POINTS OF ORDER:—
RULINGS OF SPEAKER:—
That the Testators' Family Maintenance Bill did not impose a charge on the Consolidated Revenue Fund, nor interfere with Trade, the House could not have been taken by surprise, as it must have understood that the Bill proposed to amend the Wills, Probate, and Administration Act; our Standing Orders did not provide for Hybrid Bills, the Bill was therefore in Order, 75.
That the Constitution Act had been consolidated with the Constitution Act Amendment Act of 1884, with the result that the proviso to section 26 altered the position completely; the proviso gave power to create by an Act other offices of profit, and the Department of Agriculture Bill did not propose to amend the Constitution Act, but only to act under the power given in that proviso. He ruled the Bill in Order, 75.
That following the practice of the House, he must rule the motion for Adjournment out of Order, because it dealt with a measure of new legislation that could be fully discussed on the Financial Statement, 80.
That the Servants Registry Bill did not come within the scope of Standing Order No. 246, and was therefore in Order, 104.
That the Servants Registry Bill did not make a charge on the Public Revenue by the appointment of Inspectors who might be already in the Service; Mr. Speaker ruled the Bill in Order, 104.
That the motion for the Adjournment of the House in reference to suspending the law relating to Sunday Observance was out of Order, as the question could be discussed when the Colonial Secretary's Estimates were under discussion, 115.
ON MOTIONS FOR ADJOURNMENT:—
That a notice of motion was on the Business Paper for leave to bring in the Law of Libel Bill, and it could not be discussed on a motion for the Adjournment, 67.
That the motion in reference to the number of persons disfranchised under the Local Government Act was out of Order, as it could be discussed in the Budget Debate, 74.

RULINGS OF:—
That the Testators' Family Maintenance Bill did not impose a charge on the Consolidated Revenue Fund, nor interfere with Trade, the House could not have been taken by surprise, as it must have understood that the Bill proposed to amend the Wills, Probate, and Administration Act, our Standing Orders did not provide for Hybrid Bills, the Bill was therefore in Order, 75.
That the Constitution Act had been consolidated with the Constitution Act Amendment Act of 1884, with the result that the proviso to section 26 altered the position completely, the proviso gave power to create by an Act other offices of profit, and the Department of Agriculture Bill did not propose to amend the Constitution Act, but only to act under the power given in that proviso. He ruled the Bill in Order, 75.
ON MOTIONS FOR ADJOURNMENT:—
That following the practice of the House, he must rule the motion for Adjournment to discuss amendment of the Government Savings Bank on the Credit Foncier System out of Order, because it dealt with a measure of new legislation that could be fully discussed on the Financial Statement, 80.
That the Servants Registry Bill did not come within the scope of Standing Order No. 246, and was therefore in Order, 104.
That the Servants Registry Bill did not make a charge on the Public Revenue by the appointment of Inspectors who might be already in the Service; Mr. Speaker ruled the Bill in Order, 104.
That a notice of motion was on the Business Paper for leave to bring in the Law of Libel Bill, and it could not be discussed on a motion for Adjournment, 67.
That the motion in reference to the number of persons disfranchised under the Local Government Act was out of Order, as it could be discussed in the Budget Debate, 74.
That the motion for the Adjournment of the House in reference to suspending the law relating to Sunday Observance was out of Order, as the question could be discussed when the Colonial Secretary's Estimates were under discussion, 115.
DISSENT FROM RULING OF:—
Motion made (Mr. Arthur Griffith) that this House dissents from Mr. Speaker's ruling that it is not in order to move the Adjournment of the House to call attention to the necessity for new legislation while the debate on the Financial Statement is still under discussion, and negatived, 95.
