Chairman of Committees of the Legislative Assembly.

Industrial Arbitration (Amendment).

Construction. (2) This Act shall be read and construed with the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts (herein referred to as the Principal Act), and the Industrial Arbitration (Amendment) Act, 1926.

Amendment of Act No. 14, 1926. 2. (1) Section six of the Industrial Arbitration (Amendment) Act, 1926, is amended—

Sec. 6 (1), (2), (3). New subsecs. Industrial Commission. (a) by omitting subsections one, two, and three, and by inserting in lieu thereof the following new subsections:—

(1) There shall be an Industrial Commission of New South Wales constituted by the appointment by the Governor of three members, one of whom shall be by his commission appointed President.

The Commission shall be a superior court of record, and its seal shall be judicially noticed.

(2) A person to be qualified for appointment as a member shall be a puisne judge of the Supreme Court, a District Court judge, a barrister of not less than five years' standing, or a solicitor of not less than seven years' standing.

Each member shall, subject to this section, hold office during good behaviour, shall have the same rank, title, status, and precedence and the same salary, pension and other rights as a puisne judge of the Supreme Court, and shall be removable from office in the same manner only as a judge of the Supreme Court is by law liable to be removed from his office.

Such salary and pension shall be charged upon and be payable out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

Each member shall retire on the day on which he attains the age of seventy years, unless he is granted retiring leave, in which case he shall retire on the expiration of such leave.

A member of the Commission shall not be capable of accepting or holding any other office or any other place of profit within the State, except any such judicial office as may be conferred upon him by or under any law of the State.

(3) If a member of the Commission is prevented by any cause from attending to his duties as such, the Governor may appoint some person qualified to be appointed a member to act temporarily as a member of the Commission, and such person shall, while so acting, have all the powers of a member of the Commission.

- (b) (i) by omitting from subsection four the words "qualified to be appointed commissioner." Sec. 6 (4). (Deputy Commissioner.)
- (ii) by omitting from the same subsection all the words after the word "exercise" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words: "the jurisdiction and powers of the Commission in all matters referred to him by the Commission provided that at the request of any party he shall, or, of his own motion, he may remit any question arising in any such matter to the Commission for its opinion and direction."

Upon the hearing of any matter so referred the members, other than the chairman of the Conciliation Committee for the industry or calling shall, if the Commission or the Deputy Commissioner so direct, sit with the Deputy Commissioner but as assessors only and without vote. The Commission may grant leave to appeal to the Commission against any order or award made by the Deputy Commissioner, and on such appeal may vary any such order or award in such manner as it thinks just.

The deputy Commissioner may from time to time, if he thinks fit, or when the Commission so directs assume and exercise the powers

Sec. 6 (5) (6)
(7) (8) (9).

- (c) by omitting subsections five, six, seven, eight and nine and by inserting in lieu thereof the following new subsections:—

New
sub-secs. (5)
(6) (7).

(5) On appointment the members of the Commission, and the Deputy Commissioner, shall take the Oath of Allegiance and the Judicial Oath.

This subsection extends to a person appointed to act temporarily as a member.

(6) The Commission may direct the deputy commissioner, a committee or any chairman of a committee or the industrial registrar to inquire into any matter as to which it requires information for the purpose of the exercise of the jurisdiction of the Commission.

The Deputy Commissioner, committee, chairman, or registrar shall inquire accordingly and report to the Commission.

For the purpose of any such inquiry the Deputy Commissioner, committee, chairman, or registrar may summon any person, administer oaths, and take affidavits and examine parties and witnesses.

The provisions of section thirty-four of the Principal Act shall extend to any such inquiry.

Every person so summoned shall be bound to attend upon such summons and shall for disobedience thereto be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds.

(7) At sittings of the Commission all members shall be present, and any question shall be decided according to the decision of the majority :

Provided, however, that the Commission may in any particular matter delegate any of its powers or functions to any one member. From any order or award made by such member

---

(2) This Act shall be read and construed with Construction.
the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts (herein referred to as the Principal Act), and the Industrial Arbitration (Amendment) Act, 5 1926.

