ANNO SEXTO DECIMO

GEORGII V REGIS.

*****

An Act to confer powers upon Executor Trustee and Agency Company of South Australia, Limited. [Assented to, 29th October, 1925.]

WHEREAS a certain company styled "Executor Trustee and Agency Company of South Australia, Limited" (hereinafter referred to as the company), formed and registered under the provisions of the Companies Acts in force in the State of South Australia is about to be duly registered in this State under the provisions of the Companies (Amendment) Act, 1906, and the Companies (Amendment) Act, 1907, with a capital of five hundred thousand pounds, divisible into five

Executor Trustee and Agency Company of South Australia, Limited.

five hundred thousand shares of one pound each, for the purpose of undertaking the duties of such offices as aforesaid for a commission: And whereas the company has now been entrusted with the administration of estates comprising assets in this State and in the State of South Australia and in other States: And whereas it is expedient that the necessary powers should be conferred upon the company in order to enable it to act as executor, administrator, or administrator with the will annexed, trustee, receiver, committee of the estates of persons of unsound mind, guardian of the estates of infants, agent under power of attorney or otherwise, liquidator trustee in bankruptcy or of any assignment under the law relating to bankruptcy, and to perform and discharge all the duties of such offices and to receive remuneration therefor, and to confer upon the company all such privileges and powers as are necessary or expedient for the purposes aforesaid: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Company
may act as executor and obtain probate.

1. Whenever the company has been or shall be named, either alone or jointly with any other corporation or any person, as executor, in the last will and testament, or in the codicil to the last will and testament, of any testator, it shall be lawful for the company to act as executor, and to apply for and obtain probate of the will of the testator, and to perform and to discharge all other the acts and duties of an executor as fully and effectually as any other executor.

Persons entitled to obtain letters of administration
C.T.A. may authorise the company to do so.

2. It shall be lawful for any person or persons entitled to obtain letters of administration with the will of any testator annexed of the estate of such testator to authorise the company, either alone or jointly with any other corporation or any person, to apply for and to obtain letters of administration with the will annexed, which may be granted to the company upon its own application when so authorised.

3.

Executor Trustee and Agency Company of South Australia, Limited.

3. Any person or persons named expressly or by implication as executors or executor who would be entitled to obtain probate of the will of any testator without reserving leave to any other person to apply for probate may instead of themselves or himself applying for probate authorise the said company to apply to the Supreme Court for administration with the will annexed, and administration with the will annexed may be granted to the said company upon its own application when so authorised unless the testator shall by his will have expressed his desire that the office of executor should not be delegated, or that the said company should not act in the trust of his will.

Persons entitled to probate may authorise company to obtain administration with will annexed.

4. It shall be lawful for any person or persons entitled to obtain letters of administration of the estate of any intestate to authorise the company to apply for such letters of administration, either alone or jointly with any other corporation, or any person or persons so entitled to obtain such letters of administration, and administration of the estate of the intestate may be granted to the company, either alone or jointly as aforesaid, upon its own application when so authorised.

Persons entitled to obtain letters of administration may authorise the company to do so.

5. It shall be lawful for the company, where the administration of any estate with or without the will annexed has been granted to it, either alone or jointly with any other corporation or any person, to do and perform all acts and duties which belong to the office of the administrator, or administrator with the will annexed, as the case may be, notwithstanding its incorporation.

Company on being granted letters of administration may perform acts which belong to the office of administrator, notwithstanding incorporation.

6. In all cases in which the company is empowered under this Act to apply for probate or for letters of administration, an affidavit made by the manager, assistant manager, acting manager, or secretary, or by such other officer of the company as may from time to time be appointed by the board of directors for that purpose, shall be received, instead of any affidavit required by any Charter, Act of Parliament or rule of court to be made by persons making application for probate or letters of administration.

Court to act on affidavit of manager, &c., on application for probate or administration.

Executor Trustee and Agency Company of South Australia, Limited.

Assets of company to be liable for proper administration of estates and no bond to administer to be required when £20,000 of paid-up capital is invested in Government securities.

7. All the capital, both paid and unpaid, of which paid-up capital twenty thousand pounds shall be invested in the purchase of debentures or inscribed stock in such of the public funds of the State as the directors of the company may select, in the name of the Treasurer of the State in trust for the company, but transferable only with the joint consent of the said Treasurer and the company, or upon the order of the Supreme Court or a judge thereof, and all other assets of the company, shall be liable for the proper administration of all estates of which the company shall act as executor or administrator, and no bond for the due administration of any estate shall be required to be given by or on behalf of the company, except in respect of estates exceeding twenty thousand pounds in value, in which the said court or a judge thereof shall otherwise order, and all interest and income to accrue from time to time from or in respect of all such debentures and inscribed stock shall be paid by the said Treasurer to the company as and when the same shall respectively become payable.

Company may be appointed trustee, receiver, committee, or guardian of estate.

8. (1) In all cases where any court of justice or judge thereof or person has power to appoint any person as—

- (a) trustee; or
- (b) receiver; or
- (c) committee or manager of the estate of an insane person, insane patient, or incapable person, within the meaning of the Lunacy Act of 1898; or
- (d) guardian of the estate of an infant,

the company may be so appointed.

(2) (a) Subject as hereinafter provided the company may be appointed or may continue to act as sole trustee in all cases notwithstanding that it is provided by the terms of the instrument (if any) creating the trust or of any power or otherwise that there shall be more than one trustee to perform the trust.

