Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of 5 the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Parliamentary Short title.
Electorates and Elections (Amendment) Act, 1926," and shall be read with the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent 10 Acts. The Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act, 1912, as so amended is in this Act referred to as "the Principal Act."

2. Subject to this Act the system of proportional Reversion representation under which the members of the Legis- to single lative Assembly are elected as such members shall not electorates.
15 be observed in the election of any future Parliament, but such elections shall be conducted upon the basis of single seat electorates in accordance with the provisions of the Principal Act as amended by this Act.

3. (1) The Governor shall as soon as is practicable Commission after the commencement of this Act appoint a com- to redistrimission to redistribute the State into ninety electoral bute elec-20 districts in accordance with the Principal Act as torates.
amended by this Act.

25 (2) The commission shall consist of three persons to be chosen by the Governor from persons holding some office in the Public Service of New South Wales, and the names of the persons so appointed shall be notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

30 (3) The provisions of Part II of the Principal Act as amended by this Act, so far as they are applicable shall apply to such commission and to the distribution to be made by them.

(4) The commission shall as soon as is practicable 35 report to the Governor the names and boundaries of the electoral districts determined by them.

4. (1) As soon as is practicable after the completion Lists.
of such redistribution the Chief Electoral Officer shall,
by means of the modification, alteration, and adjustment 40 of the lists collected under section twenty-three of the Principal Act by members of the police force during the

the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six, prepare lists of the names of the persons who appear to be entitled to be enrolled for the respective districts as determined by the commission.

5 (2) In carrying out the provisions of this section, the Chief Electoral Officer shall have the assistance of such members of the police force as he may require for the purpose.

10 (3) The lists prepared in pursuance of this section shall, for all purposes connected with the preparation of a roll for the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six, be deemed to be the lists prepared for that year under section twenty-three of the Principal Act.

15 5. If the twenty-seventh Parliament of the State of New South Wales is dissolved prior to the completion of the preparation of the rolls for the various districts for the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six, the general election next following such dissolution shall be conducted in accordance with the principles of proportional representation, and in all respects as if this Act had not been passed. At such election the electoral districts shall be the electoral districts as bounded at the commencement of this Act, and the rolls shall be 20 shall be conducted in accordance with the principles of proportional representation, and in all respects as if this Act had not been passed. At such election the electoral districts shall be the electoral districts as bounded at the commencement of this Act, and the rolls shall be 25 the rolls in force at such commencement together with any supplemental rolls prepared in accordance with section forty-six of the Principal Act.

6. (1) Upon the issue of the writs for the first general election after the passing of this Act to be 30 conducted upon the basis of single seat electorates in accordance with the provisions of the Principal Act as amended by this Act, the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Act, 1920, and the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Amendment Act, 1921, 35 shall cease to have effect.

(2) Any provisions of the Principal Act which were repealed either expressly or impliedly by the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Act, 1920, or the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Amendment Act, 1921, shall, as from the date upon which the said Acts cease to have effect be revived, and are hereby re-enacted.

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

7. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or the Principal Act or any redistribution of the boundaries of electoral districts, if a member of any Parliament of the State which is, either before or after the commencement of this Act, elected in accordance with the principles of proportional representation, ceases to be a member by death, resignation, or otherwise, the casual vacancy so occasioned shall be filled in accordance with the provisions of the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Act, 1920, and the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Amendment Act, 1921; and for the purposes of the said Acts, the constituency for which the vacancy has occurred shall be deemed to be the electoral district in respect of which such member was elected, as bounded at the date of the commencement of this Act.

Casual vacancies in Parliament elected on system of proportional representation.

SCHEDULE EIGHTEEN.

Sec. 126 (1A).

Method of counting votes.

1. (a) The Returning Officer shall count the total number of first preference votes given for each candidate.
(b) The candidate who has received the largest number of first preference 35 votes shall, if that number constitutes an absolute majority of votes, be elected.
(c) If no candidate has received an absolute majority of first preference votes the Returning Officer shall make a second count.
(d)

