

I certify that this PUBLIC BILL, which originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, has finally passed the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL and the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY of NEW SOUTH WALES.

W. S. MOWLE,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 26 October, 1917.

New South Wales.

ANNO OCTAVO

GEORGII V REGIS.

Act No. 25, 1917.

An Act to make provision for homes for disabled members of the naval and military forces, and for the dependents of such members who have died; for that purpose to provide for the issue of Crown grants of land and for aiding Voluntary Workers' Associations to purchase materials; to amend the Public Instruction Act of 1880 and certain other Acts; and for purposes consequent thereon or incidental thereto. [Assented to, 7th November, 1917.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Voluntary Workers (Soldiers' Holdings) Act, 1917." Short title. 2.

I have examined this Bill, and find it to correspond in all respects with the Bill as finally passed by both Houses.

DANIEL LEVY,
Chairman of Committees of the Legislative Assembly.

Voluntary Workers (Soldiers' Holdings).

Definitions.

2. In this Act,—

“Dependent” means any member of the family of a member of the forces who has died as a result of his employment in connection with warlike operations in the present war, such dependents being wholly or in part dependent upon the earnings or pension of the member of the forces at the time of his death; and where such member, being the parent or grandparent of an illegitimate child, leaves such a child, or being an illegitimate child, leaves a parent or grandparent so dependent upon his earnings or pension, shall include such an illegitimate child and parent or grandparent respectively.

“Disabled member of the forces” means any such member who is permanently disabled.

“Member of a family” means wife or husband, father, mother, grandfather, grandmother, stepfather, stepmother, son, daughter, grandson, granddaughter, stepson, stepdaughter, brother, sister, half-brother, half-sister.

“Member of the forces” means member of the Commonwealth naval or military forces, including member of the Imperial Reserve residing in New South Wales before the war, enlisted or appointed for or employed on active service outside Australia, or employed on a ship of war, or enlisted or appointed for service in connection with naval or military preparations or operations, including munition workers, and includes a member of the army medical corps or of the nursing service who is accepted or appointed by the Director-General of Medical Service for service outside Australia.

“Voluntary Workers' Association” means any association formed for the purpose of acquiring land and material for constructing buildings and effecting improvements by voluntary labour on land for homes for members of the forces and dependents under such conditions as the Governor may by regulation prescribe.

Voluntary Workers (Soldiers' Holdings).

3. The Governor may issue Crown grants to the Public Trustee of land which shall be held and disposed of in pursuance of this Act. Issue of Crown grants.

4. The Public Trustee may at the request of a Voluntary Workers' Association acquire, hold, subdivide, alienate, and mortgage lands for the purpose of providing homes for members of the forces and dependents. Public Trustee may acquire land to provide homes.

5. The Public Trustee may borrow moneys on the security of any land so granted to him, or acquired or held by him, and on the security of any buildings, improvements, and materials thereon, and shall from time to time, as he thinks fit, make advances out of such moneys to Voluntary Workers' Associations for the purchase of materials for constructing buildings and effecting improvements by voluntary labour on such land for homes for disabled members of the forces and dependents. Borrowing of money for voluntary workers' associations.

6. A Voluntary Workers' Association receiving money from the Public Trustee shall apply it to the purposes aforesaid and shall inform the Public Trustee of the portions of the said land on which it proposes to construct buildings and effect improvements as aforesaid, and give such other particulars in relation to such proposal as the Public Trustee may require. Application of money.

7. (1) When a Voluntary Workers' Association has constructed buildings and effected improvements on any such portion it shall give to the Public Trustee particulars of the materials used therein and its estimate of their value. The Public Trustee shall, at the request of such association, convey such portion with all buildings and improvements thereon to the member of the forces or dependent named by such association on such terms and conditions as the Public Trustee considers desirable. Conveyance to soldier or dependent.

(2) Such member or dependent shall thereupon execute a mortgage of such portion to the Public Trustee, or to any person named by him, to secure the payment by instalments of the value of the materials used for buildings and improvements thereon as aforesaid; such value to be fixed by the Public Trustee. Mortgage by soldier or dependent.

(3) The Public Trustee or other person to whom such mortgage has been given shall apply so much of the

the money thereby secured as is equivalent to the value of the materials aforesaid to repay the moneys borrowed by the Public Trustee under section four.

Property to be exempt from insolvency or bankruptcy laws.

8. Every house heretofore or hereafter built by a Voluntary Workers' Association, and the land on which the same is erected shall—but so long only as the same house and land remain the property of a member of the forces, or a dependent to whom the same may have been or hereafter may be given or transferred—be exempt from any law now or hereafter in force relating to insolvency or bankruptcy, or from being seized or levied upon by or under the process of any court; and no such house and land shall be alienated or charged without the consent of the Public Trustee: Provided however that nothing herein shall affect the rights and remedies of mortgagees under mortgages given prior to the passing of this Act, or under mortgages hereafter given with the approval of the Public Trustee.

Investigation of accounts by Auditor-General.

9. The Auditor-General, whenever he thinks it desirable so to do, may investigate the accounts of any Voluntary Workers' Associations, and shall report the result of his investigation to the Minister for Lands, who shall take such action as he may deem desirable to safeguard the interests of such Voluntary Workers' Association or the persons whom it is the object of the Voluntary Workers' Association to benefit.

Regulations.

10. (1) The Governor may make regulations for carrying out the provisions of this Act and in particular—prescribing the conditions on which moneys may be paid by the Public Trustee to Voluntary Workers' Associations;
 prescribing the particulars to be furnished to the Public Trustee by such associations as to the expenditure of the moneys so paid to them;
 prescribing the terms and conditions of mortgages by members of the forces and dependents;
 fixing the rate of interest to be charged in such mortgages;
 prescribing the particulars to be furnished to the Public Trustee as to the materials provided for or used in respect of any portion.

Voluntary Workers (Soldiers' Holdings).

(2) Such regulations shall be published in the Gazette and be laid before Parliament within a reasonable time. If either House of Parliament within fifteen sitting days after such regulations have been laid before it passes a resolution disallowing any regulation, such regulation shall thereupon cease to have effect.

11. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Public Instruction Act of 1880, the Minister of Public Instruction may without consideration grant and convey the lands described in the Schedule hereto to trustees for homes for disabled members of the forces and dependents, subject to such conditions and with such powers with regard to the land as the Governor may confer on them :—

Minister may grant and convey land.