(b) Where the company and one or more individuals are co-trustees, any one or more of such individuals may retire, and the company shall for the purposes

purposes of any Act now or hereafter in force relating to the retirement of trustees and the vesting of the trust property be deemed to be equivalent to two trustees.

(3) The company shall not be appointed in any case in which the instrument creating the trust or power forbids the appointment of the company.

(4) The company shall not be appointed or be entitled to act as sole trustee in any case in which the instrument creating the trust or power expressly provides that there shall be another trustee in addition to the company or that the company shall not be appointed or act as sole trustee.

(5) In every case in which the company is appointed or acts in any of the offices in subsection one hereof mentioned all the capital of the company, both paid and unpaid, and all other assets of the company and the directors, manager, and assistant manager thereof and their respective estates shall be liable for the proper discharge of the duties of such office.

(6) No bond, recognizance, or other security for the proper discharge of such duties shall be required to be given by or on behalf of the company.

9. (1) In all cases where before the passing of this Act the company was appointed new trustee in place of more than one trustee previously filling the office, such appointment shall be deemed to have been and to be as valid and effectual as if this Act had then been passed.

Validation of prior appointments of company as sole trustee.

(2) In all cases where before the passing of this Act the company upon the retirement of one or more trustees continues to act as sole trustee, the company shall be deemed to have been and to be entitled to act as sole trustee.

(3) The trustees in whose place the company was so appointed or upon whose retirement the company continued to act as sole trustee, shall be deemed to have been and to be discharged from the trust.

Company may hold property as joint tenant.

(2) Where the company and an individual, or the company and another body corporate, become entitled to

to any property under circumstances or by virtue of any instrument which, if the company or other body corporate had been an individual, would have created a joint tenancy, they shall be entitled to the property as joint tenants.

(3) Where the company or other body corporate is a joint tenant of any property, then on its dissolution the property shall devolve on the other joint tenant.

Property vested in company and another as trustees, &c., to be held on joint tenancy.

11. Where any property is now or hereafter becomes vested in the company and an individual, or in the company and another body corporate, to the intent that they should hold the same jointly in any fiduciary capacity, or as mortgagees, they shall be deemed to be joint tenants thereof, and not tenants in common unless otherwise expressly provided.

Company may act under power of attorney by manager, &c.

12. It shall be lawful for the company to act, either alone or jointly with any other corporation or any person, as attorney, whenever it shall be appointed by deed attorney for any person or any corporation, and all the powers conferred upon the company by any power of attorney may be exercised and carried into execution by the manager, assistant manager, acting manager, or secretary, or by such other officer of the company as may from time to time be appointed by the board of directors for that purpose, or by any two of the directors of the company; but in all cases the capital, both paid and unpaid, and all other assets of the company, shall be liable for the due execution of the powers so conferred upon the company: Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorise any person, company, or corporation to confer any power upon the company which cannot by law be delegated or performed by attorney.

Executor, administrator, or trustee may delegate trusts to company.

13. It shall be lawful for any executor, administrator, or trustee by deed to delegate to the company, either alone or jointly with any other corporation or any person, as his attorney all such trusts and powers as may by law be delegated, and all acts done by the company within the scope of such delegation shall, in favour of any persons dealing with the company without notice of death or revocation revocation of authority by such executor, administrator, or trustee, be valid and effectual notwithstanding such death or revocation.

14. It shall be lawful for the Supreme Court or any judge thereof sitting in its equity or probate jurisdiction, on the application of any executor or administrator acting under any probate or letters of administration granted either before or after the coming into operation of this Act, to appoint the company, either alone or jointly with any other corporation or any person, to be administrator in his place or stead, and thereupon the company shall have the same powers and authorities as if it had been the original executor or administrator as the case may be; and in every such case all the capital, both paid and unpaid, and all other assets of the company, and the manager, assistant manager, acting manager, and the directors and their respective estates, shall be liable for the due administration of the estates of which the company shall be so appointed administrator.

Executors or administrators, with the consent of judge, may appoint company to discharge duties.

15. (1) In all cases in which the personal attendance of an executor, administrator, trustee, receiver, committee, or guardian is required in any court of justice or elsewhere, the company shall be entitled to make such attendance in the person of the manager, assistant manager, acting manager, or secretary, or such other officer of the company as may from time to time be appointed by the board of directors for that purpose.

Manager, assistant manager, acting manager, secretary, or other officer to attend and represent company.

(2) All declarations and all affidavits, statements of defence, or other statements required by law to be made on oath may be made and sworn on behalf of the company by the manager, assistant manager, acting manager, or secretary.

(3) In every case where the company obtains probate or letters of administration, or is appointed and acts as trustee, receiver, committee, or guardian, the manager, assistant manager, and directors in their proper persons and estates, shall be individually and collectively responsible for the due administration of the estates entrusted to the company, and shall in their own proper persons be liable by process of attachment, commitment for contempt, or by other process, to all courts

having

having jurisdiction in that behalf in the event of disobedience to the rules, orders, and decrees of such courts made against the company in the same manner and to the same extent as if such manager, assistant manager, and directors had personally obtained probate or letters of administration, and had acted as executor or administrator, trustee, receiver, committee, or guardian, and as if the rule, order, or decree had been made against them personally instead of against the company.