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

- (d) On the second count the candidate who has received the fewest first preference votes shall be excluded, and each unexhausted ballot-paper counted to him shall be counted to the candidate next in the order of the voter's preference.
- (e) If a candidate then has an absolute majority of votes he shall be declared elected, but if no candidate then has an absolute majority of votes, the process of excluding the candidate who has the fewest votes and counting each of his unexhausted ballot-papers to the continuing candidate next in the order of the voter's preference shall be repeated by the Returning Officer until one candidate has received an absolute majority of votes.
- (f) The candidate who has received an absolute majority of votes shall be declared elected.
2. In the process of counting, exhausted ballot-papers shall be set aside as finally dealt with, and shall thenceforth not be taken into account in ascertaining the result of the poll.
3. (a) When a candidate is excluded, each ballot-paper counted to him shall be deemed to be exhausted if there is not indicated upon it a next preference for one continuing candidate.
- (b) "Next preference" in the last preceding subparagraph includes the first of the subsequent preferences marked on the ballot-paper which is not given to an excluded candidate.
- Provided that where there is a break in the consecutive numbering of preferences marked on a ballot-paper, only those preferences preceding the break shall be taken into account.
4. In this Schedule "continuing candidate" means a candidate not already excluded from the count.
5. If on any count two or more candidates have an equal number of votes, and one of them has to be excluded, the Returning Officer shall decide by lot which shall be excluded.
6. In this Schedule "an absolute majority of votes" means a greater number than one-half of the whole number of ballot-papers other than informal and exhausted ballot-papers. The casting vote of the Returning Officer, given in pursuance of subsection two of section one hundred and twenty-six of this Act, shall be included in reckoning an absolute majority of votes.

9. The Principal Act is further amended—

- (1) By omitting section nineteen and by inserting the following section in lieu thereof:—
19. The Electoral District Commissioners shall have the powers conferred by the Royal Commissions Act, 1923, on a commissioner appointed under Division 1 of Part II of that Act, and the said Act, Part II excepted shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to any witness or person summoned by or appearing before the Electoral District Commissioners.

Sec. 52a.

PROCEDURE IN RELATION TO ENFORCEMENT OF PROVISIONS OF SECTION 52A.

1. Subject to such directions as are issued by the Chief Electoral Officer, the Registrar shall, if satisfied that a person has failed to comply with the requirements of section 52A of this Act, forthwith notify such person in the prescribed form of such failure, and inform him that he may reply by Statutory Declaration, setting out any facts relevant to the matter, and that he has the option of having the matter dealt with either by the Chief Electoral Officer or by a Court of Petty Sessions.

2. Any person so notified who desires the matter to be dealt with by the Chief Electoral Officer may notify the Registrar accordingly.

3. Upon the receipt from a person so notified of a notification consenting to the matter being dealt with by the Chief Electoral Officer, the Registrar shall consider the statements contained in the Statutory Declaration (if any) submitted by the person, make such further inquiry as he deems necessary, and, unless he decides not to proceed further, transmit the Statutory Declaration (if any) and notification, with a report as to the facts and his opinion thereon, to the Chief Electoral Officer.

4. The Chief Electoral Officer shall consider all the facts, and if satisfied that the person concerned is in default or has contravened the provisions of section 52A, may make an order imposing upon that person a penalty not exceeding Ten shillings for a first offence, and not exceeding Two pounds for any subsequent offence, and notify the Registrar thereof and of the time allowed for payment.

5. Any penalty so imposed by the Chief Electoral Officer shall be a debt due to the Crown.

6. The Registrar, upon receipt of advice from the Chief Electoral Officer that a penalty has been so imposed upon any person, shall notify the person in the prescribed form.

