GEORGII V REGIS.

Act No. 13, 1917.

An Act to provide for the disposal of certain lands at the Bega and Wilberforce labour settlements; to repeal the Labour Settlements Act, 1902; and for purposes consequent thereon or incidental thereto. [Assented to, 7th November, 1917.]

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the Labour Settlements Preamble.
Act, persons were enrolled and are in occupation of certain lands at the Bega and Wilberforce labour settlements;

Bega and Wilberforce Labour Settlements.

settlements : And whereas it is desirable that the said lands and certain other lands should be disposed of under the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913 : Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

Preliminary.

- Short title. 1. This Act may be cited as the "Bega and Wilberforce Labour Settlements Act, 1917."
- Definitions. 2. In this Act—
 "Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913" includes any Act amending that Act.
 "Minister" means Secretary for Lands.
 "Schedule" means Schedule to this Act.
 "Treasurer" means Colonial Treasurer.

Repeals.

- Repeal. 3. The Labour Settlements Act, 1902, is hereby repealed.

Disposal of lands in Schedules.

- Revocation of reservations. 4. The reservations for labour settlement areas of the lands described in Schedules One and Two are hereby revoked, and such lands shall be dealt with in the manner provided by this Act.

- Persons having no rights except under this Act. 5. The persons whose names are set out in the third column of Schedule Three or Schedule Four shall be deemed to have had and shall have no rights in respect of the lands described in the said Schedules or in Schedule Five, or any improvements thereon, save such as they may have or acquire under this Act.

- Disposal of lands. 6. The lands described in Schedules One and Two shall, subject to this Act, be set apart for homestead farms in accordance with the provisions of the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, and disposed of under that Act in separate blocks as described in Schedules Three and Four.

Bega and Wilberforce Labour Settlements.

7. For a period of six months after the said lands have been set apart for homestead farms, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, any person whose name is set out in the third column of Schedule Three or Schedule Four, or, in the event of his death, his personal representatives, shall have the right, exclusive of any other person, to apply for and acquire as a homestead farm under that Act the block of land of which the description in the first column of the said Schedules is opposite to his name. Such homestead farm shall, subject to this Act, be held under the conditions prescribed by the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, with respect to homestead farms.

Exclusive right to acquire land.

A person who acquires any such block under this section shall not be liable to pay for any improvements thereon. The term of residence shall be reduced by the period during which residence has been performed by such person on the block he so acquires.

Capital value of blocks.

8. In fixing the capital value of each block there shall be excluded from such value any improvements thereon.

Capital value of blocks.

Where right to apply not exercised.

9. If, at the expiration of the period referred to in section seven of this Act, any person has not applied for the block of land which he had a right under that section to apply for—

Where right to apply for land is not exercised.

- (a) he shall within one month after such expiration vacate any land occupied by him in pursuance of the Labour Settlement Act, 1902, but may within such period, subject to the Minister's approval, remove any improvements on the land which were effected or owned by him or, failing removal of such improvements, he shall be entitled to tenant-right therein of the nature provided by section two hundred and twenty-three of the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913; and

(b)

Bega and Wilberforce Labour Settlements.

- (b) such land shall on such expiration become Crown lands within the meaning of the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, and shall thereupon become reserved from sale and lease generally until such reservation is revoked wholly or in part under the provisions of that Act.

Disposal of lands in Schedule Five.

10. The lands described in Schedule Five may by notification in the Gazette be set apart for disposal in accordance with the provisions of the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, or may be otherwise dealt with under that Act.

Dissolution of labour settlement boards.

Dissolution of labour settlement boards.

11. The body corporate of the board of control of the labour settlements at Bega and Wilberforce are respectively dissolved, and the said boards and the respective members thereof, past and present, are hereby indemnified and held harmless for all acts or omissions by them in connection with the lands described in the Schedules or relating to the labour settlements at Bega or Wilberforce respectively.

Regulations.