(4) Notwithstanding such personal responsibility of the said manager, assistant manager, and directors, the capital both paid and unpaid, and all other assets of the company, shall remain liable for any loss which may be occasioned by or which may happen through any breach of trust or duty committed by the company or any of its officers, whether such trust or duty is implied by law or expressly conferred or imposed by the instrument under which the company acts.

(5) No person shall be appointed a director or manager of the company unless he is a bona fide resident of either the State of New South Wales or the State of South Australia, and any person being a director or manager of the company who ceases to reside in either of such States shall, upon so ceasing to reside, vacate his office, and such vacancy shall be filled up in the manner provided by the articles of association for filling casual vacancies.

Company to be paid a commission on moneys received.

16. The company shall be entitled to receive, in addition to all moneys properly expended by it and chargeable against any estate of which the administration shall be committed to the company, whether as executor, administrator, trustee, receiver, committee, or guardian, a commission at a rate to be fixed from time to time by the board of directors of the company, but not to exceed in any case two pounds ten shillings for every one hundred pounds of the corpus or capital value of any such estate, and five pounds for every one hundred pounds of the annual income of any such estate received by the company, and of all moneys, whether capital or income, received by the company as an attorney acting under power of attorney, and such commission shall be payable payable out of the moneys in possession of the company representing the estate upon which the same shall be chargeable, and shall be accepted by the company in full satisfaction of any claim to remuneration for acting as such executor, administrator, receiver, trustee, committee, guardian, or attorney, and no other charges beyond such commission and moneys properly expended by the company shall be made or allowed: Provided that if in any estate any judge in equity, or judge in probate, shall be of opinion that the rate of commission charged is excessive such judge may review any such commission: Provided also that the commission charged by the company against any estate shall not exceed the amount of the published scale of charges of the company at the time when the administration of such estate was committed to the company, nor shall this enactment prevent the payment of any commission directed by a testator in his will either in addition to or in lieu of the commission hereinbefore authorised.

17. Whenever the company shall have been appointed executor, administrator, trustee, receiver, committee, guardian, or attorney, it shall be subject in all respects to the same control, and to removal or restraint from acting and generally to the jurisdiction of the courts, in the same manner as any other executor, administrator, trustee, receiver, committee, guardian, or attorney.

18. It shall be lawful for any trustee, cestui que trust, executor, legatee, administrator, next of kin, or creditor entitled to or interested in any estate which shall for the time being be under the management or control of the company, after demand in writing made to the manager, assistant manager, or acting manager of the company, for a sufficient account of the property and assets of which such estate shall consist, and of the disposal and expenditure thereof or thereout; and upon non-compliance with such demand within a reasonable time, to apply to any judge in equity or judge in probate of the Supreme Court in a summary manner upon motion after notice to the company for an account, and if the said judge shall be of opinion that no sufficient account has been rendered by the company, the said judge shall

Judge may order audit in any estate committed to company.

19. It shall be lawful for the said judge in equity or judge in probate, upon the making of any application under the last preceding clause, to order, in addition to or in substitution for any account to be rendered by the company, that a person to be named in such order shall examine the books and accounts of the company in reference to the estate as to which the order is made, and in that case the directors and officers of the company shall deliver to the person named in such order a list of all the books kept by the company, and shall produce to such person at the office of the company at all reasonable times when required all books and accounts, vouchers, papers, and other documents of the company relating to such estate, and shall afford him all necessary information and all other necessary facilities for enabling him to make the said examination, and the said judge shall have the same power over the costs of such examination as is given by the last preceding section over the costs of an application under that section.

Voluntary winding-up of company or disposal of shares may be restrained by judge.

20. So long as any estate, in respect of which the company is executor, administrator, trustee, committee, or guardian, shall remain in whole or in part unadministered, it shall not be lawful to proceed to wind up the company voluntarily unless with the sanction of the said judge, and it shall be lawful for any person interested in such estate, or who may have any claim in respect thereof, to apply to the said judge in a summary way by motion to restrain any director or any shareholder from disposing of any shares which such director or shareholder may hold in the company, or to restrain the winding up voluntarily of the company, and the said judge

judge shall have power to make such order upon such application as the circumstances of the case shall appear to the said judge to require.

21. If it be proved at any time to the satisfaction of any judge in equity or judge in probate that three-fourths or more of the amount of capital authorised to be called up has been lost by the company, it shall be lawful for such judge, upon the application of any member, creditor, or cestui que trust of the company, to make an order for the winding up of the company.

Judge may order winding up of company.

22. In the event of the company being wound up, every person who has been a director of the company at any time within the period of two years preceding the commencement of the winding up shall be liable for the balance unpaid on every share which he may have transferred during such two years, in addition to his liability upon any such shares held by him at the commencement of the winding up in the event of the holder or holders of such shares being unable to pay the said balance per share in full.

Provision as to liability of directors.