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

7. Any order so made by the Chief Electoral Officer imposing a penalty may be filed in any Court of Petty Sessions, and thereupon the order shall have effect and be enforceable as if it were an order of that Court. Enforcement of penalties.
- 5 8. Where any person to whom a notification pursuant to paragraph one of this Schedule has been sent fails, within the time allowed, to reply thereto, or does not within that time consent to the matter being dealt with by the Chief Electoral Officer, the Registrar shall, subject to such directions as are issued by the Chief Electoral Officer, if he is satisfied that such person has contravened section 52A of the Act, cause proceedings to be instituted against him in the Court of the district in which such person resides. Proceedings where matter not dealt with by Chief Electoral Officer. Sec. 52A.
- 10 9. Where the Registrar so directs, the Deputy-Registrar for the polling-place area in which the defendant resides may institute proceedings in his own name, and in any such proceedings the authority of the Deputy-Registrar shall not be questioned. Deputy-Registrar may institute proceedings.
- 15 10. If, in any case in which proceedings are instituted in a Court of Petty Sessions, the Registrar has received from the person concerned a Statutory Declaration in pursuance of paragraph one of this Schedule he shall, as far as it is practicable and necessary for him to do so, inquire into the truth of the statements therein set out, and shall, unless he withdraws the prosecution, cause the declaration to be brought to the notice of the Court. Statutory declaration to be brought to notice of Court.
- 20 11. The Court shall at the hearing of the case consider the Statutory Declaration (whether the defendant is present or not) as if the matter therein set out had been given in evidence before it. Court to consider statutory declaration.
- 25 12. In any prosecution in respect of any contravention of section 52A of this Act the prosecuting officer may lodge with the Court a statutory declaration in support of the charge, and it shall not then be necessary for him to attend at the hearing, and the Court shall proceed with the hearing and determination of the case in his absence, and shall consider the statutory declaration as if the matter set out therein had been given in evidence before it. Declaration by prosecuting officer to be considered by Court.
- 30 13. For the purpose of paragraphs ten and twelve of this Schedule any document purporting to be a statutory declaration shall be accepted as such by the Court without proof of the signatures thereon or proof of the authority of the person before whom it purports to have been made to take statutory declarations. Document purporting to be a statutory declaration.
- 35 10. It shall not be necessary or deemed to have been necessary to make out lists or rolls of electors under the Principal Act for the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five. Validation.
- 40 11. (1) The electoral districts as bounded at the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to be the electoralates or electoral districts for the purposes of the Liquor Existing districts to be electoral districts for the purposes of Act No. 42, 1912, and Act No. 42, 1919.

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

ANNO SEXTO DECIMO

GEORGI V REGIS.

Act No. , 1926.

An Act to amend the law relating to Parliamentary elections; to repeal the provisions of certain enactments relating to the election of members of the Legislative Assembly by means of the system of proportional representation; to validate the non-preparation of certain lists and rolls and to provide that the rolls for the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four shall, until new rolls are made, remain in force; to amend the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act, 1912, and certain other Acts; to repeal the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Act, 1920, and the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Amendment Act, 1921; and for purposes connected therewith.

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment) Act, 1926," and shall be read with the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts. The Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act, 1912, as so amended is in this Act referred to as "the Principal Act."

2. Subject to this Act the system of proportional representation under which the members of the Legislative Assembly are elected as such members shall not be observed in the election of any future Parliament, but such elections shall be conducted upon the basis of single seat electorates in accordance with the provisions of the Principal Act as amended by this Act.

3. (1) The Governor shall as soon as is practicable after the commencement of this Act appoint a commission to redistribute the State into ninety electoral districts in accordance with the Principal Act as amended by this Act.

(2) The commission shall consist of three persons to be chosen by the Governor from persons holding some office in the Public Service of New South Wales, and the names of the persons so appointed shall be notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

(3) The provisions of Part II of the Principal Act as amended by this Act, so far as they are applicable shall apply to such commission and to the distribution to be made by them.

(4) The commission shall as soon as is practicable report to the Governor the names and boundaries of the electoral districts determined by them.

4. (1) As soon as is practicable after the completion of such redistribution the Chief Electoral Officer shall, by means of the modification, alteration, and adjustment of the lists collected under section twenty-three of the Principal Act by members of the police force during the

the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six, prepare lists of the names of the persons who appear to be entitled to be enrolled for the respective districts as determined by the commission.

5 (2) In carrying out the provisions of this section, the Chief Electoral Officer shall have the assistance of such members of the police force as he may require for the purpose.

10 (3) The lists prepared in pursuance of this section shall, for all purposes connected with the preparation of a roll for the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six, be deemed to be the lists prepared for that year under section twenty-three of the Principal Act.

15 5. If the twenty-seventh Parliament of the State of New South Wales is dissolved prior to the completion of the preparation of the rolls for the various districts for the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six, the general election next following such dissolution shall be conducted in accordance with the principles of proportional representation, and in all respects as if this Act had not been passed. At such election the electoral districts shall be the electoral districts as bounded at the commencement of this Act, and the rolls shall be 25 the rolls in force at such commencement together with any supplemental rolls prepared in accordance with section forty-six of the Principal Act.

ANNO SEXTO DECIMO

GEORGII V REGIS.

Act No. 12, 1926.

