Birds and Animals Protection (Amendment) Bill, 1930.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

THE object of the Bill is to remedy certain defects in the Birds and Animals Protection Act, 1918, which have been discovered in the administration of that Act; to prohibit, inter alia, traffic in birds and animals without the written permission of the Minister; and to repeal the Birds and Animals Protection (Amendment) Act, 1922.

Clause 2. Amends the definition of protected bird or animal to include the skin or any part, also the feathers and eggs of a bird.

Clause 3. Amends section 7 of the Principal Act so that the requirement of a license for the taking for sale purposes during the period of an open season extends to protected birds only, and provides for a royalty on the skins. The provisions may be applied to animals by proclamation.

Clause 4. Amends section 8 of the Principal Act to provide for the case of birds received in this State from other places, in addition to any State or territory of the Commonwealth of Australia or the Dominion of New Zealand; to provide for licenses being issued for the importation of any bird or animal; and to empower the Governor to exempt by proclamation, under certain conditions, any bird or animal from the provisions of section 8; and to provide for the disposal of confiscated skins, &c.

Clause 5. Repeals section 9 of the Principal Act and substitutes a new section providing-

(1) that the land described in the Third Schedule should be a district;

(2) that all land within a radius of one mile from any public school should be a district,

(3) that the Governor may declare by proclamation any other land as a district;

(4) that the Governor may declare by proclamation what birds or animals may be taken or killed within a district, and either generally or within certain specified periods;

(5) conditions under which birds and animal- may be taken within a district, and for penalties.

Clause 6. Amends section 10 of the Principal Act by enlarging the power to prosecute persons "found" within a district.

Clause 7. Repeals section 11 of the Principal Act, and substitutes a new section providing that in addition to the police, public school teachers, conditional purchase inspectors, officers and employees of the Forestry Commission on State Forests, stock inspectors, fruit inspectors, inspectors of fisheries, and rangers under the Metropolitan Water, Sewerage, and Drainage Act, 1924, shall, by virtue of their office, be rangers, and for the appointment of honorary rangers.

Clause 8. Repeals section 17 of the Principal Act, as inserted by section 2 of the Birds and Animals Protection (Amendment) Act, 1922, and inserts new section to provide that all protected birds and animals until taken in accordance with the provisions of the Principal Act shall be the property of the Crown; to probabilit the traffic in birds or animals without permission in writing by the Minister; and repeals the Birds and Animals Protection (Amendment) Act, 1922.

Clause 9. Empowers the Minister to insert conditions in licenses granted under sections 18 and 19 of the Act.

Clause 10. Provides for the imposition of a minimum penalty of twenty shillings and for the forfeiture of firearms, &c., of any person convicted of an offence against any of the provisions of the Act or regulations.

Clause 11. Prohibits the use of, or possession with intent to use, cyanide or other poison for the destruction of protected birds and animals, and empowers the Court to impose a term of imprisonment for any such offence.

Clause 12. Provides for-

(a) the prohibition of the use of bird lime or similar preparations for taking birds; and

(b) for the disposal of any protected bird or animal, or part thereof, as the Court may direct in the case of a conviction under sections 21, 24 and 24A of the Principal Act.

Clause 13. Enlarges the power to make regulations in several important particulars, to enable royalties to be collected, and also enabling the Minister's power to issue licenses to be delegated to prescribed officers.

Clause 14. Corrects certain errors in the description of a district (Sanctuary).

This Public Bill originated in the Legislative Assembly, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the Legislative Council for its concurrence.

S. G. BOYDELL, Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.