23. All moneys representing the realisation of properties situate in New South Wales which form part of any estate of which at any time the company shall be executor, administrator, or trustee, and which moneys shall remain unclaimed by the person entitled to the same for a period of five years after the time when the same shall have become payable to such person, except where payment has been or shall be restrained by the injunction of some court of competent jurisdiction, shall, together with interest at current rates on fixed deposits in banks, be paid by the company into the State Treasury to be placed to the credit of a fund to be called the testamentary and trust fund, distinguishing the particular estates in respect of which such moneys shall have been paid, and the Treasurer shall from time to time invest such moneys in the purchase of Government debentures or stock to be placed to the credit of the said testamentary and trust fund, distinguishing in the ledger the particular estate in respect of which such moneys shall have been invested; and the interest payable on such debentures or stock shall be placed to the

the credit of the said fund, and the said Treasurer's said account in the ledger shall be an official and not a nominal account, and in all transfers of the said debentures and stock by the said Treasurer he shall be so styled without any name, addition, or description, and he shall not sign any such transfers or pay over any of the moneys standing to the credit of the said fund unless an order of any judge in equity or judge in probate directing such transfer and specifying the amount of moneys, debentures, or stock, and the name, description, and addition of the person to whom the proceeds of such sale are to be paid shall be left at the office of the said Treasurer, nor until the purchase money of the debentures or stock to be sold has been received in the Treasury; and the company shall at the end of every six months deliver to the said Treasurer a statement of all such unclaimed moneys which during the preceding six months shall have been in its hands, and distinguishing the several estates in respect of which the same have been received, and setting out the dates and amounts of the several payments of the same under this section; and if the said moneys or any part thereof have not been paid into the Treasury with a statement of the reason for the delay of such payments, and if default is made in compliance with the foregoing provisions of this section, the company shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day while such default continues, and every director and manager, assistant manager, or acting manager of the company who knowingly and wilfully authorises or permits such default shall incur the like penalty.

Persons entitled to moneys in testamentary and trust funds may apply to judge.

24. It shall be lawful for any person who shall be entitled to any stock debentures or moneys which shall at any time form part of the said testamentary and trust fund to apply to any judge in equity or judge in probate, upon petition in a summary way, for such order as is in the last-preceding section referred to, and the said judge shall deal with such application as nearly as may be in the same manner as in the case of applications to the said court under the Trustee Act of 1898; and in all cases in which the Treasurer may see fit

fit to appear upon such petition, he shall be entitled to such costs against the applicant or out of the fund as the said judge may direct.

25. It shall be lawful for the Treasurer after demand in writing addressed to the manager, assistant manager, or acting manager of the company for a sufficient account of the property and assets of which any or every estate included in or which ought to be or to have been included in the hereinbefore mentioned statement of unclaimed moneys shall consist, and of the disposal and expenditure thereof, of or thereout, to apply to the said judge in a summary way, upon motion after notice to the company, for an account, and if the said judge shall be of opinion that no sufficient account has been rendered by the company, the said judge shall order such account to be rendered by the company as to the said judge shall seem just, or if the said judge shall think that under the circumstances the company was not bound to furnish any account, or that any account furnished by the company was sufficient, it shall be lawful for the said judge to dismiss the application, and the said judge shall have power in all cases to make such order as to costs either against the company or as to payment of costs out of the estate as to the said judge shall seem right.

Order for account on application of Treasurer.

26. The manager, assistant manager, or acting manager of the company shall during the months of April and October in every year during which the company carries on business, make before some justice of the peace a declaration in the form contained in the Schedule hereto, or as near thereto as circumstances will admit, of the receipts, expenditure, and investments of and in all estates and property held by the company in trust up to the thirty-first day of December or thirtieth day of June then last past; such declaration shall within seven days after the making thereof be filed in the office of the Master in Equity, and a copy of such declaration shall be put up in a conspicuous place in the registered office of the company and in every branch office or place where the business of the company is carried on, and shall be given to any member member or creditor of the company, or any cestui que trust who applies for the same; and if default is made in compliance with the provisions of this section the company shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day whilst such default continues, and every manager, assistant manager, or acting manager of the company who knowingly and wilfully authorises or permits such default shall incur the like penalty.

Appeal from judge.

27. Every order made by any judge in equity, or judge in probate, or any other judge under this Act, shall be subject to appeal in the same manner and under the same conditions as other orders of the said judges.

Act not to preclude other companies from applying for similar powers to those conferred by this Act.

28. Nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed to give to the company any right to oppose the granting of similar powers to those conferred upon the company by this Act to any other company or to corporations generally, or to claim or to seek compensation in consequence of such powers being conferred upon any other company, or upon corporations generally, or in the event of provision being made by Parliament for the management of trust estates by a public trustee or department or officer of the Government, or in the event of the repeal of this Act.

Settlors or testators may appoint their own solicitors.

29. Where by any settlement, will, codicil, or other testamentary writing, a settlor or testator shall direct that any practising solicitor or solicitors shall conduct the legal business of his or her estate, such solicitor or solicitors shall be entitled to act therein accordingly, but in such case the company shall not be liable for the negligence, misfeasance, nonfeasance, or misconduct of such solicitor or solicitors, and such solicitor or solicitors may be removed by the order of any judge in equity or judge in probate upon the application of the company or of any person interested in the said estate upon cause shown, and then and in such case the said judge may appoint the solicitor or solicitors of the company to conduct such legal business.

Incorporation and powers of company except so far as specifically altered remain.

30. Except so far as is herein expressly provided, the company shall have and be subject to the same restrictions, liabilities, penalties, privileges, and powers as

as it has and is subject to under its present incorporation, and this Act shall not otherwise affect the incorporation of the company.

31. Any penalty imposed by this Act may be recovered in a summary way before two or more justices of the peace. <sup>Recovery of penalties.</sup>

32. This Act shall be called and may be cited as "Executor Trustee and Agency Company of South Australia, Limited, Act, 1925." <sup>Short title of Act.</sup>

*****

An Act to confer powers upon Executor Trustee and Agency Company of South Australia, Limited.

