

I certify that this PUBLIC BILL, which originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, has finally passed the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL and the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY of NEW SOUTH WALES.

W. S. MOWLE,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.
Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 5 March, 1926.

New South Wales.

ANNO SEXTO DECIMO

GEORGI V REGIS.

Act No. 13, 1926.

An Act to make certain provisions as to the hours during which bread and pastry may be manufactured and distributed; to amend the Bread Act, 1901, and certain other Acts; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to. 17th March, 1926.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

- 1. This Act may be cited as the "Day Baking Act, Short title. 1926," and shall be read with the Bread Act, 1901, as amended by subsequent Acts.
- 2.

I have examined this Bill, and find it to correspond in all respects with the Bill as finally passed by both Houses.

R. GREIG,
Chairman of Committees of the Legislative Assembly

Day Baking.

Interpretation.

2. In this Act, unless the context or subject-matter otherwise indicates or requires,—

“Bread” includes bread rolls.

“Make or bake,” in relation to bread or pastry, does not include any operations connected with the preparation of dough for bread or pies, or with the preparation or cooking of meat required for pie-making, or with the firing of ovens.

“Pastry” includes cakes and biscuits and any goods usually made by pastrycooks.

Manufacture
of bread at certain times
prohibited.

3. (1) No person exercising or employed in the trade or calling of a baker shall make or bake for sale any bread—

(a) between the hours of six o'clock in the evening and half-past five o'clock in the morning of the following day; or

(b) upon any day appointed as a holiday in any award or industrial agreement controlling or regulating the conditions of employment of operative bakers; or

(c) within the county of Cumberland or of Northumberland at any time on any Sunday.

(2) It shall not be an offence within this section to make or bake for sale bread within the hours or upon the day mentioned in this section where the day upon which the bread is to be delivered is what is customarily known in the industry as a double delivery or a treble delivery day, or where the making or baking is done only for the purpose of saving dough endangered by unusual atmospheric conditions or unforeseen circumstances.

Manufacture
of pastry at
certain times
prohibited.

4. (1) No person exercising or employed in the trade or calling of a baker or pastrycook within the county of Cumberland or of Northumberland shall make or bake for sale any pastry—

(i) on any Sunday except between the hours of eight o'clock in the morning and six o'clock in the evening; or

(ii) on any other day except between the hours of half-past five o'clock in the morning and six o'clock in the evening.

(2)

Day Baking.

(2) No person exercising or employed in the trade or calling of a baker or pastrycook elsewhere than in the county of Cumberland or of Northumberland shall make or bake for sale any pastry between the hours of six o'clock in the evening and half-past five o'clock in the morning of the following day.

(3) It shall not be an offence under subsection one or subsection two of this section to make or bake pastry at any hour on any day or days not exceeding six during the period in each year commencing on the Monday immediately preceding Good Friday and ending on the Saturday next after Easter Monday.

5. If by any award or industrial agreement the starting time for persons exercising or employed in the trade or calling of a baker or pastrycook is fixed later than half past-five o'clock in the morning, such starting time shall be binding on all persons exercising or employed in such trade or calling.

Starting time
in award or industrial agreement.

6. (1) Whosoever being a baker or seller of bread or an employee or person acting for or on behalf of a baker or seller of bread, delivers by vehicle or other receptacle any bread to a purchaser—

Delivery of bread during certain hours
prohibited.

- (a) upon any day appointed as a holiday in any award or industrial agreement controlling or regulating the conditions of employment of bread carters; or
- (b) within the county of Cumberland or of Northumberland between the hours of six o'clock in the evening and six o'clock in the morning of the following day; or
- (c) elsewhere than in the said counties between the hours of six o'clock in the evening and five o'clock in the morning of the following day, shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

(2) The provisions of subsection one of this section shall not in the counties of Cumberland and Northumberland extend to—

- (a) the delivery of bread by a common carrier whose principal business is not the carriage of bread; or
- (b) the delivery of bread to a purchaser on the premises of the baker or seller of bread.

Day Baking.

Penalties.

7. Any person who commits an offence against this Act or contravenes any of the provisions of this Act shall be liable upon summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds for a first offence, and for a second or any subsequent offence to a penalty of not less than ten pounds and not exceeding twenty pounds.

Powers of entry and inspection.

8. An inspector appointed under the Early Closing Act, 1899, or any Act replacing the same, on producing the certificate of his appointment, may enter at any reasonable hour any premises in which the trade or calling of a baker or pastrycook is carried on and make such inquiries as he thinks necessary to ascertain if the provisions of this Act have been complied with. If any person wilfully obstructs such inspector in the exercise by him of the said powers or fails to truly answer any such inquiries made by such inspector he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Amendment of Act No. 35, 1901, s. 18.

9. The Bread Act, 1901, as amended by subsequent Acts is amended by omitting from section eighteen the words "forty-eight hours" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "seven days."

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty I assent to this Act.

D. R. S. DE CHAIR,

Governor.

*Government House,
Sydney, 17th March, 1926.*