and the Acting Commissioner to fully explain their actions, motivation and the reason they wish to depart from the expressed will of Parliament.

Mrs Grusovin moved, That the motion be amended by omitting all the words after the words "That this House—" with a view to adding the following words:

- (1) Revokes the ICAC's reference to inquire into the alleged protection of paedophiles by members of the NSW Police Service, passed by this Parliament on 10 March, 1994;
- (2) Amends the terms of the reference of the Royal Commission into the New South Wales Police Service to require it to inquire and report into:
 - (a) allegations that some members of the Police Service of New South Wales have by act or omission protected paedophiles from criminal investigation or prosecution, and in particular the adequacy of major investigations undertaken by the police in relation to paedophiles since 1983, however, the Commissioner may investigate any matters he deems necessary and relevant which may have occurred prior to 1983;
 - (b) whether the procedures of or the relationships between the Police Service of New South Wales and other public authorities adversely affected police investigations and the prosecution, attempted or failed prosecution of paedophiles; and
 - (c) the conduct of public officials related to the above matters.
- (3) A message be sent to the Legislative Council conveying this resolution and requesting that the Legislative Council pass a resolution to revoke the ICAC reference to inquire into the alleged protection of paedophiles by members of the New South Wales Police Service and ensure those powers are given to the Royal Commission.

M

MOTIONS (continued):

VOTE OF CENSURE—MINISTER FOR HEALTH:

Mr Hatton moved, pursuant to notice, That this House censures the Minister for Health, for maladministration of the health portfolio, which has resulted in:

- Unconscionable productivity cuts inflicted on health budgets
- Delays in accident and emergency areas
- Long waiting times for elective surgery
- Neglect of people with mental illnesses
- Bed closures in hospitals
- A run down in rural health services.

Agreed to, 187, 188.

VOTE OF CENSURE—PREMIER:

Mr Carr moved, pursuant to notice, That this House censures the Premier for breaching his promise on wilderness, agreed to, 366.

VOTE OF NO CONFIDENCE—CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES:

Mr Whelan moved, pursuant to notice, That this House deplores the action of the Chairman of Committees when during the proceedings of the Committee of the Whole on the Crimes Legislation (Unsworn Evidence) Amendment Bill on 3 May, 1994, he did not comply with the provisions of Standing Order 162 and therefore no longer possesses the confidence of the House, negatived, 258.

VOTE OF NO CONFIDENCE—MINISTER FOR HEALTH:

Dr Refshauge moved, pursuant to notice, "That" due to:

- (a) the Minister's decision to privatise St Vincent's Hospital;
- (b) the Minister's decision to privatise community and mental health services in Port Macquarie;
- (c) the Minister's misleading of the people of Parramatta on his promise of 590 nurses to be employed this year;
- (d) the Minister's misleading of the Parliament on Thursday, 22 September, 1994, regarding comments made by the Deputy Leader of the Opposition to a conference of the Health Services Association;
- (e) the continuation of productivity cuts in health;
- (f) the closure, downgrading and privatising of 30 public hospitals;
- (g) the closure of 5,300 hospital beds;
- (h) the increase in the number of people waiting for elective surgery to 45,500;
- (i) the Government's record on community health and prevention,

the Minister for Health no longer possesses the confidence of this House and accordingly the House calls upon the Premier to remove him from office, negatived, 378.

VOTE OF NO CONFIDENCE—MINISTER FOR POLICE AND MINISTER FOR EMERGENCY SERVICES:

Mr Carr moved, pursuant to notice, That due to his continued maladministration of the Police portfolio the Minister for Police and Minister for Emergency Services no longer possesses the confidence of this House and accordingly the House calls upon the Premier to remove him from office, Standing Orders suspended, 103-104; interrupted, 104; resolution suspended (Mr West) (by leave) to suspend debate to allow the contribution of the Member for North Shore to the debate on the Address in Reply, agreed to, 104; negatived, 105-106.

MOTIONS (continued):

VOTE OF NO CONFIDENCE—MINISTER FOR TRANSPORT AND MINISTER FOR ROADS:

Mr Carr moved, pursuant to notice,

- (1) That due to his gross maladministration of the planning, investigation, determination and awarding of the M2 North West Transport Link contracts, the Minister for Transport and Minister for Roads no longer possesses the confidence of this House;
- (2) As a consequence, this House calls upon the Auditor-General to immediately and urgently fully review the terms and conditions of the M2 contracts for report to the House by Tuesday, 29 November, 1994; and
- (3) That in his review, the Auditor-General obtain independent legal advice on all matters relating to the M2 contracts, including, but not restricted to, the following matters:
 - (a) whether the contracts are legally binding;
 - (b) whether variations in the contracts may be made; and
 - (c) whether a contract binding governments and taxpayers for up to 45 years is constitutionally valid and acceptable public policy.

Paper tabled, by leave, 526; interrupted, 526.

Dr Macdonald moved, That the question be amended by leaving out all words after the word “That” with a view to adding instead the following words:

“this House censures the Minister for Transport and Minister for Roads for his failure to maximise public transport infrastructure options open to future governments in his determination and awarding of the M2 contracts.

- (2) That, as a consequence, this House calls upon the Auditor-General to immediately and urgently fully review the terms and conditions of the M2 contracts for report to the House by 9.00 a.m. Thursday 1 December 1994.
- (3) That in his review, the Auditor-General obtain independent legal advice on all matters relating to the M2 contracts, including, but not restricted to, the following matters:
 - (a) whether the contracts are legally binding;
 - (b) whether variations in the contracts may be made; and
 - (c) whether a contract binding governments and taxpayers for up to 45 years is constitutionally valid and whether it is appropriate in light of financial and other issues.
- (4) That this House calls upon the Government to make all documents, including Cabinet and legal documents, available to the Auditor-General to ensure a full, in-depth inquiry under the terms of this motion.”

Mr Hatton moved, pursuant to Standing Order 183, That the question be divided to provide for two separate questions to be put on paragraph (1) and paragraphs (2), (3) and (4) of the amendment of the Member for Manly.

Agreed to, 528.

Paragraph (1) of the amendment, negatived, 528.

Paragraphs (2), (3) and (4) of the amendment, agreed to, 529.