An Act to amend the law relating to Parliamentary elections; to repeal the provisions of certain enactments relating to the election of members of the Legislative Assembly by means of the system of proportional representation; to validate the non-preparation of certain lists and rolls and to provide that the rolls for the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four shall, until new rolls are made, remain in force; to amend the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act, 1912, and certain other Acts; to repeal the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Act, 1920, and the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Amendment Act, 1921; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 17th March, 1926.]

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the "Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment) Act, 1926," and shall be read with the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts. The Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act, 1912, as so amended is in this Act referred to as "the Principal Act."

Reversion to single electorates.

2. Subject to this Act the system of proportional representation under which the members of the Legislative Assembly are elected as such members shall not be observed in the election of any future Parliament, but such elections shall be conducted upon the basis of single seat electorates in accordance with the provisions of the Principal Act as amended by this Act.

Commission to redistribute electorates.

3. (1) The Governor shall as soon as is practicable after the commencement of this Act appoint a commission to redistribute the State into ninety electoral districts in accordance with the Principal Act as amended by this Act.

(2) The commission shall consist of three persons to be chosen by the Governor from persons holding some office in the Public Service of New South Wales, and the names of the persons so appointed shall be notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

(3) The provisions of Part II of the Principal Act as amended by this Act, so far as they are applicable shall apply to such commission and to the distribution to be made by them.

(4) The commission shall as soon as is practicable report to the Governor the names and boundaries of the electoral districts determined by them.

Lists.

4. (1) As soon as is practicable after the completion of such redistribution the Chief Electoral Officer shall, by means of the modification, alteration, and adjustment of the lists collected under section twenty-three of the Principal Act by members of the police force during the

the

the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six, prepare lists of the names of the persons who appear to be entitled to be enrolled for the respective districts as determined by the commission.

(2) In carrying out the provisions of this section, the Chief Electoral Officer shall have the assistance of such members of the police force as he may require for the purpose.

(3) The lists prepared in pursuance of this section shall, for all purposes connected with the preparation of a roll for the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six, be deemed to be the lists prepared for that year under section twenty-three of the Principal Act.

5. If the twenty-seventh Parliament of the State of New South Wales is dissolved prior to the completion of the preparation of the rolls for the various districts for the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six, the general election next following such dissolution shall be conducted in accordance with the principles of proportional representation, and in all respects as if this Act had not been passed. At such election the electoral districts shall be the electoral districts as bounded at the commencement of this Act, and the rolls shall be the rolls in force at such commencement together with any supplemental rolls prepared in accordance with section forty-six of the Principal Act.

Provision for case of dissolution prior to preparation of rolls for 1926.

6. (1) Upon the issue of the writs for the first general election after the passing of this Act to be conducted upon the basis of single seat electorates in accordance with the provisions of the Principal Act as amended by this Act, the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Act, 1920, and the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Amendment Act, 1921, shall cease to have effect.

Repeal of Act
No. 18, 1920,
and Act
No. 6, 1921.

(2) Any provisions of the Principal Act which were repealed either expressly or impliedly by the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Act, 1920, or the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Amendment Act, 1921, shall, as from the date upon which the said Acts cease to have effect be revived, and are hereby re-enacted.

7.

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

Casual vacancies in Parliament elected on system of proportional representation.

7. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or the Principal Act or any redistribution of the boundaries of electoral districts, if a member of any Parliament of the State which is, either before or after the commencement of this Act, elected in accordance with the principles of proportional representation, ceases to be a member by death, resignation, or otherwise, the casual vacancy so occasioned shall be filled in accordance with the provisions of the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Act, 1920, and the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Amendment Act, 1921; and for the purposes of the said Acts, the constituency for which the vacancy has occurred shall be deemed to be the electoral district in respect of which such member was elected, as bounded at the date of the commencement of this Act.

Consequential amendments of
Act No. 41, 1912.

8. The Principal Act is amended—

- (f) If the elector's sight is so impaired that he cannot vote without assistance, the authorised witness, if so requested by the elector, shall mark the elector's vote on the ballot-paper in the presence of a witness, according to the instructions of the elector and shall then and there fold the ballot-paper so that the vote cannot be seen, place the ballot-paper in the envelope addressed to the Returning Officer, fasten the envelope, and hand it to the voter, who shall forthwith post or deliver it, or cause it to be posted or delivered, to the Returning Officer.

Further Directions to Authorised Witness.

