ANNO UNDEVICESIMO

GEORGII V REGIS.

Act No. 6, 1929.

An Act to amend the Dried Fruits Act, 1927, in certain respects; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 28th March, 1929.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Dried Fruits Short title. (Amendment) Act, 1929," and shall be read and construed with the Dried Fruits Act, 1927, which in this Act is referred to as the Principal Act.

(2) The Principal Act, as amended by this Act, may be cited as the Dried Fruits Act, 1927-1929.

I have examined this Bill, and find it to correspond in all respects with the Bill as finally passed by both Houses.

R. B. WALKER,
Chairman of Committees of the Legislative Assembly.

Dried Fruits (Amendment).

Amendment of
Act No. 13, 1927.
Sec. 1.

2. The Principal Act is amended as follows:—

(a) by inserting at the end of section one the following new subsection:—

Construction.

(2) This Act shall be read and construed subject to the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act, and so as not to exceed the legislative power of the State, to the intent that where any enactment thereof would but for this section have been construed as being in excess of that power it shall nevertheless be a valid enactment to the extent to which it is not in excess of that power.

(Interpretation.)

(b) (i) by omitting from section three the definition of "Dealer" and by inserting in lieu thereof the following definition:—

"Dealer" means any person who sells in any one year more than one ton of dried fruits whether on his own behalf or as agent for another person, but does not include—

- (a) a shopkeeper who sells only such dried fruits as he buys from registered dealers; or
- (b) a grower who sells the dried fruits produced by him to only a registered packing shed or a registered dealer;
- (c) an auctioneer who sells dried fruits in the ordinary course of his business.

(ii) by omitting from the definition of "Grower" in the same section the words "of any one variety of the dried fruits to which this Act applies";

(iii) by inserting in the same section next after the definition of "Grower" the following new definition:—

"Inspector" means any person appointed as an inspector for the purposes of this Act.

3.

*Dried Fruits (Amendment).3. The Principal Act is further amended—Further amendment of
Act No. 13, 1927
New s. 3A.

- (a) by inserting next after section three the following new section:—

3A. (1) The Governor may by regulation declare any variety of dried fruits produced in Australia to be a dried fruit for the purposes of this Act.

Extension of Act.

(2) Any such regulation shall take effect from a date specified in the regulation not earlier than three months after the date of the publication of the regulation in the Gazette.

- (b) by inserting in section three at the end of the definition of "dried fruits" the words "and any other variety of dried fruit produced in Australia as are declared by the regulations to be a dried fruit for the purposes of this Act."

Sec. 3.
(Definitions.)4. The Principal Act is further amended—Further amendment of
Act No. 13, 1927.
New s. 8.

- (a) by omitting section eight and by inserting in lieu thereof the following new section:—

8. (1) The Governor may, on the recommendation of the board, appoint a secretary and any other officers, inspectors, agents, or servants necessary to enable the board to carry out its duties and functions.

Officers.

The board may authorise any other persons to do such acts and things as it deems necessary for carrying out the provisions of this Act.

(2) The Commission may allow the services of any of its officers, inspectors, and servants to be utilised by the board on such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between the Commission and the board.

- (b) by omitting section nine and by inserting in lieu thereof the following new section:—

New s. 9.

9. (1) Towards the cost of defraying the expenditure involved in the administration of this Act, and of carrying out the duties and functions of the board thereunder, there shall be a contribution by every grower in respect of dried fruits produced by him.

Board may levy contribution.

Such

Dried Fruits (Amendment).

Such contribution shall be on the basis, at the times, and in the manner prescribed, and the rates may vary as prescribed for different varieties of dried fruits.

(2) In the case of any dried fruits other than those mentioned in subsection one of this section, and which are prepared, stemmed, processed, graded, sorted, or packed at any packing shed, there shall be a like contribution by the owner of the dried fruit.

(3) The board may at its discretion collect the contribution direct from the grower or the owner of the fruit, or on his behalf, from the owner or proprietor of the packing shed to which the fruit has been delivered by the grower.

In the latter case the owner or proprietor may reimburse himself out of any moneys payable by him to the grower, and in the event of his not being in possession of any moneys payable to the grower, may recover as a debt from the grower the amount of the contribution paid by such owner or proprietor to the board.

(4) Any contribution unpaid may be recovered by the board as a debt in any court of competent jurisdiction from the grower, or owner or proprietor of a packing shed, as the case may require.
