Second-hand Dealers and Collectors (Amendment) Bill.

MEMORANDUM.

THE object of the Bill is to make four small amendments in the Second-hand Dealers and Collectors Act, 1906.

The amendment proposed to section four is to allow a Clerk of Petty Sessions to deal with applications to which the Police have no objection. This amendment was suggested by one of the Clerks of Petty Sessions.

The amendment proposed to section nineteen is to avoid the necessity of keeping a distinct register in Courts of Petty Sessions. The action taken is endorsed upon the papers which are filed and registered in a general register. This amendment was suggested by one of the Clerks of Petty Sessions.

The amendment to paragraph three of section twenty-four is proposed to enable a stricter supervision over the trading in second-hand tools. It has been represented that there has been a considerable amount of thieving of carpenters' tools from large building jobs; and it is hoped that some means may be found to check the trade in such stolen articles. It is thought better that the steps to be taken should be provided for in regulations, as amendments and variations to meet circumstances disclosed by experience will be more readily and easily made.

The third amendment proposed to section twenty-four is designed to bring the regulation section into accord with the form adopted in most recent Acts.

The last amendment proposed is to correct a series of errors in the forms in the Schedules, in which the title of the Act is wrongly cited.
