Regulations to the said Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund and the said Association appertaining, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, the said Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund and the funds of the said The Association for the Relief of Widows and Orphans of Ministers of the Presbyterian Church of New South Wales were amalgamated, and all moneys and securities belonging to the said funds so amalgamated as aforesaid were transferred to and became vested in the corporate trustees of the said Church for behoof of the said amalgamated fund, and a committee to be known as the Beneficiary Fund Committee was duly appointed by the said General Assembly for the administration of the said amalgamated Fund, which was thereafter to be called the Beneficiary Fund of the Presbyterian Church of Australia in the State of New South Wales: And whereas by resolution of the said last-mentioned General Assembly in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four it was affirmed that it was advisable to extend the scope of the said Beneficiary Fund and the powers of the said General Assembly in relation thereto by Act of Parliament: And whereas by resolution of the said General Assembly in the said last-mentioned year it was affirmed that ministers and widows and orphans of ministers of the Presbyterian Church of Australia in the State of Western Australia should be admitted to the benefits of the said Beneficiary Fund upon such terms and conditions as the said General Assembly might approve: And whereas there stand to the credit of the said Beneficiary Fund large sums of money and valuable securities: And whereas there are many persons interested in the said Beneficiary Fund as beneficiaries pursuant to the regulations appertaining to the said Fund, some of whom are infants or otherwise incapable of consenting to the arrangements and alterations hereinbefore mentioned: And whereas doubts have arisen as to the powers and authority of the said General Assembly in respect of the said amalgamation and the said control, administration, and regulation of the said

Beneficiary Fund of the Presbyterian Church of Australia, in the State of New South Wales.

Beneficiary Fund and the moneys and securities thereunto appertaining, and as to the admission to the said Beneficiary Fund of ministers and widows and orphans of ministers not belonging to the Presbyterian Church of Australia in the State of New South Wales: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority or the same as follows:—

Amalgamation of funds.

1. The amalgamation of the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund of the Presbyterian Church of Australia in the State of New South Wales and the funds of the Association for the Relief of Widows and Orphans of Ministers of the Presbyterian Church of New South Wales in a fund to be called the Beneficiary Fund of the Presbyterian Church of Australia in the State of New South Wales and hereinafter referred to as "The Beneficiary Fund," directed to be carried into execution by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of Australia in the State of New South Wales, hereinafter referred to as the "General Assembly," and to take effect from the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, and all transfers of the said funds and securities made to the corporate trustees of the said Church on account of the said amalgamated fund, and all acts done and arrangements made pursuant to the execution of the said scheme of amalgamation are hereby validated and declared to have been of full force and effect both at law and in equity according to the tenor of the resolutions of the said General Assembly and the regulations made in relation thereto as and from the first day of July in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, and the said regulations are hereby validated and are declared to have had full force and effect both at law and in equity from the said first day of July in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, or the date of their enactment if subsequent to the said date.

Beneficiary Fund of the Presbyterian Church of Australia, in the State of New South Wales.

2. And the General Assembly is hereby empowered and authorised to control and administer the Beneficiary Fund and for such purpose to enact from time to time such regulations as it may deem expedient for the government of the Beneficiary Fund, anything in the regulations of the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund and in the rules of the Association for the Relief of Widows and Orphans of Ministers of the Presbyterian Church of New South Wales notwithstanding, and in particular (but without limiting the generality of the general power of control hereby conferred) for the determination or alteration of the basis or rate of contribution, the qualifications of membership, the amount of benefit, and the conditions attaching to the Beneficiary Fund.

General Assembly empowered to control and administer fund.

3. The General Assembly is hereby empowered to delegate to such committee as it may from time to time appoint the general administration of the Beneficiary Fund, and the acts and arrangements of all committees appointed by the General Assembly to administer the Beneficiary Fund since the said amalgamation are hereby validated and declared to have had full force and effect both at law and in equity.

General Assembly empowered to delegate administration of fund.

4. All moneys and securities or investments belonging to the Beneficiary Fund shall be and remain vested in the corporate trustees of the Presbyterian Church of Australia in the State of New South Wales and shall be applied by them for the purposes of the Beneficiary Fund in accordance with the regulations for the time being of the General Assembly relating to the Beneficiary Fund. The corporate trustees shall have such powers of investing the moneys belonging to the Beneficiary Fund and of varying the securities and investments thereunto belonging as they possess in relation to the properties, securities, and investments of the Presbyterian Church of Australia in the State of New South Wales in general.

Moneys and securities or investments of fund shall be vested in corporate trustees.

5. The General Assembly is hereby empowered to admit to the benefits of the Beneficiary Fund such persons or class of persons as it may approve, whether resident in the State of New South Wales or not, and upon such terms and conditions as to contributions, benefits, and otherwise as it may deem proper.

General Assembly empowered to admit persons to benefit of fund.
