

Legislative Council.

No. , 1919.

A BILL

To free the grant of certain land as a site for the residence of the Bishop of Grafton and Armidale from the condition for forfeiture and reversion therein expressed ; and for other purposes.

[MR. GARLAND ;—18 September, 1919.]

WHEREAS by Crown grant made under section five Preamble. of the Crown Lands Amendment Act of 1861, and dated the twelfth day of February, anno domini, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, registered 5 volume six hundred and twenty-nine, folio fifty-three, the

the land therein described was granted to the Bishop of Grafton and Armidale, of the Church of England, and his successors upon trust, as a site for the episcopal residence of the Bishop of Grafton and Armidale, of the said Church: And whereas the said grant was made subject to the condition therein expressed for forfeiture and reversion unto Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, if the said land or any part thereof should be used for any purpose other than the purpose aforesaid: And whereas the Bishop of Armidale now represents the Bishop of Grafton and Armidale: And whereas it is expedient to provide as hereinafter expressed: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Land freed
from conditions.

1. The land described in the said recited grant shall be held free from the said recited condition for forfeiture and reversion, and shall be subject to the provisions of the Church of England Trust Property Act, 1917, as Church trust property held for the diocese of Armidale.

Short title.

2. This Act may be cited as "Bishop of Grafton and Armidale Grant Forfeiture Act, 1919."
