MESSAGES (continued):

FROM ASSEMBLY TO COUNCIL:

AGREEING TO COUNCIL'S AMENDMENTS:

Constitution (Referendum) Bill, 61.

FROM COUNCIL TO ASSEMBLY:

RETURNING:

Constitution (Referendums) Amendment Bill, without amendment, 45.

Election Funding (Amendment) Bill, without amendment, 52.

Supply Bill, without amendment, 57.

Constitution (Referendum) Bill, with an amendment, 57.

Pay-roll Tax (Amendment) Bill, 61.

MINISTERIAL ANNOUNCEMENT:

Premier informed the House that he had advised the Governor that he would be recommending to the Executive Council that the Legislative Assembly be dissolved and that a General Election be held on 19 September, 1981, 52.

MOTIONS (See also "BUSINESS"):

ADJOURNMENT OF THE HOUSE UNDER 49TH STANDING ORDER:

Corrective Services—Escape of Eric James Murray, ruled out of order, 29.Deaths of Mr and Mrs C. Noice and Mrs D. Swan, withdrawn, 40.

COUNTRY UNEMPLOYMENT:

Motion (Mr Punch) (Urgency), That because of—(a) the critical unemployment problem in country areas of New South Wales which is rapidly deteriorating, especially among young people, and (b) the Government's failure to actively promote, through its policies, the establishment and expansion of industries in country areas, as job-creation tools—this House calls upon the Government to immediately review its policies so that the unemployed in country areas receive equivalent assistance and support as that being extended to the jobless in the western Sydney area, negatived, 28.

HOSPITAL SERVICES:

Motion (Mr McDonald) (Urgency), That in view of the contradictory position of the New South Wales Government over encouraging hospital only insurance, and at the same time severely cutting back hospital services, it be called on to explain why it has—(1) downgraded health priorities; (2) broken its long standing promise to the Mater Hospital; (3) attacked the health care services of the western suburbs by altering the functions of the Parramatta Hospital; and (4) reduced the services available in many metropolitan and country hospitals, negatived, 48.

INDUSTRY PROTECTION:

Motion (Mr Day) (Urgency—Suspension of Standing Orders), That this House immediately convey to the Federal Government its great dismay that savage reduction in protection for Australian industry is now being seriously considered again.

This House joins with car and component manufacturers, the clothing, textile and footwear industries and other Australian manufacturers in indicating complete opposition to such a proposed reduction in protection and also our grave concern for the huge additional unemployment this would create and for the uncertainty and doubt created by this deliberate threat which inhibits forward planning and investment decisions, agreed to, 58–61.

NO CONFIDENCE—GOVERNMENT:

Motion (Mr McDonald) (Urgency), That because of the New South Wales Government's broken promises, declining credibility, failures, misdirected priorities and its deliberate misleading of the community over projected increases in charges for basic government services, it no longer has the confidence of this House, negatived, 27.

PRISONS:

Motion (Mr McDonald) (Urgency), That in view of the degree of risk encountered by the average citizen of New South Wales from prisoners escaping from State gaols, this House condemns the failure of the Government to properly administer the penal system, in particular, the classification and transfer procedures and calls upon the Premier frankly to acknowledge the failure to effectively contain dangerous criminals, negatived, 32.