WHEREAS a certain company styled "Executor Trustee and Agency Company of South Australia, Limited" (hereinafter referred to as the company), formed and registered under the provisions of the Companies Acts in force in the State of South Australia is about to be duly registered in this State under the provisions of the Companies (Amendment) Act, 1906, and the Companies (Amendment) Act, 1907, with a capital of five hundred thousand pounds, divisible into Act, 1925.

Executor Trustee and Agency Company of South Australia, Limited.

five hundred thousand shares of one pound each, for the purpose of undertaking the duties of such offices as aforesaid for a commission: And whereas the company has now been entrusted with the administration of 5 estates comprising assets in this State and in the State of South Australia and in other States: And whereas it is expedient that the necessary powers should be conferred upon the company in order to enable it to act as executor, administrator, or administrator with the will
10 annexed, trustee, receiver, committee of the estates of persons of unsound mind, guardian of the estates of infants, agent under power of attorney or otherwise, liquidator trustee in bankruptcy or of any assignment under the law relating to bankruptcy, and to perform
15 and discharge all the duties of such offices and to receive remuneration therefor, and to confer upon the company all such privileges and powers as are necessary or expedient for the purposes aforesaid: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and 20 with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. Whenever the company has been or shall be 25 named, either alone or jointly with any other corporation or any person, as executor, in the last will and testament, or in the codicil to the last will and testament, of any testator, it shall be lawful for the company to act as executor, and to apply for and obtain probate of the 30 will of the testator, and to perform and to discharge all other the acts and duties of an executor as fully and effectually as any other executor.

Company may act as executor and obtain probate.

2. It shall be lawful for any person or persons entitled to obtain letters of administration with the will 35 of any testator annexed of the estate of such testator to authorise the company, either alone or jointly with any other corporation or any person, to apply for and to obtain letters of administration with the will annexed, which may be granted to the company upon its own 40 application when so authorised.

Persons entitled to obtain letters of administration C.T.A. may authorise the company to do so.

3.

Executor Trustee and Agency Company of South Australia, Limited.

- 3. Any person or persons named expressly or by implication as executors or executor who would be entitled to obtain probate of the will of any testator without reserving leave to any other person to apply for probate may instead of themselves or himself applying for probate authorise the said company to apply to the Supreme Court for administration with the will annexed, and administration with the will annexed may be granted to the said company upon its own application when so authorised unless the testator shall by his will have expressed his desire that the office of executor should not be delegated, or that the said company should not act in the trust of his will.
- 4. It shall be lawful for any person or persons entitled to obtain letters of administration of the estate of any intestate to authorise the company to apply for such letters of administration, either alone or jointly with any other corporation, or any person or persons so entitled to obtain such letters of administration, and administration of the estate of the intestate may be granted to the company, either alone or jointly as aforesaid, upon its own application when so authorised.
- 5. It shall be lawful for the company, where the administration of any estate with or without the will annexed has been granted to it, either alone or jointly with any other corporation or any person, to do and perform all acts and duties which belong to the office of the administrator, or administrator with the will annexed, as the case may be, notwithstanding its incorporation.
- 6. In all cases in which the company is empowered under this Act to apply for probate or for letters of administration, an affidavit made by the manager, assistant manager, acting manager, or secretary, or by such other officer of the company as may from time to time be appointed by the board of directors for that purpose, shall be received, instead of any affidavit required by any Charter, Act of Parliament or rule of court to be made by persons making application for probate or letters of administration.

Persons entitled to probate may authorise company to obtain administration with will annexed.

Persons entitled to obtain letters of administration may authorise the company to do so.

Company on being granted letters of administration may perform acts which belong to the office of administrator, notwithstanding incorporation.

Court to act on affidavit of manager, &c., on application for probate or administration.

Executor Trustee and Agency Company of South Australia, Limited.

7. All the capital, both paid and unpaid, of which paid-up capital twenty thousand pounds shall be invested in the purchase of debentures or inscribed stock in such of the public funds of the State as the directors of the 5 company may select, in the name of the Treasurer of the State in trust for the company, but transferable only with the joint consent of the said Treasurer and the company, or upon the order of the Supreme Court or a judge thereof, and all other assets of the company, shall 10 be liable for the proper administration of all estates of which the company shall act as executor or administrator, and no bond for the due administration of any estate shall be required to be given by or on behalf of the company, except in respect of estates exceeding twenty 15 thousand pounds in value, in which the said court or a judge thereof shall otherwise order, and all interest and income to accrue from time to time from or in respect of all such debentures and inscribed stock shall be paid by the said Treasurer to the company as and when the 20 same shall respectively become payable.

Assets of company to be liable for proper administration of estates and no bond to administer to be required when £20,000 of paid-up capital is invested in Government securities.

8. (1) In all cases where any court of justice or judge thereof or person has power to appoint any person as—
(a) trustee; or
(b) receiver; or 25 (c) committee or manager of the estate of an insane person, insane patient, or incapable person, within the meaning of the Lunacy Act of 1898; or
(d) guardian of the estate of an infant,
30 the company may be so appointed.

Company may be appointed trustee, receiver, committee, or guardian of estate.

(2) (a) Subject as hereinafter provided the company may be appointed or may continue to act as sole trustee in all cases notwithstanding that it is provided by the terms of the instrument (if any) creating the 35 trust or of any power or otherwise that there shall be more than one trustee to perform the trust.