The authorised witness shall not, unless the elector's sight is so impaired that he cannot vote without assistance, look at or make himself acquainted with the vote given by the elector, and, except as provided in paragraph (f) of the preceding Directions, shall not suffer or permit any person (other than the elector) to see or become acquainted with the elector's vote, or to assist the elector to vote, or to interfere in any way with the elector in relation to his vote.

Every authorised witness shall—

- (a) comply with the preceding directions in so far as they are to be complied with on his part;
- (b) see that the preceding directions are complied with by every elector voting by post before him, and by every person present when the elector votes; and
- (c) refrain from disclosing any knowledge of the vote of any elector voting by post before him.

Penalty : One hundred pounds, or imprisonment for three months.

Duty of Persons Present when an Elector Votes by Post.

Any person present when an elector is before an authorised witness for the purpose of voting by post shall—

- (a) obey all directions of the authorised witness;
- (b) refrain from making any communication whatever to the elector in relation to his vote;
- (c) refrain from assisting the elector or in any manner interfering with him in relation to his vote;
- (d) except as provided in paragraph (f) of the Directions to Elector and Authorised Witness, refrain from looking at the elector's vote or from doing anything whereby he might become acquainted with the elector's vote.

Penalty : One hundred pounds, or imprisonment for three months.

Sec. 115.

An elector shall record his vote on a postal ballot-paper or an absent voter's ballot-paper by writing opposite to the square containing the figure 1 the name of the candidate for whom he desires to give his first preference vote.

The elector may, if he so desires, give contingent votes for all or any of the remaining candidates by writing opposite the squares containing the figures 2, 3, 4, and so on, the names of the respective candidates to indicate in numerical sequence the order of his preference.

SCHEDULE

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

Sec. 126 (1A).

SCHEDULE EIGHTEEN.

Method of counting votes.

1. (a) The Returning Officer shall count the total number of first preference votes given for each candidate.

(b) The candidate who has received the largest number of first preference votes shall, if that number constitutes an absolute majority of votes, be elected.

(c) If no candidate has received an absolute majority of first preference votes the Returning Officer shall make a second count.

(d) On the second count the candidate who has received the fewest first preference votes shall be excluded, and each unexhausted ballot-paper counted to him shall be counted to the candidate next in the order of the voter's preference.

(e) If a candidate then has an absolute majority of votes he shall be declared elected, but if no candidate then has an absolute majority of votes, the process of excluding the candidate who has the fewest votes and counting each of his unexhausted ballot-papers to the continuing candidate next in the order of the voter's preference shall be repeated by the Returning Officer until one candidate has received an absolute majority of votes.

(f) The candidate who has received an absolute majority of votes shall be declared elected.

2. In the process of counting, exhausted ballot-papers shall be set aside as finally dealt with, and shall thenceforth not be taken into account in ascertaining the result of the poll.

3. (a) When a candidate is excluded, each ballot-paper counted to him shall be deemed to be exhausted if there is not indicated upon it a next preference for one continuing candidate.

(b) "Next preference" in the last preceding subparagraph includes the first of the subsequent preferences marked on the ballot-paper which is not given to an excluded candidate.

Provided that where there is a break in the consecutive numbering of preferences marked on a ballot-paper, only those preferences preceding the break shall be taken into account.

4. In this Schedule "continuing candidate" means a candidate not already excluded from the count.

5. If on any count two or more candidates have an equal number of votes, and one of them has to be excluded, the Returning Officer shall decide by lot which shall be excluded.

6. In this Schedule "an absolute majority of votes" means a greater number than one-half of the whole number of ballot-papers other than informal and exhausted ballot-papers. The casting vote of the Returning Officer, given in pursuance of subsection two of section one hundred and twenty-six of this Act, shall be included in reckoning an absolute majority of votes.

SCHEDULE NINETEEN.

PROCEDURE IN RELATION TO ENFORCEMENT OF PROVISIONS OF SECTION 52A.

Notification
in respect of offence.

1. Subject to such directions as are issued by the Chief Electoral Officer, the Registrar shall, if satisfied that a person has failed to comply with the requirements of section 52A of this Act, forthwith notify such person in the prescribed form of such failure, and inform him that he may reply by Statutory Declaration, setting out any facts relevant to the matter, and that he has the option of having the matter dealt with either by the Chief Electoral Officer or by a Court of Petty Sessions.

Consent to
matter being dealt with by
Chief Electoral Officer.

2. Any person so notified who desires the matter to be dealt with by the Chief Electoral Officer may notify the Registrar accordingly.

