An Act to amend the Family Endowment Act, 1927, as amended by the Family Endowment (Amendment) Act, 1927, in certain respects; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 16th June, 1928.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Family Endowment (Amendment) Act, 1928," and shall be construed with the Family Endowment Act, 1927, as amended by the Family Endowment (Amendment) Act, 1927.

Short title.

Family Endowment (Amendment).

(2) The Family Endowment Act, 1927, as so amended, is hereinafter referred to as the Principal Act.

(3) The Principal Act, as amended by this Act, may be cited as the Family Endowment Act, 1927-28.

Amendment of Act No.
39, 1927.
Sec. 3.
(Interpretation.)

2. (1) The Principal Act is hereby amended by omitting from the definition of "Employee" in section three the words "domestic service or" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "domestic service otherwise than in connection with his employer's trade or business or any person."

(2) The amendment made by subsection one of this section shall be deemed to have come into operation at the commencement of the Family Endowment Act, 1927.

Every employer and other person liable so to do shall within fourteen days from the commencement of this Act, lodge in accordance with the Regulations for the time being in force under the Family Endowment Act, 1927-1928, the returns required by such Regulations for the periods from the twenty-third day of July, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven to the thirty-first day of August, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven and of the months of September and October, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven, in respect of the wages of persons employed in domestic service in connection with the employer's trade or business.

Every employer or other person who fails to lodge any such return as aforesaid within the time hereinbefore limited shall be guilty of an offence against the Regulations made under section forty-one of the Family Endowment Act, 1927-1928, relating to the furnishing of returns.

3. The Principal Act is further amended—

- (a) (i) by omitting from subsection four of section thirteen the words "but only of such a sum as together with the pension will amount to five shillings per week for such child."

Sec. 14 (4).
(Qualifications.)

- (iv) by inserting at the end of the same subsection the following new paragraph :—

If the incomes of the spouse and children under the age of fourteen years cannot after due inquiry be ascertained, they may be disregarded in computing the family income.

Sec. 14 (5).
(Ibid.)

- (v) by inserting at the end of subsection five of the same section the words “so far as such incomes can after due inquiry be ascertained.”

Sec. 14.
New
sub-sec. (6).
Ibid.

- (vi) by inserting at the end of the same section the following new subsections :—

(6) For the purposes of this section the period of twelve months may be taken by the commissioner to be fifty-two weeks and may where an employee's pay is concerned be taken by him to be the period of fifty-two weeks ending on the last pay day preceding the date of the claim, and the words “appropriate to the case” in subsection two shall be taken to mean in the case of an employer or self employer or an employee where no other living wage is applicable the living wage in force for the time being in the Metropolitan area.

(7) Where a person in receipt of endowment in respect of a child desires to apply for endowment in respect of an additional child such application shall be supplementary to the claim in respect of the first-mentioned child and unless otherwise required by the Commissioner before or after the making of the application the particulars and information supplied or obtained in and in connection with the claim already granted (including the ascertainment of the family income) may be treated as applying to the supplementary application.

*Family Endowment (Amendment).4. The Principal Act is further amended—Further amendment.
Act No. 39, 1927.

- (a) by inserting at the end of section twenty-one the following new subsection :—

Sec. 21.

New subsection (5).(Determination of claim.)

(5) Where the child was at the date of lodgment of the claim under fourteen years of age endowment may be granted notwithstanding that the child has attained that age or has died at or before the determination by the commissioner of the claim in respect of that child.

- (b) by inserting the following as subsection (3A) of section twenty-one :—

(3A) When a claim or application is made within six weeks from the birth of the child or such longer period as the Commissioner may, in a special case, allow endowment may be granted in respect of such child from the date of its birth.

- (c) by inserting at the end of section thirty the following new subsection :—

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, where an application for endowment for a further period is lodged prior to expiry of the period for which endowment has been granted the Commissioner may, as regards children in respect of whom the application is made and the endowment has been granted, authorise the continuance of endowment after the expiry of such period until the first mentioned application is determined.

- (d) (i) by omitting from subsection one of section thirty-six the words “is divorced from or is living apart from her husband and” ;
- (ii) by inserting in the same subsection after the word “commissioner” the words “who shall consider the position of the mother (if any)” ;

(iii)

I certify that this PUBLIC BILL, which originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, has finally passed the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL and the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY of NEW SOUTH WALES.

Monthly Report (1901) January 1901

REVENUE

The following table shows the revenue received from the various sources during the month of January 1901, compared with the same month of the previous year. The total revenue for the month was $1,234,567, which is an increase of $123,456 over the same month of the previous year. The increase is due to an increase in the revenue from the various sources, particularly from the customs duties and the excise taxes.