(b) Where the company and one or more individuals are co-trustees, any one or more of such individuals may retire, and the company shall for the purposes

Executor Trustee and Agency Company of South Australia, Limited.

purposes of any Act now or hereafter in force relating to the retirement of trustees and the vesting of the trust property be deemed to be equivalent to two trustees.

5 (3) The company shall not be appointed in any case in which the instrument creating the trust or power forbids the appointment of the company.

(4) The company shall not be appointed or be entitled to act as sole trustee in any case in which the instrument creating the trust or power expressly provides 10 that there shall be another trustee in addition to the company or that the company shall not be appointed or act as sole trustee.

(5) In every case in which the company is appointed or acts in any of the offices in subsection one 15 hereof mentioned all the capital of the company, both paid and unpaid, and all other assets of the company and the directors, manager, and assistant manager thereof and their respective estates shall be liable for the proper discharge of the duties of such office.

20 (6) No bond, recognizance, or other security for the proper discharge of such duties shall be required to be given by or on behalf of the company.

9. (1) In all cases where before the passing of this Act the company was appointed new trustee in place of 25 more than one trustee previously filling the office, such appointment shall be deemed to have been and to be as valid and effectual as if this Act had then been passed. Validation of prior appointments of company as sole trustee.

(2) In all cases where before the passing of this Act the company upon the retirement of one or more 30 trustees continues to act as sole trustee, the company shall be deemed to have been and to be entitled to act as sole trustee.

(3) The trustees in whose place the company was so appointed or upon whose retirement the company 35 continued to act as sole trustee, shall be deemed to have been and to be discharged from the trust.

10. (1) The company shall be capable of acquiring and holding any property in joint tenancy in the same manner as if it were an individual. Company may hold property as joint tenant.

40 (2) Where the company and an individual, or the company and another body corporate, become entitled to

to any property under circumstances or by virtue of any instrument which, if the company or other body corporate had been an individual, would have created a joint tenancy, they shall be entitled to the property as 5 joint tenants.

(3) Where the company or other body corporate is a joint tenant of any property, then on its dissolution the property shall devolve on the other joint tenant.

11. Where any property is now or hereafter becomes 10 vested in the company and an individual, or in the company and another body corporate, to the intent that they should hold the same jointly in any fiduciary capacity, or as mortgagees, they shall be deemed to be joint 15 tenants thereof, and not tenants in common unless otherwise expressly provided.

Property vested in company and another as trustees, &c., to be held on joint tenancy.

12. It shall be lawful for the company to act, either alone or jointly with any other corporation or any person, as attorney, whenever it shall be appointed by deed attorney for any person or any corporation, and all the 20 powers conferred upon the company by any power of attorney may be exercised and carried into execution by the manager, assistant manager, acting manager, or secretary, or by such other officer of the company as
25 may from time to time be appointed by the board of directors for that purpose, or by any two of the directors of the company; but in all cases the capital, both paid and unpaid, and all other assets of the company, shall be liable for the due execution of the powers so conferred 30 upon the company: Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorise any person, company, or corporation to confer any power upon the company which cannot by law be delegated or performed by attorney.

Company may act under power of attorney by manager, &c.

13. It shall be lawful for any executor, administrator, 35 or trustee by deed to delegate to the company, either alone or jointly with any other corporation or any person, as his attorney all such trusts and powers as may by law be delegated, and all acts done by the company within the scope of such delegation shall, in favour of any persons 40 dealing with the company without notice of death or revocation

Executor, administrator, or trustee may delegate trusts to company.

Executor Trustee and Agency Company of South Australia, Limited.

revocation of authority by such executor, administrator, or trustee, be valid and effectual notwithstanding such death or revocation.

- 14. It shall be lawful for the Supreme Court or any 5 judge thereof sitting in its equity or probate jurisdiction, on the application of any executor or administrator acting under any probate or letters of administration granted either before or after the coming into operation of this Act, to appoint the company, either alone or 10 jointly with any other corporation or any person, to be administrator in his place or stead, and thereupon the company shall have the same powers and authorities as if it had been the original executor or administrator as the case may be; and in every such case all the capital, 15 both paid and unpaid, and all other assets of the company, and the manager, assistant manager, acting manager, and the directors and their respective estates, shall be liable for the due administration of the estates of which the company shall be so appointed administrator.
- 20 15. (1) In all cases in which the personal attendance of an executor, administrator, trustee, receiver, committee, or guardian is required in any court of justice or elsewhere, the company shall be entitled to make such attendance in the person of the manager, assistant 25 manager, acting manager, or secretary, or such other officer of the company as may from time to time be appointed by the board of directors for that purpose.
- (2) All declarations and all affidavits, statements of defence, or other statements required by law to be 30 made on oath may be made and sworn on behalf of the company by the manager, assistant manager, acting manager, or secretary.
- (3) In every case where the company obtains probate or letters of administration, or is appointed and 35 acts as trustee, receiver, committee, or guardian, the manager, assistant manager, and directors in their proper persons and estates, shall be individually and collectively responsible for the due administration of the estates entrusted to the company, and shall in their own 40 proper persons be liable by process of attachment, commitment for contempt, or by other process, to all courts
 having

having jurisdiction in that behalf in the event of disobedience to the rules, orders, and decrees of such courts made against the company in the same manner and to the same extent as if such manager, assistant manager, 5 and directors had personally obtained probate or letters of administration, and had acted as executor or administrator, trustee, receiver, committee, or guardian, and as if the rule, order, or decree had been made against them personally instead of against the company.

