

I certify that this PUBLIC BILL, which originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, has finally passed the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL and the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY of NEW SOUTH WALES.

W. S. MOWLE,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.
Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 7 March, 1918.

New South Wales.

ANNO OCTAVO

GEORGI II V REGIS.

Act No. 8, 1918.

An Act to enable trustees of lands devoted to charitable, public, religious, and other similar purposes to use such lands for the use or benefit of members of His Majesty's Naval and Military Forces without incurring any injunction, forfeiture, penalty, or damages, and to validate such usage as may have taken place before this Act. [Assented to, 12th March, 1918.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

I have examined this Bill, and find it to correspond in all respects with the Bill as finally passed by both Houses.

DANIEL LEVY,
Chairman of Committees of the Legislative Assembly

Use of Trust Lands for War Purposes.

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the "Use of Trust Lands for War Purposes Act, 1918."

Trust lands may be used for naval or military purposes.

2. It shall be lawful and shall be deemed to have been lawful for any trustees or other legal or equitable holders of any lands devoted to charitable, public, religious, or other similar purposes to permit such lands to be used, occupied, or built upon by any person, with or without payment, for the drill, benefit, or comfort of any members of His Majesty's naval and military forces, provided that in cases after this Act the written approval of such purposes signed by the State Commandant of such military forces shall be first obtained.

Such use not to be ground for forfeiture or penalty, &c.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of any Act of Parliament, Crown grant, will, deed, or gift, or other form of trust or settlement, such use, occupation, or building shall not be ground for any forfeiture or penalty on any action for a penal sum or for damages although in cases before this Act no such written approval shall have been obtained.

Duration of use.

4. Such use and occupation shall not continue longer than a twelvemonth after the proclamation of peace in the present war.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty I assent to this Act.

*Government House,
Sydney, 12th March, 1918.*

W. E. DAVIDSON,
Governor.

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL for its concurrence.

W. S. MOWLE,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.
