Birds and Animals Protection (Amendment)
Bill, 1922 (No. 2).

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

THE object of this Bill is to correct a flaw in the Birds and Animals Protection Act, 1918, by which under recent decisions of the Court any person who captures a wild bird or animal becomes its legal owner, whether it be caught in the open season or not.

The Bill repeals section 17 of the Principal Act and substitutes a new section providing that all protected birds and animals, until taken or killed in accordance with the provisions of the Act, shall be deemed to be the property of the Crown; also that nothing in the Act shall prevent any person keeping in confinement or in a domesticated state any protected bird or animal, provided it has been taken as therein specified.

Birds and Mammals Protection (Amendment)
Bill, 1982 (No. 2)

SECTION 1

1. This Bill is to amend the Birds and Mammals Protection Act, 1971, in relation to the protection of birds and mammals.

2. In section 2 of the Act, the definition of "bird" shall be amended to include any bird of any species which is listed in the Schedule to this Act.

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL for its concurrence.

W. S. MOWLE,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.