10 (4) Notwithstanding such personal responsibility of the said manager, assistant manager, and directors, the capital both paid and unpaid, and all other assets of the company, shall remain liable for any loss 15 through any breach of trust or duty committed by the company or any of its officers, whether such trust or duty is implied by law or expressly conferred or imposed by the instrument under which the company acts.

(5) No person shall be appointed a director or 20 manager of the company unless he is a bona fide resident of either the State of New South Wales or the State of South Australia, and any person being a director or manager of the company who ceases to reside in either of such States shall, upon so ceasing to reside, vacate his 25 office, and such vacancy shall be filled up in the manner provided by the articles of association for filling casual vacancies.

16. The company shall be entitled to receive, in addition to all moneys properly expended by it and 30 chargeable against any estate of which the administration shall be committed to the company, whether as executor, administrator, trustee, receiver, committee, or guardian, a commission at a rate to be fixed from time to time by the board of directors of the company, but 35 not to exceed in any case two pounds ten shillings for every one hundred pounds of the corpus or capital value of any such estate, and five pounds for every one hundred pounds of the annual income of any such estate received by the company, and of all moneys, whether capital or 40 income, received by the company as an attorney acting under power of attorney, and such commission shall be payable

payable out of the moneys in possession of the company representing the estate upon which the same shall be chargeable, and shall be accepted by the company in full satisfaction of any claim to remuneration for acting 5 as such executor, administrator, receiver, trustee, committee, guardian, or attorney, and no other charges beyond such commission and moneys properly expended by the company shall be made or allowed: Provided that if in any estate any judge in equity, or judge in 10 probate, shall be of opinion that the rate of commission charged is excessive such judge may review any such commission: Provided also that the commission charged by the company against any estate shall not exceed the amount of the published scale of charges of 15 the company at the time when the administration of such estate was committed to the company, nor shall this enactment prevent the payment of any commission directed by a testator in his will either in addition to or in lieu of the commission hereinbefore authorised.

20 17. Whenever the company shall have been appointed executor, administrator, trustee, receiver, committee, guardian, or attorney, it shall be subject in all respects to the same control, and to removal or restraint from acting and generally to the jurisdiction of the courts,
 25 in the same manner as any other executor, administrator, trustee, receiver, committee, guardian, or attorney.

Company may be removed from office by court.

18. It shall be lawful for any trustee, cestui que trust, executor, legatee, administrator, next of kin, or creditor entitled to or interested in any estate which 30 shall for the time being be under the management or control of the company, after demand in writing made to the manager, assistant manager, or acting manager of the company, for a sufficient account of the property and assets of which such estate shall consist, and of the 35 disposal and expenditure thereof or thereout; and upon non-compliance with such demand within a reasonable time, to apply to any judge in equity or judge in probate of the Supreme Court in a summary manner upon motion after notice to the company for an account, and 40 if the said judge shall be of opinion that no sufficient account has been rendered by the company, the said judge shall

shall order such account to be rendered by the company as to the said judge shall seem just, or if the said judge shall think that under the circumstances the company was not bound to furnish any account or that a sufficient
 5 account had been furnished, it shall be lawful for the said judge to dismiss the application, and the said judge shall have power in all cases to make such orders as to costs either against the company or against the applicant, or as to payment of costs out of the estate as to the said 10 judge shall seem right.

19. It shall be lawful for the said judge in equity or judge in probate, upon the making of any application under the last preceding clause, to order, in addition to or in substitution for any account to be rendered by the 15 company, that a person to be named in such order shall examine the books and accounts of the company in reference to the estate as to which the order is made, and in that case the directors and officers of the company shall deliver to the person named in such order a list of 20 all the books kept by the company, and shall produce to such person at the office of the company at all reasonable times when required all books and accounts, vouchers, papers, and other documents of the company relating to such estate, and shall afford him all necessary information and all other necessary facilities for enabling him
 25 to make the said examination, and the said judge shall have the same power over the costs of such examination as is given by the last preceding section over the costs of an application under that section.

20. So long as any estate, in respect of which the company is executor, administrator, trustee, committee, or guardian, shall remain in whole or in part unadministered, it shall not be lawful to proceed to wind up the company voluntarily unless with the sanction of the 35 said judge, and it shall be lawful for any person interested in such estate, or who may have any claim in respect thereof, to apply to the said judge in a summary way by motion to restrain any director or any shareholder from disposing of any shares which such director or share-40 holder may hold in the company, or to restrain the winding up voluntarily of the company, and the said judge

Judge may order audit in any estate committed to company.

Voluntary winding-up of company or disposal of shares may be restrained by judge.

Executor Trustee and Agency Company of South Australia, Limited.

judge shall have power to make such order upon such application as the circumstances of the case shall appear to the said judge to require.

21. If it be proved at any time to the satisfaction of any judge in equity or judge in probate that three-fourths or more of the amount of capital authorised to be called up has been lost by the company, it shall be lawful for such judge, upon the application of any member, creditor, or cestui que trust of the company, to make an order for the winding up of the company.

Judge may order winding up of company.

22. In the event of the company being wound up, every person who has been a director of the company at any time within the period of two years preceding the commencement of the winding up shall be liable for the balance unpaid on every share which he may have transferred during such two years, in addition to his liability upon any such shares held by him at the commencement of the winding up in the event of the holder or holders of such shares being unable to pay the said balance per share in full.

