

New South Wales.

ANNO SEPTIMO DECIMO

GEORGI V REGIS.

Act No. 3, 1927.

An Act to provide for the registration and control of land agents; to amend the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, and certain other Acts; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 21st January, 1927.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Preliminary.

1. This Act may be cited as the "Land Agents Short title. Act, 1927."

2.

*Land Agents.*Commencement of Act.

2. (1) This Act shall come into force on the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven.

Application of Act.

(2) This Act does not apply to a barrister or solicitor of the Supreme Court of New South Wales.

Conditions.

3. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—“Court” means the court constituted by the Land and Valuation Court Act, 1921.

The expressions “Crown Lands Acts” and “Local Land Board” have the meanings given to them respectively in the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913.

“Land agent” means a person acting for fee, gain, or reward in any matter or proceeding under the Crown Lands Acts, or the Closer Settlement Acts, or the Returned Soldiers Settlement Act, 1916, or under the Western Lands Acts, or under any other Act the administration of which is or may be by statute, custom, or Executive authority vested in the Minister for Lands, or in any matter or proceeding under any of such Acts before the Land and Valuation Court or any local land board.

“Registrar” means registrar of the court.

*Registration.*Registration of land agents.

4. (1) All land agents shall be registered in the court.

(2) Any person who, after the expiration of six months from the commencement of this Act, carries on or advertises that he carries on the business of land agent without being registered as aforesaid shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds, to be recovered in a summary way before any two justices in petty sessions.

(3) After the expiration of the said period, no person, unless he is registered as aforesaid, shall be entitled to charge or recover any fees or other moneys for work done by him as a land agent.

Land Agents.

(4) The registrar shall in the prescribed manner ^{Register.} keep a register of land agents.

(5) No person shall be qualified to be registered ^{Disqualifi-} if he— ^{cation.}

(a) is under the age of twenty-one years at date of application for registration; or

(b) does not satisfy the court as to his good fame and character.

The Minister for Lands or any other person shall be entitled to be heard and to adduce evidence upon any such application.

5. The registrar may give notice to a person registered ^{Firm.} as a land agent under this Act who is a member of a firm carrying on business as land agents that any other partner thereof is a person who is disqualified from being registered on either of the grounds set out in paragraphs (a) or (b) of subsection five of section four of this Act, and that steps to dissolve the partnership should be taken within a time specified in the notice or such further time as the court may allow.

6. (1) The registration of a land agent shall be in ^{Cancellation} force until cancelled. The court may cancel a registration on proof of the misconduct, malpractice, or gross negligence of an agent or

(a) on the occurrence of any event which would disqualify him from being registered; or

(b) if any such registration has been effected erroneously or in consequence of any false or fraudulent document, statement, or representation; or

(c) if being a member of a firm of which any other member is disqualified from being registered, the person registered fails to comply with a notice given by the registrar under section five of this Act; or

(d) if the person registered employs in the control and management of his business as a land agent any person who is disqualified from being registered on either of the grounds specified in paragraphs (a) or (b) of subsection five of section four of this Act after notice has been given to him by the registrar that such person is so disqualified. (2)

Land Agents.

(2) Before cancelling the registration the court shall cause the prescribed notice to be given to the agent, and shall hear and consider any representations made by the agent or on his behalf.

Court's decision final.

7. The decision of the court to refuse to register any applicant or to cancel any registration already effected shall be final, and effect shall be given thereto by the registrar.

Taxation of bill of land agent.

Delivery of signed bill by land agent.

8. No land agent shall, unless by leave of the court, commence any action or suit for the recovery of any fee, charge, or disbursement for or in connection with work done by him as such agent until the expiration of one month after he has delivered to the party charged therewith personally or by registered post a bill of such fee, charge, and disbursement signed by him.

Taxation of bill.

9. (1) On application to the registrar made within the said month, or at any time thereafter on the order of the court, the bill shall be taxed by the registrar. Such order may in special circumstances be made although the bill has been paid. And the person who has paid such bill may recover from the land agent any sum in excess of the amount at which the bill is finally taxed.

(2) In any such order the court may restrain the land agent from commencing or continuing any action or suit for the recovery of the whole or any part of the fee, charge, or disbursement referred to in the bill, and may impose such terms as it thinks fit on the person chargeable under the bill.

Review of taxation.

(3) The court may order the registrar to review and correct his taxation of a bill.

Orders.

Order for delivery up of documents.

10. The court may make any order for the delivery up of any documents or writings in the possession or under the control of a land agent.

Procedure.

11. Applications to the court under this Act shall, until otherwise prescribed by rules of court, be made by motion
