This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL for its concurrence.

W. S. MOWLE,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.
Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 17 November, 1925.

The LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL has this day agreed to this Bill with Amendments.

W. L. S. COOPER,
Clerk of the Parliaments.
Legislative Council Chamber,
Sydney, 16th December, 1925.

New South Wales.

ANNO SEXTO DECIMO

GEORGII V REGIS.

Act No. , 1925.

An Act to amend the law relating to Parliamentary elections; to repeal the provisions of certain enactments relating to the election of members of the Legislative Assembly by means of the system of proportional representation; to validate the non-preparation of certain lists and rolls and to provide that the rolls for the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four shall, until new rolls are made, remain in force; to amend the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act, 1912, and certain other Acts; to repeal the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Act, 1920, and the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Amendment Act, 1921; and for purposes connected therewith.

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment) Act, 1925," and shall be read with the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts. The Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act, 1912, as so amended is in this Act referred to as "the Principal Act."

2. Subject to this Act the system of proportional representation under which the members of the Legislative Assembly are elected as such members shall not be observed in the election of any future Parliament, but such elections shall be conducted upon the basis of single seat electorates in accordance with the provisions of the Principal Act as amended by this Act.

3. (1) The Governor shall as soon as is practicable after the commencement of this Act appoint a commission to redistribute the State into ninety electoral districts in accordance with the Principal Act as amended by this Act.

(2) The commission shall consist of three persons to be chosen by the Governor from persons holding some office in the Public Service of New South Wales, and the names of the persons so appointed shall be notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

(2) Such commission shall consist of a district court judge, the Under Secretary of the Department of the Chief Secretary and an officer in the Bureau of Statistics.

(3) The provisions of Part II of the Principal Act, so far as they are applicable shall apply to such commission and to the distribution to be made by them.

(4) The commission shall as soon as is practicable report to the Governor the names and boundaries of the electoral districts determined by them.

4. (1) As soon as is practicable after the completion of such redistribution the Chief Electoral Officer shall, by means of the modification, alteration, and adjustment of the lists collected under section twenty-three of the Principal Act by members of the police force during the

the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six, prepare lists of the names of the persons who appear to be entitled to be enrolled for the respective districts as determined by the commission.

5 (2) In carrying out the provisions of this section, the Chief Electoral Officer shall have the assistance of such members of the police force as he may require for the purpose.

10 (3) The lists prepared in pursuance of this section shall, for all purposes connected with the preparation of a roll for the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six, be deemed to be the lists prepared for that year under section twenty-three of the Principal Act.

15 5. If the twenty-seventh Parliament of the State of New South Wales is dissolved prior to the completion of the preparation of the rolls for the various districts for the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six, the general election next following such dissolution shall be conducted in accordance with the principles of proportional representation, and in all respects as if this Act had not been passed. At such election the electoral districts shall be the electoral districts as bounded at the commencement of this Act, and the rolls shall be 20 the rolls in force at such commencement together with any supplemental rolls prepared in accordance with section forty-six of the Principal Act.

25 6. (1) Upon the issue of the writs for the first general election after the passing of this Act to be conducted upon the basis of single seat electorates in accordance with the provisions of the Principal Act as amended by this Act, the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Act, 1920, and the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Amendment Act, 1921, 30 shall cease to have effect.

(2) Any provisions of the Principal Act which were repealed either expressly or impliedly by the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Act, 1920, or the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) 40 Amendment Act, 1921, shall, as from the date upon which the said Acts cease to have effect be revived, and are hereby re-enacted.

Provision for case of dissolution prior to preparation of rolls for 1926.

Repeal of Act No. 18, 1920, and Act No. 6, 1921.

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

7. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or the Principal Act or any redistribution of the boundaries of electoral districts, if a member of any Parliament of the State which is, either before or after the commencement of this Act, elected in accordance with the principles of proportional representation, ceases to be a member by death, resignation, or otherwise, the casual vacancy so occasioned shall be filled in accordance with the provisions of the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Act, 1920, and the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Amendment Act, 1921; and for the purposes of the said Acts, the constituency for which the vacancy has occurred shall be deemed to be the electoral district in respect of which such member was elected, as bounded at the date of the commencement of this Act.

You may, if you so desire, give contingent votes for all or any of the remaining candidates by writing opposite the squares containing the figures 2, 3, 4, and so on, the names of the respective candidates to indicate in numerical sequence the order of your preference.

SCHEDULE SEVENTEEN.

Sec. 114H.

Sec. 115.

Method of voting on postal ballot-papers, or absent voters' ballot-papers.

25 An elector shall record his vote on a postal ballot-paper or an absent voter's ballot-paper by writing opposite to the square containing the figure 1 the name of the candidate for whom he desires to give his first preference vote.

The elector may, if he so desires, give contingent votes for all or any of the remaining candidates by writing opposite the squares containing the figures 2, 3, 4, and so on, the names of the respective candidates to indicate in numerical sequence the order of his preference.

30 SCHEDULE EIGHTEEN.

Sec. 126 (1A).

Method of counting votes.

1. (a) The Returning Officer shall count the total number of first preference votes given for each candidate.

35 (b) The candidate who has received the largest number of first preference votes shall, if that number constitutes an absolute majority of votes, be elected.

(c) If no candidate has received an absolute majority of first preference votes the Returning Officer shall make a second count.

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

(d) On the second count the candidate who has received the fewest first preference votes shall be excluded, and each unexhausted ballot-paper counted to him shall be counted to the candidate next in the order of the voter's preference.

5 (e) If a candidate then has an absolute majority of votes he shall be declared elected, but if no candidate then has an absolute majority of votes, the process of excluding the candidate who has the fewest votes and counting each of his unexhausted ballot-papers to the continuing candidate next in the order of the voter's preference shall be repeated by the Returning Officer until one candidate has received an absolute majority of votes.