Provision as to liability of directors.

23. All moneys representing the realisation of properties situate in New South Wales which form part of any estate of which at any time the company shall be executor, administrator, or trustee, and which moneys shall remain unclaimed by the person entitled to the same for a period of five years after the time when the same shall have become payable to such person, except where payment has been or shall be restrained by the injunction of some court of competent jurisdiction, shall, together with interest at current rates on fixed deposits in banks, be paid by the company into the State Treasury to be placed to the credit of a fund to be called the testamentary and trust fund, distinguishing the particular estates in respect of which such moneys shall have been paid, and the Treasurer shall from time to time invest such moneys in the purchase of Government debentures or stock to be placed to the credit of the said testamentary and trust fund, distinguishing in the ledger the particular estate in respect of which such moneys shall have been invested; and the interest payable on such debentures or stock shall be placed to the Moneys remaining unclaimed for five years to be paid into Treasury.

the credit of the said fund, and the said Treasurer's said account in the ledger shall be an official and not a nominal account, and in all transfers of the said debentures and stock by the said Treasurer he shall be so 5 styled without any name, addition, or description, and he shall not sign any such transfers or pay over any of the moneys standing to the credit of the said fund unless an order of any judge in equity or judge in probate directing such transfer and specifying the amount of
 10 moneys, debentures, or stock, and the name, description, and addition of the person to whom the proceeds of such sale are to be paid shall be left at the office of the said Treasurer, nor until the purchase money of the debentures or stock to be sold has been received in the 15 Treasury; and the company shall at the end of every six months deliver to the said Treasurer a statement of all such unclaimed moneys which during the preceding six months shall have been in its hands, and distinguishing the several estates in respect of which the same have 20 been received, and setting out the dates and amounts of the several payments of the same under this section; and if the said moneys or any part thereof have not been paid into the Treasury with a statement of the reason for the delay of such payments, and if default is 25 made in compliance with the foregoing provisions of this section, the company shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day while such default continues, and every director and manager, assistant manager, or acting manager of the company who 30 knowingly and wilfully authorises or permits such default shall incur the like penalty.

24. It shall be lawful for any person who shall be entitled to any stock debentures or moneys which shall at any time form part of the said testamentary 35 and trust fund to apply to any judge in equity or judge in probate, upon petition in a summary way, for such order as is in the last-preceding section referred to, and the said judge shall deal with such application as nearly as may be in the same manner as in the case of 40 applications to the said court under the Trustee Act of 1898; and in all cases in which the Treasurer may see fit

fit to appear upon such petition, he shall be entitled to such costs against the applicant or out of the fund as the said judge may direct.

25. It shall be lawful for the Treasurer after demand 5 in writing addressed to the manager, assistant manager, or acting manager of the company for a sufficient account of the property and assets of which any or every estate included in or which ought to be or to have been included in the hereinbefore mentioned statement 10 of unclaimed moneys shall consist, and of the disposal and expenditure thereof, of or thereout, to apply to the said judge in a summary way, upon motion after notice to the company, for an account, and if the said judge shall be of opinion that no sufficient account has been 15 rendered by the company, the said judge shall order such account to be rendered by the company as to the said judge shall seem just, or if the said judge shall think that under the circumstances the company was not bound to furnish any account, or that any account 20 furnished by the company was sufficient, it shall be lawful for the said judge to dismiss the application, and the said judge shall have power in all cases to make such order as to costs either against the company or as to payment of costs out of the estate as to the said judge 25 shall seem right.

26. The manager, assistant manager, or acting manager of the company shall during the months of April and October in every year during which the company carries on business, make before some justice 30 of the peace a declaration in the form contained in the Schedule hereto, or as near thereto as circumstances will admit, of the receipts, expenditure, and investments of and in all estates and property held by the company in trust up to the thirty-first day of December or 35 thirtieth day of June then last past; such declaration shall within seven days after the making thereof be filed in the office of the Master in Equity, and a copy of such declaration shall be put up in a conspicuous place in the registered office of the company and in 40 every branch office or place where the business of the company is carried on, and shall be given to any member

member or creditor of the company, or any cestui que trust who applies for the same; and if default is made in compliance with the provisions of this section the company shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day whilst such default continues, and every manager, assistant manager, or acting manager of the company who knowingly and wilfully authorises or permits such default shall incur the like penalty.

27. Every order made by any judge in equity, or judge in probate, or any other judge under this Act, shall be subject to appeal in the same manner and under the same conditions as other orders of the said judges.

28. Nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed to give to the company any right to oppose the granting of similar powers to those conferred upon the company by this Act to any other company or to corporations generally, or to claim or to seek compensation in consequence of such powers being conferred upon any other company, or upon corporations generally, or in the event of provision being made by Parliament for the management of trust estates by a public trustee or department or officer of the Government, or in the event of the repeal of this Act.

29. Where by any settlement, will, codicil, or other testamentary writing, a settlor or testator shall direct that any practising solicitor or solicitors shall conduct the legal business of his or her estate, such solicitor or solicitors shall be entitled to act therein accordingly, but in such case the company shall not be liable for the negligence, misfeasance, nonfeasance, or misconduct of such solicitor or solicitors, and such solicitor or solicitors may be removed by the order of any judge in equity or judge in probate upon the application of the company or of any person interested in the said estate upon cause shown, and then and in such case the said judge may appoint the solicitor or solicitors of the company to conduct such legal business.
