(d) may place the juvenile for employment with an employer by finding a fit and proper person to employ the juvenile, and shall have the supervision of the juvenile while so placed.

5. (1) The wages or earnings due by any person to a juvenile may be sued for and recovered by the juvenile or in the name of the Minister by some person authorised by him. Recovery of wages.

(2) An authority purporting to be signed by the Minister shall be admitted as evidence without proof of the signature.

6. If a juvenile placed for employment with an employer under this Act dies, or suffers or sustains any serious illness or injury, or leaves the employment, the employer shall immediately give notice to the Minister and do all such further acts and things as may be required of him by the Minister, and in default thereof he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds for every such offence. Notice of death, injury, illness, or leaving employment.

7. (1) No employer shall transfer or make over to any other person the services or care of the juvenile or discharge or dismiss such juvenile unless or until the Minister has first received seven days' notice in writing thereof. Notice to the Minister before transfer or dismissal.

(2) Any employer who contravenes this section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

8. (1) The Minister may at any time transfer the juvenile to another employer, or may require the juvenile to return to any training farm to be named by the Minister. Transfer by the Minister.

(2) The Minister may at any time, by notice in writing, require the employer forthwith to deliver the juvenile to some person named therein.

(3) Any person who fails to comply with any requirement under this section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

9. Any person who without the authority of the Minister takes or removes any juvenile from the employer with whom the juvenile is placed for employment under this Act before the expiration of the term of service shall be liable, on conviction, to a penalty not exceeding Penalties.