10 (f) The candidate who has received an absolute majority of votes shall be declared elected.

2. In the process of counting, exhausted ballot-papers shall be set aside as finally dealt with, and shall thenceforth not be taken into account in ascertaining the result of the poll.

15 3. (a) When a candidate is excluded, each ballot-paper counted to him shall be deemed to be exhausted if there is not indicated upon it a next preference for one continuing candidate.

20 (b) "Next preference" in the last preceding subparagraph includes the first of the subsequent preferences marked on the ballot-paper which is not given to an excluded candidate.

Provided that where there is a break in the consecutive numbering of preferences marked on a ballot-paper, only those preferences preceding the break shall be taken into account.

25 4. In this Schedule "continuing candidate" means a candidate not already excluded from the count.

5. If on any count two or more candidates have an equal number of votes, and one of them has to be excluded, the Returning Officer shall decide by lot which shall be excluded.

30 6. In this Schedule "an absolute majority of votes" means a greater number than one-half of the whole number of ballot-papers other than informal and exhausted ballot-papers. The casting vote of the Returning Officer, given in pursuance of subsection two of section one hundred and twenty-six of this Act, shall be included in reckoning an absolute majority of votes.

9. The Principal Act is further amended—

35 (1) By omitting section nineteen and by inserting the following section in lieu thereof:—

Miscellaneous amendments of Act No. 41, 1912, s. 19.

40 19. The Electoral District Commissioners shall have the powers conferred by the Royal Commissions Act, 1923, on a commissioner appointed under Division 1 of Part II of that Act, and the said Act, Part II excepted shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to any witness or person summoned by or appearing before the Electoral District Commissioners.

New South Wales.

ANNO SEXTO DECIMO

GEORGI V REGIS.

Act No. , 1925.

An Act to amend the law relating to Parliamentary elections; to repeal the provisions of certain enactments relating to the election of members of the Legislative Assembly by means of the system of proportional representation; to validate the non-preparation of certain lists and rolls and to provide that the rolls for the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four shall, until new rolls are made, remain in force; to amend the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act, 1912, and certain other Acts; to repeal the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Act, 1920, and the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Amendment Act, 1921; and for purposes connected therewith.

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment) Act, 1925," and shall be read with the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts. The Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act, 1912, as so amended is in this Act referred to as "the Principal Act."

2. Subject to this Act the system of proportional representation under which the members of the Legislative Assembly are elected as such members shall not be observed in the election of any future Parliament, but such elections shall be conducted upon the basis of single seat electorates in accordance with the provisions of the Principal Act as amended by this Act.

3. (1) The Governor shall as soon as is practicable after the commencement of this Act appoint a commission to redistribute the State into ninety electoral districts in accordance with the Principal Act as amended by this Act.

(2) The commission shall consist of three persons to be chosen by the Governor from persons holding some office in the Public Service of New South Wales, and the names of the persons so appointed shall be notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

(3) The provisions of Part II of the Principal Act, so far as they are applicable shall apply to such commission and to the distribution to be made by them.

(4) The commission shall as soon as is practicable report to the Governor the names and boundaries of the electoral districts determined by them.

4. (1) As soon as is practicable after the completion of such redistribution the Chief Electoral Officer shall, by means of the modification, alteration, and adjustment of the lists collected under section twenty-three of the Principal Act by members of the police force during the

the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six, prepare lists of the names of the persons who appear to be entitled to be enrolled for the respective districts as determined by the commission.

5 (2) In carrying out the provisions of this section, the Chief Electoral Officer shall have the assistance of such members of the police force as he may require for the purpose.

10 (3) The lists prepared in pursuance of this section shall, for all purposes connected with the preparation of a roll for the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six, be deemed to be the lists prepared for that year under section twenty-three of the Principal Act.

15 5. If the twenty-seventh Parliament of the State of New South Wales is dissolved prior to the completion of the preparation of the rolls for the various districts for the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six, the general election next following such dissolution
 20 shall be conducted in accordance with the principles of proportional representation, and in all respects as if this Act had not been passed. At such election the electoral districts shall be the electoral districts as bounded at the commencement of this Act, and the rolls shall be 25 the rolls in force at such commencement together with any supplemental rolls prepared in accordance with section forty-six of the Principal Act.

Provision for case of dissolution prior to preparation of rolls for 1926.

30 6. (1) Upon the issue of the writs for the first general election after the passing of this Act to be conducted upon the basis of single seat electorates in accordance with the provisions of the Principal Act as amended by this Act, the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Act, 1920, and the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Amendment Act, 1921,
 35 shall cease to have effect.

Repeal of Act No. 18, 1920, and Act No. 6, 1921.

(2) Any provisions of the Principal Act which were repealed either expressly or impliedly by the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Act, 1920, or the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Amendment Act, 1921, shall, as from the date upon which the said Acts cease to have effect be revived, and are hereby re-enacted.

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

7. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or the Principal Act or any redistribution of the boundaries of electoral districts, if a member of any Parliament of the State which is, either before or after the commencement of this Act, elected in accordance with the principles of proportional representation, ceases to be a member by death, resignation, or otherwise, the casual vacancy so occasioned shall be filled in accordance with the provisions of the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Act, 1920, and the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Amendment Act, 1921; and for the purposes of the said Acts, the constituency for which the vacancy has occurred shall be deemed to be the electoral district in respect of which such member was elected, as bounded at the date of the commencement of this Act.

8. The Principal Act is amended—

- (1) By omitting section 3A. Casual vacancies in Parliament elected on system of proportional representation.
- (2) In section four, by inserting after the word “ninety” the words “each member representing an electoral district.” Consequential amendments of Act No. 41, 1912.