Proceedings
upon receipt of consent to
matter being dealt with by
Chief Electoral Officer.
Sec. 52A.

3. Upon the receipt from a person so notified of a notification consenting to the matter being dealt with by the Chief Electoral Officer, the Registrar shall consider the statements contained in the Statutory Declaration (if any) submitted by the person, make such further inquiry as he deems necessary, and, unless he decides not to proceed further, transmit the Statutory Declaration (if any) and notification, with a report as to the facts and his opinion thereon, to the Chief Electoral Officer.

Action by Chief
Electoral Officer
upon receipt of report from Registrar.

4. The Chief Electoral Officer shall consider all the facts, and if satisfied that the person concerned is in default or has contravened the provisions of section 52A, may make an order imposing upon that person a penalty not exceeding Ten shillings for a first offence, and not exceeding Two pounds for any subsequent offence, and notify the Registrar thereof and of the time allowed for payment.

Penalty to be a debt due to Crown.

5. Any penalty so imposed by the Chief Electoral Officer shall be a debt due to the Crown.

Notification
of imposition of penalty.

6. The Registrar, upon receipt of advice from the Chief Electoral Officer that a penalty has been so imposed upon any person, shall notify the person in the prescribed form.

Enforcement of penalties.

7. Any order so made by the Chief Electoral Officer imposing a penalty may be filed in any Court of Petty Sessions, and thereupon the order shall have effect and be enforceable as if it were an order of that Court.

Proceedings
where matter not dealt with by Chief Electoral Officer.
Sec. 52A.

8. Where any person to whom a notification pursuant to paragraph one of this Schedule has been sent fails, within the time allowed, to reply thereto, or does not within that time consent to the matter being dealt with by the Chief Electoral Officer, the Registrar shall, subject to such directions as are issued by the Chief Electoral Officer, if he is satisfied that such person has contravened section 52A of the Act, cause proceedings to be instituted against him in the Court of the district in which such person resides.

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

9. Where the Registrar so directs, the Deputy-Registrar for the polling-place area in which the defendant resides may institute proceedings in his own name, and in any such proceedings the authority of the Deputy-Registrar shall not be questioned.

Deputy-Registrar may institute proceedings.

10. If, in any case in which proceedings are instituted in a Court of Petty Sessions, the Registrar has received from the person concerned a Statutory Declaration in pursuance of paragraph one of this Schedule he shall, as far as it is practicable and necessary for him to do so, inquire into the truth of the statements therein set out, and shall, unless he withdraws the prosecution, cause the declaration to be brought to the notice of the Court.

Statutory declaration to be brought to notice of Court.

11. The Court shall at the hearing of the case consider the Statutory Declaration (whether the defendant is present or not) as if the matter therein set out had been given in evidence before it.

Court to consider statutory declaration.

12. In any prosecution in respect of any contravention of section 52A of this Act the prosecuting officer may lodge with the Court a statutory declaration in support of the charge, and it shall not then be necessary for him to attend at the hearing, and the Court shall proceed with the hearing and determination of the case in his absence, and shall consider the statutory declaration as if the matter set out therein had been given in evidence before it.

Declaration by prosecuting officer to be considered by Court.

13. For the purpose of paragraphs ten and twelve of this Schedule any document purporting to be a statutory declaration shall be accepted as such by the Court without proof of the signatures thereon or proof of the authority of the person before whom it purports to have been made to take statutory declarations.

Document purporting to be a statutory declaration.

10. It shall not be necessary or deemed to have been necessary to make out lists or rolls of electors under the Principal Act for the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five.

Validation.

11. (1) The electoral districts as bounded at the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to be the electorates or electoral districts for the purposes of the Liquor Act, 1912, and Part II of the Liquor (Amendment) Act, 1919, as subsequently amended, notwithstanding the redistribution directed by this Act.

Existing districts to be electoral districts for the purposes of Act No. 42, 1912 and Act No. 42, 1919.

(2) The Liquor (Amendment) Act, 1919, is amended—

Amendment of Act No. 42, 1919, s. 11.

(a) by omitting from paragraph (a) of subsection one of section eleven the words "for the time being";

(b)

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

- (b) by inserting in the same paragraph after the figures 1912 the words "prior to the commencement of the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment) Act, 1926";
- (c) by omitting from subsection two of section eleven the words "for the time being."

Repeals.