2. (1) Section six of the Industrial Arbitration Amendment (Amendment) Act, 1926, is amended— of Act No.
14, 1926.

(a) by omitting subsections one, two, and three, Sec. 6 (1), (2),
and by inserting in lieu thereof the following (3).
10 new subsections:— New subsecs.
Industrial Commission.

(1) There shall be an Industrial Commission of New South Wales constituted by the appointment by the Governor of three members, one of whom shall be by his commission appointed President.
15

The Commission shall be a superior court of record, and its seal shall be judicially noticed.

(2) A person to be qualified for appointment as a member shall be a puisne judge of the 20 Supreme Court, a District Court judge, a barrister of not less than five years' standing,
or a solicitor of not less than seven years'
standing.

Each member shall, subject to this section, 25 hold office during good behaviour, shall have the same rank, title, status, and precedence
and the same salary, pension and other rights as a puisne judge of the Supreme Court, and shall be removable from office in the same 30 manner only as a judge of the Supreme Court is by law liable to be removed from his office.

Such salary and pension shall be charged upon and be payable out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

35 Each member shall retire on the day on which he attains the age of seventy years, unless he is granted retiring leave, in which case he shall retire on the expiration of such leave.

Industrial Arbitration (Amendment).

A member of the Commission shall not be capable of accepting or holding any other office or any other place of profit within the State, except any such judicial office as may be conferred upon him by or under any law of the State.

(3) If a member of the Commission is prevented by any cause from attending to his duties as such, the Governor may appoint some person qualified to be appointed a member to act temporarily as a member of the Commission, and such person shall, while so acting, have all the powers of a member of the Commission.

(b) (i) by omitting from subsection four the words "qualified to be appointed commissioner." Sec. 6 (4). (Deputy Commissioner.)

(ii) by omitting from the same subsection all the words after the word "exercise" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words: "the jurisdiction and powers of the Commission in all matters referred to him by the Commission provided that at the request of any party he shall, or, of his own motion, he may remit any question arising in any such matter to the Commission for its opinion and direction."

The deputy Commissioner may from time to time, if he thinks fit, or when the Commission so directs assume and exercise the powers, functions, and jurisdiction of the chairman of the committee, whether or not the chairman is absent."

(c) by omitting subsections five, six, seven, eight and nine and by inserting in lieu thereof the following new subsections:—

(5) On appointment the members of the Commission, and the Deputy Commissioner, shall take the Oath of Allegiance and the Judicial Oath. New sub-secs. (5) (6) (7.)

This subsection extends to a person appointed to act temporarily as a member.

Industrial Arbitration (Amendment).

5 (6) The Commission may direct the deputy commissioner, a committee or any chairman of a committee or the industrial registrar to inquire into any matter as to which it requires information for the purpose of the exercise of the jurisdiction of the Commission.

The Deputy Commissioner, committee, chairman, or registrar shall inquire accordingly and report to the Commission.

10 For the purpose of any such inquiry the Deputy Commissioner, committee, chairman, or registrar may summon any person, administer oaths, and take affidavits and examine parties and witnesses.

15 The provisions of section thirty-four of the Principal Act shall extend to any such inquiry.

20 Every person so summoned shall be bound to attend upon such summons and shall for disobedience thereto be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds.

(7) At sittings of the Commission all members shall be present, and any question shall be decided according to the decision of the majority.

25 In any case in which it may be inconvenient for all of the members of the Commission to be present, the Commission may delegate any of its powers or functions to any one or more member or members of the Commission, but 30 no determination in any such case shall be made except after consideration by all the members of the Commission and in accordance with the decision of the majority.

35 (2) Section two of the Industrial Arbitration <sup>Sec. 2.</sup> (Amendment) Act, 1923, is amended by omitting the <sup>(Definition.)</sup> words "Commissioner means the Industrial Commissioner appointed under this Act."
